1 I. INTRODUCTION

2 Plaintiffs Melinda Wheeler and Mallory Dunn (“Plaintiffs”) respectfully submit this 3 memorandum in support of the unopposed motion for preliminary approval of the Class Action and 4 PAGA Settlement Agreement (“Agreement”) with Defendant Siskiyou Hospital, Inc., dba Fairchild 5 Medical Center (“Defendant”), and seek entry of an order: (1) preliminarily approving the proposed 6 settlement of this class action with Defendant; (2) for settlement purposes only, conditionally certifying 7 the Class, which is comprised of “all individuals who are or were employed by Defendant and 8 classified as non-exempt direct employees who worked at least one Workweek in California at any time 9 during the Class Period”, which is February 18, 2021 through February 8, 2026; (3) provisionally 10 appointing Plaintiffs as the representatives of the Class; (4) provisionally appointing Blumenthal 11 Nordrehaug Bhowmik De Blouw LLP as Class Counsel; (5) approving the form and method for 12 providing class-wide notice of the settlement; (6) directing that notice of the proposed settlement be 13 given to the Class; (7) appointing ILYM Group, Inc. as the Administrator; and, (8) scheduling a final 14 approval hearing date, proposed for October 22, 2026, to consider Plaintiffs’ motion for final approval 15 of the settlement and for approval of attorneys’ fees, expenses and the service awards. Plaintiffs and 16 Defendant (collectively the “Parties”) have reached a full and final settlement of the above-captioned 17 class and PAGA action (the “Settlement”), which is set forth in the Agreement, attached as Exhibit #1 18 to the Declaration of Kyle Nordrehaug (“Decl. Nordrehaug”), served and filed herewith. The form of 19 the Agreement is based upon the Los Angeles County Superior Court model form for a class and 20 PAGA settlement.

21 As consideration for this Settlement, the non-reversionary Gross Settlement Amount of One 22 Million Seven Hundred Thousand Dollars ($1,700,000) (the “Gross Settlement Amount”) is to be paid 23 by Defendant, as set forth in the Agreement. The Gross Settlement Amount will settle all issues 24 pending in the Action between the Parties and will be made in full and final settlement of the Released 25 Class Claims in exchange for the payments to Participating Class Members from the Net Settlement 26 Amount, and (a) the costs of administration of the settlement, (b) all attorneys’ fees and costs, (c) Class 27 Representative Service Payments, and (d) the PAGA Penalties payment allocated 65% to the LWDA 28 and 35% to the Aggrieved Employees. (Agreement at ¶ 1.20.) Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶3. The following is a table of the key Settlement terms and the proposed deductions:

$1,700,000 (Gross Settlement Amount)

- $30,000 (Plaintiffs' two proposed service awards - not to exceed amount)
- $28,000 (Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment - not to exceed amount)
- $566,666 (Class Counsel Fees Payment - not to exceed 1/3 of settlement)
- $35,000 (PAGA Payment - 65% to LWDA / 35% to Aggrieved Employees)
- $17,000 (Administration Expenses Payment - not to exceed amount)

$1,023,334 (Net Settlement Amount)

Based upon an estimated 1,310 Class Members who worked an estimated 114,070 work weeks (Agreement at ¶ 4.1), the Gross Settlement Amount provides an average value of $1,297 per Class Member and $14.90 per workweek, and after deductions the Net Settlement Amount provides an average recovery of $781.17 per Class Member and a recovery of $8.97 per workweek. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶6.

On December 3, 2025, the Parties participated in an all-day mediation with Tripper Ortman, a respected and experienced mediator of wage and hour class actions. Following the mediation, the Parties agreed on the basic terms of a settlement pursuant to a mediator's proposal, memorialized in the form of a Memorandum of Understanding. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶5. The Settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate, and should be preliminarily approved, because there is a substantial monetary payment, and there are significant litigation risks. Plaintiffs respectfully request that this Court grant preliminary approval of the Agreement and enter the proposed order submitted herewith.

II. DESCRIPTION OF THE SETTLEMENT

The Gross Settlement Amount is One Million Seven Hundred Thousand Dollars ($1,700,000). (Agreement at ¶ 1.20.) Under the Settlement, the Gross Settlement Amount consists of the following elements: (1) payment of the Individual Class Payments to the Participating Class Members; (2) Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment; (3) Administration Expenses Payment; (4) the Class Representative Service Payments to the Plaintiffs; and (5) the PAGA Penalties payment. (Agreement at ¶ 1.20.) The Gross Settlement Amount does not include Defendant's share of payroll taxes. (Agreement at ¶ 3.1.) The Gross Settlement Amount shall be all-in with no reversion to Defendant. (Agreement at ¶ 3.1.) Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶15.

The Agreement contains appropriate terms which have been previously approved by Courts throughout California. (See Agreement at ¶¶ 1.26, 1.37, 3.2, 4.3, 5.1.) The proposed Class Notice also

1 provides the required protections for the Class to opt out, object or dispute their weeks worked. (See 2 Agreement at ¶¶ 8.5, 8.6, 8.7, and Exhibit A.) The additional details of the Settlement are addressed 3 in the Declaration of Kyle Nordrehaug at ¶¶ 16-22. As set forth in the accompanying proof of service, 4 the LWDA has been served with this motion and the Agreement.

5 III. CASE BACKGROUND

6 The description of the case and claims, along with the procedural history is set forth in the 7 Declaration of Kyle Nordrehaug at ¶¶ 7-14. The Parties engaged in thorough investigation and the 8 exchange of documents and information in connection with the Action for more than one year which 9 permitted Class Counsel to perform a thorough analysis of the claims. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶¶ 10, 14.
10 The Parties participated in a mediation on December 3, 2025 with Tripper Ortman, which after arms' 11 length negotiations during and after the mediation, resulted in this Settlement. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶12.

12 IV. THE SETTLEMENT MEETS THE CRITERIA NECESSARY FOR THIS COURT TO 13 GRANT PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

14 California “[p]ublic policy generally favors the compromise of complex class action litigation.”
15 Nordstrom Comm'n Cases, 186 Cal. App. 4th 576, 581 (2010) quoting Cellphone Termination Fee 16 Cases, 180 Cal.App.4th 1110, 1117-18 (2009). Class action settlements are approved where the 17 proposed settlement is “fair, adequate and reasonable.” Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 18 1801 (1996) (citing Officers for Justice v. Civil Serv. Comm'n, 688 F.2d 615, 625 (9th Cir. 1982), cert.
19 denied, 459 U.S. 1217 (1983)).

20 Preliminary approval is the first of three steps that comprise the approval procedure for 21 settlements of class actions. The second step is the dissemination of notice of the settlement to all class 22 members. The third step is a final settlement approval hearing, at which evidence and argument 23 concerning the fairness, adequacy, and reasonableness of the settlement may be presented, and class 24 members may be heard regarding the settlement. See Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 25 1801 (1996); Manual for Complex Litigation, Second §30.44 (1993); Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.769.

26 The primary question presented on an application for preliminary approval of a proposed class 27 action settlement is whether the proposed settlement is “within the range of possible approval.” 28 Manual for Complex Litigation, Second §30.44 at 229; Gautreaux v. Pierce, 690 F.2d 616, 621 n.3 (7th

1 Cir. 1982).¹ Preliminary approval is merely the prerequisite to giving notice so that “the proposed 2 settlement... may be submitted to members of the prospective Class for their acceptance or rejection.”
3 Sayaman v. Baxter Healthcare Corp., 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 151997, *3 (C.D. Cal. 2010). There is 4 “a presumption of fairness . . . where . . . [a] settlement is reached through arms-length bargaining.”
5 Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 245 (2001) (citation omitted); see also Cho v.
6 Seagate Tech. Holdings, Inc., 177 Cal. App. 4th 734, 742-45 (2009) (upholding trial court's 7 determination that settlement was “fair, reasonable and adequate” where the settlement “provided 8 valuable benefits to the class . . . that were ‘particularly valuable in light of the risks plaintiff would 9 have faced if she proceeded to litigate her case.’”); Newberg, 3d Ed., §11.41, p.11-88. However, the 10 ultimate question of whether the proposed settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate is made after 11 notice of the settlement is given to the class members and a final settlement hearing is held by the 12 Court.

13 A. The Role Of The Court In Preliminary Approval Of A Class Action Settlement

14 The approval of a proposed settlement of a class action suit is a matter within the broad 15 discretion of the trial court. Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at 234-235; Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th 1794.
16 In considering a potential settlement for preliminary approval purposes, the trial court does not have 17 to reach any ultimate conclusions on the issues of fact and law which underlie the merits of the dispute, 18 and need not engage in a trial on the merits. Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at 239-40; Dunk, supra, 19 48 Cal.App. 4th at 1807. The Ninth Circuit explained that, “the very essence of a settlement is 20 compromise, ‘a yielding of absolutes and an abandoning of highest hopes.’” Officers for Justice, 688 21 F.2d at 624. Thus, when analyzing the settlement, the amount is “not to be judged against a 22 hypothetical or speculative measure of what might have been achieved by the negotiators.” Officers 23 for Justice, 688 F.2d at 625, 628.

24 With regard to class action settlements, the opinions of counsel should be given considerable 25

26 ¹ California courts look to federal authority on class actions. Vasquez v. Superior Court, 4 Cal.3d 27 800, 821 (1971). “It is well established that in the absence of relevant state precedents trial courts are 28 urged to follow the procedures prescribed in Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for conducting class actions.” Frazier v. City of Richmond, 184 Cal. App.3d 1491, 1499 (1986), citing Green v. Obledo, 29 Cal.3d 126, 145-146 (1981).

weight both because of counsel's familiarity with this litigation and previous experience with cases such as these. Officers for Justice, 688 F.2d at 625. As a result, courts hold that the recommendation of counsel is entitled to significant weight. Nat'l Rural Telecomms. Coop. v. DIRECTV, Inc., 221 F.R.D. 523, 528 (C.D. Cal. 2004).

B. Factors To Be Considered In Granting Preliminary Approval

A number of factors are to be considered in evaluating a settlement for purposes of preliminary approval. In determining whether to grant preliminary approval, the court considers whether the "(1) the proposed settlement appears to be the product of serious, informed, non-collusive negotiations, (2) has no obvious deficiencies, (3) does not improperly grant preferential treatment to class representatives or segments of the class, and (4) falls within the range of possible approval." In re Tableware Antitrust Litig., 484 F.Supp. 2d 1078, 1079 (N.D. Cal. 2007). Courts hold that "a presumption of fairness exists where: (1) the settlement is reached through arm's-length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small." Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal. App. 4th 116, 128 (2008). Here, the Settlement meets all of the applicable criteria for preliminary approval and therefore the presumption applies.

1. The Settlement is the Product of Serious, Informed and Arm's Length Negotiations by Experienced Counsel

This settlement is the result of extensive and hard-fought litigation as well as negotiations before an experienced and well-respected mediator. Defendant has expressly denied and continues to deny any wrongdoing or legal liability arising out of the conduct alleged in the Action. Plaintiffs and Class Counsel have determined that it is desirable and beneficial to the Class to resolve the Released Class Claims of the Class in accordance with this Settlement. The release applicable to the Class is appropriately tethered to factual allegations in the Operative Complaint. (Agreement at ¶¶ 1.37 and 6.2.)

Class Counsel are experienced and qualified to evaluate the class claims, the defenses asserted, and the risks and benefits of trial and settlement, and Class Counsel are particularly experienced in wage and hour employment class actions, as Class Counsel has previously litigated and certified similar

1 claims against other employers. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶31. The view of qualified and well-informed 2 counsel that a class action settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable is entitled to significant weight.
3 See Kullar v. Foot Locker, 168 Cal. App. 4th 116, 133 (2008) (the trial court "undoubtedly should 4 continue to place reliance on the competence and integrity of counsel, the involvement of a qualified 5 mediator, and the paucity of objectors to the settlement."); Dunk, 48 Cal. App. 4th at 1802.

6 The Parties attended an arms-length mediation session with Tripper Ortman, a respected and 7 experienced mediator of wage and hour class actions, in order to reach this Settlement. In preparation 8 for the mediation, Defendant provided Class Counsel with payroll, time and employment data, along 9 with other information regarding the Class Members, various internal documents, and other 10 compensation and employment-related materials. Class Counsel analyzed the data with the assistance 11 of damages expert Berger Consulting and prepared and submitted a mediation brief to the mediator.
12 The final settlement terms were negotiated and set forth in the Agreement now presented for this 13 Court's approval. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 5. Importantly, Plaintiffs and Class Counsel believe that this 14 Settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate.

15 Class Counsel has conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of the class action as 16 detailed in the Declaration of Kyle Nordrehaug. Based on the Class data and their own independent 17 investigation, evaluation and experience, Class Counsel believes that the settlement with Defendant 18 on the terms set forth in the Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best interest of 19 the Class in light of all known facts and circumstances, including the risk of significant delay, defenses 20 asserted by Defendant, and potential appellate issues. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 14. Plaintiffs and Class 21 Counsel recognize the risks, expense and length of continuing to litigate and trying this Action against 22 Defendant and then litigating possible appeals which could take several years. Plaintiffs and Class 23 Counsel have determined that the Settlement set forth in the Agreement is in the best interest of the 24 Class Members. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶ 23.

25 Here, there can be no dispute that the litigation has been hard-fought with aggressive and 26 capable advocacy on both sides. The Parties were represented by experienced and capable counsel who 27 zealously advocated their positions. Accordingly, "[t]here is likewise every reason to conclude that 28 settlement negotiations were vigorously conducted at arms' length and without any suggestion of undue influence.” In re Wash. Public Power Supply Sec. Litig., 720 F. Supp. 1379, 1392 (D. Ariz 1989).

2. The Settlement Has No "Obvious Deficiencies" and Falls Well Within the Range for Approval

The proposed Settlement herein has no “obvious deficiencies” and is well within the range of possible approval. All Class Members will receive an opportunity to participate in the Settlement and receive payment according to the same formula. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(e).) Based upon an estimated 1,310 Class Members who worked an estimated 114,070 work weeks (Agreement at ¶ 4.1), the Gross Settlement Amount provides an average value of $1,297 per Class Member and $14.90 per workweek, and after deductions the Net Settlement Amount provides an average recovery of $781.17 per Class Member and a recovery of $8.97 per workweek. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶6.

The calculations to compensate for the amount due for the Class at the time of the mediation were calculated by Berger Consulting, Plaintiffs’ damage expert. As to the Class whose claims are at issue in this Action, Plaintiffs used this expert to analyze the data and determine the potential unpaid wages for the employees. The maximum potential damages were calculated to be $5,562,662 for the alleged unpaid wages for off-the-clock work at one hour per week, $29,508 for the alleged underpaid overtime wages based on the miscalculation of the regular rate, $42,635 for the alleged underpaid PTO and sick pay based on the miscalculation of the regular rate, $2,027,119 for alleged meal period damages based upon a 15.5% potential violation rate for all shifts worked observed in the time records after deducting for meal premiums already paid by Defendant. $2,385,975 for alleged rest period damages based upon the same 15.5% potential violation rate observed for meal periods, $144,395 for alleged unreimbursed cell-phone expenses at $5 per month. Because the alternative workweeks schedule was determined to be valid and registered, there were no damages based upon the alternative workweek schedule. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶6. As a result, the total damage valuation was calculated such that Defendant was subject to a maximum damage claim in the amount of $10,192,294. As to potential penalties, Plaintiffs calculated that potential waiting time penalties were a maximum of $2,971,216, and potential maximum wage statement penalties were $2,316,250.² Defendant vigorously disputed

² While Plaintiffs alleged claims for statutory penalties pursuant to Labor Code Sections 203 and 226, at mediation Plaintiffs recognized that these claims were subject to additional, separate defenses

1 Plaintiffs' calculations and exposure theories. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶6.

2 Consequently, the Gross Settlement Amount of $1,700,000 represents more than 16.6% of the 3 maximum value of the alleged damages at issue in this case at the time this Settlement was negotiated.³ 4 Importantly, the recent decision that good faith belief of compliance by the employer in Naranjo v.
5 Spectrum Sec. Servs., Inc., 15 Cal. 5th 1056, 1065 (2024), could completely negate the claims for 6 waiting time and wage statement penalties, even if wages were owed to the Class. The above 7 maximum calculations should then be realistically risk-adjusted in consideration for both the risk of 8 class certification and the risk of establishing class-wide liability on all claims. Given the amount of 9 the settlement as compared to the potential value of claims in this case and the defenses asserted by 10 Defendant, this settlement is fair and reasonable.⁴ Clearly, the goal of this litigation has been met.
11 Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶6.

12 Where both sides face significant uncertainty, the attendant risks favor settlement. Hanlon v.
13 Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1026 (9th Cir. 1998). Here, a number of defenses asserted by 14 Defendant present serious threats to the claims of the Plaintiffs and the other Class Members.
15 Defendant asserted that Defendant's practices complied with all applicable Labor laws. Defendant 16 argued that Class Members were paid for all time worked and that work time was properly recorded.

17 _____
18 asserted by Defendant, including, a good faith dispute defense as to whether any premium wages for 19 meal or rest periods or other wages were owed given Defendant's position that Plaintiff and Class 20 Members were properly compensated. See Nordstrom Commission Cases, 186 Cal. App. 4th 576, 584 21 (2010) ("There is no willful failure to pay wages if the employer and employee have a good faith 22 dispute as to whether and when the wages were due.").

23 ³ Because the PAGA claim is not a class claim and primarily is paid to the State of California, 24 Plaintiffs have not included the PAGA claim in this discussion of the value of the class claims. The 25 PAGA claim is addressed in the Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶33.

26 ⁴ See Glass v. UBS Fin. Servs., 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 8476 (N.D. Cal. 2007) (approving a 27 settlement where the settlement amount constituted approximately 25% of the estimated overtime 28 damages for the class); Stovall-Gusman v. W.W. Granger, Inc., 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78671, at *12 (N.D. Cal. 2015) (granting final approval where "the proposed Total Settlement Amount represents approximately 10% of what class might have been awarded had they succeeded at trial."); Viceral v.
Mistras Grp., Inc., 2016 WL 5907869 (N.D. Cal. 2016) (approving wage and hour class action settlement amounting to 8.1% of full value); Ma v. Covidien Holding, Inc., 2014 WL 2472316, (C.D.
Cal. 2014) (approving wage and hour class action settlement worth "somewhere between 9% and 18%" of maximum valuation).

1 Defendant contends that its meal and rest period policies fully complied with California law and that 2 Defendant did not fail to provide the opportunity for legally required meal and rest breaks and that most 3 of the meal periods were subject to the defense of health care worker meal waivers under Gerard v.
4 Orange Coast Mem'l Med. Ctr., 6 Cal. 5th 443 (2018). Defendant argues that its payment of significant 5 meal and rest period premiums is evidence of its lawful practices. Defendant contends that there was 6 no failure to pay for business expenses and any cell phone usage was merely convenient and voluntary 7 such that reimbursement was not legally required. Defendant also have an argument that the Supreme 8 Court decision in Brinker v. Superior Court, 53 Cal. 4th 1004 (2012), weakened Plaintiffs' claims, on 9 liability, value, and class certifiability as to the meal and rest period claims. Defendant argues that 10 based on its facially lawful practices, Defendant acted in good faith and without willfulness, which if 11 accepted would negate the claims for waiting time penalties and/or inaccurate wage statements. See 12 e.g. Naranjo v. Spectrum Sec. Servs., Inc., 15 Cal. 5th 1056, 1065 (2024) ("if an employer reasonably 13 and in good faith believed it was providing a complete and accurate wage statement in compliance with 14 the requirements of section 226, then it has not knowingly and intentionally failed to comply with the 15 wage statement law.") If successful, Defendant's defenses could eliminate or substantially reduce any 16 recovery to the Class. While Plaintiffs believe that these defenses could be overcome, Defendant 17 maintains these defenses have merit and therefore present a serious risk to recovery by the Class. Decl.
18 Nordrehaug, ¶ 24.

19 There was also a significant risk that, if the Action was not settled, Plaintiffs would be unable 20 to obtain a certified class and maintain the certified class through trial, and thereby not recover on 21 behalf of any employees other than themselves. At the time of the mediation, Defendant forcefully 22 opposed the propriety of class certification, arguing that individual issues precluded class certification.
23 Further, as demonstrated by the California Supreme Court decision in Duran v. U.S. Bank National 24 Assn., 59 Cal. 4th 1 (2014), there are significant hurdles to overcome for a class-wide recovery even 25 where the class has been certified. While other cases have approved class certification in wage and 26 hour claims, class certification in this action was hotly disputed and the maintenance of a certified class 27 through trial was by no means a foregone conclusion. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶ 25.

28 After arm's length negotiations between experienced and informed counsel, the Parties

1 recognized the potential risks and agreed on the Settlement with a Gross Settlement Amount of 2 $1,700,000. As the Court held in Glass, where the parties faced uncertainties similar to those here:

3 In light of the above-referenced uncertainty in the law, the risk, expense, complexity, 4 and likely duration of further litigation likewise favors the settlement. Regardless of 5 how this Court might have ruled on the merits of the legal issues, the losing party likely 6 would have appealed, and the parties would have faced the expense and uncertainty of 7 litigating an appeal. ‘The expense and possible duration of the litigation should be 8 considered in evaluating the reasonableness of [a] settlement.’”

9 2007 WL 221862, at *4 (quoting In re Mego Financial Corp. Securities Litigation, 213 F.3d 454, 458 10 (9th Cir. 2000)).

11 3. The Settlement Does Not Improperly Grant Preferential Treatment To 12 Class Representatives or Segments Of The Class

13 The relief provided in the Settlement will benefit all members of the Class. The Settlement does 14 not grant preferential treatment to Plaintiffs or segments of the Class in any way. Payments to the Class 15 Members are all determined under a neutral methodology. Each Participating Class Member will 16 receive the same opportunity to participate in and receive payment through a neutral formula that is 17 based upon the Workweeks for that individual. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶4.

18 Plaintiffs will apply to the Court for Class Representative Service Payments in consideration 19 for their service and for the risks undertaken on behalf of the Class. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(a).) Plaintiffs 20 performed their duties admirably by working with Class Counsel over the course of litigation, and were 21 subject to the risks of litigation on behalf of the Class. The Declarations of the Plaintiffs are being 22 submitted in support. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶27. At this stage, the requested service award is within 23 the range of reasonableness for purposes of preliminary approval. See e.g. Andrews v. Plains All Am.
24 Pipeline L.P., 2022 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 172183, at *11 (C.D. Cal. 2022) (finding that the requested 25 service awards of $15,000 each are appropriate); Reynolds v. Direct Flow Med., Inc., 2019 U.S. Dist.
26 LEXIS 149865, at *19 (N.D. Cal. 2019) (granting request for $12,500 service award); Mathein v. Pier
27 1 Imps. (U.S.), Inc., 2018 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 71386 (E.D. Cal. 2018) (awarding $12,500 where average 28 class member payment was $351); Louie v. Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Inc., 2008 WL 4473183, *7 (S.D. Cal. Oct. 06, 2008) (awarding $25,000 service award to each of six plaintiffs in overtime class action); Glass v. UBS Fin. Servs., 2007 WL 221862, *16-17 (N.D. Cal. 2007) (awarding $25,000 service award in overtime class action and a pool of $100,000 in enhancements). As explained in

1 Glass, service awards are routinely awarded to class representatives to compensate the employees for 2 the time and effort expended on the case, for the risk of litigation, for the fear of suing an employer and 3 retaliation there from, and to serve as an incentive to vindicate the statutory rights of all employees.
4 2007 WL 221862 at *16-17.

5 4. The Stage Of The Proceedings Are Sufficiently Advanced To Permit
6 Preliminary Approval Of The Settlement

7 The stage of the proceedings at which this Settlement was reached also militates in favor of 8 preliminary approval and ultimately, final approval of the Settlement. Class Counsel has conducted 9 a thorough investigation into the facts of the class action. Class Counsel began investigating the Class 10 Members' claims before the Action was filed, and during the course of litigation, and Class Counsel 11 and engaged in sufficient informal discovery to obtain necessary information. Class Counsel conducted 12 a review and analysis of the relevant documents and data. Class Counsel was also experienced with 13 these claims, as Class Counsel previously litigated and settled similar claims in other actions.
14 Accordingly, the agreement to settle did not occur until Class Counsel possessed sufficient information 15 to make an informed judgment regarding the likelihood of success on the merits and the results that 16 could be obtained through further litigation. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶28.

17 Based on the foregoing data and their own independent investigation and evaluation, Class 18 Counsel is of the opinion that the Settlement with Defendant for the consideration and on the terms set 19 forth in the Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best interest of the Class in light 20 of all known facts and circumstances, including the risk of significant delay, defenses asserted by 21 Defendant, and numerous potential appellate issues. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶29.

22 V. THE CLASS IS PROPERLY CERTIFIED FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES ONLY

23 Plaintiffs contend that the proposed settlement meet all of the requirements for class 24 certification under California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 as demonstrated below, and therefore, the 25 Court may appropriately approve the Class as defined in the Agreement. This Court should 26 conditionally certify the Class for settlement purposes only, defined as follows:

27 All individuals who are or were employed by Defendant and classified as non-exempt 28 direct employees who worked at least one Workweek in California at any time during the Class Period.

1 (Agreement at ¶ 1.4.)

2 The Class Period is from February 18, 2021 through February 8, 2026. (Agreement at ¶ 1.11).

3 A. California Code of Civil Procedure § 382

4 Plaintiffs seek certification of this Class for settlement purposes under California Code of Civil 5 Procedure § 382. The California Supreme Court has summarized the standard for determining whether 6 class certification is appropriate as follows:

7 Code of Civil Procedure Section 382 authorizes class actions “when the question is one 8 of a common or general interest, of many persons, or when the parties are numerous, 9 and it is impracticable to bring them all before the court....” The party seeking 10 certification has the burden to establish the existence of both an ascertainable class and 11 a well-defined community of interest among class members. (citations omitted). The 12 “community of interest” requirement embodies three factors: (1) predominant common 13 questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the 14 class; and (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class.

15 Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc. v. Superior Court, 34 Cal. 4th 319, 326 (2004).

16 While Defendant reserves all rights to dispute that the Plaintiffs can satisfy these requirements, 17 the Parties agree that Defendant will not dispute that these requirements may be satisfied in this case 18 for purposes of settlement only and therefore, the proposed Class should be certified for purposes of 19 settlement only. (Agreement at ¶ 2.10.)

20 B. The Proposed Class Is Ascertainable and Numerous

21 Plaintiffs bring this Action on behalf of a Class of non-exempt employees of the Defendant 22 during the Class Period. Plaintiffs assert that all of these individuals are ascertainable because the class 23 members can readily be determined through examination of Defendant’s files. Given that the Class 24 consists of approximately 1,310 individuals, Plaintiffs maintain that numerosity is clearly satisfied.
25 See Bowles v. Superior Court, 44 Cal.2d 574 (1955) (class with 10 members); Rose v. City of Hayward, 26 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934 (1981) (class of 48 members satisfies numerosity requirement.) Here, 27 Plaintiffs assert that the 1,310 current and former employees that comprise the Class can be identified 28 based on Defendant’s records and are sufficiently numerous for class certification. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶30. Defendant disputes that the proposed Class is ascertainable and numerous, but will not oppose such a finding for purposes of this Settlement only.

1 C. Common Issues of Law and Fact Predominate

2 Predominance of common issues of law or fact does not require that the common issues be 3 dispositive of the entire controversy or even that they be dispositive of all liability issues. 1 Newberg 4 on Class Actions, Section 4.25 at 4-82, 4-83 (1992). “Predominance is a comparative concept, and ‘the 5 necessity for class members to individually establish eligibility and damages does not mean individual 6 fact questions predominate.’” Sav-On, 34 Cal. 4th at 334.

7 Commonality exists if there is a predominant common legal question regarding how an 8 employer’s policies impact its employees. Ghazaryan v. Diva Limousine, Ltd., 169 Cal. App. 4th 1524, 9 1536 (2008) (“[T]he common legal question remains the overall impact of Diva's policies on its 10 drivers.”) Whether the plaintiff is likely to prevail on their theory of recovery is irrelevant at the 11 certification stage since the question is “essentially a procedural one that does not ask whether an action 12 is legally or factually meritorious.” Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co., 23 Cal. 4th 429, 439-440 (2003).

13 Here, Plaintiffs contend that common questions of law and fact are present, specifically the 14 common questions of whether Defendant’s practices were lawful, whether Defendant failed to provide 15 meal and rest periods to Class Members, whether Class Members were lawfully compensated for all 16 hours worked, whether Defendant failed to provide required expense reimbursement, and whether Class 17 Members are entitled to damages and penalties as a result of these practices. Plaintiffs contend that 18 certification of this Class is appropriate because Defendant allegedly engaged in uniform practices with 19 respect to the Class Members. As a result, these common questions of liability could be answered on 20 a class wide basis. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶30. Defendant disputes that common questions predominate 21 but will not oppose such a finding for purposes of this Settlement only.

22 D. The Claims of the Plaintiffs Are Typical of the Class Claims

23 The typicality requirement requires the Plaintiffs to demonstrate that the members of the class 24 have the same or similar claims as the Plaintiffs. “The typicality requirement is met when the claims 25 of the [p]laintiff arise from the same event or are based on the same legal theories.” Tate v.
26 Weyerhaeuser Co., 723 F.2d 598, 608 (8th Cir. 1983). In Hanlon, supra, 150 F.3d at 1020, the Ninth 27 Circuit held that “[u]nder the rule’s permissive standards, representative claims are ‘typical’ if they are 28 reasonably coextensive with those of absent class members; they need not be substantially identical.”

1 In this Action, Plaintiffs contend that the typicality requirement is fully satisfied. Plaintiffs, like 2 every other member of the Class, were employed by Defendant as non-exempt employees, and, like 3 every other member of the Class, were subject to the same employment policies and practices.
4 Plaintiffs, like every other member of the Class, also claim owed compensation as a result of the 5 Defendant's uniform company policies and practices. Thus, the claims of Plaintiffs and the members 6 of the Class arise from the same course of conduct by Defendant, involve the same issues, and are 7 based on the same legal theories. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶30. Plaintiffs assert that the typicality 8 requirement is met as to the common issues presented in this case. Defendant disputes that the 9 typicality requirement is satisfied, however, Defendant does not oppose a finding of typicality for 10 purposes of this Settlement only.

11 E. The Class Representation Fairly and Adequately Protected the Class

12 Plaintiffs contend that the Class Members are adequately represented here because Plaintiffs 13 and representing counsel (a) do not have any conflicts of interest with other class members, and (b) will 14 prosecute the case vigorously on behalf of the class. Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1020. This requirement is 15 met here. First, Plaintiffs are well aware of their duties as the representatives of the Class and has 16 actively participated in the prosecution of this case to date. Plaintiffs effectively communicated with 17 Class Counsel, provided documents and information to Class Counsel, and participated in the 18 investigation and resolution of the Action. The personal involvement of the Plaintiffs was essential to 19 the prosecution of the Action and the monetary settlement reached. Second, Plaintiffs retained 20 competent counsel who are experienced in employment class actions and who have no conflicts. Decl.
21 Nordrehaug at ¶ 31. Third, there is no antagonism between the interests of the Plaintiffs and those of 22 the Class. Both the Plaintiffs and the Class Members seek monetary relief under the same set of facts 23 and legal theories. Under such circumstances, there can be no conflicts of interest, and adequacy of 24 representation is satisfied. Reaves v. Ketoro, Inc., 2020 U.S. Dist. Lexis 167926, *23 (C.D. Cal. 2020).

25 F. The Superiority Requirement Is Met

26 To certify a class, the Court must also determine that a class action is superior to other available 27 methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy. "Where classwide litigation of 28 common issues will reduce litigation costs and promote greater efficiency, a class action may be

1 superior to other methods of litigation.” Valentino v. Carter-Wallace, Inc., 97 F.3d 1227, 1234 (9th Cir.
2 1996). As the Supreme Court has previously explained:

3 Absent class treatment, each individual plaintiff would present in separate, duplicative 4 proceedings the same or essentially the same arguments and evidence, including expert 5 testimony. The result would be a multiplicity of trials conducted at enormous expense 6 to both the judicial system and the litigants.

7 Sav-On, 34 Cal. 4th at 340.

8 Here, Plaintiffs contend that a class action is the superior mechanism for resolution of the 9 claims as pled by the Plaintiffs. While Defendant disputes that the superiority requirement is satisfied, 10 Defendant does not dispute a finding of superiority for purposes of this Settlement only.

11 VI. THE PROPOSED METHOD OF CLASS NOTICE IS APPROPRIATE

12 The Court has broad discretion in approving a practical notice program. 7- Eleven Owners for 13 Fair Franchising v. Southland Corp., 85 Cal. App. 4th 1135, 1164 (2000). The Parties have agreed 14 upon procedures by which the Class Members will be provided with written notice of the Settlement 15 similar to that approved and utilized in hundreds of class action settlements and the Class Notice 16 includes all relevant information. (See Exhibit “A” to the Agreement.) Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶32. The 17 Class Notice will explain that the Class Members shall have forty-five (45) days from the date that the 18 Class Notice is mailed to them (the “Response Deadline”) to request exclusion (opt-out) or to submit 19 a written objection. (Agreement at ¶¶ 1.41, 8.5, 8.7.) Class Members shall be given the opportunity 20 to object to the Settlement, and to appear at the Final Approval Hearing. (Agreement at ¶ 8.7.) This 21 notice program was designed to meaningfully reach the Class Members and it advises them of all 22 pertinent information concerning the Settlement. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶32. The distribution of the 23 Class Notice satisfies the requirements of due process, is the best notice practicable under the 24 circumstances, and complies with Rules of Court 3.766 and 3.769(f).

25 VII. CONCLUSION

26 Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court preliminarily approve the proposed settlement and 27 sign the proposed Preliminary Approval Order, which is submitted herewith, and schedule the final 28 approval hearing for the proposed date of October 22, 2026.
