1 I. INTRODUCTION

2 The parties to this action have reached a Settlement and the Court preliminarily approved the 3 Second Amended Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement (the “Agreement”), a true and correct
4 copy of which is attached as Exhibit #2 to the Declaration of Kyle Nordrehaug (“Nordrehaug Decl.”).¹
5 In accordance with the Preliminary Approval Order dated June 15, 2026 (“Preliminary Approval
6 Order”), the approved Class Notice has been disseminated to the Class.²

7 The purpose of this hearing is to determine whether the proposed settlement of the litigation 8 should be finally approved. Plaintiff James Hernandez (“Plaintiff”) respectfully moves for final 9 approval, including attorneys’ fees, costs and the service award, and the proposed entry of the Final 10 Approval Order and Judgment, submitted herewith. The settlement represents an excellent result for 11 the Class and avoids the delays, risks, and costs of further litigation. After disseminating the Class 12 Notice to the 544 members of the Class, to date there have been no objections and no requests for 13 exclusion from the Class, which means that currently, the entire Class (100%) has elected to participate 14 in the Settlement.³ Nordrehaug Decl. ¶4. This is a positive response from the Class evidencing their 15 collective approval of the settlement. As a result, Plaintiff respectfully submits that the settlement 16 should be finally approved for the same reasons that the Court preliminarily approved the settlement 17 as fair, reasonable, and adequate.

18 II. THE SETTLEMENT BEFORE THE COURT

19 As consideration for this Settlement, the Gross Settlement Amount to be paid by Defendants 20 Verizon Corporate Services Group, Inc. and Verizon Corporate Resources Group LLC (collectively, 21 “Defendants”) is Nine Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($950,000). (Agreement at ¶ 1.22.) Under the 23 ¹ Capitalized terms are defined in the Agreement.

24 ² The “Class” is defined as “all individuals who are or previously were employed by Defendants in 25 California and classified as non-exempt employees at any time during the Class Period.” The Class 26 Period is August 15, 2020 through September 25, 2025. (Preliminary Approval Order, at ¶6).

27 ³ The Response Deadline for the members of the Class is September 14, 2026, which is after the 28 filing of this Motion. In advance of the hearing date and after the Response Deadline, Plaintiff will file the Final Declaration of the Administrator to document the final figures.

Settlement, the Gross Settlement Amount consists of the following elements: (1) payment of the Individual Class Payments to the Participating Class Members; (2) Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment; (3) Administration Expenses Payment; (4) the Class Representative Service Payment to the Plaintiff; and (5) the PAGA Penalties payment allocated 65% to the LWDA PAGA Payment and 35% to the Individual PAGA Payments. (Agreement at ¶¶ 1.22, 1.34.) The Gross Settlement Amount does not include Defendants' share of payroll taxes. (Agreement at ¶ 3.1.) The Gross Settlement Amount shall be all-in with no reversion to Defendants. (Agreement at ¶ 3.1.) Nordrehaug Decl. ¶3(b). The following is a table of the key financial terms of the Settlement and the proposed deductions:

$950,000 (Gross Settlement Amount)

- $10,000 (Plaintiff's proposed service awards - not to exceed amount)
- $30,000 (Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment - not to exceed amount)
- $316,666 (Class Counsel Fees Payment - not to exceed 1/3 of settlement)
- $20,000 (PAGA Payment - 65% to LWDA / 35% to Aggrieved Employees)
- $9,990 (Administration Expenses Payment)

$563,344 (Net Settlement Amount)

The specific details of the Settlement were discussed in the Motion for Preliminary Approval and are set forth again in the Declaration of Nordrehaug at ¶¶ 3(c)-3(i).

The Settlement is fair, adequate and reasonable to the class and should be finally approved for the same reasons the Court granted preliminary approval of the Settlement, agreeing that the settlement is "fair, adequate, and reasonable" (Preliminary Approval Order at ¶ 3.) In sum, the Settlement valued at $950,000 is an excellent result for the Class. This result is particularly favorable in light of the fact that liability and class certification in this case were far from certain in light of the defenses asserted by Defendants. Given the complexities of this case, the defenses asserted, the uncertainty of class certification, along with the uncertainties of proof at trial and appeal, the proposed settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate, and should be finally approved. Nordrehaug Decl. ¶3(j).

III. GENERAL STANDARDS APPLICABLE TO JUDICIAL REVIEW AND APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENTS

Settlements of disputed claims are favored by the courts. Huens v. Tatum, 52 Cal.App.4th 259, 265 (1997). In evaluating settlements, the courts have long recognized that compromise is particularly appropriate since such litigation is difficult and notoriously uncertain. 7-Eleven Owners for Fair Fran.

1 v. Southland Corp., 85 Cal.App.4th 1135, 1151 (2000) ("[V]oluntary conciliation and settlement are 2 the preferred means of dispute resolution. This is especially true in complex class action litigation.")

3 The court must decide whether the proposed settlement falls within the range of reasonable 4 settlements, taking into account that settlements are compromises between the parties reflecting 5 subjective, unquantifiable judgments concerning the risks and possible outcomes of litigation. See 6 Wershba v. Apple Computer, 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 246 (2001) ("The proposed settlement is not to be 7 judged against a hypothetical or speculative measure of what might have been achieved had plaintiffs 8 prevailed at trial.") In Wershba, the Court explained that "the merits of the underlying class claims are 9 not a basis for upsetting the settlement of a class action." Id.; see also 7-Eleven, supra, at 1150.

10 In these cases, courts have repeatedly emphasized that there is a strong initial presumption that 11 the compromise is fair and reasonable. Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 245. Courts should not substitute 12 their judgment for that of the parties who negotiated the settlement. Id. at 246. The presumption of 13 fairness exists where: (1) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to 14 act intelligently; (2) the settlement is reached through arm's-length bargaining; (3) counsel is 15 experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small. Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 16 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 (1996). Here, the facts and circumstances compel the conclusion that the 17 proposed settlement satisfies that standard and the presumption applies.

18 IV. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR, REASONABLE, AND ADEQUATE

19 The Court must determine whether the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable. Dunk v. Ford
20 Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 (1996); see also Officers for Justice v. Civil Service Com'n, 688
21 F.2d 615, 625 (9th Cir. 1982). The trial court has broad discretion to determine whether the settlement 22 is fair. Cellphone Termination Fee Cases, 180 Cal.App.4th 1110, 1117 (2009). "The well-recognized 23 factors that the trial court should consider in evaluating the reasonableness of a class action settlement 24 agreement include 'the strength of plaintiffs' case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of 25 further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in 26 settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views 27 of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the 28 proposed settlement.'" Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 128 (2008) (internal

1 citations omitted); see also Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of L. A., 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408 2 (2010).

3 The list of factors is not exhaustive and should be tailored to each case. Dunk, supra, at 1801.
4 Due regard should be given to what is otherwise a private consensual agreement between the parties.
5 Id. The inquiry “must be limited to the extent necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the agreement 6 is not the product of fraud or overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating parties, and that 7 the settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable and adequate to all concerned.” Id. “Ultimately, the 8 [trial] court’s determination is nothing more than ‘an amalgam of delicate balancing, gross 9 approximations and rough justice.’ [Citation omitted.]” Id.

10 These factors are analyzed seriatim below, and all support final approval of the class action 11 settlement before this Court, consistent with this Court’s Preliminary Approval Order.

12 A. The Settlement Satisfies the California Test for Fairness

13 1. The Investigation and Analysis of Documents are Sufficient to Allow Counsel
14 and the Court to Act Intelligently

15 Over the course of two years of litigation, the Parties engaged in the investigation of the claims, 16 including the production of documents, class data, and other information, allowing for the full and 17 complete analysis of liabilities and defenses to the claims in this Action. The procedural history and 18 investigation performed was detailed at length in support of the motion for preliminary approval. The 19 Settlement was the product of one arms-length mediation and contentious negotiations through an 20 all-day mediation presided over by Monique Ngo-Bonnici, Esq. The details of the litigation are set forth 21 in the Nordrehaug Decl. at ¶¶ 6(a)-6(g).

22 2. The Settlement was Reached Through Arm’s Length Bargaining

23 This settlement is the result of extensive and hard-fought litigation as well as negotiations before 24 an experienced and well-respected mediator. Defendants have expressly denied and continue to deny 25 any wrongdoing or legal liability arising out of the conduct alleged in the Action. Plaintiff and Class 26 Counsel have determined that it is desirable and beneficial to the Class to resolve the Released Class 27 Claims of the Class in accordance with this Settlement. The release applicable to the Class is 28 appropriately tethered to allegations in the Action. (Agreement at ¶¶ 1.38, 6.2.) Nordrehaug Decl.

¶7(a).

The Parties attended an arms-length mediation session with Monique Ngo-Bonnici, Esq., a respected and experienced mediator of wage and hour class actions, in order to reach this Settlement. In preparation for the mediation, Defendants provided Class Counsel with payroll, timekeeping and employment data and other information concerning the Class Members, various internal documents, and other compensation and employment-related materials. Class Counsel analyzed the data with the assistance of damages expert Berger Consulting and prepared and submitted a mediation brief to the mediator. Following the all-day mediation, the Parties agreed to the Settlement, which was memorialized in the form of a Memorandum of Understanding. Nordrehaug Decl. ¶7(b).

The fact that the settlement was negotiated with the assistance of an experienced mediator supports approval. Alberto v. GMRI, Inc., 252 F.R.D. 652, 666 (E.D. Cal. Jun 24, 2008); Glass v. UBS Fin. Servs., 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 8476 at *15 (N.D. Cal. 2007) (where settlement was “negotiated and approved by experienced counsel on both sides of the litigation, with the assistance of a well-respected mediator” this factor supports approval of the settlement).

From September of 2025 to November of 2025, the settlement agreement and exhibits thereto were finalized and executed. On February 19, 2026, the Court issued an order requesting revisions to the settlement documents. On May 4, 2026, the Court issued a second order requiring further supplemental briefing and revisions to the settlement agreement resulting in the preparation and execution of the Second Amended Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement. On June 15, 2026, the Court granted the Motion for Preliminary Approval, and entered the Order granting preliminary approval of the settlement as fair and reasonable to the Class. Nordrehaug Decl. ¶7(c).

3. Class Counsel Is Experienced in Similar Litigation

Class Counsel in this matter has extensive class action experience and has represented thousands of persons in class actions including employment litigation, wage and hour class actions, and complex litigation. Class Counsel has previously litigated wage and hour class actions involving employees and claims similar to this case and have been approved as experienced class counsel during contested motions in state and federal courts throughout California. The experience of counsel and class action cases managed and settled by the Class Counsel in this action is provided to the Court in the 1 Nordrehaug Decl. at Exhibit #1. Class Counsel have participated in every aspect of the settlement 2 discussions and have concluded the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable and in the best interests 3 of the Class. Nordrehaug Decl. ¶ 3(j).

4 4. There Are No Objections and No Requests for Exclusion

5 The reaction of the Class unequivocally supports approval of the Settlement. On July 14, 2026, 6 the Administrator mailed the Court-approved Class Notice to the Class Members, which provided each 7 class member with the terms of the Settlement, including notice of the claims at issue and the financial 8 terms of the settlement, including the attorneys' fees, costs, and service award that were being sought, 9 how individual settlement awards would be calculated, and the specific, estimated payment amount to 10 that individual. See Declaration of Madely Nava ("Nava Decl.") at ¶ 7. In disseminating the notice, the 11 Administrator followed the notice procedures authorized by the Court in its Preliminary Approval 12 Order. Significantly, there have been no objections and no requests to opt-out as of the time of this 13 filing. Nava Decl. at ¶¶ 11-13. Currently, the entire Class (100%) will participate in the Settlement and 14 will be sent a settlement check. Nava Decl. at ¶ 14; Nordrehaug Decl. ¶ 4. A supplemental Declaration 15 of Madely Nava will be filed to provide the final notice details.

16 The absence of any objector strongly supports the fairness, reasonableness and adequacy of the 17 Settlement. See In re Austrian & German Bank Holocaust Litigation, 80 F.Supp.2d 164, 175 (S.D.N.Y.
18 2000) ("If only a small number of objections are received, that fact can be viewed as indicative of the 19 adequacy of the settlement."); Stoetznier v. U.S. Steel Corp., 897 F.2d 115, 118-119 (3d. Cir. 1990) (29 20 objections out of 281 member class "strongly favors settlement"); Laskey v. Int'l Union, 638 F.2d 954 21 (6th Cir. 1981) (The fact that 7 out of 109 class members objected to the proposed settlement should 22 be considered when determining fairness of settlement). Here, where there are no objections, the 23 approval of the class is evident.

24 5. The Strength of Plaintiff's Case

25 The Action generally alleges that Plaintiff and other Class Members were not properly paid all 26 overtime wages for hours worked and at the correct rate, were not provided meal and rest periods, were 27 not timely paid earned wages, were not provided reimbursement for required expenses, were not 28 provided accurate itemized wage statements, were not paid all accrued and used sick pay at the correct

1 rate of pay, and were not paid all wages at the time of termination. The Action seeks unpaid wages, 2 penalties, attorney fees, litigation costs, and any other equitable or legal relief allegedly due and owing 3 to Plaintiff and the other Class Members by virtue of the foregoing claims. Nordrehaug Decl. ¶5.

4 Where both sides face significant uncertainty, the attendant risks favor settlement. Hanlon v.
5 Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1026 (9th Cir. 1998). Here, a number of defenses asserted by 6 Defendants present serious threats to the claims of the Plaintiff and the other Class Members.
7 Defendants asserted that Defendants’ practices complied with all applicable Labor laws. Defendants 8 argued that Class Members were paid for all time worked, that all work time was properly recorded and 9 compensated, and there was no miscalculation of the regular rate. Defendants contend that their meal 10 and rest period policies fully complied with California law and Defendants did not fail to provide the 11 opportunity for legally required meal and rest breaks. Defendants could argue that the payment of meal 12 period premiums is evidence of its lawful practices and good faith. Defendants contend that there was 13 no failure to pay for business expenses and any cell phone usage was merely convenient and voluntary 14 such that reimbursement was not legally required. Finally, Defendants could argue that the Supreme 15 Court decision in Brinker v. Superior Court, 53 Cal. 4th 1004 (2012), weakened Plaintiff’s claims, on 16 liability, value, and class certifiability as to the meal and rest period claims. Defendants also argue that 17 based on their facially lawful practices, Defendants acted in good faith and without willfulness, which 18 if accepted would negate the claims for waiting time penalties and/or inaccurate wage statements. See 19 e.g. Naranjo v. Spectrum Sec. Servs., Inc., 15 Cal. 5th 1056, 1065 (May 6, 2024) (“if an employer 20 reasonably and in good faith believed it was providing a complete and accurate wage statement in 21 compliance with the requirements of section 226, then it has not knowingly and intentionally failed to 22 comply with the wage statement law.”) Defendants’ defenses could eliminate or substantially reduce 23 any recovery to the Class. While Plaintiff believes that these defenses could be overcome, Defendants 24 maintain these defenses have merit and therefore present a serious risk to recovery by the Class.
25 Nordrehaug Decl. ¶8(a).

26 In a similar wage and hour case, the federal district court in Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc., 2009 27 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 33900 (N.D. Cal. 2009), explained in approving an overtime class action settlement:

28 Plaintiffs may have a strong case, but the risks inherent in continued litigation are great.

1 Defendants strongly deny liability for Plaintiffs' principal claim... [...T]he gross 2 settlement amount and the Class Members' expected net recovery, after fees and other 3 costs are deducted, appear to be a reasonable compromise, in light of the risks of 4 litigation.

5 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 33900 at *19-20 (N.D. Cal. 2009); see also Browning v. Yahoo!, Inc., 2007
6 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 86266, at *30 (N.D. Cal. 2007) ("In considering the strength of Plaintiff's case, legal 7 uncertainties at the time of settlement - particularly those which go to fundamental legal issues - favor 8 approval."). As recognized in a federal decision approving settlement of an overtime wage class action:

9 The potential complexity and possible duration of trial also weigh in favor of granting 10 final approval. Plaintiffs acknowledge the difficulties of proving damages, recognize the 11 uncertainty of outcome, and believe defendant would appeal in the event of adverse 12 judgment. A post-judgment appeal would require many years to resolve and delay 13 payment to class members. Plaintiffs believe the benefits of a guaranteed recovery today 14 outweigh an uncertain future result. Accordingly, plaintiffs argue, and the Court agrees, 15 the actual recovery confers substantial benefits on the class that outweigh the potential 16 recovery through full adjudication.

17 Barcia v. Contain-A-Way, Inc., 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 17118, *9 (S.D. Cal. 2009); see also Louie v.
18 Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Inc., 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78314, *14 (S.D. Cal. 2008).

19 There was also a significant risk that, if the Action was not settled, Plaintiff would be unable 20 to obtain a certified class and maintain the certified class through trial, and thereby not recover on behalf 21 of any employees other than themselves. At the time of the mediation, Defendants forcefully opposed 22 the propriety of class certification, arguing that individual issues precluded class certification. Further, 23 as demonstrated by the California Supreme Court decision in Duran v. U.S. Bank National Assn., 59 24 Cal. 4th 1 (2014), there are significant hurdles to overcome for a class-wide recovery even where the 25 class has been certified. While other cases have approved class certification in wage and hour claims, 26 class certification in this action was hotly disputed and the maintenance of a certified class through trial 27 was by no means a foregone conclusion. Nordrehaug Decl. ¶8(b).

28 In sum, the Settlement is a fair and reasonable result, and provides the Class with a significant recovery, particularly when viewed in light of the fact that the Defendants asserted serious and substantial defenses both to liability and to class certification. The current maximum and average Class Member allocation are $2,077.00 and $1,035.56, respectively. Nava Decl. at ¶ 16. The final figures will be set forth in the forthcoming supplemental Declaration of Madely Nava. Given the complexities of this case, the defenses, along with the uncertainties of proof and appeal, the proposed Settlement is 1 fair, reasonable and adequate, and should be finally approved. Nordrehaug Decl. at ¶8(e).

2 6. The Risk, Expense, Complexity, and Likely Duration of Further Litigation

3 As demonstrated by the decision in Duran, the complexities and duration of further litigation 4 cannot be overstated. There is little doubt that Defendants would post a bond and appeal in the event 5 of an adverse judgment. A post-judgment appeal by Defendants would have required many more years 6 to resolve, assuming the judgment was affirmed. If the judgment was not affirmed in total, then the case
7 could have dragged on for years after the appeal. The benefits of a guaranteed recovery today outweigh 8 an uncertain result three or more years in the future. Nordrehaug Decl. ¶8(c).

9 Plaintiff and Class Counsel recognize the expense and length of a trial against Defendants 10 through possible appeals which could take at least another two or three years. Class Counsel also have 11 taken into account the uncertain outcome, the risk of litigation, especially in complex actions such as 12 this one. Class Counsel are also mindful of and recognize the inherent problems of proof under, and 13 alleged defenses to, the claims asserted in the Action. Moreover, post-trial motions and appeals would 14 have been inevitable. Costs would have mounted and recovery would have been delayed if not denied, 15 thereby reducing the benefits of an ultimate victory. The Settlement confers substantial benefits upon 16 the Class. Based upon their evaluation, Plaintiff and Class Counsel have determined that the Settlement 17 set forth in the Agreement is in the best interest of the Class. Nordrehaug Decl. ¶8(c).

18 Although Plaintiff and Class Counsel believe that their case has merit, which Defendants 19 continue to vigorously deny, they recognized the potential risks both sides would face if litigation of 20 the Action continued. As the federal court held in Glass, where the parties faced uncertainties similar 21 to those in this litigation:

22 In light of the above-referenced uncertainty in the law, the risk, expense, complexity, 23 and likely duration of further litigation likewise favors the settlement. Regardless of how 24 this Court might have ruled on the merits of the legal issues, the losing party likely 25 would have appealed, and the parties would have faced the expense and uncertainty of 26 litigating an appeal. "The expense and possible duration of the litigation should be 27 considered in evaluating the reasonableness of [a] settlement."

28 Id. at *12.

7. The Amount Offered in Settlement

The Settlement in this case is fair, reasonable and adequate considering Defendants' defenses

1 to Plaintiff's claims. As set forth in the Declaration of Nordrehaug in support of preliminary approval 2 which discussed the value of the class claims in detail, the Gross Settlement Amount compares 3 favorably to the value of the claims. Based upon 544 Class Members who collectively worked 72,147 4 workweeks, the Gross Settlement Amount provides an average value of $1,746 per Class Member and 5 $13 per workweek and after deductions, the Net Settlement Amount provides an average recovery of 6 $1,035.55 per Class Member and a recovery of $7.80 per workweek. Nordrehaug Decl. at ¶8(d).

7 The calculations to compensate for the amount due for the Class at the time of the mediation 8 were calculated by Berger Consulting, Plaintiff's damage expert. As to the Class whose claims are at 9 issue in this Action, Plaintiff retained this expert to analyze the data and determine the potential unpaid 10 wages for the employees. The maximum potential damages were calculated to be $2,247,673 for the 11 alleged unpaid wages due to off-the-clock work at 1 hour per week, $406,158 for the alleged unpaid 12 meal break premiums, sick pay, PTO and vacation pay based on the miscalculation of the regular rate, 13 $811,688 for alleged meal period damages based upon a 10% potential violation rate for shifts observed 14 in the time records and after deduction of meal premiums paid by Defendants, and $820,257 for alleged 15 rest period damages based upon a 100% potential violation rate, $48,410 for alleged unreimbursed 16 business expenses for personal cell phone usage at $5 per month. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶6. As a result, 17 the total damage valuation was calculated that Defendants were subject to a maximum damage claim 18 in the amount of $4,334,911. As to potential penalties, Plaintiff calculated that potential waiting time 19 penalties were a maximum of $637,821, and potential maximum wage statement penalties were 20 $1,020,750.⁴ Defendants vigorously disputed Plaintiff's calculations and exposure theories. Nordrehaug 21 Decl. at ¶ 8(d).

22 Consequently, the Gross Settlement Amount of $950,000 represents more than 21% of the 23

25 ⁴ While Plaintiff alleged claims for statutory penalties pursuant to Labor Code Sections 203 and 226, 26 at mediation Plaintiff recognized that these claims were subject to additional, separate defenses asserted 27 by Defendants, including, a good faith dispute defense as to whether any premium wages for meal or 28 rest periods or other wages were owed given Defendants' position that Plaintiff and Class Members were properly compensated. See Nordstrom Commission Cases, 186 Cal. App. 4th 576, 584 (2010) ("There is no willful failure to pay wages if the employer and employee have a good faith dispute as to whether and when the wages were due.").

1 maximum value of the alleged damages at issue in this case at the time this Settlement was negotiated.⁵
2 Importantly, the recent decision that good faith belief of compliance by the employer in Naranjo v.
3 Spectrum Sec. Servs., Inc., 15 Cal. 5th 1056, 1065 (2024), could completely negate the claims for 4 waiting time and wage statement penalties, even if wages were owed to the Class. The above maximum 5 calculations should then be adjusted in consideration for both the risk of class certification and the risk 6 of establishing class-wide liability on all claims. Given the amount of the settlement as compared to 7 the potential value of claims in this case and the defenses asserted by Defendants, this settlement is fair 8 and reasonable.⁶ Clearly, the goal of this litigation has been met.

9 V. THE REQUESTED ATTORNEYS' FEES, COSTS AND SERVICE AWARD SHOULD 10 BE APPROVED

11 A. The Attorneys' Fees are Reasonable and Supported by the Percentage of the Fund
12 Method

13 Class Counsel seeks a fee award calculated at one-third (1/3) of the total value of the settlement 14 for the successful prosecution and resolution of this action. California state and federal courts have 15 recognized that an appropriate method for determining award of attorneys' fees is based on a percentage 16 of the total value of benefits to class members by the settlement. Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91
17 Cal.App.4th 224, 254 (2001); Serrano v. Priest, 20 Cal.3d 25, 34 (1977); Boeing Co. v. Van Gemert, 444
18 U.S. 472, 478 (1980); Vincent v. Hughes Air West, Inc., 557 F.2d 759, 769 (9th Cir. 1997). The purpose

19 ⁵ Because the PAGA claim is not a class claim and primarily is paid to the State of California, 20 Plaintiff has not included the PAGA claim in this discussion of the value of the class claims. The 21 PAGA claim was addressed in the Motion for Preliminary Approval in the Declaration of Nordrehaug 22 at ¶33.

23 ⁶ See Glass v. UBS Fin. Servs., 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 8476 (N.D. Cal. 2007) (approving a 24 settlement where the settlement amount constituted approximately 25% of the estimated overtime 25 damages for the class); Stovall-Gusman v. W.W. Granger, Inc., 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78671, at *12 26 (N.D. Cal. 2015) (granting final approval where "the proposed Total Settlement Amount represents 27 approximately 10% of what class might have been awarded had they succeeded at trial."); Dunleavy v.
28 Nadler (In re Mego Fin. Corp. Sec. Litig.), 213 F.3d 454, 459 (9th Cir. 2000) (affirming approval of a class settlement which represented "roughly one-sixth of the potential recovery".) See also Viceral v.
Mistras Grp., Inc., 2016 WL 5907869 (N.D. Cal. 2016) (approving wage and hour class action settlement amounting to 8.1% of full value); Ma v. Covidien Holding, Inc., 2014 WL 2472316, (C.D.
Cal. 2014) (approving wage and hour class action settlement worth "somewhere between 9% and 18%" of maximum valuation).

1 of this equitable doctrine is to avoid unjust enrichment to the Class and to “spread litigation costs 2 proportionally among all the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire burden 3 alone.” Vincent, 557 F.2d at 769.

4 The California Supreme Court has provided guidance regarding the award of attorneys’ fees in 5 wage and hour class action settlements. Under California law, the award of attorneys’ fees in common 6 fund wage and hour class action settlements should start with the percentage method. See Laffitte v.
7 Robert Half Int’l, 1 Cal. 5th 480, 503 (2016) (“We join the overwhelming majority of federal and state
8 courts in holding that when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class 9 members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the court 10 may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the fund 11 created”). Under the percentage of the fund method, a court’s objective remains to “mimic the market” 12 in fixing a reasonable fee. See Gaskill v. Gordon, 160 F.3d 361, 363 (7th Cir. 1998).

13 First, the fee award representing one-third of the fund clearly falls within that range and is 14 consistent with other rulings of other courts and comprehensive surveys of class action settlements and 15 fee awards. Attorneys’ fees awards of one-third of the fund are within the expected range in the market 16 in legal services. In Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l, 1 Cal.5th 480, 503 (2016), the California Supreme 17 Court both endorsed the award of a fee as a percentage of that fund, and expressly approved one-third 18 (1/3) as a reasonable percentage in a contingent common fund class settlement. Such similar awards by 19 other Courts are set forth in the Nordrehaug Decl. ¶11.

20 Second, the results delivered by Class Counsel also support the requested percentage of the fund.
21 Here, Plaintiff and their counsel secured a $950,000 settlement for the benefit of the Class and currently, 22 none of the Class Members elected to opt out. Similarly, not one Class Member objected. The 23 Settlement was possible only because Class Counsel was able to convince Defendants that Plaintiff 24 could potentially prevail on the contested issues regarding liability, maintain class certification, 25 overcome difficulties in proof as to monetary relief and take the case to trial if need be. Nordrehaug 26 Decl. ¶10(f). In successfully navigating these hurdles Class Counsel displayed the necessary skills in 27 both wage and hour and class action litigation. Moreover, as discussed above, there were significant 28 risks to the contingent litigation. See Barbosa v. Cargill Meat Solutions Corp., 297 F.R.D. 431, 449

1 (E.D. Cal. 2013) (“Like this case, where recovery is uncertain, an award of one-third of the 2 common fund as attorneys' fees has been found to be appropriate.”)

3 Third, “the response of the class members to attorneys’ fee notice, though not decisive, is 4 relevant to the...reasonable determination” regarding fees. Swedish Hospital v. Shalala, 1 F.3d 1261, 5 1272 (D.C. Cir. 1993). A positive response rate tends to suggest that the court’s “approximation of the 6 market” for fees is well supported. Id. at 1269. Here, the Class Notice specifically notified the Class that 7 Class Counsel would be seeking a one-third fee award. Again, there were no objections.

8 Fourth, it is recognized that one of the primary factors justifying an enhanced attorney’s fees 9 reward is the attendant risks inherent in the litigation. For Class Counsel, the fees here were wholly 10 contingent in nature and the case presented far more risk than the usual contingent fee case. Among the 11 risks was the cost inherent in class action litigation, as well as a long battle with a corporate Defendant 12 who had retained a premier and highly experienced defense firm. Counsel retained on a contingency 13 fee basis, whether in private matters or in class action litigation, is entitled to a premium above 14 their hourly rate in order to compensate for both the risks and the delay in payment. See e.g.
15 Stanger v. China Elec. Motor, Inc., 812 F.3d 734, 741 (9th Cir. 2016) (courts “must” apply a risk 16 enhancement); Stetson v. Grissom, 821 F.3d 1157, 1166 (9th Cir. 2016) (abuse of discretion not to apply 17 risk multiplier).

18 Fifth, the requested fee award is supported by the lodestar cross-check. The reasonableness of 19 the requested attorneys’ fee of one-third equal to $316,666 is also established by reference to Class 20 Counsel’s lodestar in this matter. The contemporaneous billing records for Class Counsel evidence 21 that through August 14, 2026, Class Counsel’s total lodestar is $202,397.50, with significant 22 additional fees still to be incurred to complete final approval and the settlement process. (See 23 Nordrehaug Decl. at ¶12 and Exhibit #3.) The requested fee award is therefore currently equivalent 24 to Class Counsel’s total lodestar with a reasonable multiplier cross-check of less than 1.6, and there will 25 be additional lodestar incurred by Class Counsel to complete the settlement process and manage the 26 settlement distribution and reports. (Nordrehaug Decl. at ¶12.) Such a lodestar cross-check is well 27 below the multipliers approved in other cases such as Laffitte and Vizcaino v. Microsoft Corp., 290 F.3d 28

1 1043, 1051 (9th Cir. 2002).⁷ Because the multiplier cross-check is within this accepted range it is not 2 “extraordinarily high” so as to justify an adjustment of the percentage under Laffitte, supra, 1 Cal. 5th 3 at 505. For such reasons, Class Counsel’s request for attorneys’ fees in the amount of one-third of the 4 common fund is reasonable and should be approved.

5 B. The Reimbursement of Litigation Expenses

6 The Agreement provides at paragraph 3.2(b), that Class Counsel may seek a “Class Counsel 7 Litigation Expenses Payment of not more than $30,000.” Class Counsel requests reimbursement for 8 incurred litigation expenses and costs in the amount of $26,765.67. Class Counsel have incurred 9 expenses of $26,765.67 based upon counsel's billing records; therefore, this requested amount is less 10 than the allocation in the Agreement. These litigation expenses include the expenses incurred for filing 11 fees, Federal Express charges, mediation expenses, expert expenses (Berger Consulting), Case 12 Anywhere charges, and attorney service charges, all of which are costs normally billed to and paid by 13 the client. The details of the litigation expenses incurred are set forth the Nordrehaug Decl. at ¶13 and 14 Exhibit #3. These costs were reasonably incurred in the prosecution of the Action. (Nordrehaug Decl.
15 at ¶13.) Because these costs were reasonable and necessary to the successful prosecution of these 16 claims, the request is reasonable and should be granted.

17 C. The Service Award Is Reasonable and Should be Approved

18 Plaintiff respectfully submits that for his service as the only class representative, Plaintiff should 19 be awarded the agreed service award of $10,000 in accordance with the Agreement for his time, risk 20 and effort expended on behalf of the Class as the class representative. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(a).)
21 Defendants have agreed to this payment and there have been no objections to the requested service 22 award. The Nordrehaug Decl., at ¶14, provides a long list of equivalent service awards approved in 23 California in similar cases, which further supports the request in this case. The Plaintiff’s Declaration

24
25 ⁷ See Laffitte, supra, 1 Cal. 5th at 487 (approving 1/3 fee award with multiplier of 2.13); Vizcaino
26 supra, at 1051(3.65 multiplier approved); Pellegrino v. Robert Half Intern., Inc., 182 Cal.App.4th 278 27 (2010) (in class actions reasonable multipliers of 2.0 to 4.0 are often applied); Wershba, 91 Cal. App.
28 4th at 255 (“multipliers can range from 2 to 4 or even higher.”); In re Sutter Health Uninsured Pricing Cases, 171 Cal.App.4th 495, 512 (2009) (affirming multiplier of 2.52 as “fair and reasonable”); Chavez
v. Netflix, Inc., 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66 (2008) (affirming multiplier of 2.53); Taylor v. Fedex Freight, Inc., 2016 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 142202 (E.D. Cal. 2016) (2.26 multiplier).

1 in support of the request is attached as Exhibit #5 to the Nordrehaug Decl.

2 As the sole representative of the Class, Plaintiff performed his duties to the Class admirably and 3 without exception. Plaintiff worked extensively with Class Counsel during the course of the litigation, 4 responding to numerous requests, searching for documents, working with counsel, and reviewing the 5 settlement documentation. (Nordrehaug Decl. at ¶ 14.) The Plaintiff's Declaration detail the 6 involvement, stress and risks he undertook as a result of this Action. Plaintiff also assumed the serious 7 risk that he might possibly be liable for costs and fees to Defendant, as well as the reputational risk of 8 being "blacklisted" by other future employers for having filed a class action on behalf of employees.
9 (Nordrehaug Decl. at ¶15.) Without the Plaintiff's participation, cooperation and information, no other 10 employees would be receiving any benefit. (Nordrehaug Decl. at ¶¶ 15-16).

11 The payment of service awards to successful class representatives is appropriate and the amount 12 is within the currently awarded range for similar settlements. See, e.g., Andrews v. Plains All Am.
13 Pipeline L.P., 2022 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 172183, at *11 (C.D. Cal. 2022) (service awards of $15,000 each 14 are appropriate); Reynolds v. Direct Flow Med., Inc., 2019 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 149865, at *19 (N.D. Cal.
15 2019) (granting request for $12,500 service award); Mathein v. Pier 1 Imps. (U.S.), Inc., 2018 U.S. Dist.
16 LEXIS 71386 (E.D. Cal. 2018) (awarding $12,500 where average class member payment was $351); 17 Louie, supra, 2008 WL 4473183 at *7 (awarding $25,000 service award to each of six plaintiffs in 18 overtime class action); Glass, supra, 2007 WL 221862 at *16-17 (awarding $25,000 service award).
19 Accordingly, Class Counsel respectfully requests approval of the Class Representative Service Payment 20 in accordance with the Agreement.

21 VI. CONCLUSION

22 Plaintiff respectfully submits that the proposed settlement satisfies the standard of fairness 23 established in California law and should therefore be finally approved as fair, reasonable and adequate 24 and requests entry of the Final Approval Order and Judgment, submitted herewith.

25 Respectfully submitted,
