1 I. INTRODUCTION

2 Plaintiffs Violet Gash and Andre George Quarles (“Plaintiffs”) respectfully submit this 3 memorandum in support of the unopposed motion for preliminary approval of the proposed class action
4 settlement with Defendant California Teaching Fellows Foundation (“Defendant”) which seeks entry
5 of an order: (1) preliminarily approving the proposed settlement of this class action with Defendant; 6 (2) for settlement purposes only, conditionally certifying the Class, which is comprised of “all 7 individuals who worked for any Defendant in California as an hourly, non-exempt employee at any 8 time during the Class Period”, which is August 6, 2020 through August 6, 2025; (3) provisionally
9 appointing Plaintiffs as the representatives of the Class; (4) provisionally appointing Blumenthal 10 Nordrehaug Bhowmik De Blouw LLP and Aegis Law Firm, PC as Class Counsel; (5) approving the 11 form and method for providing class-wide notice; (6) directing that notice of the proposed settlement 12 be given to the class; (7) appointing ILYM Group as the Administrator, and (8) scheduling a final 13 approval hearing date, proposed for December 2, 2026, to consider Plaintiffs’ motion for final approval 14 of the settlement and for approval of attorneys’ fees, expenses and service awards. Plaintiffs and 15 Defendant (collectively the “Parties”) have reached a full and final settlement of the above-captioned 16 action, which is embodied in the Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement (“Agreement”) filed 17 concurrently with the Court.¹ A copy of the fully executed Agreement is attached as Exhibit #1 to the 18 Declaration of Kyle Nordrehaug (“Decl. Nordrehaug”), served and filed herewith.

19 As consideration for this Settlement, the non-reversionary Gross Settlement Amount of One 20 Million Seven Hundred Thousand Dollars ($1,700,000) (the “Gross Settlement Amount”) is to be paid
21 by Defendant, as set forth in the Agreement. The Gross Settlement Amount will settle all issues 22 pending in the Action between the Parties and will be made in full and final settlement of the Released
23 Class Claims in exchange for the payments to Participating Class Members from the Net Settlement 24 Amount, and includes (a) the costs of administration of the settlement, (b) all attorneys' fees and costs, 25 (c) the Class Representative Service Payments, and (d) the PAGA Penalties payment allocated 75% to 26 the LWDA and 25% to the Aggrieved Employees. (Agreement at ¶ 1.21.) Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶3. The 27

28 ¹ Capitalized terms shall have the same meaning as defined in the Agreement.

1 following is a table of the key financial terms of the Settlement and the proposed deductions:

2 $1,700,000 (Gross Settlement Amount)

- 3 - $30,000 (Plaintiffs' proposed service awards - not to exceed $15,000 each)
- 4 - $42,000 (Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment - not to exceed amount)
- 5 - $566,666 (Class Counsel Fees Payment - not to exceed 1/3 of settlement)
- 6 - $35,000 (PAGA Payment - 75% to LWDA / 25% to Aggrieved Employees)
- 7 - $55,000 (Administration Expenses Payment - not to exceed amount)

8 $971,334 (Net Settlement Amount)

9 Based upon 10,275 Class Members who collectively worked 588,158 workweeks (Agreement at ¶ 4.1), 10 the Gross Settlement Amount provides an average value of $165 per Class Member and $2.89 per 11 workweek and after deductions, the Net Settlement Amount provides an average recovery of $94.53 12 per Class Member and a recovery of $1.65 per workweek. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶6.

13 On August 6, 2025, the Parties participated in an all-day mediation session presided over by 14 Tripper Ortman, Esq., a respected and experienced mediator of wage and hour class actions. Following 15 this mediation, the Parties agreed on the basic terms of a settlement pursuant to a mediator's proposal 16 which was memorialized in the form of a Memorandum of Understanding. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶5.
17 The Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and should be preliminarily approved because there 18 is a substantial monetary payment, and there are significant litigation and class-certification risks.
19 Therefore, Plaintiffs respectfully request that this Court grant preliminary approval of the Agreement 20 and enter the proposed order submitted herewith.

21 II. DESCRIPTION OF THE SETTLEMENT

22 The Gross Settlement Amount is One Million Seven Hundred Thousand Dollars ($1,700,000).
23 (Agreement at ¶ 1.21.) Under the Settlement, the Gross Settlement Amount consists of the following 24 elements: (1) payment of the Individual Class Payments to the Participating Class Members; (2) Class
25 Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment; (3) Administration Expenses
26 Payment; (4) the Class Representative Service Payments to the Plaintiffs; and (5) the PAGA Penalties 27 payment allocated 75% to the LWDA PAGA Payment and 25% to the Individual PAGA Payments.
28 (Agreement at ¶ 1.21.) The Gross Settlement Amount does not include Defendant's share of payroll taxes. (Agreement at ¶ 3.1.) The Gross Settlement Amount shall be all-in with no reversion to Defendant. (Agreement at ¶ 3.1.) Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶15.

Defendant shall fund the Gross Settlement Amount and the amount necessary to pay payroll

1 taxes thereon in three (3) equal installments, every twelve (12) months, beginning November 6, 2026
2 (twelve months following the signing of the Memorandum of Understanding on November 6, 2025).
3 In the event Defendant defaults on any of the three payments, after being given notice by Class Counsel 4 and an opportunity to cure within fourteen (14) days, Defendant agrees that all payments still due and 5 owing on the Payments in the total amount of $1,700,000 Gross Settlement Amount, less any payments 6 received, shall be accelerated and due immediately. (Agreement at ¶ 4.3.) The distribution of 7 Individual Class Payments to Participating Class Members will be made within 14 days after Defendant 8 fully funds the Gross Settlement Amount. (Agreement at ¶ 5.1.) Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶16.

9 The amount remaining in the Gross Settlement Amount after the deduction of Court-approved 10 amounts for Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, the Class Representative Service 11 Payments, the Class Counsel Fees Payment, the Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, and the 12 Administration Expenses Payment (called the “Net Settlement Amount”) shall be allocated to Class 13 Members as their Individual Class Payments. (Agreement at ¶¶ 1.27 and 3.2.) The Administrator will 14 calculate each Individual Class Payment by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number 15 of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members during the Class Period and (b) multiplying 16 the result by each Participating Class Member's Workweeks. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(e).) Workweeks will 17 initially be based on Defendant’s records, however, Class Members will have the right to challenge the 18 number of Workweeks. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶17.

19 Class Members may choose to opt-out of the Settlement by following the directions in the Class 20 Notice. (Agreement at ¶ 8.5, Ex. A.) All Class Members who do not “opt out” will be deemed 21 Participating Class Members who will be bound by the Settlement and will be entitled to receive an 22 Individual Class Payment. (Agreement at ¶ 8.5(c).) All Aggrieved Employees will be paid their 23 allocation of the PAGA Penalties and will remain subject to the release of the Released PAGA Claims 24 regardless of their request for exclusion from the Class. (Agreement at ¶¶ 6.3 and 8.5(d).) Finally, the 25 Class Notice will advise the Class Members of their right to object to the Settlement and/or dispute their 26 Workweeks. (Agreement at ¶¶ 8.6 and 8.7, and Ex. A.) Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶18.

27 Participating Class Members must cash their Individual Class Payment check within 180 days 28 after it is mailed. (Agreement at ¶ 5.2.) Any settlement checks not cashed within 180 days will be

1 voided and any funds represented by such checks sent to a Court-approved nonprofit organization or 2 foundation consistent with Code of Civil Procedure Section 384(b) ("Cy Pres Recipient") The Parties
3 propose Valley Children's Hospital as the Cy Pres Recipient, and represent that they have no interest
4 or relationship, financial or otherwise, with the intended Cy Pres Recipient. (Agreement at ¶ 5.4.)
5 Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶19.

6 Subject to Court approval, the Parties have agreed on ILYM Group, Inc. to administer the 7 settlement in this action ("Administrator"). (Agreement at ¶ 1.2.) The Administrator will be paid for 8 settlement administration in an amount not to exceed $55,000. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(c).) ILYM Group 9 provided an estimate of $49,950 for administration expenses. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶20.

10 Subject to Court approval, the Agreement provides for Class Counsel to be awarded a sum not 11 to exceed one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount, as the Class Counsel Fees Payment. (Agreement 12 at ¶ 3.2(b).) Class Counsel will also be allowed to apply separately for an award of Class Counsel 13 Litigation Expenses Payment in an amount not to exceed $42,000. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(b).) Subject 14 to Court approval, the Agreement provides for a payment of no more than $15,000 to each Plaintiff as 15 their Class Representative Service Payments. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(a).) Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶21.

16 Subject to Court approval, the PAGA Penalties will be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount 17 for PAGA penalties under the California Private Attorneys General Act, Cal. Labor Code Section 2698, 18 et seq. ("PAGA"). The PAGA Penalties are $35,000. (Agreement at ¶¶ 1.33 and 3.2(d).) Pursuant to 19 the express requirements of Labor Code § 2699(i), the PAGA Payment shall be allocated as follows:
20 75% shall be allocated to the Labor Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") as its share of the 21 civil penalties and 25% allocated to the Individual PAGA Payments to be distributed to the Aggrieved 22 Employees based on the number of their respective PAGA Pay Periods.² (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(d).) As 23 set forth in the accompanying proof of service, the LWDA has been served with this motion and the 24 Agreement. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶22.

25 III. CASE BACKGROUND

26
27 28 ² The PAGA claim in this Action was initiated by the PAGA Notice prior to June 2024, and therefore the prior version of Labor Code ¶2699 applies to the 75/25 allocation.

1 The description of the case and claims, along with the procedural history is set forth in the 2 Declaration of Kyle Nordrehaug at ¶¶ 7-14. The Parties engaged in thorough investigation and the 3 exchange of documents and information in connection with the Action over more than one year which 4 permitted Class Counsel to perform a thorough analysis of the claims. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶¶ 10 and 5 14. The Parties participated in mediation on August 6, 2025 with Tripper Ortman, Esq., which after 6 arms' length negotiations during the mediation, resulted in this Settlement. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶12.

7 IV. THE SETTLEMENT MEETS THE CRITERIA NECESSARY FOR THIS COURT TO 8 GRANT PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

9 California "[p]ublic policy generally favors the compromise of complex class action litigation."
10 Nordstrom Comm'n Cases, 186 Cal. App. 4th 576, 581 (2010) quoting Cellphone Termination Fee 11 Cases, 180 Cal.App.4th 1110, 1117-18 (2009). Class action settlements are approved where the 12 proposed settlement is "fair, adequate and reasonable." Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 13 1801 (1996) (citing Officers for Justice v. Civil Serv. Comm'n, 688 F.2d 615, 625 (9th Cir. 1982), cert.
14 denied, 459 U.S. 1217 (1983)).

15 Preliminary approval is the first of three steps that comprise the approval procedure for 16 settlements of class actions. The second step is the dissemination of notice of the settlement to all class 17 members. The third step is a final settlement approval hearing, at which evidence and argument 18 concerning the fairness, adequacy, and reasonableness of the settlement may be presented, and class 19 members may be heard regarding the settlement. See Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 20 1801 (1996); Manual for Complex Litigation, Second §30.44 (1993); Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.769.

21 The primary question presented on an application for preliminary approval of a proposed class 22 action settlement is whether the proposed settlement is "within the range of possible approval."
23 Manual for Complex Litigation, Second §30.44 at 229; Gautreaux v. Pierce, 690 F.2d 616, 621 n.3 (7th 24 Cir. 1982).³ Preliminary approval is merely the prerequisite to giving notice so that "the proposed

26 ³ California courts look to federal authority on class actions. Vasquez v. Superior Court, 4 Cal.3d 27 800, 821 (1971). "It is well established that in the absence of relevant state precedents trial courts are 28 urged to follow the procedures prescribed in Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for conducting class actions." Frazier v. City of Richmond, 184 Cal. App.3d 1491, 1499 (1986), citing Green v. Obledo, 29 Cal.3d 126, 145-146 (1981).

1 settlement... may be submitted to members of the prospective Class for their acceptance or rejection.”
2 Sayaman v. Baxter Healthcare Corp., 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 151997, *3 (C.D. Cal. 2010). There is 3 "a presumption of fairness . . . where . . . [a] settlement is reached through arms-length bargaining."
4 Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 245 (2001) (citation omitted); see also Cho v.
5 Seagate Tech. Holdings, Inc., 177 Cal. App. 4th 734, 742-45 (2009) (upholding trial court's 6 determination that settlement was "fair, reasonable and adequate" where the settlement "provided 7 valuable benefits to the class . . . that were 'particularly valuable in light of the risks plaintiff would have 8 faced if she proceeded to litigate her case.'"); Newberg, 3d Ed., §11.41, p.11-88. However, the ultimate 9 question of whether the proposed settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate is made after notice of 10 the settlement is given to the class members and a final settlement hearing is held by the Court.

11 A. The Role Of The Court In Preliminary Approval Of A Class Action Settlement

12 The approval of a proposed settlement of a class action suit is a matter within the broad 13 discretion of the trial court. Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at 234-235; Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th 1794.
14 In considering a potential settlement for preliminary approval purposes, the trial court does not have 15 to reach any ultimate conclusions on the issues of fact and law which underlie the merits of the dispute, 16 and need not engage in a trial on the merits. Wershba, supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at 239-40; Dunk, supra, 17 48 Cal.App. 4th at 1807. The Ninth Circuit explains, “the very essence of a settlement is compromise, 18 ‘a yielding of absolutes and an abandoning of highest hopes.’” Officers for Justice, 688 F.2d at 624.
19 Thus, when analyzing the settlement, the amount is “not to be judged against a hypothetical or 20 speculative measure of what might have been achieved by the negotiators.” Officers for Justice, 688 21 F.2d at 625, 628.

22 With regard to class action settlements, the opinions of counsel should be given considerable 23 weight both because of counsel’s familiarity with this litigation and previous experience with cases 24 such as these. Officers for Justice, 688 F.2d at 625. As a result, courts hold that the recommendation
25 of counsel is entitled to significant weight. Nat'l Rural Telecomms. Coop. v. DIRECTV, Inc., 221 26 F.R.D. 523, 528 (C.D. Cal. 2004).

27 B. Factors To Be Considered In Granting Preliminary Approval

28 A number of factors are to be considered in evaluating a settlement for purposes of preliminary

1 approval. In determining whether to grant preliminary approval, the court considers whether the “(1) 2 the proposed settlement appears to be the product of serious, informed, non-collusive negotiations, (2) 3 has no obvious deficiencies, (3) does not improperly grant preferential treatment to class representatives 4 or segments of the class, and (4) falls within the range of possible approval.” In re Tableware Antitrust
5 Litig., 484 F.Supp. 2d 1078, 1079 (N.D. Cal. 2007). Courts hold that “a presumption of fairness exists 6 where: (1) the settlement is reached through arm's-length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery 7 are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar 8 litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small.” Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.
9 App. 4th 116, 128 (2008). Here, the Settlement meets all of these criteria for preliminary approval and 10 therefore the presumption applies.

11 1. The Settlement is the Product of Serious, Informed and 12 Arm’s Length Negotiations by Experienced Counsel

13 This settlement is the result of extensive and hard-fought litigation as well as negotiations 14 before an experienced and well-respected mediator. Defendant has expressly denied and continues to 15 deny any wrongdoing or legal liability arising out of the conduct alleged in the Action. Plaintiffs and 16 Class Counsel have determined that it is desirable and beneficial to the Class to resolve the Released 17 Class Claims of the Class in accordance with this Settlement. The release applicable to the Class is 18 appropriately tethered to allegations in the Action. (Agreement at ¶¶ 1.38 and 6.2.)

19 Class Counsel are experienced and qualified to evaluate the class claims, the defenses asserted, 20 and the risks and benefits of trial and settlement, and Class Counsel are particularly experienced in 21 wage and hour employment class actions, as Class Counsel has previously litigated and certified similar 22 claims against other employers. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶31; Declaration of Jessica Campbell at ¶¶ 9-20.
23 The view of qualified and well-informed counsel that a class action settlement is fair, adequate, and 24 reasonable is entitled to significant weight. See Kullar v. Foot Locker, 168 Cal. App. 4th 116, 133 25 (2008) (the trial court “undoubtedly should continue to place reliance on the competence and integrity 26 of counsel, the involvement of a qualified mediator, and the paucity of objectors to the settlement.”); 27 Dunk, 48 Cal. App. 4th at 1802.

28 The Parties attended an arms-length mediation session with Tripper Ortman, Esq., a respected

1 and experienced mediator of wage and hour class actions, in order to reach this Settlement. In 2 preparation for the mediation, Defendant provided Class Counsel with timekeeping and employment 3 data and other information regarding the Class Members, various internal documents, and other 4 compensation and employment-related materials. Class Counsel analyzed the data with the assistance 5 of damages expert Berger Consulting and prepared and submitted a mediation brief to the mediator. The 6 final settlement terms were negotiated and set forth in the Agreement now presented for this Court's 7 approval. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 5. Importantly, Plaintiffs and Class Counsel believe that this 8 Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate.

9 As consideration for this Settlement, the Gross Settlement Amount to be paid by Defendant is 10 One Million Seven Hundred Thousand Dollars ($1,700,000). The Settlement is all-in with no reversion 11 to Defendant and no need to submit a claim form. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 3.

12 Class Counsel has conducted an investigation into the facts of the class action. Informal 13 discovery was obtained, which included the production of hundreds of pages documents and data.
14 Class Counsel engaged in a thorough review and analysis of the relevant documents and data with the 15 assistance of an expert. Accordingly, the agreement to settle did not occur until Class Counsel 16 possessed sufficient information to make an informed judgment regarding the likelihood of success on 17 the merits and the results that could be obtained through further litigation. In addition, Class Counsel 18 previously negotiated settlements with other employers in actions involving nearly identical issues and 19 analogous defenses. Based on the foregoing data and their own independent investigation, evaluation 20 and experience, Class Counsel believes that the settlement with Defendant on the terms set forth in the 21 Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best interest of the Class in light of all known 22 facts and circumstances, including the risk of significant delay, defenses asserted by Defendant, and 23 potential appellate issues. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 14.

24 Plaintiffs and Class Counsel recognize the expense and length of continuing to litigate and 25 trying this Action against Defendant through possible appeals which could take several years. Class 26 Counsel has also taken into account the uncertain outcome and risk of litigation, especially in complex 27 class actions such as this Action. Class Counsel is also mindful of and recognize the inherent problems 28 of proof under, and alleged defenses to, the claims asserted in the Action. Based upon their evaluation,

1 Plaintiffs and Class Counsel have determined that the Settlement set forth in the Agreement is in the 2 best interest of the Class Members. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶ 23.

3 Here, there can be no dispute that the litigation has been hard-fought with aggressive and 4 capable advocacy on both sides. The Parties were represented by experienced and capable counsel who 5 zealously advocated their positions. Accordingly, “[t]here is likewise every reason to conclude that 6 settlement negotiations were vigorously conducted at arms’ length and without any suggestion of undue 7 influence.” In re Wash. Public Power Supply System Sec. Litig., 720 F. Supp. at 1392.

8 2. The Settlement Has No "Obvious Deficiencies" and Falls Well Within 9 the Range for Approval

10 The proposed Settlement herein has no "obvious deficiencies" and is well within the range of 11 possible approval. All Class Members will receive an opportunity to participate in the Settlement and 12 receive payment according to the same formula. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(e).) Based upon 10,275 Class 13 Members who collectively worked 588,158 workweeks (Agreement at ¶ 4.1), the Gross Settlement 14 Amount provides an average value of $165 per Class Member and $2.89 per workweek and after 15 deductions, the Net Settlement Amount provides an average recovery of $94.53 per Class Member and 16 a recovery of $1.65 per workweek. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶6.

17 The calculations to compensate for the amount due for the Class at the time of the mediation 18 were calculated by Berger Consulting, Plaintiffs’ damage expert. As to the Class whose claims are at 19 issue in this Action, Plaintiffs used this expert to analyze the data and determine the potential unpaid 20 wages for the employees. The maximum potential damages were calculated to be $284,437 for the 21 alleged underpaid wages due to rounding, $618,707 for the alleged unpaid reporting time wages, $7,885 22 for the alleged underpaid sick pay due to the alleged miscalculation of the regular rate, $1,077,505 for 23 the alleged unpaid wages due to off-the-clock work at 6 minutes per week, $938,295 for alleged meal 24 period damages based upon a 36.9% potential violation rate for shifts over 6 hours observed in the time 25 records, $5,387,527 for alleged rest period damages based upon one missed rest break per pay period, 26 $841,420 for alleged unreimbursed business expenses for personal cell phone usage at $5 per month.
27 Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶6. As a result, the total damage valuation was calculated that Defendant was 28 subject to a maximum damage claim in the amount of $9,155,776. As to potential penalties, Plaintiffs

1 calculated that potential waiting time penalties were a maximum of $13,958,222, and potential 2 maximum wage statement penalties were $14,951,200.⁴ Defendant vigorously disputed Plaintiffs' 3 calculations and exposure theories. See Decl. Nordrehaug, at ¶6 for additional details as to the 4 valuation of the claims.

5 Consequently, the Gross Settlement Amount of $1,700,000 represents more than 18% of the 6 maximum value of the alleged damages at issue in this case at the time this Settlement was negotiated.⁵
7 The settlement amount was also impacted by the Defendant's financial condition and ability to pay. I 8 significant judgment would likely result in the Defendant's insolvency/bankruptcy and no recovery 9 whatsoever. Importantly, the recent decision that good faith belief of compliance by the employer in 10 Naranjo v. Spectrum Sec. Servs., Inc., 15 Cal. 5th 1056, 1065 (2024), could completely negate the 11 claims for waiting time and wage statement penalties, even if wages were owed to the Class. The above 12 maximum calculations should then be adjusted in consideration for both the risk of class certification 13 and the risk of establishing class-wide liability on all claims. Given the amount of the settlement as 14 compared to the potential value of claims in this case and the defenses asserted by Defendant, this 15 settlement is fair and reasonable.⁶ Clearly, the goal of this litigation has been met. Decl. Nordrehaug, 17 ⁴ While Plaintiffs alleged claims for statutory penalties pursuant to Labor Code Sections 203 and 18 226, at mediation Plaintiffs recognized that these claims were subject to additional, separate defenses 19 asserted by Defendant, including, a good faith dispute defense as to whether any premium wages for 20 meal or rest periods or other wages were owed given Defendant's position that Plaintiffs and Class

21 Members were properly compensated. See Nordstrom Commission Cases, 186 Cal. App. 4th 576, 584 (2010) ("There is no willful failure to pay wages if the employer and employee have a good faith dispute as to whether and when the wages were due.").

22 ⁵ Because the PAGA claim is not a class claim and primarily is paid to the State of California, 23 Plaintiffs have not included the PAGA claim in this discussion of the value of the class claims. The PAGA claim is addressed in the Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶33.

24 ⁶ See Glass v. UBS Fin. Servs., 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 8476 (N.D. Cal. 2007) (approving a 25 settlement where the settlement amount constituted approximately 25% of the estimated overtime 26 damages for the class); Stovall-Gusman v. W.W. Granger, Inc., 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78671, at *12 27 (N.D. Cal. 2015) (granting final approval where "the proposed Total Settlement Amount represents approximately 10% of what class might have been awarded had they succeeded at trial."); Dunleavy 28 v. Nadler (In re Mego Fin. Corp. Sec. Litig.), 213 F.3d 454, 459 (9th Cir. 2000) (affirming approval of a class settlement which represented "roughly one-sixth of the potential recovery".) See also Viceral
v. Mistras Grp., Inc., 2016 WL 5907869 (N.D. Cal. 2016) (approving wage and hour class action

Where both sides face significant uncertainty, the attendant risks favor settlement. Hanlon v. Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1026 (9th Cir. 1998). Here, a number of defenses asserted by Defendant present serious threats to the claims of the Plaintiffs and the other Class Members. Defendant asserted that Defendant's practices complied with all applicable Labor laws. Defendant argued that Class Members were paid for all time worked and that all work time was properly recorded and compensation for that time was correctly compensated. Defendant contends that any rounding was facially neutral and did not result in underpayment of wages. Defendant contends that its meal and rest period policies fully complied with California law and Defendant did not fail to provide the opportunity for legally required meal and rest breaks. Defendant argued that most shifts were less than five hours, which would make meal and/or rest breaks inapplicable to such shifts, and that waivers were applicable to the shifts which did not exceed six hours. Defendant contends that there was no failure to pay for business expenses and any cell phone usage was merely convenient and voluntary such that reimbursement was not legally required. Finally, Defendant could argue that the Supreme Court decision in Brinker v. Superior Court, 53 Cal. 4th 1004 (2012), weakened Plaintiffs' claims, on liability, value, and class certifiability as to the meal and rest period claims. Defendant also argues that based on their facially lawful practices, Defendant acted in good faith and without willfulness, which if accepted would negate the claims for waiting time penalties and/or inaccurate wage statements. See e.g. Naranjo v. Spectrum Sec. Servs., Inc., 15 Cal. 5th 1056, 1065 (May 6, 2024) ("if an employer reasonably and in good faith believed it was providing a complete and accurate wage statement in compliance with the requirements of section 226, then it has not knowingly and intentionally failed to comply with the wage statement law.") Defendant's defenses could eliminate or substantially reduce any recovery to the Class. While Plaintiffs believe that these defenses could be overcome, Defendant maintains these defenses have merit and therefore present a serious risk to recovery by the Class. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶ 24.

settlement amounting to 8.1% of full value); Ma v. Covidien Holding, Inc., 2014 WL 2472316, (C.D. Cal. 2014) (approving wage and hour class action settlement worth "somewhere between 9% and 18%" of maximum valuation).

1 There was also a significant risk that, if the Action was not settled, Plaintiffs would be unable 2 to obtain a certified class and maintain the certified class through trial, and thereby not recover on 3 behalf of any employees other than themselves. At the time of the mediation, Defendant forcefully 4 opposed the propriety of class certification, arguing that individual issues precluded class certification.
5 Further, as demonstrated by the California Supreme Court decision in Duran v. U.S. Bank National 6 Assn., 59 Cal. 4th 1 (2014), there are significant hurdles to overcome for a class-wide recovery even 7 where the class has been certified. While other cases have approved class certification in wage and 8 hour claims, class certification in this action was hotly disputed and the maintenance of a certified class 9 through trial was by no means a foregone conclusion. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶ 25.

10 After arm's length negotiations between experienced and informed counsel, the Parties 11 recognized the potential risks and agreed on the Settlement with a Gross Settlement Amount of 12 $1,700,000. As the Court held in Glass, where the parties faced uncertainties similar to those here:

13 In light of the above-referenced uncertainty in the law, the risk, expense, complexity, 14 and likely duration of further litigation likewise favors the settlement. Regardless of 15 how this Court might have ruled on the merits of the legal issues, the losing party likely 16 would have appealed, and the parties would have faced the expense and uncertainty of 17 litigating an appeal. 'The expense and possible duration of the litigation should be 18 considered in evaluating the reasonableness of [a] settlement.'"

19 2007 WL 221862, at *4 (quoting In re Mego Financial Corp. Securities Litigation, 213 F.3d 454, 458 20 (9th Cir. 2000)).

21 3. The Settlement Does Not Improperly Grant Preferential Treatment To 22 Class Representatives or Segments Of The Class

23 The relief provided in the Settlement will benefit all members of the Class. The Settlement does 24 not grant preferential treatment to Plaintiffs or segments of the Class in any way. Payments to the Class 25 Members are all determined under a neutral methodology. Each Participating Class Member will 26 receive the same opportunity to participate in and receive payment through a neutral formula that is 27 based upon the weeks worked by that individual. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶4.

28 Plaintiffs will apply to the Court for Class Representative Service Payments in consideration for their service and for the risks undertaken on behalf of the Class. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(a).) Plaintiffs performed their duties admirably by working with Class Counsel over the course of litigation. The Declarations of the Plaintiffs are submitted herewith in support. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶27. At this

1 stage, the not to exceed amount for the requested service award is within the accepted range of awards 2 for purposes of preliminary approval, subject to the Court's determination at final approval. See e.g.
3 Andrews v. Plains All Am. Pipeline L.P., 2022 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 172183, at *11 (C.D. Cal. 2022)
4 (finding that the requested service awards of $15,000 each are appropriate); Reynolds v. Direct Flow
5 Med., Inc., 2019 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 149865, at *19 (N.D. Cal. 2019) (granting request for $12,500
6 service award); Mathein v. Pier 1 Imps. (U.S.), Inc., 2018 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 71386 (E.D. Cal. 2018)
7 (awarding $12,500 where average class member payment was $351); Louie v. Kaiser Foundation
8 Health Plan, Inc., 2008 WL 4473183, *7 (S.D. Cal. Oct. 06, 2008) (awarding $25,000 service award 9 to each of six plaintiffs in overtime class action); Glass v. UBS Fin. Servs., 2007 WL 221862, *16-17 10 (N.D. Cal. 2007) (awarding $25,000 service award in overtime class action and a pool of $100,000 in 11 enhancements). As explained in Glass, service awards are routinely awarded to class representatives 12 to compensate the employees for the time and effort expended on the case, for the risk of litigation, for 13 the fear of suing an employer and retaliation there from, and to serve as an incentive to vindicate the 14 statutory rights of all employees. 2007 WL 221862 at *16-17.

15 4. The Stage Of The Proceedings Are Sufficiently Advanced To Permit 16 Preliminary Approval Of The Settlement

17 The stage of the proceedings at which this Settlement was reached also militates in favor of 18 preliminary approval and ultimately, final approval of the Settlement. Class Counsel has conducted 19 a thorough investigation into the facts of the class action. Class Counsel began investigating the Class 20 Members' claims before the Action was filed, and during the course of litigation, Class Counsel 21 engaged in informal discovery to obtain necessary information. Class Counsel conducted a review and 22 analysis of the relevant documents and data. Class Counsel was also experienced with the claims at 23 issue here, as Class Counsel previously litigated and settled similar claims in other actions.
24 Accordingly, the agreement to settle did not occur until Class Counsel possessed sufficient information 25 to make an informed judgment regarding the likelihood of success on the merits and the results that 26 could be obtained through further litigation. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶28.

27 Based on the foregoing data and their own independent investigation and evaluation, Class 28 Counsel is of the opinion that the Settlement with Defendant for the consideration and on the terms set

1 forth in the Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best interest of the Class in light 2 of all known facts and circumstances, including the risk of significant delay, defenses asserted by 3 Defendant, and numerous potential appellate issues. There can be no doubt that Counsel possessed 4 sufficient information to make an informed judgment regarding the likelihood of success on the merits 5 and the results that could be obtained through further litigation. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶29.

6 V. THE CLASS IS PROPERLY CERTIFIED FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES ONLY

7 Plaintiffs contend that the proposed settlement meets all of the requirements for class 8 certification under California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 as demonstrated below, and therefore, the 9 Court may appropriately approve the Class as defined in the Agreement. This Court should 10 conditionally certify the Class for settlement purposes only, defined as follows:

11 All individuals who worked for any Defendant in California as an hourly, non-exempt 12 employee at any time during the Class Period.

13 (Agreement at ¶ 1.4.)

14 The Class Period is from August 6, 2020 through August 6, 2025. (Agreement at ¶ 1.12.)

15 A. California Code of Civil Procedure § 382

16 Plaintiffs seek certification of this Class for settlement purposes under California Code of Civil 17 Procedure § 382. The California Supreme Court has summarized the standard for determining whether 18 class certification is appropriate as follows:

19 Code of Civil Procedure Section 382 authorizes class actions “when the question is one 20 of a common or general interest, of many persons, or when the parties are numerous, 21 and it is impracticable to bring them all before the court....” The party seeking 22 certification has the burden to establish the existence of both an ascertainable class and a well-defined community of interest among class members. (citations omitted). The “community of interest” requirement embodies three factors: (1) predominant common questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class.

23 Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc. v. Superior Court, 34 Cal. 4th 319, 326 (2004).

24 While Defendant reserves all rights to dispute that the Plaintiffs can satisfy these requirements, 25 the Parties agree that Defendant will not dispute that these requirements may be satisfied in this case 26 for purposes of settlement only and therefore, the proposed Class should be certified for purposes of 27 settlement only. (Agreement at ¶ 2.12.)

28 B. The Proposed Class Is Ascertainable and Numerous

1 Plaintiffs bring this action on behalf of a Class of non-exempt employees of Defendant during 2 the Class Period. Plaintiffs assert that all of these individuals are ascertainable because the class 3 members can readily be determined through examination of Defendant's files. Given that the Class 4 consists of an estimated 10,275 individuals, Plaintiffs maintain that numerosity is clearly satisfied. See 5 Bowles v. Superior Court, 44 Cal.2d 574 (1955) (class with 10 members sufficiently numerous); Rose
6 v. City of Hayward, 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934 (1981) (class of 48 members satisfies numerosity 7 requirement.) Here, Plaintiffs assert that the 10,275 current and former employees that comprise the 8 Class can be identified based on Defendant's records and are sufficiently numerous for class 9 certification. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶30.

10 C. Common Issues of Law and Fact Predominate

11 Predominance of common issues of law or fact does not require that the common issues be 12 dispositive of the entire controversy or even that they be dispositive of all liability issues. 1 Newberg 13 on Class Actions, Section 4.25 at 4-82, 4-83 (1992). "Predominance is a comparative concept, and 'the 14 necessity for class members to individually establish eligibility and damages does not mean individual 15 fact questions predominate.'" Sav-On, 34 Cal. 4th at 334.

16 Commonality exists if there is a predominant common legal question regarding how an 17 employer's policies impact its employees. Ghazaryan v. Diva Limousine, Ltd., 169 Cal. App. 4th 1524, 18 1536 (2008) ("[T]he common legal question remains the overall impact of Diva's policies on its 19 drivers.") Whether the plaintiff is likely to prevail on their theory of recovery is irrelevant at the 20 certification stage since the question is "essentially a procedural one that does not ask whether an action 21 is legally or factually meritorious." Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co., 23 Cal. 4th 429, 439-440 (2003).

22 Here, Plaintiffs contend that common questions of law and fact are present, specifically the 23 common questions of whether Defendant's employment practices were lawful, whether Defendant 24 failed to provide meal and rest periods to Class Members, whether Class Members were lawfully 25 compensated for all hours worked, whether Defendant miscalculated the regular rate, whether 26 Defendant failed to provide required expense reimbursement, and whether Class Members are entitled 27 to damages and penalties as a result of these practices. Plaintiffs contend that certification of this Class 28 is appropriate because Defendant allegedly engaged in uniform practices with respect to the Class

1 Members. As a result, these common questions of liability could be answered on a class wide basis.
2 Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶30. Defendant disputes that common questions predominate but will not oppose 3 such a finding for purposes of this Settlement only.

4 D. The Claims of the Plaintiffs Are Typical of the Class Claims

5 The typicality requirement requires the Plaintiffs to demonstrate that the members of the Class
6 have the same or similar claims as the Plaintiffs. “The typicality requirement is met when the claims 7 of the [p]laintiff arise from the same event or are based on the same legal theories.” Tate v.
8 Weyerhaeuser Co., 723 F.2d 598, 608 (8th Cir. 1983). In Hanlon, supra, 150 F.3d at 1020, the Ninth 9 Circuit held that “[u]nder the rule’s permissive standards, representative claims are ‘typical’ if they are 10 reasonably coextensive with those of absent class members; they need not be substantially identical.”

11 In this Action, Plaintiffs contend that the typicality requirement is fully satisfied. Plaintiffs, like 12 every other member of the Class, were employed by Defendant as non-exempt employees, and, like 13 every other member of the Class, were subject to the same employment practices. Plaintiffs, like every 14 other member of the Class, also claim owed compensation as a result of the Defendant’s uniform 15 company policies and practices. Thus, the claims of Plaintiffs and the members of the Class arise from 16 the same course of conduct by Defendant, involve the same issues, and are based on the same legal 17 theories. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶30. For purposes of settlement, Plaintiffs assert that the typicality 18 requirement is met as to the common issues presented in this case. Defendant does not oppose a finding 19 of typicality for purposes of this Settlement only.

20 E. The Class Representation Fairly and Adequately Protected the Class

21 Plaintiffs contend that the Class Members are adequately represented here because Plaintiffs 22 and representing counsel (a) do not have any conflicts of interest with other class members, and (b) will 23 prosecute the case vigorously on behalf of the class. Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1020. This requirement is 24 met here. First, Plaintiffs are well aware of their duties as the representatives of the Class and have 25 actively participated in the prosecution of this case to date. Plaintiffs effectively communicated with 26 Class Counsel, provided documents and information to Class Counsel, and participated in the 27 investigation and resolution of the Action. The personal involvement of the Plaintiffs was essential to 28 the prosecution of the Action and the monetary settlement reached. Second, Plaintiffs retained

1 competent counsel who are experienced in employment class actions and who have no conflicts. Decl.
2 Nordrehaug at ¶ 31; Declaration of Jessica Campbell at ¶¶ 9-20. Third, there is no antagonism between 3 the interests of the Plaintiffs and those of the Class. Both the Plaintiffs and the Class Members seek 4 monetary relief under the same set of facts and legal theories. Under such circumstances, there can be 5 no conflicts of interest, and adequacy of representation is satisfied. Reaves v. Ketoro, Inc., 2020 U.S.
6 Dist. Lexis 167926, *23 (C.D. Cal. 2020). Defendant disputes that the adequacy requirement is 7 satisfied but will not oppose such a finding for purposes of this Settlement only.

8 F. The Superiority Requirement Is Met

9 To certify a class, the Court must also determine that a class action is superior to other available 10 methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy. “Where classwide litigation of 11 common issues will reduce litigation costs and promote greater efficiency, a class action may be 12 superior to other methods of litigation.” Valentino v. Carter-Wallace, Inc., 97 F.3d 1227, 1234 (9th Cir.
13 1996). As courts have previously observed:

14 Absent class treatment, each individual plaintiff would present in separate, duplicative 15 proceedings the same or essentially the same arguments and evidence, including expert 16 testimony. The result would be a multiplicity of trials conducted at enormous expense 17 to both the judicial system and the litigants. “It would be neither efficient nor fair to 18 anyone, including defendants, to force multiple trials to hear the same evidence and 19 decide the same issues.”

20 Sav-On, 34 Cal. 4th at 340, citing Boggs v. Divested Atomic Corp., 141 F.R.D. 58, 67 (S.D. Ohio 1991).

21 Here, Plaintiffs contend that a class action is the superior mechanism for resolution of the claims 22 as pled by the Plaintiffs. While Defendant disputes that class treatment is superior, Defendant does not 23 dispute a finding of superiority in this action for purposes of this Settlement only.

24 VI. THE PROPOSED METHOD OF CLASS NOTICE IS APPROPRIATE

25 The Court has broad discretion in approving a practical notice program. The Parties have 26 agreed upon procedures by which the Class Members will be provided with written notice of the 27 Settlement similar to that approved and utilized in hundreds of class action settlements. In accordance 28 with the Agreement, Defendant will provide to the Administrator a confidential electronic spreadsheet containing the Class Data not later than fifteen (15) days after the Court grants Preliminary Approval of the Settlement. (Agreement at ¶ 4.2.) Within 14 days after receiving the Class Data, the 1 Administrator will mail the Class Notice to all Class Members via first-class U.S. Mail using the most 2 current mailing address information available. (Agreement at ¶ 8.4(b).)

3 The Class Notice, drafted jointly and agreed upon by the Parties through their respective counsel
4 and to be approved by the Court, is based on the Los Angeles model form and includes all relevant 5 information. (See Exhibit “A” to the Agreement.) The Parties agree that the Class Notice need only be 6 in English as all Class Members were able to read and understand English as a condition of their 7 employment. The Class Notice will include, among other information: (i) information regarding the 8 Action; (ii) the impact on the rights of the Class Members if they do not opt out, including a description 9 of the applicable release; (iii) information to the Class Members regarding how to opt out and how to 10 object to the Settlement; (iv) the estimated Individual Class Payment for each of the Class Members; 11 (iii) the amount of attorneys’ fees and expenses to be sought; (v) the amount of the Plaintiffs’ service 12 award request; and (vi) the anticipated expenses of the Administrator. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶32.

13 The Class Notice will state that the Class Members shall have sixty (60) days from the date that 14 the Class Notice is mailed to them (the “Response Deadline”) to request exclusion (opt-out) or to 15 submit a written objection. (Agreement at ¶¶ 1.42, 8.5, 8.7.) Class Members shall be given the 16 opportunity to object to the Settlement and/or requests for attorneys’ fees and expenses and to appear 17 at the Final Approval Hearing. (Agreement at ¶ 8.7.) Class Members who do not submit a timely and 18 proper request to opt-out will automatically receive a payment of their Individual Class Payment. This 19 notice program was designed to meaningfully reach the Class Members and it advises them of all 20 pertinent information concerning the Settlement. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶32. The mailing and 21 distribution of the Class Notice satisfies the requirements of due process and is the best notice 22 practicable under the circumstances and complies with Rules of Court 3.766 and 3.769(f).

23 VII. CONCLUSION

24 Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court preliminarily approve the proposed settlement, sign 25 the proposed Preliminary Approval Order, which is submitted herewith, and schedule the final approval 26 hearing a date that is at least one hundred twenty (120) days from the date of Preliminary Approval.
