I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Sixto Alegria Fernandez (hereinafter “Plaintiff”) seeks final approval of the Stipulation of Settlement of Class and PAGA Action Claims and Release of Claims (“Agreement”)<sup>1</sup>, which if approved, would provide valuable monetary relief for 143 Settlement Class Members employed by Hilton Grand Vacations Company LLC, Hilton Resorts Corporation dba Hilton Grand Vacations and Hilton Grand Vacations Club, LLC (hereinafter “Defendants”) during the Class Period.

In an order dated October 8, 2025, this Court preliminarily approved the Agreement and preliminarily certified the Class. (Declaration of Sydney Castillo-Johnson (“SCJ Dec.”), ¶ 4.). On October 31, 2025, the Court-approved Class Notice was mailed to all 143 Class Members via U.S. First Class Mail. Declaration of Karla Nava (“Apex Dec.”), ¶ 6. As of the filing of this motion, there are zero opt-outs and zero objections to the Settlement. (Apex Dec., ¶¶ 11-13.). The unanimous approval by the Settlement Class evidences the clear fairness and reasonableness of the Settlement. (SCJ Dec., ¶ 7.).

An objective evaluation of the proposed settlement of Two Hundred Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($200,000.00) (“Gross Settlement Amount”) confirms that the relief negotiated on behalf of the Settlement Class is fair, reasonable, and valuable. The Settlement is a product of informed, adversarial, and non-collusive negotiations, between experienced counsel, and with Lou Marlin, Esq., a mediator of wage and hour class actions. After deducting any Court-approved Class Counsel Award, Class Representative Service Award, Settlement Administration Expenses, and the PAGA Payment, the Net Settlement Amount shall be distributed to the Settlement Class Members based on the number of Workweeks they worked while employed by Defendants during the Class Period. (SCJ Dec., ¶ 7.).

This Settlement provides substantial recovery to Settlement Class Members. Plaintiff estimates that the Settlement, if approved, would result in a Net Settlement Amount of approximately $81,843.34. (Apex Dec., ¶ 15.). This will result in an average Individual Settlement Payment of $572.33, a high payment of $2,915.43, and a low payment of $11.13. (Apex Dec., ¶ 16.). Aggrieved Employees will receive an estimated average Aggrieved Employee Payment of $34.25, a high payment of $79.45, and <sup>1</sup> The Agreement is attached as Ex “1” to the Declaration of Sydney Castillo-Johnson (“SCJ Dec.”) at ¶ 3. All citations to the Agreement incorporate by this reference a citation to the SCJ Dec., ¶ 3. Further, unless indicated otherwise, capitalized terms used herein have the same meaning as those defined by the Agreement.

1 a low payment of $1.37. (Apex Dec ¶ 18.).

2 The relief offered by the Settlement is immediate and is particularly impressive when viewed 3 against the difficulties encountered by plaintiffs pursuing similar wage-and-hour cases (see infra).
4 Indeed, by settling now rather than proceeding to trial, the Settlement Class will not have to wait
5 (possibly years) for relief, nor will they have to bear the risks associated with prolonged and uncertain
6 litigation. (SCJ Dec., ¶ 8.).

7 As discussed below, the proposed Settlement satisfies all criteria for final settlement approval
8 under California law and falls well within the range of reasonableness. Accordingly, the Class
9 Representative and Class Counsel respectfully request this Court grant final approval of the Agreement
10 and entry of the proposed Final Approval Order and Judgment. (SCJ Dec., ¶ 9.).

11 II. OVERVIEW OF THE LITIGATION

12 Defendants own and operate hotels throughout the world, including hotels in the state of 13 California, including the county of Riverside, where Plaintiff worked. Plaintiff worked for Defendants 14 in California from March 2023 to October 2023. During his employment, Plaintiff claims that he was 15 denied legally compliant meal and rest periods, and minimum wages and overtime compensation.
16 Throughout his employment, Plaintiff was subject to Defendants' written policies and procedures 17 contained in, among other documents, "Team Member Handbook". (SCJ Dec., ¶ 10; Declaration of 18 Sixto Alegria Fernandez ("SAF" Dec.) ¶ 3.).

19 Generally, Plaintiff claims that Defendants failed to provide compliant meal and rest periods, 20 failed to pay for all time worked, failed to reimburse necessary business expenses, and failed to furnish 21 accurate, itemized wage statements. Defendants deny liability for each of Plaintiff's claims. Further,
22 Defendants assert that it fully complied with all applicable employment laws and raised several other
23 significant defenses to Plaintiff's claims, including but not limited to, asserting that they maintained
24 facially compliant meal and rest period policies, paid their employees for all hours worked, and properly
25 reimbursed all necessary business expenses. (SCJ Dec., ¶ 11.).

26 On February 5, 2024, Plaintiff served Defendants and the Labor and Workforce Development
27 Agency ("LWDA") with a Notice of Violations ("PAGA Notice"). Plaintiff's PAGA Notice set forth
28 the facts and theories supporting Defendants' alleged violations of various provisions of the California

1 Labor Code and applicable Industrial Welfare Commissions (“IWC”) Wage Order and of his intent to 2 pursue claims under California Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act, Cal. Lab. Code Sections
3 2698 et seq (“PAGA”). (SCJ Dec., ¶ 12.).

4 On April 11, 2024, Plaintiff filed a class action complaint in the Riverside County Superior
5 Court, Case No. CVRI2402069 (“Class Action”). The Action alleged nine causes of action against 6 Defendants for: (1) Unfair Competition in Violation of Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200 et seq; (2)
7 Failure to Pay Minimum Wages in Violation of Cal. Lab. Code §§ 1194, 1197 & 1197.1; (3) Failure to 8 Pay Overtime Wages in Violation of Cal. Lab. Code §§ 510, et seq; (4) Failure to Provide Required
9 Meal Periods in Violation of Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7 & 512 and the Applicable IWC Wage Order; (5)
10 Failure to Provide Required Rest Periods in Violation of Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7 & 512 and the 11 Applicable IWC Wage Order; (6) Failure to Reimburse Employees for Required Expenses in Violation 12 of Cal. Lab. Code § 2802; (7) Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Statements in Violation of Cal.
13 Lab. Code § 226; (8) Failure to Provide Wages When Due in Violation of Cal. Lab. Code §§ 201, 202
14 and 203; and (9) Violation of the Private Attorneys General Act [Labor Code § § 2698 et seq.] (SCJ 15 Dec., ¶ 13.).

16 Prior to mediation, the Parties engaged in significant formal discovery, including the deposition
17 of Plaintiff. On February 13, 2025, the Parties participated in a full day mediation with Lou Marlin,
18 Esq., a mediator of wage and hour class and PAGA actions. The mediation concluded with a settlement
19 after both sides agreed to a Mediator’s proposal. Thereafter, the Parties drafted and negotiated a long-
20 form settlement agreement, which is the subject of the instant motion. (SCJ Dec., ¶ 14.).

21 On July 28, 2025, this Court granted preliminary approval of the Settlement. On October 8, 22 2025, this Court signed the Order granting preliminary approval of the Settlement. (SCJ Dec., ¶ 15.).
23 On October 31, 2025, the Settlement Administrator mailed Notice Packets to all 143 members of the 24 Class via U.S. First Class Mail. (Apex Dec., ¶ 7.). The mailing of the Notice Packets triggered a forty-25 five (45) day Response Deadline for the Settlement Class to submit requests for exclusion or objections
26 to the Settlement. The response from the Settlement Class to the Settlement to date has been 27 outstanding – 100% of the Class Members are currently participating in the Settlement. (Apex Dec., ¶ 28 11-13.).

III. THE SETTLEMENT BEFORE THE COURT

The Court preliminarily approved a Gross Settlement Amount of Two Hundred Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($200,000.00) based on a total of an estimated 7,324 Workweeks worked by the Class during the Class Period. The Gross Settlement Amount shall be used: (1) to satisfy Individual Settlement Payments; (2) to satisfy the Class Representative Service Award; (3) to satisfy the Class Counsel Award; (4) to satisfy the PAGA Payment; and (5) to satisfy the Settlement Administration Expenses incurred in this action. (SCJ Dec., ¶ 16.).

Defendants will fund the Settlement by transferring the Gross Settlement Amount into a Qualified Settlement Fund within ten (10) calendar days after the Effective Date. (Agreement, ¶ I(O).). The Settlement Administrator shall mail the Individual Settlement Payments and Aggrieved Employee Payments to the Settlement Class Members and/or Aggrieved Employee last known mailing address no later than fifteen (15) calendar days after Defendants fund the Gross Settlement Amount. (Id., ¶ III(M)(7).). Using the Class Data, the Settlement Administrator shall add up the total number of Workweeks for all Class Members. The respective Workweeks for each Class Member will be divided by the total Workweeks for all Class Members, resulting in the Payment Ratio for each Class Member. Each Class Member's Payment Ratio will then be multiplied by the Net Settlement Amount to calculate each Class Member's estimated Individual Settlement Payments. (Id., III(M)(1).). The average estimated Individual Settlement Payment is $572.33. (Apex Dec., ¶ 16.).

In exchange for valuable consideration, as of the funding of the Gross Settlement Amount, Plaintiff and the Settlement Class Members will release the Released Parties from the Released Class Claims for the Class Period. (Agreement, ¶¶ I(DD); III(B).). The Plaintiff and the State of California will release the Released Parties from the Released PAGA Claims for the PAGA Period. (Agreement at ¶¶ I(EF); III(C).).

Apex Class Action LLC is the Court-approved Settlement Administrator for this action. Settlement Administration Expenses include those expenses of effectuating and administering the Settlement, i.e., the costs incurred to the Settlement Administrator, the costs of giving notice to the Class, the costs of administering and disbursing the Individual Settlement Payments, and the fees of the Settlement Administrator ("Settlement Administration Expenses") approved for reimbursement by the

1 court. The Settlement Administration Expenses are $6,490.00. (Apex Dec, ¶ 15.). These expenses shall 2 be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount. (Agreement, ¶ I(P).).

3 Subject to Court approval, Class Counsel seeks a Class Counsel Award in the amount of 4 $86,666.66, comprised of attorneys' fees of $66,666.66 (one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount) and 5 up to $20,000 for actually incurred litigation expenses. Class Counsel's award for attorney's fees will 6 be divided between Class Counsel as follows: 50% to JCL Law Firm, APC; and 50% to Zakay Law
7 Group, APLC. (Agreement, ¶ I(F).). The Agreement also provides for a Class Representative Service
8 Award in the amount of $10,000 for Plaintiff, in consideration of his time, risk, and efforts as the Class
9 Representative on behalf of the Settlement Class. (Agreement, ¶¶ I(K); III(M)(9).).

10 As explained in further detail below, the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable to the class
11 and should be granted final approval. This is evidenced by the current unanimous approval of the 12 Settlement by the Settlement Class, the absence of any objections to the Settlement and the average 13 Individual Settlement Payment of $572.33. (Apex Dec., ¶¶ 11-14, 16, SCJ Dec., ¶ 17.).

14 IV. GENERAL STANDARDS APPLICABLE TO JUDICIAL REVIEW AND APPROVAL
15 OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENTS

16 Settlements of disputed claims are favored by the courts. (Huens v. Tatum (1997) 52 Cal.App.4th 17 259, 265.). In evaluating settlements, the courts have long recognized that compromise is particularly 18 appropriate since such litigation is difficult and notoriously uncertain. (7-Eleven Owners for Fair Fran.
19 v. Southland Corp. (2000) 85 Cal.App.4th 1135, 1151 ["voluntary conciliation and settlement are the 20 preferred means of dispute resolution. This is especially true in complex class action litigation"].).

21 "[T]o prevent fraud, collusion or unfairness to the class, the settlement or dismissal of a class 22 action requires court approval." (Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 citing 23 Malibu Outrigger Bd. Of Governors v. Superior Court (1980) 103 Cal.App.3d 573, 578-579.). The 24 court must decide whether the proposed settlement falls within the range of reasonable settlements,
25 considering that settlements are compromises between the parties reflecting subjective, unquantifiable
26 judgments concerning the risks and possible outcomes of litigation. (See also Wershba v. Apple
27 Computer (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 2246 [The proposed settlement is not to be judged against a 28 hypothetical or speculative measure of what might have been achieved had plaintiffs prevailed at

1 trial.”].). In Wershba, appellants argued that the settlement was too low given the “clear” liability,
2 however, the Court rejected this argument and held that “the merits of the underlying class claims are 3 not a basis for upsetting the settlement of a class action.” (Wershba, supra, at 246; see also 7-Eleven,
4 supra, at 1150.).

5 In these cases, Courts have repeatedly emphasized that there is a strong initial presumption that 6 the compromise is fair and reasonable. (Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 245.). Courts should not substitute
7 their judgment for that of the parties who negotiated the settlement. (Id. at 246.). The presumption of 8 fairness exists where: (1) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act
9 intelligently; (2) the settlement is reached through arm’s-length bargaining; (3) counsel is experienced
10 in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small. (Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801, citing 11 Newberg & Conte, Newberg on Class Actions, (3d ed. 1992) §11.41, pp. 11-91.). Here, all of these 12 factors support a presumption of fairness.

13 The essential evaluation is whether, given the risks of litigation and the range of probable results, 14 the settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable, and adequate to all concerned. Here, the facts and 15 circumstances compel the conclusion that the proposed settlement satisfies that standard.

16 V. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR, REASONABLE, AND ADEQUATE

17 The court must determine whether the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable. (Dunk v. Ford
18 Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801; see also Officers for Justice v. Civil Service Com'n (9th 19 Cir. 1982) 688 F. 2d 615, 625.). The purpose of the requirement is "the protection of those class 20 members, including the named plaintiffs, whose rights may not have been given due regard by the 21 negotiating parties." (Dunk, supra, at 1801.).

22 The trial court has broad discretion to determine whether the settlement is fair. (Rebney v. Wells 23 Fargo Bank (1990) 220 Cal.App.3d 1117, 1138.) “The well-recognized factors that the trial court should 24 consider in evaluating the reasonableness of a class action settlement agreement include 'the strength of 25 plaintiffs' case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the risk of 26 maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery
27 completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, the presence of a
28 governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement.' [Citations.]”

(Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 128; see also Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408.).

The list of factors is not exhaustive and should be tailored to each case. (Dunk, supra, at 1801.). Due regard should be given to what is otherwise a private consensual agreement between the parties. (Id.). The inquiry “must be limited to the extent necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the agreement is not the product of fraud or overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating parties, and that the settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable and adequate to all concerned.” (Id.). “Ultimately, the [trial] court's determination is nothing more than 'an amalgam of delicate balancing, gross approximations and rough justice.' [Citation omitted.]” (Id.).

These factors are analyzed seriatim below and all support final approval of the class and PAGA action settlement before this Court.

A. Class Counsel Conducted a Thorough Investigation.

As detailed in the motion for preliminary approval, Class Counsel thoroughly investigated the proposed Class Members’ claims, applicable law, and potential defenses. Specifically, Class Counsel assessed the value of the class claims using data and documents provided by Defendants through informal discovery. Class Counsel obtained time and payroll records for the Class Members, aggregate meal premiums paid to the Class Members, average hourly rate for the Class Members, and copies of applicable handbooks, policies, and agreements. Class Counsel retained Berger Consulting Group (“BCG”) to analyze Defendants’ time and payroll data to formulate damage models estimating Defendants’ liability exposure. Class Counsel’s investigation, research, experience, and damage models informed and guided the mediated negotiations that resulted in this settlement. Accordingly, Plaintiff’s Counsel fully understood the strengths and weaknesses of the class claims before the parties reached a settlement. (SCJ Dec., ¶¶ 18-23.).

B. The Parties Settled At Mediation.

On February 13, 2025, the Parties conducted a full day of mediation with Lou Marlin, Esq., a mediator of wage and hour class and PAGA actions. The Mediator helped manage the Parties’ expectations and provided a useful, neutral analysis of the issues and risks to both sides. The Parties made substantial progress with the Mediator’s assistance. Namely, the Parties exchanged information

1 regarding their respective claims and defenses, including their respective evaluation of the damages.
2 After hours of arm's length and adversarial negotiations, the mediation concluded with a settlement
3 after the Parties agreed to a Mediator's proposal. The amount of the service award was not negotiated
4 until after the parties agreed to the Gross Settlement Amount and many other terms. (SCJ Dec., ¶ 24.).

5 C. Class Counsel is Experienced in Similar Litigation.

6 Class Counsel in this matter has extensive class action experience in multiple fields and has 7 represented tens-of-thousands of persons in class actions. Counsel has previously litigated similar wage
8 and hour class actions involving similar claims. Class Counsel has been approved as class counsel in 9 similar wage and hour class actions throughout the State of California. As such, courts throughout 10 California have deemed Class Counsel experienced and knowledgeable in this area of law. Class
11 Counsel has participated in every aspect of the settlement discussions and has concluded the settlement
12 is fair, adequate, and reasonable and in the best interests of the Class. (SCJ Dec., ¶¶ 25-27; Declaration 13 of Jean-Claude Lapuyade ("JCL Dec.") ¶¶ 1-10; Declaration of Shani Zakay ("Zakay Dec."), ¶¶ 1-3).

14 D. The Settlement Class Responded Positively to the Settlement.

15 The reaction of the Settlement Class unequivocally supports approval of the Settlement.
16 Significantly, after dissemination of the notice to the Settlement Class, which provided each class
17 member with the terms of the Settlement, including the specific estimated Individual Settlement
18 Payments. As of the filing of this motion, none of the 143 members of the Settlement Class opted-out 19 of the Settlement. Moreover, there are zero objections. Stated differently, as of the filing of this motion,
20 100% of the Settlement Class chose to participate in the Settlement. (Apex Dec., ¶ 13; SCJ Dec., ¶ 21 28.).

22 The high approval by the Settlement Class strongly supports a finding that the Settlement is fair, 23 reasonable, and adequate. (See In re Austrian & German Bank Holocaust Litigation (S.D.N.Y. 2000)
24 80 F.Supp.2d 164, 175 ["If only a small number of objections are received, that fact can be viewed as 25 indicative of the adequacy of the settlement."]; Stoetznier v. U.S. Steel Corp. (3d. Cir. 1990) 897 F.2d
26 115, 118-119 [29 objections out of 281 member class "strongly favors settlement"]; Laskey v. Int'l
27 Union (6th Cir. 1981) 638 F.2d 954 [The fact that 7 out of 109 class members objected to the proposed
28 settlement should be considered when determining fairness of settlement.]. Consequently, Class

Counsel respectfully requests the Court to follow the high approval of the Settlement Class and grant final approval of the Settlement.

E. The Gross Settlement Amount is Fair and Reasonable.

The Gross Settlement Amount of Two Hundred Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($200,000.00) in this case is fair and well within the range of recognized reasonableness. The Kullar court acknowledged that “as the court does when it approves a settlement as in good faith under Code of Civil Procedure section 877.6, the court must at least satisfy itself that the class settlement is within the ‘ballpark’ of reasonableness.” (Kullar, supra, at 129; See Tech-Bilt, Inc. v. Woodward-Clyde & Associates, 38 Cal.3d 488, 499-500 (1985).).

Here, the Settlement is clearly within the “ballpark” of reasonableness because the Settlement provides a sizeable recovery to the Settlement Class and need not necessarily obtain 100 percent of the damages sought to be fair, reasonable, and ultimately, meaningful. (Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 250.). While the Gross Settlement Amount of Two Hundred Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($200,000.00) represents a discount on Defendants’ potential exposure if Plaintiff established liability on all claims and was awarded the full amount of the estimated damages at trial, this compromise is reasonable because (1) the formidable defenses raised by Defendants presented a risk that could award significantly less in damages than Plaintiff’s estimate and (2) any theoretical post-trial recovery may require many more years of litigation, resulting in added fees and costs without any guarantee of recovery for the Class. (SCJ Dec., ¶ 29.).

As detailed at the time of preliminary approval, the Gross Settlement Amount is fair and reasonable considering the nature and magnitude of the claims being settled and the various potential impediments to recovery. Class Counsel developed varied economic damages models measuring Defendants’ liability exposure while accounting for the uncertainties of continued litigation. The various models were informed by Class Counsel’s investigation, including the analysis of time and payroll data. As detailed in greater depth during the preliminary approval process, Class Counsel projected a range of Defendants’ liability exposure for the claims asserted on behalf of the Settlement Class. The Gross Settlement Amount represents between 13.61% and 30.89% of Defendants’ class-wide liability exposure as estimated by Class Counsel at the time of mediation. (SCJ Dec., ¶ 30.).

1 In Stovall-Gusman v. W.W. Granger, Inc., 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78671, at * 4, the District Court
2 for the Northern District of California granted final approval in a wage and hour misclassification action
3 and found that the Gross Settlement Amount representing 10% of the estimated trial award was within 4 the “range of reasonableness.” In Dunleavy v. Nadler (In re Mego Fin. Corp. Sec. Litig.) (9th Cir. 2000)
5 213 F.3d 454, 459, the Ninth Circuit approved a settlement representing “roughly one-sixth of the 6 potential recovery.” Given the amount of the settlement here as compared to potential value of the 7 claims, particularly the strength of Plaintiff’s action, the settlement is clearly fair and reasonable.<sup>2</sup>

8 The calculation methodology used to compensate the Settlement Class for the alleged damages
9 was negotiated at the time of the Settlement. More importantly, the methodology is fair, objective, and 10 impartial. The calculation methodology is based on the number of Workweeks each Settlement Class
11 Member worked for Defendants during the Class Period. The number of Workweeks for the Settlement 12 Class Members is established through Defendants’ data and documented compensation records. The 13 Settlement Administrator is responsible for calculating the Individual Settlement Payments by dividing 14 the respective Workweeks for each Class Member by the total Workweeks for all Class Members, 15 resulting in the Payment Ratio for each Class Member. Each Class Member’s Payment Ratio will then 16 be multiplied by the Net Settlement Amount. This process establishes an objectively fair and reasonable 17 procedure to compensate the Settlement Class. (Agreement, ¶ III(M)(1).).

18 The settlement also provides significant relief to the Settlement Class Members. After deductions
19 for the Class Counsel Award, Settlement Administration Expenses, the PAGA Payment, and the Class
20 Representative Service Award, the Net Settlement Amount is currently estimated to be $81,843.34.
21 (Apex Dec., ¶ 15.). This will result in an average Individual Settlement Payment of $572.33, with a 22 high payment of 2,915.43, and a low payment of $11.13. (Apex Dec., ¶ 15.). This average net recovery
23 is on par with many wage and hour class action settlements approved by California state and federal

11 [average net recovery of approximately $20].). Additionally, Defendants must separately fund its share
12 of any employer side payroll taxes. (Agreement, ¶ III(A)(1)).

13 Clearly the goal of this litigation to obtain redress for the class has been met by this Settlement.
14 Given the amount of the Settlement, the risks of litigation and the arm's length negotiations between 15 experienced counsel, the settlement is fair and reasonable, and is therefore entitled to final approval.
16 (SCJ Dec., ¶ 31.).

17 F. The Strength of Plaintiff's Case and Risks of Continued Litigation

18 Although Class Counsel believes strongly in Plaintiff's claims, it would be misguided to ignore 19 the asserted defenses. If successful on any one of its defenses, Defendants could defend the action or, 20 at least, drastically undercut Plaintiff's claims. (SCJ Dec., ¶ 32.). As the federal court in Glass v. UBS
21 Fin. Servs., 2007 WL221862 held, where the parties faced uncertainties similar to those in this 22 litigation:

23 In light of the above-referenced uncertainty in the law, the risk, expense, 24 complexity, and likely duration of further litigation likewise favors the 25 settlement. Regardless of how this Court might have ruled on the merits of 26 the legal issues, the losing party likely would have appealed, and the parties 27 would have faced the expense and uncertainty of litigating an appeal. The 28 expense and possible duration of the litigation should be considered in evaluating the reasonableness of [a] settlement.

1 With respect to the most immediate challenge, i.e., class certification, the risks attendant to the 2 certification of similar wage and hour claims are demonstrated by Ali v. U.S.A. Cab Ltd. (2009) 176
3 Cal.App.4th 1333, 1341. There, the Court of Appeal affirmed the Trial Court’s denial of class
4 certification because employees’ declarations attesting to having taken meal and rest breaks
5 demonstrated that individualized inquiries were required to show harm. (See also Campbell v. Best Buy
6 Stores, L.P., (C.D. Cal. 2013) 2013 WL 5302217 at *11-13 [following Brinker and denying certification
7 of proposed off-the-clock and rest and meal break classes due to lack of uniform policy]; Brown v. Fed
8 Express Corp. (C.D. Cal. 2008) 249 F.R.D. 580, 587-88 [denying certification of driver meal and rest 9 period claims based on the predominance of individual issues]; SCJ Dec., ¶ 33.).

10 Further, even if a class is certified, liability remains uncertain. The risks attendant to the issue of 11 Defendants’ liability in similar wage and hour actions are demonstrated by Duran v. U.S. Bank National 12 Association (2014) 59 Cal.4th 1, 31. There, the Court reversed a trial verdict in favor plaintiffs in a 13 wage and hour class action. (See also Tien v. Tenet Healthcare Corp. (2012) 209 Cal.App.4th 1077, 14 1088 [“[T]he reason, if any, that employees might not take their breaks were predominantly 15 individualized questions of fact not susceptible to class treatment”]; SCJ Dec., ¶ 34.).

16 Finally, even if a class is certified and Defendants is found liable for the class claims alleged,
17 post-certification risks remain, including a reversal of a favorable judgment for Plaintiff and 18 decertification of the class. These post-certification risks are demonstrated by Magadia v. Wal-Mart
19 Associates, Inc. (9th Cir. 2021) 999 F.3d 668. There, the Ninth Circuit vacated reversed and remanded 20 a $110 million judgement against an employer for, inter alia, inaccurately paying overtime, and 21 directed the trial court to enter judgement in favor of the employer. (See also O’Conner v. Uber
22 Technologies, Inc. (9th Cir. 2018) 904 F.3d 1087 [decertification of wage and hour misclassification 23 action]; SCJ Dec., ¶ 35.).

24 Collectively, the examples cited above illustrate the uncertain nature of class litigation.
25 Consequently, the uncertainty of obtaining certification through a contested motion is a significant risk
26 factor favoring settlement. (SCJ Dec., ¶ 36.).

27 Although Plaintiff is confident about the strength of Plaintiff’s claims, Plaintiff nevertheless 28 recognizes that Defendants has factual and legal defenses that, if successful, would potentially defeat

1 or impair the value of the lawsuit. Legally, the fast-changing landscape of wage and hour litigation can 2 drastically affect the value of Plaintiff's claims and, in fact, already has. (SCJ Dec., ¶ 37.).

3 In a similar wage-and-hour case, the federal district court in Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc., 2009
4 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 33900 at * 19-20 (N.D. Cal. 2009), granted approval of an overtime class action
5 settlement and explained:

6 Plaintiffs may have a strong case, but the risks inherent in continued
7 litigation are great. Defendant strongly deny liability for Plaintiffs'
8 principal claim that full-time Service Associates were misclassified as 9 exempt. In addition to the uncertainties raised by Defendant at the 10 preliminary stage regarding Plaintiffs' chance of success in this case, 11 Defendant notes that the question of an employer's duty to provide rest and 12 meal periods is an open one, signaling even less certainty for 13 Plaintiffs.....[T]he Gross Settlement Amount and the Class Members'
14 expected net recovery, after fees and other costs are deducted, appear 15 to be a reasonable compromise, in light of the risks of litigation.

16 (See also Browning v. Yahoo!, Inc., 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 86266, at *30 (N.D. Cal. 2007) ["In 17 considering the strength of Plaintiffs' case, legal uncertainties at the time of settlement - particularly 18 those which go to fundamental legal issues - favor approval."].).

19 As recognized in a federal decision approving settlement of an overtime wage class action:

20 The potential complexity and possible duration of trial also weigh in 21 favor of granting final approval. Plaintiffs acknowledge the difficulties 22 of proving damages, recognize the uncertainty of outcome, and believe
23 defendant would appeal in the event of adverse judgment. A post-judgment
24 appeal would require many years to resolve and delay payment to class
25 members. Plaintiffs believe the benefits of a guaranteed recovery today 26 outweigh an uncertain future result. Accordingly, plaintiffs argue, and the 27 Court agrees, the actual recovery confers substantial benefits on the class 28 that outweigh the potential recovery through full adjudication.

29 (Barcia v. Contain-A-Way, Inc., 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 17118, *9 (S.D. Cal. 2009); see also Louie v.
30 Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Inc., 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78314, *14 (S.D. Cal. 2008).).

31 In sum, while other cases have approved class certification in wage and hour claims, class 32 certification in this action would have been hotly disputed and was by no means a foregone conclusion.
33 Where both sides face significant uncertainty, as here, the attendant risks favor settlement. (Hanlon v.
34 Chrysler Corp. (9th Cir. 1998) 150 F.3d 1011, 1026.).

1 As demonstrated by the decisions in Magadia, supra, 999 F.3d 668, O’Conner v. Uber
2 Technologies (N.D. Cal. 2018) 82 F.Supp.3d 1133 and Duran v. U.S. Bank National Assn. (2014) 59
3 Cal.4th 1, the complexities and duration of further litigation cannot be overstated. There is little doubt
4 that if Defendants faced a large adverse judgement, Defendants undoubtedly has the resources to post
5 a bond and appeal. A post-judgment appeal by Defendants would have required many more years to 6 resolve, assuming the judgment was affirmed. If the judgment was not affirmed in total, then the case
7 could have dragged on for years after the appeal. The benefits of a guaranteed recovery today outweigh
8 an uncertain result for three or more years in the future. (SCJ Dec., ¶ 38.).

9 The Class Representative and Class Counsel recognize the expense and length of a trial against 10 Defendants through possible appeals, which could take another three years. In arriving at their informed
11 belief that the present settlement is fair and adequate, Class Counsel accounted for the uncertain outcome
12 and risk inherent in complex actions such as this one. Class Counsel is also mindful of and recognizes 13 the inherent problems of proof under, and alleged defenses to, the claims asserted in the litigation.
14 Moreover, post-trial motions and appeals would have been inevitable. Costs would have mounted, and 15 recovery would have been delayed if not denied, thereby reducing the benefits of an ultimate victory.
16 Class Representative and Class Counsel believe that the Settlement confers substantial monetary and 17 non-monetary benefits upon the Class. Based upon their evaluation, Class Representative and Class
18 Counsel have determined that the Settlement set forth in the Agreement is in the best interest of the 19 Class, is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and should be granted final approval. (SCJ Dec., ¶ 39.).

20 VI. THE PENALTIES UNDER THE PRIVATE ATTORNEY GENERAL ACT OF 2004 ARE 21 REASONABLE

22 Where settlements “negotiate a good faith amount” for PAGA penalties and “there is no 23 indication that this amount was the result of self-interest at the expense of class members,” such 24 amounts are generally considered reasonable. (Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc., No. CV-08-0844 EDL, 25 2009 WL 928133, at *9 (N.D. Cal. Apr. 3, 2009).). Courts routinely approve of amounts for PAGA
26 penalties in the range of zero to two percent of the settlement. (See id. at *1, 9 [approving a PAGA
27 payment of 0.3%]; Jack v. Hartford Fire Ins. Co., No. 09cv1683 MMA (JMA), 2011 WL 4899942, at 28 *6 (S.D. Cal. Oct. 13, 2011) [approving a PAGA payment of 0.25%]; McKenzie v. Fed. Express Corp.,

1 No. CV 10-02420 GAF (PLAx), 2012 WL 12882124, at *5 (C.D. Cal. Jan. 23, 2012) [acknowledging
2 that courts approve PAGA claim settlements in the range of zero to two percent of the total
3 settlement].).

4 Here, Plaintiff and Defendants negotiated a good-faith PAGA Payment in the amount of 5 $10,000 which is approximately 10% of the Gross Settlement Amount. As illustrated above, this 6 amount falls well within the range of approved PAGA Settlements. Seventy-five percent (75%) of the 7 PAGA Payment ($7,500) will be paid to the LWDA ("LWDA Payment") with the remaining twenty-
8 five percent (25%) of the PAGA Payment ($2,500.00) to be distributed to the Aggrieved Employees
9 ("Aggrieved Employee Payment") which is within the range of PAGA penalties approved by courts
10 and should be approved. (SCJ Dec., ¶ 40.).

11 Class Counsel gave the LWDA notice of this Settlement and proposed allocation by filing a 12 copy of the Settlement, the Motion for Preliminary Approval, and this motion seeking final approval
13 with the LWDA. (SCJ Dec., ¶ 41.). By not registering an objection with either Class Counsel or the 14 Court, the LWDA has accepted and approved of the proposed PAGA Payment.

15 VII. CONCLUSION

16 Plaintiff respectfully submits that the proposed settlement satisfies the standard of fairness
17 established in California law and should therefore be finally approved as fair, reasonable, and adequate 18 and requests entry of the Final Approval Order and Judgment submitted herewith.
