REPRESENTATIVE ACTION SETTLEMENT

Hearing Date: April 7, 2026

Hearing Time: 2:30 p.m.

Reservation ID: 959265069346

Judge: Hon. Somnath Raj Chatterjee

Dept.: 21

Action Filed: September 17, 2024

Trial Date: Not set

1 I, Kyle Nordrehaug, declare as follows:

2 1. I am a partner of the law firm of Blumenthal Nordrehaug Bhowmik De Blouw LLP,
3 counsel for Plaintiff Robin Kong ("Plaintiff") in this matter. As such, I am fully familiar with the 4 facts, pleadings and history of this matter. The following facts are within my own personal 5 knowledge, and if called as a witness, I could testify competently to the matters stated herein.

6 2. This declaration is being submitted in support of Plaintiff's unopposed motion for 7 preliminary approval of the proposed class action settlement with Defendant Manos Home Care,
8 Inc. ("Defendant"), which motion seeks entry of an order: (1) preliminarily approving the Class
9 Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement ("Agreement"); (2) for settlement purposes only,
10 conditionally certifying the Class, which is comprised of "all individuals who are or previously 11 were employed by Defendant in California and classified as non-exempt and/or exempt pursuant to 12 the Personal Attendant Exemption at any time during the Class Period", which is September 17, 13 2020 through December 31, 2025; (3) provisionally appointing Plaintiff as the Class Representative
14 for settlement purposes only; (4) provisionally appointing Norman B. Blumenthal, Kyle R.
15 Nordrehaug, and Aparajit Bhowmik of Blumenthal Nordrehaug Bhowmik De Blouw LLP as Class
16 Counsel; (5) approving the form and method for providing class-wide notice; (6) directing that 17 notice of the proposed settlement be given to the class; (7) provisionally appointing and approving 18 ILYM Group, Inc. as Administrator, and (8) scheduling a final approval hearing date, proposed for 19 September 29, 2026, which is at least 120 days from preliminary approval, to consider Plaintiff's 20 motion for final approval of the settlement and for approval of attorneys' fees and expenses.
21 Attached hereto as Exhibit #1 is a copy of the fully executed Agreement along with exhibits thereto.
22 The form of the Agreement is based upon the Los Angeles County Superior Court model form for a 23 class and PAGA settlement. This Declaration incorporates by reference the definitions in the 24 Agreement, and all terms defined therein shall have the same meaning as set forth in the 25 Agreement.

27 Fairness of Settlement

28 3. As consideration for this Settlement, the non-reversionary Gross Settlement Amount

1 of One Million, Nine Hundred Ninety-Nine Thousand Nine Hundred Ninety-Nine Dollars
2 ($1,999,999) (the “Gross Settlement Amount”) is to be paid by Defendant, as set forth in the 3 Agreement. The Gross Settlement Amount will settle all issues pending in the Action between the 4 Parties and will be made in full and final settlement of the Released Class Claims in exchange for 5 the Individual Class Payments to Participating Class Members from the Net Settlement Amount,
6 and also includes (a) the costs of administration of the settlement, (b) all attorneys' fees and costs,
7 (c) Class Representative Service Payment, and (d) the PAGA Penalties payment allocated 65% to 8 the LWDA PAGA Payment and 35% to the Aggrieved Employees. (Agreement at ¶ 1.22.) The 9 following is a table of the key financial terms of the Settlement and the proposed deductions:

10 $1,999,999 (Gross Settlement Amount)

- 11 - $15,000 (Plaintiff’s proposed Class Representative Service Payment)
- 12 - $30,000 (Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment - not to exceed amount)
- 13 - $666,666 (Class Counsel Fees Payment - not to exceed 1/3 of settlement)
- 14 - $50,000 (PAGA Payment - 65% to LWDA / 35% to Aggrieved Employees)
- 15 - $20,500 (Administration Expenses Payment - not to exceed amount)

16 $1,217,833 (Net Settlement Amount)

17 4. The relief provided in the Settlement will benefit all members of the Class. The 18 Settlement does not grant preferential treatment to Plaintiff or segments of the Class in any way.
19 Payments to the Class Members are all determined under a neutral methodology. Each 20 Participating Class Member will receive the same opportunity to participate in and receive payment
21 through a neutral formula that is based upon the Workweeks for that individual.

22 5. On October 28, 2025, the Parties participated in an all-day mediation session
23 presided over Brandon McKelvey, a respected and experienced mediator of wage and hour class 24 actions. In preparation for the mediation, Defendant provided Class Counsel with payroll and 25 employment data and other information regarding the Class Members, various internal documents, 26 and other compensation and employment-related materials. Class Counsel analyzed the data with 27 the assistance of damages expert Berger Consulting and prepared and submitted a mediation brief to 28 the mediator. The final settlement terms were negotiated and set forth in the Agreement now

1 presented for this Court's approval. Importantly, Plaintiff and Class Counsel believe that this 2 Settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate.

3 6. Based upon 3,800 Class Members who collectively worked 200,000 Workweeks, the 4 Gross Settlement Amount provides an average value of $526 per Class Member and $9.99 per 5 Workweek and after deductions the Net Settlement Amount provides an average recovery of 6 $320.48 per Class Member and a recovery of $6.08 per Workweek. The calculations to compensate
7 for the amount due for the Class at the time of the mediation were calculated by Berger Consulting,
8 Plaintiff's damage expert. As to the Class whose claims are at issue in this Action, Plaintiff used 9 this expert to analyze the data and determine the potential unpaid wages for the employees. The 10 maximum potential damages were calculated to be $1,663,024 for the alleged unpaid overtime 11 wages for shifts over 8 hours, $3,961,527 for the alleged unpaid wages due to off-the-clock work at 12 1 hour per week, $39,749 for the alleged underpaid overtime due to the miscalculation of the 13 regular rate, $21,110 for the alleged unpaid sick pay due to the miscalculation of the regular rate,
14 $3,835,079 for alleged meal period damages based upon a 97.4% potential violation rate for shifts
15 observed in the time records and after deduction for meal premiums already paid by Defendant, 16 $3,835,079 for alleged rest period damages based upon the same 97.4% potential violation rate
17 observed for meal breaks, $287,905 for alleged unreimbursed business expenses for personal cell
18 phone usage at $5 per month. As a result, the total damage valuation was calculated that Defendant
19 was subject to a maximum damage claim in the amount of $13,643,473. As to potential penalties, 20 Plaintiff calculated that potential waiting time penalties were a maximum of $4,681,947, and 21 potential maximum wage statement penalties were $10,240,000.¹ Defendant vigorously disputed 22 Plaintiff's calculations and exposure theories. Consequently, the Gross Settlement Amount of

25 ¹ While Plaintiff alleged claims for statutory penalties pursuant to Labor Code Sections 203 and 26 226, at mediation Plaintiff recognized that these claims were subject to additional, separate defenses
27 asserted by Defendant, including, a good faith dispute defense as to whether any premium wages
28 for meal or rest periods or other wages were owed given Defendant's position that Plaintiff and Class Members were properly compensated. See Nordstrom Commission Cases, 186 Cal. App. 4th 576, 584 (2010) ("There is no willful failure to pay wages if the employer and employee have a good faith dispute as to whether and when the wages were due.").

1 $1,999,999 represents more than 14.6% of the maximum value of the alleged damages at issue in
2 this case at the time this Settlement was negotiated.² Importantly, the recent decision that good faith
3 belief of compliance by the employer in Naranjo v. Spectrum Sec. Servs., Inc., 15 Cal. 5th 1056, 4 1065 (2024), could completely negate the claims for waiting time and wage statement penalties,
5 even if wages were owed to the Class. In addition the 97.4% violation rate used for meal and rest
6 period damages overstates the damages because Class Members likely received some of their 7 breaks. The above maximum calculations should then be adjusted in consideration for both the risk
8 of class certification and the risk of establishing class-wide liability on all claims. Given the 9 amount of the settlement as compared to the potential value of claims in this case and the defenses
10 asserted by Defendant, this settlement is fair and reasonable.

12 Procedural History of the Litigation

13 7. On July 9, 2024, Plaintiff filed with the LWDA and served on Defendant a notice
14 under Labor Code section 2699.3 identifying the alleged Labor Code violations to recover civil 15 penalties on behalf of Aggrieved Employees for various Labor Code violations. The PAGA Notice 16 by Plaintiff, which included and incorporated a copy of the draft complaint, is attached hereto as 17 Exhibit #3 for the Court's reference.

18 8. On September 17, 2024, Plaintiff commenced this Action by filing a Complaint
19 against Defendant in the Superior Court of the State of California, County of Alameda. This class 20 action Complaint asserted claims against Defendant for: (1) unfair competition in violation of Cal.
21 Bus & Prof. Code §§ 17200, et seq.; (2) failure to pay minimum wages in violation of California
22 Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, and 1197.1; (3) failure to pay overtime wages in violation of California
23 Labor Code §§ 510, 1194 & 1198; (4) failure to provide required meal periods in violation of Cal.
24 Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512; (5) failure to provide required rest periods in violation of Cal. Labor 25 Code §§ 226.7 and 512; (6) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements in violation of

27 ² Because the PAGA claim is not a class claim and primarily is paid to the State of California, 28 Plaintiff has not included the PAGA claim in this discussion of the value of the class claims. The PAGA claim is addressed below at ¶33.

1 California Labor Code § 226; (7) failure to reimburse employees for required expenses in violation
2 of California Labor Code § 2802; (8) failure to provide wages when due in violation of California
3 Labor Code §§ 201, 202 and 203; and, (9) failure to pay sick wages in violation of California Labor
4 Code §§ 201-203, 233, 246.

5 9. On April 28, 2025, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint (the “Operative
6 Complaint”) in the Class Action which added a representative claim under the Private Attorney
7 General Act, Cal. Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”).

8 10. Over the course of litigation, the Parties engaged in the investigation of the claims,
9 including informal discovery, and the production of documents, class data, and other information,
10 allowing for the full and complete analysis of liabilities and defenses to the claims in the Action.
11 The information for mediation obtained by Plaintiff included: (1) data concerning the Class; (2) a 12 sampling of payroll data and time punch data covering 527 Class Members, 132,833 shifts and 13 43,518 work weeks; (3) Defendant’s wage and hour policies; (4) the employment files for the 14 Plaintiff; and, (5) samples of wage statements provided by Defendant. As such, Class Counsel 15 received the data and information for the Class, which was sufficient for Plaintiff’s expert to 16 prepare the valuations of the claims for the Class.

17 11. Class Counsel has extensive experience in litigating wage and hour class actions in 18 California. The Parties have vigorously litigated the Action since inception. During the course of 19 litigation, the Parties each performed analysis of the merits and value of the claims. Plaintiff and 20 Defendant have engaged in significant research and investigation in connection with the Action.
21 Class Counsel has thoroughly analyzed the value of the claims during the prosecution of this Action 22 and utilized an expert to perform an analysis of the data and valuation of the claims.

23 12. Plaintiff and Defendant agreed to discuss resolution of the Action through a 24 mediation. Prior to mediation, the Parties engaged in the above investigation and the exchange of 25 documents and information in connection with the Action. On October 28, 2025, the Parties
26 participated in an all-day mediation with Brandon McKelvey, a respected and experienced mediator
27 of wage and hour class actions. Following the mediation, each side, represented by its respective 28 counsel, were able to agree to settle the Actions based upon a mediator’s proposal which was

1 memorialized in a memorandum of understanding. The Parties then negotiated the final terms of 2 the settlement as set forth in the Agreement. At all times, the negotiations were arm's length and 3 contentious.

4 13. Although a settlement has been reached, Defendant denies any liability or 5 wrongdoing of any kind associated with the claims alleged in the Action and further denies that, for 6 any purpose other than settlement, the Action is appropriate for class and/or representative
7 treatment. Defendant contends, among other things, that it has complied at all times with Federal 8 law, the applicable California Labor Code, applicable Wage Order, and all other laws and 9 regulations. Further, Defendant contends that class certification is inappropriate for any reason 10 other than for settlement. Plaintiff contends that Defendant violated California wage and hour laws.
11 Plaintiff further contend that the Action are appropriate for class certification on the basis that the 12 claims meet the requisites for class certification. Without admitting that class certification is 13 proper, Defendant has stipulated that the above Class may be certified for settlement purposes only.
14 (Agreement at ¶ 2.7.) The Parties agree that certification for settlement purposes is not an 15 admission that class certification is proper. Further, the Agreement is not admissible in this or any 16 other proceeding as evidence that the Class could be certified absent a settlement. Solely for 17 purposes of settling the Action, the Parties stipulate and agree that the requisites for establishing 18 class certification with respect to the Class are satisfied.

19 14. Class Counsel has conducted an investigation into the facts of the class action.
20 Informal discovery was obtained, which included the production of thousands of pages of 21 documents and data. Class Counsel engaged in a thorough review and analysis of the relevant 22 documents and data with the assistance of an expert. Accordingly, the agreement to settle did not 23 occur until Class Counsel possessed sufficient information to make an informed judgment regarding 24 the likelihood of success on the merits and the results that could be obtained through further 25 litigation. In addition, Class Counsel previously negotiated settlements with other employers in 26 actions involving nearly identical issues and analogous defenses. Based on the foregoing data and 27 their own independent investigation, evaluation and experience, Class Counsel believe that the 28 Settlement with Defendant on the terms set forth in the Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate

1 and is in the best interest of the Class in light of all known facts and circumstances, including the 2 risk of significant delay, defenses asserted by Defendant, and potential appellate issues.

4 Settlement Terms and Plan of Allocation

5 15. The Gross Settlement Amount is One Million, Nine Hundred Ninety-Nine Thousand
6 Nine Hundred Ninety-Nine Dollars ($1,999,999). (Agreement at ¶ 1.22.) Under the Settlement, the 7 Gross Settlement Amount consists of the following elements: (1) payment of the Individual Class
8 Payments to the Participating Class Members; (2) Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel
9 Litigation Expenses Payment; (3) Administration Expenses Payment; (4) the Class Representative
10 Service Payment to the Plaintiff; and (5) the PAGA Penalties payment which is allocated between 11 the LWDA PAGA Payment and the Individual PAGA Payments. (Agreement at ¶ 1.22.) The 12 Gross Settlement Amount does not include Defendant's share of employer-side payroll taxes.
13 (Agreement at ¶ 3.1.) The Gross Settlement Amount shall be all-in with no reversion to Defendant.
14 (Agreement at ¶ 3.1.)

15 16. Defendant shall fund the Gross Settlement Amount and also fund the amounts 16 necessary to fully pay Defendant's share of the payroll taxes by transmitting the funds to the 17 Administrator no later than 30 days after the Effective Date. (Agreement at ¶ 4.3.) Within 30 days
18 after Defendant funds the Gross Settlement Amount, the Administrator will mail checks for all
19 Individual Class Payments, all Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, the 20 Administration Expenses Payment, the Class Counsel Fees Payment, the Class Counsel Litigation
21 Expenses Payment, and the Class Representative Service Payment. (Agreement at ¶ 5.1.)

22 17. The amount remaining in the Gross Settlement Amount after the deduction of 23 Court-approved amounts for Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, the Class
24 Representative Service Payment, the Class Counsel Fees Payment, the Class Counsel Litigation
25 Expenses Payment, and the Administration Expenses Payment (called the "Net Settlement 26 Amount") shall be allocated to Class Members as their Individual Class Payments. (Agreement at 27 ¶¶ 1.28 and 3.2.) From the Net Settlement Amount, the Individual Class Payment for each 28 Participating Class Member will be calculated by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the

1 total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members during the Class Period and 2 (b) multiplying the result by each Participating Class Member's Workweeks. (Agreement at ¶ 3 3.2(e).) Workweeks will be based on Defendant's records, but Class Members will have the right to 4 challenge the number of Workweeks.

5 18. Class Members may choose to opt-out of the Settlement by following the directions
6 in the Class Notice. (Agreement at ¶ 8.5, Ex. A.) All Class Members who do not "opt out" will be 7 deemed Participating Class Members who will be bound by the Settlement and will be entitled to 8 receive an Individual Class Payment. (Agreement at ¶ 8.5(c).) All Aggrieved Employees,
9 including those who submit an opt-out request, will still be paid their allocation of the PAGA
10 Penalties and will remain subject to the release of the Released PAGA Claims regardless of their 11 request for exclusion. (Agreement at ¶¶ 6.3 and 8.5(d).) Finally, the Class Notice will advise the 12 Class Members of their right to object to the Settlement and/or dispute their Workweeks.
13 (Agreement at ¶¶ 8.6 and 8.7, Ex. A.)

14 19. A Participating Class Member must cash his or her Individual Class Payment check 15 within 180 days after it is mailed. (Agreement at ¶ 5.2.) Any settlement checks not cashed within 16 180 days will be voided and any funds represented by such checks sent to the Legal Aid at Work, 17 subject to Court approval, which is a nonprofit organization or foundation consistent with Code of 18 Civil Procedure Section 384(b) ("Cy Pres Recipient"). The Parties, Class Counsel and Defense
19 Counsel represent that they have no interest or relationship, financial or otherwise, with this 20 intended Cy Pres Recipient. (Agreement at ¶ 5.4.)

21 20. Subject to Court approval, the Parties have agreed on ILYM Group, Inc. to 22 administer the Settlement ("Administrator"). (Agreement at ¶ 1.2.) The Administrator will be paid
23 for settlement administration in an amount not to exceed $20,500. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(c).) ILYM
24 Group provided an estimate of $25,750 for administration expenses based on the final Class size of 25 3,800, so the Parties will submit documentation in advance of this hearing to modify the 26 Administration Expenses Payment accordingly.

27 21. Subject to Court approval, the Agreement provides for Class Counsel to be awarded 28 a sum not to exceed one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount, as the Class Counsel Fees Payment.

(Agreement at ¶ 3.2(b).) Class Counsel will also be allowed to apply separately for an award of Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment in an amount not to exceed $30,000. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(b).) Subject to Court approval, the Agreement provides for a payment of no more than $15,000 to the Plaintiff as the Class Representative Service Payment. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(a).)

22. Subject to Court approval, the PAGA Penalties will be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount for PAGA penalties under the California Private Attorneys General Act, Cal. Labor Code Section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”). The PAGA Penalties are $50,000. (Agreement at ¶¶ 1.34 and 3.2(d).) Pursuant to the express requirements of Labor Code § 2699(i), the PAGA Payment shall be allocated as follows: 65% shall be allocated to the Labor Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) as its share of the civil penalties and 35% allocated to the Individual PAGA Payments. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(d).) As set forth in the accompanying proof of service, the LWDA has been served with this motion and the Agreement.

Risks of Continued Litigation and Standards for Approval

23. Plaintiff and Class Counsel recognize the expense and length of continuing to litigate and trying this Action against Defendant through possible appeals which could take several years. Class Counsel has also taken into account the uncertain outcome and risk of litigation, especially in complex class actions such as this Action. Class Counsel is also mindful of and recognize the inherent problems of proof under, and alleged defenses to, the claims asserted in the Action. Based upon their evaluation, Plaintiff and Class Counsel have determined that the Settlement set forth in the Agreement is in the best interest of the Class Members.

24. A number of defenses asserted by Defendant present serious threats to the claims of the Plaintiff and the other Class Members. Defendant asserted that Defendant’s practices complied with all applicable Labor laws. Defendant argued that Class Members were paid for all time worked and that all work time was properly recorded and compensation for that time was correctly compensated. Defendant contends that its meal and rest period policies fully complied with California law and Defendant did not fail to provide the opportunity for legally required meal and rest breaks. Defendant contends that there was no failure to pay for business expenses and any cell

1 phone usage was merely convenient and voluntary such that reimbursement was not legally
2 required. Finally, Defendant could argue that the Supreme Court decision in Brinker v. Superior
3 Court, 53 Cal. 4th 1004 (2012), weakened Plaintiff's claims, on liability, value, and class
4 certifiability as to the meal and rest period claims. Defendant also argues that based on their 5 facially lawful practices, Defendant acted in good faith and without willfulness, which if accepted
6 would negate the claims for waiting time penalties and/or inaccurate wage statements. See e.g.
7 Naranjo v. Spectrum Sec. Servs., Inc., 15 Cal. 5th 1056, 1065 (May 6, 2024) ("if an employer 8 reasonably and in good faith believed it was providing a complete and accurate wage statement in 9 compliance with the requirements of section 226, then it has not knowingly and intentionally failed
10 to comply with the wage statement law.") Defendant's defenses could eliminate or substantially
11 reduce any recovery to the Class. While Plaintiff believes that these defenses could be overcome, 12 Defendant maintains these defenses have merit and therefore present a serious risk to recovery by 13 the Class.

14 25. There was also a significant risk that, if the Action was not settled, Plaintiff would be 15 unable to obtain a certified class and maintain the certified class through trial, and thereby not 16 recover on behalf of any other employees. At the time of the mediation, Defendant forcefully
17 opposed the propriety of class certification, arguing that individual issues precluded class
18 certification. Further, as demonstrated by the California Supreme Court decision in Duran v. U.S.
19 Bank National Assn., 59 Cal. 4th 1 (2014), there are significant hurdles to overcome for a class-
20 wide recovery even where the class has been certified. While other cases have approved class 21 certification in wage and hour claims, class certification in this action was hotly disputed and the 22 maintenance of a certified class through trial was by no means a foregone conclusion.

23 26. This settlement is therefore certainly entitled to preliminary approval. Were this 24 case to go to trial, the Plaintiff and the other class members would need to prove, among other 25 things, that wages were owed on a class-wide basis. This was and is a substantial risk.

26 27. Plaintiff will apply to the Court for a Class Representative Service Payment in 27 consideration for the service and for the risks undertaken on behalf of the Class. (Agreement at ¶ 28 3.2(a).) Plaintiff performed these duties admirably by working with Class Counsel over the course

1 of litigation. The Declaration of the Plaintiff is submitted herewith in support. At this stage, the not 2 to exceed amount for the service award is within the accepted range of awards for purposes of 3 preliminary approval. See e.g. Andrews v. Plains All Am. Pipeline L.P., 2022 U.S. Dist. LEXIS
4 172183, at *11 (C.D. Cal. 2022) (finding that the requested service awards of $15,000 each are 5 appropriate); Reynolds v. Direct Flow Med., Inc., 2019 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 149865, at *19 (N.D. Cal.
6 2019) (granting request for $12,500 service award); Mathein v. Pier 1 Imps. (U.S.), Inc., 2018 U.S.
7 Dist. LEXIS 71386 (E.D. Cal. 2018) (awarding $12,500 where average class member payment was 8 $351); Louie v. Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Inc., 2008 WL 4473183, *7 (S.D.Cal. 2008)
9 (awarding $25,000 service award to each of six plaintiffs in overtime class action); Glass v. UBS
10 Fin. Servs., 2007 WL 221862, *16-17 (N.D.Cal. Jan. 27 2007) (awarding $25,000 service award in 11 overtime class action and a pool of $100,000 in enhancements).

12 28. The stage of the proceedings at which this Settlement was reached also militates in 13 favor of preliminary approval and ultimately, final approval of the Settlement. Class Counsel has 14 conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of the class action. Class Counsel began 15 investigating the Class Members' claims before the Action was filed, and during the course of 16 litigation, Class Counsel engaged in informal discovery to obtain necessary information. Class 17 Counsel conducted a review and analysis of the relevant documents and data. Class Counsel was 18 also experienced with the claims at issue here, as Class Counsel previously litigated and settled
19 similar claims in other actions. Accordingly, the agreement to settle did not occur until Class 20 Counsel possessed sufficient information to make an informed judgment regarding the likelihood of 21 success on the merits and the results that could be obtained through further litigation.

22 29. Based on the foregoing data and their own independent investigation and evaluation, 23 Class Counsel is of the opinion that the Settlement with Defendant for the consideration and on the 24 terms set forth in the Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best interest of the 25 Class in light of all known facts and circumstances, including the risk of significant delay, defenses
26 asserted by Defendant, and numerous potential appellate issues. There can be no doubt that 27 Counsel for both parties possessed sufficient information to make an informed judgment regarding 28 the likelihood of success on the merits and the results that could be obtained through further

1 litigation.

3 Class Certification Issues

4 30. Plaintiffs contend that the proposed Settlement meet all of the requirements for class
5 certification under California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 as demonstrated below, and therefore,
6 the Court may appropriately approve the Class as defined in the Agreement. This Court should 7 conditionally certify the Class for settlement purposes only, defined as follows:

8 All individuals who are or previously were employed by Defendant in California and 9 classified as non-exempt and/or exempt pursuant to the Personal Attendant

10 Exemption at any time during the Class Period.

11 (Agreement at ¶ 1.5.)

12 The Class Period is September 17, 2020 through December 31, 2025. (Agreement at ¶ 1.13.)

13 a. Numerosity - Plaintiffs assert that the 3,800 current and former employees
14 that comprise the Class can be identified based on Defendant's records and are sufficiently 15 numerous for class certification.

16 b. Common Issues Predominate - Plaintiff contends that common questions of 17 law and fact are present, specifically the common questions of whether Defendant's employment
18 practices were lawful, whether Defendant failed to provide meal and rest periods to Class Members,
19 whether Class Members were lawfully compensated for all hours worked, whether Defendant failed
20 to pay overtime wages for shifts in excess of 8 hours, whether Defendant failed to provide required
21 expense reimbursement, and whether Class Members are entitled to damages and penalties as a 22 result of these practices. Plaintiff contends that certification of this Class is appropriate because 23 Defendant allegedly engaged in uniform practices with respect to the Class Members. As a result, 24 these common questions of liability could be answered on a class wide basis.

25 c. Typicality - In this Action, Plaintiff contends that the typicality requirement 26 is fully satisfied. Plaintiff, like every other member of the Class, was employed as an employee in 27 California, and, allege like every other member of the Class, that Plaintiff was subject to the same
28 employment practices. Plaintiff, like every other member of the Class, also claims owed

1 compensation as a result of the Defendant's company policies and practices. Thus, the claims of 2 Plaintiff and the members of the Class arise from the same course of conduct by Defendant, involve 3 the same issues, and are based on the same legal theories.

4 d. Adequacy - Plaintiff contends that the Class Members are adequately
5 represented here because Plaintiff and representing counsel (a) do not have any conflicts of interest
6 with other class members, and (b) will prosecute the case vigorously on behalf of the class. This 7 requirement is met here. First, Plaintiff is well aware of the duties as the representatives of the 8 Class and has actively participated in the prosecution of this case to date. Plaintiff effectively 9 communicated with Class Counsel, provided documents and information to Class Counsel, and 10 participated in the investigation and resolution of the Action. The personal involvement of the 11 Plaintiff was essential to the prosecution of the Action and the monetary settlement reached.
12 Second, Plaintiff retained competent counsel who are experienced in employment class actions and 13 who have no conflicts. Third, there is no antagonism between the interests of the Plaintiff and those 14 of the Class. Both the Plaintiff and the Class Members seek monetary relief under the same set of 15 facts and legal theories.

16 31. Class Counsel's Adequacy of Representation and Absence of Conflict: Blumenthal
17 Nordrehaug Bhowmik De Blouw LLP is experienced in prosecuting class action lawsuits and can 18 competently represent the Class. Other lawyers at my firm and I have extensive class litigation 19 experience. We have handled a number of class actions and complex cases and have acted both as 20 counsel and as lead and co-lead counsel in a variety of these matters. We have successfully 21 prosecuted and obtained significant recoveries in numerous class action lawsuits and other lawsuits
22 involving complex issues of law and fact. My firm is particularly experienced in wage and hour
23 employment law class actions, including claims for misclassification, overtime, expense
24 reimbursement, unlawful deduction of wages, and missed rest and meal periods. Blumenthal
25 Nordrehaug Bhowmik De Blouw LLP has been involved as class counsel in over hundreds of wage 26 and hour class actions. Blumenthal Nordrehaug Bhowmik De Blouw LLP has been found to be 27 adequate counsel by the courts throughout California. We have been approved as experienced class
28 counsel by both state and federal courts in California in contested class certification proceedings. A

1 true and correct copy of the resume of my firm is attached hereto as Exhibit #2. The Class in this 2 settlement is defined as “all individuals who are or previously were employed by Defendant in 3 California and classified as non-exempt and/or exempt pursuant to the Personal Attendant
4 Exemption at any time during the Class Period.” I have reviewed my firm’s cases and 5 representation of other plaintiffs and there is no conflict or representation which would prevent my 6 firm from representing the interests of the Class this case. My firm only represents employees, and 7 not employers. My firm has never represented Defendant nor any affiliate of the Defendant. My 8 firm’s only interest in the subject matter of this litigation is to ensure a recovery to the Class and to 9 maximize that recovery. Finally, our allegiance to the Class and the claims of the Class is not 10 inconsistent with our allegiance to pursue the claims on behalf of other employees and classes as 11 the claims are all against different and distinct employers. I can think of no conflict that would 12 arise in our representation of the Class and our adequate representation of the Class is evidenced by 13 the successful prosecution of the class claims to reach an excellent recovery for the Class.
14 Moreover, neither the Plaintiffs nor Class Counsel have any affiliation with the proposed Cy Pres 15 Recipient (Legal Aid at Work) nor the proposed Administrator for this settlement. Thus, the 16 adequacy requirement for my firm is satisfied.

17 32. In accordance with the Agreement, Defendant will provide to the Administrator a 18 confidential electronic spreadsheet containing the Class Data. (Agreement at ¶ 4.2.) Within 14
19 days after receiving the Class Data, the Administrator will mail the Class Notice to all Class 20 Members via first-class U.S. Mail using the most current mailing address information available.
21 (Agreement at ¶ 8.4(b).) The Class Notice, drafted jointly and agreed upon by the Parties through 22 their respective counsel and to be approved by the Court, includes all relevant information. (See 23 Exhibit “A” to the Agreement.) The Class Notice Packet will include a Spanish translation.
24 (Agreement at ¶ 1.11.) The Class Notice will include, among other information: (i) information
25 regarding the Action; (ii) the impact on the rights of the Class Members if they do not opt out,
26 including a description of the applicable release; (iii) information to the Class Members regarding 27 how to opt out and how to object to the Settlement; (iv) the estimated Individual Class Payment for 28 each of the Class Members; (iii) the amount of attorneys’ fees and expenses to be sought; (v) the

1 amount of the Plaintiff's service award request; and (vi) the anticipated expenses of the 2 Administrator. The Class Notice will state that the Class Members shall have sixty (60) days from 3 the date that the Class Notice is mailed to them (the "Response Deadline") to request exclusion
4 (opt-out) or to submit a written objection, which deadline shall be extended by 15 days for re-
5 mailings. (Agreement at ¶¶ 1.42, 8.5, 8.7.) Class Members shall be given the opportunity to object
6 to the Settlement and/or requests for attorneys' fees and expenses and to appear at the Final
7 Approval Hearing. (Agreement at ¶ 8.7.) Class Members who do not submit a timely and proper
8 request to opt-out will automatically receive a payment of their Individual Class Payment. This 9 notice program was designed to meaningfully reach the Class Members and it advises them of all 10 pertinent information concerning the Settlement.

12 33. The PAGA Claim -

13 a. Approval of PAGA Settlements. The decision in O'Connor v. Uber, 201 14 F.Supp.3d 1110, 1133 (N.D. Cal. 2016), and the LWDA's Response therein is illustrative. The 15 LWDA first states that "when viewing the monetary relief allocated to PAGA claims under a 16 settlement, the LWDA recognizes that the PAGA sum need not necessarily be viewed through the 17 same lens as the relief obtained by absent class members on other claims (i.e., the percentage of 18 recovery-to-exposure on the PAGA claims need not necessarily equal the percentage of recovery on 19 the other claims)." (LWDA Response at p.3). The LWDA also indicated that the payment of 20 money to the aggrieved employees furthers the purposes of PAGA and that the Court considers that 21 primary consideration. "The LWDA recognizes that this Court does not review the PAGA 22 allocation in isolation, but rather reviews the settlement as a whole, to determine whether it is 23 fundamentally fair, reasonable and adequate, with primary consideration for the interests of absent 24 class members." (LWDA Response at p.4).

25 b. Valuation of the PAGA Claim. For mediation, Plaintiff calculated the 26 value of the alleged PAGA claim as to Aggrieved Employees for civil penalties to be between 27 $4,450,000 and $8,900,000 for a single violation in every one of the 89,000 pay periods at issue in 28 the PAGA Period, depending on whether the violation was $50 per pay period as in the case of

1 Labor Code § 558(a)(1) or the standard amount of $100 per pay period for violation of Labor Code
2 § 1198. This valuation assumed that PAGA civil penalties would be awarded at the maximum rate
3 per pay period but without stacking.³ The PAGA allocation in the Settlement is the amount of 4 $50,000. This allocation is justified by several important considerations. First, the PAGA claim
5 was subject to the same risks as the underlying class claims. Second, Defendant asserted additional 6 defenses to the PAGA claim, not only as to liability but also as to the amount of the penalties.
7 Defendant could also argue that no penalties prior to the PAGA notification should be awarded, and 8 I am aware of one Court which has so ruled. These additional defenses present a risk to the PAGA
9 claim and the potential that some or all of the PAGA penalties sought may not be awarded. Third,
10 in Carrington v. Starbucks Corp., 30 Cal. App. 5th 504 (2018), the court affirmed a judgment which 11 only provided for a PAGA penalty of $5 per violation. Therefore, at trial, any PAGA penalties
12 awarded could be significantly less than Plaintiff's calculation even where Plaintiff prevailed on the 13 PAGA claim. Even if we assume that violations for all 89,000 pay periods were established, using 14 the valuation from Carrington results in a potential recovery of only $445,000 under PAGA. This 15 means that the PAGA allocation in the Agreement is a reasonable percentage of this potential 16 PAGA recovery. Fourth, the interests of PAGA are also served by the Class recovery under the 17 reasoning of the LWDA in O'Connor v. Uber.

18 c. Comparable PAGA Settlements. In reaching the settlement of the PAGA
19 claim, Class Counsel was also aware of what allocations other Courts have approved for similar 20 PAGA settlements as compared to the total settlement amount. A class settlement that allocates
21 approximately 2.5% of the total settlement value to resolve the PAGA claims applicable to the class
22 is also supported by what has been approved in other wage-and-hour class settlements. Indeed, 23 Courts typically approve PAGA settlement amounts in the range of between 0.27 to 2 percent of the 24 ³ Stacking is where more than one civil penalty is imposed in a pay period for the same conduct.

25 The valuation of between $4,450,000 and $8,900,000 is the civil penalty amount without stacking.
26 If stacking is permitted, then the valuation increases with each additional penalty added to each pay 27 period. Plaintiff, however, is not aware of any PAGA award which permitted stacking and in the 28 cases cited herein, only one penalty per pay period was assessed. Moreover, the recent 2024 amendment to PAGA appears to bar stacking in certain circumstances and thus stacking may not be viable.

12 34. Attorneys' Fees - The Class Counsel Fees Payment is capped at one-third of the 13 Gross Settlement Amount. A fee award that is capped at one-third of the common fund is fair and 14 reasonable, and at the time of final approval, my firm will present lodestar to further support the 15 reasonableness of the requested fee award. My firm has been regularly awarded attorney's fees 16 equal to one-third of the common fund in Court-approved wage and hour class settlements. Some 17 of the class action awards obtained by Class Counsel in similar employment actions throughout the 18 state bear out the reasonableness of a fee and costs award equivalent to one-third (1/3) of the total
19 settlement value: On December 4, 2018, in Panda Express Wage and Hour Cases (Los Angeles

24 no. 22-CIV-02481), Judge Marie Weiner approved a one-third fee award in a wage and hour class

26 the fees that have been awarded in other similar cases.

28 35. Class Representative Service Payments - The reasonableness of the requested service award is also established by reference to the amounts that other California courts have found to be reasonable in wage and hour class action settlements: *Zamora v. 20 36. Potentially Related Other Actions - Besides this Action, I not aware of any other 21 related cases pending against Defendant which would be impacted by this settlement. The Parties 22 have confirmed this in the Agreement at paragraph 2.8. I have searched the LWDA databased and 23 could not locate another pending PAGA claim other than the one in this Action.

25 37. Administration - After seeking bids from qualified administrators, the estimate from 26 ILYM Group is was selected, as it provided for an estimate of $25,750 to perform the settlement
27 administration for a Class of up to 3,800 for administration expenses based on the final Class size,
28 so the Parties will submit documentation in advance of this hearing to adjust the Administration

1 budget accordingly. I have used ILYM Group successfully as the administrator in more than twenty 2 settlements in the last couple years and know them to be competent and experienced. My firm has 3 no relationship or connection with ILYM Group, and thus no conflict of interest exists. Submitted
4 herewith in support of the motion is the Declaration of Anthony Rogers from ILYM Group which 5 includes the estimate for administration from ILYM Group.

7 Service on the LWDA:

8 38. At the same time as the filing and service of this declaration, I am also serving the 9 LWDA with the entire motion for preliminary approval which includes the Class Action and PAGA
10 Settlement Agreement. This service is verified by the accompanying proof of service.

12 Defendant's Declaration and the Escalator:

13 39. The Declaration by the Defendant (Lauren Roth) verifying they do not have any 14 conflict of interests with the Administrator or the proposed cy pres recipient, Legal Aid Society, is 15 attached hereto as Exhibit #4. This declaration also confirms the Class size of 200,000 workweeks, 16 which would not trigger the escalator.

The Parties agree to certification of the Class for purposes of this Settlement only. If for any reason the settlement does not become effective, Defendant reserves the right to contest certification of any class for any reason and reserves all available defenses to the claims in the Action.

- 2.8. The Parties, Class Counsel and Defense Counsel represent that they are not aware of any other pending matter or action asserting claims that will be extinguished or affected by the Settlement.

3. MONETARY TERMS

- 3.1. Gross Settlement Amount. Except as otherwise provided by Paragraph 9 below, Defendant promises to pay $1,999,999 and no more as the Gross Settlement Amount. This amount is all-inclusive of all payments contemplated in this resolution, excluding any employer-side payroll taxes on the portion of the Individual Class Payments allocated to wages which shall be separately paid by Defendant to the Administrator. Defendant has no obligation to pay the Gross Settlement Amount (or any payroll taxes) prior to the deadline stated in Paragraph 4.3 of this Agreement. The Administrator will disburse the entire Gross Settlement Amount without asking or requiring Participating Class Members or Aggrieved Employees to submit any claim as a condition of payment. None of the Gross Settlement Amount will revert to Defendant.
- 3.2. Payments from the Gross Settlement Amount. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Administrator will make the following payments out of the Gross Settlement Amount, in the amounts specified by the Court in the Final Approval.
- (a) To Plaintiff: Class Representative Service Payment to the Class Representative of not more than $15,000 (in addition to any Individual Class Payment and any Individual PAGA Payment the Class Representative is entitled to receive as a Participating Class Member). Defendant will not oppose Plaintiff's request for a Class Representative Service Payment that does not exceed this amount. As part of the motion for Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Litigation Expenses Payment, Plaintiff will seek Court approval for any Class Representative Service Payments no later than 16 court days prior to the Final Approval Hearing. If the Court approves a Class Representative Service Payment less than the amount requested, the Administrator will retain the remainder in the Net Settlement Amount. The Administrator will pay the Class Representative Service Payment using IRS Form 1099. Plaintiff assumes full responsibility and liability for employee taxes owed on the Class Representative Service Payment.
- (b) To Class Counsel: A Class Counsel Fees Payment of not more than one-third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount, which is currently estimated to be $666,666, and a Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment of not more than $30,000. Defendant will not oppose requests for these payments provided that do not exceed these amounts. Plaintiff and/or Class Counsel will file a motion for Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Litigation Expenses Payment no later than 16 court days prior to the Final Approval Hearing. If the Court approves a Class Counsel Fees Payment and/or a Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment less than the amounts requested, the Administrator will allocate the remainder to the Net Settlement Amount. Released Parties shall have no liability to Class Counsel or any other Plaintiff's Counsel arising from any claim to any portion any Class Counsel Fee Payment and/or Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment. The Administrator will pay the Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel Expenses Payment using one or more IRS 1099 Forms. Class Counsel assumes full responsibility and liability for taxes owed on the Class Counsel Fees Payment and the Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and holds Defendant harmless, and indemnifies Defendant, from any dispute or controversy regarding any division or sharing of any of these payments.

- (c) To the Administrator: An Administration Expenses Payment not to exceed $20,500 except for a showing of good cause and as approved by the Court. To the extent the Administration Expenses Payment is less or the Court approves payment less than $20,500, the Administrator will retain the remainder in the Net Settlement Amount for distribution to Participating Class Members.
- (d) To the LWDA and Aggrieved Employees: PAGA Penalties in the amount of $50,000 to be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount, with 65% ($32,500) allocated to the LWDA PAGA Payment and 35% ($17,500) allocated to the Individual PAGA Payments.
 - i. The Administrator will calculate each Individual PAGA Payment by (a) dividing the amount of the Aggrieved Employees' 35% share of PAGA Penalties ($17,500) by the total number of PAGA Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Aggrieved Employee's PAGA Pay Periods. Aggrieved Employees assume full responsibility and liability for any taxes owed on their Individual PAGA Payment.
 - ii. If the Court approves PAGA Penalties of less than the amount requested, the Administrator will allocate the remainder to the Net Settlement Amount. The Administrator will report the Individual PAGA Payments on IRS 1099 Forms.
- (e) To Each Participating Class Member: An Individual Class Payment calculated by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members during the Class Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Participating Class Member's Workweeks.
 - i. Tax Allocation of Individual Class Payments. 20% of each Participating Class Member's Individual Class Payment will be allocated to settlement of wage claims (the "Wage Portion"). The Wage Portions are subject to tax withholding and will be reported on an IRS W-2 Form. 80% of each Participating Class Member's Individual Class Payment will be allocated to settlement of claims for non-wages, expense reimbursement, interest and penalties (the “Non-Wage Portion”). The Non-Wage Portions are not subject to wage withholdings and will be reported on IRS 1099 Forms. Participating Class Members assume full responsibility and liability for any employee taxes owed on their Individual Class Payment.

- ii. Effect of Non-Participating Class Members on Calculation of Individual Class Payments. Non-Participating Class Members will not receive any Individual Class Payments. The Administrator will retain amounts equal to their Individual Class Payments in the Net Settlement Amount for distribution to Participating Class Members on a pro rata basis.

4. SETTLEMENT FUNDING

- 4.1. Class Workweeks and Aggrieved Employee Pay Periods. Based on its records, Defendant has represented that the Class consists of approximately 3,800 Class Members who collectively worked a total of 200,000 Workweeks, and 2,900 Aggrieved Employees who worked a total of 89,000 PAGA Pay Periods.
- 4.2. Class Data. Not later than 15 days after the Court grants Preliminary Approval of the Settlement, Defendant will deliver the Class Data to the Administrator, in the form of a Microsoft Excel spreadsheet. To protect Class Members’ privacy rights, the Administrator must maintain the Class Data in confidence, use the Class Data only for purposes of this Settlement and for no other purpose, and restrict access to the Class Data to Administrator employees who need access to the Class Data to effect and perform under this Agreement. Defendant has a continuing duty to immediately notify Class Counsel if it discovers that the Class Data omitted Class Member identifying information and to provide corrected or updated Class Data as soon as reasonably feasible. Without any extension of the deadline by which Defendant must send the Class Data to the Administrator, the Parties and their counsel will expeditiously use best efforts, in good faith, to reconstruct or otherwise resolve any issues related to missing or omitted Class Data.
- 4.3. Funding of the Gross Settlement Amount. Defendant shall fully fund the Gross Settlement Amount, and also fund the amounts necessary to fully pay Defendant’s share of payroll taxes by transmitting the funds to the Administrator no later than 30 days after the Effective Date.

5. PAYMENTS FROM THE GROSS SETTLEMENT AMOUNT

- 5.1. Within 30 days after Defendant funds the Gross Settlement Amount, the Administrator will mail checks for all Individual Class Payments, all Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, the Administration Expenses Payment, the Class Counsel Fees Payment, the Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, and the Class Representative Service Payment.

- 5.2. The Administrator will issue checks for the Individual Class Payments and/or Individual PAGA Payments and send them to the Class Members via First Class U.S. Mail, postage prepaid. The face of each check shall prominently state the “void date”, which is 180 days after the date of mailing, when the check will be voided. The Administrator will cancel all checks not cashed by the void date. The Administrator will send checks for Individual Class Payments to all Participating Class Members (including those for whom Class Notice was returned undelivered). The Administrator will send checks for Individual PAGA Payments to all Aggrieved Employees including Non-Participating Class Members who qualify as Aggrieved Employees (including those for whom Class Notice was returned undelivered). The Administrator may send Participating Class Members a single check combining the Individual Class Payment and the Individual PAGA Payment. Before mailing any checks, the Administrator must update the recipients’ mailing addresses using the National Change of Address Database. If a Participating Class Member’s or Aggrieved Employee’s check is not cashed within 120 days after its last mailing to the affected individual, the Administrator will also send the individual a notice informing him or her that unless the check is cashed by the void date, it will expire and become non-negotiable, and offer to replace the check if it was lost or misplaced but not cashed.
- 5.3. The Administrator must conduct a Class Member Address Search for all other Class Members whose checks are returned undelivered without USPS forwarding address. Within 7 days of receiving a returned check the Administrator must re-mail checks to the USPS forwarding address provided or to an address ascertained through the Class Member Address Search. The Administrator need not take further steps to deliver checks to Class Members whose re-mailed checks are returned as undelivered. The Administrator shall promptly send a replacement check to any Class Member whose original check was lost or misplaced, requested by the Class Member prior to the void date.
- 5.4. For any Class Member whose Individual Class Payment check or Individual PAGA Payment check is uncashed and cancelled after the void date, the Administrator shall transmit the funds represented by such checks to Legal Aid at Work, a Court-approved nonprofit organization or foundation consistent with Code of Civil Procedure Section 384(b) (“Cy Pres Recipient”). The Parties, Class Counsel and Defense Counsel represent that they have no interest or relationship, financial or otherwise, with the intended Cy Pres Recipient.
- 5.5. The payment of Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments shall not obligate Defendant to confer any additional benefits or make any additional payments to Class Members (such as 401(k) contributions or bonuses) beyond those specified in this Agreement.
- 6. RELEASE OF CLAIMS. Effective on the date when Defendant fully funds the entire Gross Settlement Amount and funds all employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portion of the Individual Class Payments, Plaintiff, Participating Class Members and the LWDA will release claims against all Released Parties as follows:

6.1. Plaintiff's Release. Plaintiff and her respective former and present spouses, representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns generally, release and discharge Released Parties from all claims, transactions, or occurrences that occurred during the Class Period, including, but not limited to: (a) all claims that were, or reasonably could have been, alleged, based on the facts contained, in the Operative Complaint and (b) all PAGA claims that were, or reasonably could have been, alleged based on facts contained in the Operative Complaint, Plaintiff's PAGA Notice ("Plaintiff's Release"). Plaintiff's Release does not extend to any claims or actions to enforce this Agreement, or to any claims for vested benefits, unemployment benefits, disability benefits, social security benefits, or workers' compensation benefits that arose at any time, or based on occurrences outside the Class Period. Plaintiff acknowledges that Plaintiff may discover facts or law different from, or in addition to, the facts or law that Plaintiff now knows or believes to be true but agrees, nonetheless, that Plaintiff's Release shall be and remain effective in all respects, notwithstanding such different or additional facts or Plaintiff's discovery of them.

(a) Plaintiff's Waiver of Rights Under Civil Code Section 1542. For purposes of Plaintiff's Release, Plaintiff expressly waives and relinquishes the provisions, rights, and benefits, if any, of section 1542 of the California Civil Code, which reads:

A general release does not extend to claims that the creditor or releasing party does not know or suspect to exist in his or her favor at the time of executing the release, and that if known by him or her would have materially affected his or her settlement with the debtor or Released Party.

6.2. Release by Participating Class Members. All Participating Class Members, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, release Released Parties from the Released Class Claims.

6.3. Release of PAGA Claims. The LWDA is deemed to release, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, the Released Parties from the Released PAGA Claims.

7. MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL. The Parties agree to jointly prepare and file a motion for preliminary approval ("Motion for Preliminary Approval") that complies with the Court's procedures and instructions.

7.1. Defendant's Responsibilities. Within 14 days of the full execution of this Agreement, Defendant will prepare and deliver to Class Counsel a signed Declaration disclosing all facts relevant to any actual or potential conflicts of interest with the Administrator and the Cy Pres Recipient, if any. In the Declaration, Defendant shall aver that they are not aware of any other pending matter or action asserting claims that will be extinguished or adversely affected by the Settlement. In this Declaration, Defendant shall also aver as to the number of Class Members and the number of Workweeks for the Class during the Class Period.

- 7.2. Plaintiff's Responsibilities. Plaintiff will prepare and deliver to Defense Counsel all documents necessary for obtaining Preliminary Approval, including: (i) a draft of the notice, and memorandum in support, of the Motion for Preliminary Approval that includes an analysis of the Settlement under Dunk/Kullar and a request for approval of the PAGA Settlement under Labor Code Section 2699, subd. (f)(2)); (ii) a draft proposed Order Granting Preliminary Approval and Approval of PAGA Settlement; (iii) a draft proposed Class Notice; (iv) a signed declaration from the Administrator attaching its "not to exceed" bid for administering the Settlement and attesting to its willingness to serve; competency; operative procedures for protecting the security of Class Data; amounts of insurance coverage for any data breach, defalcation of funds or other misfeasance; all facts relevant to any actual or potential conflicts of interest with Class Members and/or the proposed Cy Pres Recipient; and the nature and extent of any financial relationship with Plaintiff, Class Counsel or Defense Counsel; (v) a signed declaration from Plaintiff confirming willingness and competency to serve and disclosing all facts relevant to any actual or potential conflicts of interest with Class Members, and/or the Administrator and/or the proposed Cy Pres Recipient; (v) a signed declaration from each Class Counsel firm attesting to its competency to represent the Class Members; its timely transmission to the LWDA of all necessary PAGA documents (initial notice of violations (Labor Code section 2699.3, subd. (a)), Operative Complaint (Labor Code section 2699, subd. (l)(1)), this Agreement (Labor Code section 2699, subd. (l)(2)); (vi) a redlined version of the parties' Agreement showing all modifications made to the Model Agreement ready for filing with the Court; and (vii) all facts relevant to any actual or potential conflict of interest with Class Members, the Administrator and/or the Cy Pres Recipient, if any. In their Declarations, Plaintiff and Class Counsel Declaration shall aver that they are not aware of any other pending matter or action asserting claims that will be extinguished or adversely affected by the Settlement
- 7.3. Responsibilities of Counsel. Class Counsel and Defense Counsel are jointly responsible for expeditiously finalizing and filing the Motion for Preliminary Approval no later than 30 days after the full execution of this Agreement; obtaining a prompt hearing date for the Motion for Preliminary Approval; and for appearing in Court to advocate in favor of the Motion for Preliminary Approval. Class Counsel is responsible for delivering the Court's Preliminary Approval to the Administrator.
- 7.4. Duty to Cooperate. If the Parties disagree on any aspect of the proposed Motion for Preliminary Approval and/or the supporting declarations and documents, Class Counsel and Defense Counsel will expeditiously work together on behalf of the Parties by meeting in person or by telephone, and in good faith, to resolve the disagreement. If the Court does not grant Preliminary Approval or conditions Preliminary Approval on any material change to this Agreement, Class Counsel and Defense Counsel will expeditiously work together on behalf of the Parties by meeting in person or by telephone, and in good faith, to modify the Agreement and otherwise satisfy the Court's concerns.

8. SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION

- 8.1. Selection of Administrator. The Parties have jointly selected ILYM Group, Inc. to serve as the Administrator and verified that, as a condition of appointment, ILYM Group, Inc. agrees to be bound by this Agreement and to perform, as a fiduciary, all duties specified in this Agreement in exchange for payment of Administration Expenses. The Administrator's duties will include preparing, printing, and mailing the Class Notice Packet to all Class Members; conducting a National Change of Address search to update Class Member addresses before mailing the Class Notice Packets; re-mailing Class Notice Packets that are returned to the Class Member's new address; setting up a toll-free telephone number and email and a fax number to receive communications from Class Members; receiving and reviewing for validity completed Requests for Exclusion; providing the Parties with weekly status reports about the delivery of Class Notice Packets and receipt of Requests for Exclusion, objections and disputes; calculating Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments; issuing the checks to effectuate the payments due under the Settlement; issuing the tax reports required under this Settlement; and otherwise administering the Settlement pursuant to this Agreement. The Parties and their Counsel represent that they have no interest or relationship, financial or otherwise, with the Administrator other than a professional relationship arising out of prior experiences administering settlements.
- 8.2. Employer Identification Number. The Administrator shall have and use its own Employer Identification Number for purposes of calculating payroll tax withholdings and providing reports state and federal tax authorities.
- 8.3. Qualified Settlement Fund. The Administrator shall establish a settlement fund that meets the requirements of a Qualified Settlement Fund ("QSF") under US Treasury Regulation section 468B-1.
- 8.4. Notice to Class Members.
- (a) No later than three (3) business days after receipt of the Class Data, the Administrator shall notify Class Counsel that the list has been received and state the number of Class Members, PAGA Members, Workweeks, and Pay Periods in the Class Data.
 - (b) Using best efforts to perform as soon as possible, and in no event later than 14 days after receiving the Class Data, the Administrator will send to all Class Members identified in the Class Data, via first-class United States Postal Service ("USPS") mail, the Class Notice with Spanish translation, substantially in the form attached to this Agreement as Exhibit A. The first page of the Class Notice shall prominently estimate the dollar amounts of any Individual Class Payment and/or Individual PAGA Payment payable to the Class Member, and the number of Workweeks and PAGA Pay Periods (if applicable) used to calculate these amounts. Before mailing Class Notices, the Administrator shall update Class Member addresses using the National Change of Address database.

- (c) Not later than 7 days after the Administrator's receipt of any Class Notice returned by the USPS as undelivered, the Administrator shall re-mail the Class Notice using any forwarding address provided by the USPS. If the USPS does not provide a forwarding address, the Administrator shall conduct a Class Member Address Search, and re-mail the Class Notice to the most current address obtained. The Administrator has no obligation to make further attempts to locate or send Class Notice to Class Members whose Class Notice is returned by the USPS a second time.
- (d) The deadlines for Class Members' written objections, Challenges to Workweeks and/or Pay Periods, and Requests for Exclusion will be extended an additional 14 days beyond the Response Deadline provided in the Class Notice for all Class Members whose notice is re-mailed. The Administrator will inform the Class Member of the extended deadline with the re-mailed Class Notice.
- (e) If the Administrator, the Parties, Defense Counsel or Class Counsel is contacted by or otherwise discovers any persons who believe they should have been included in the Class Data and should have received Class Notice, the Parties will expeditiously meet and confer in person or by telephone, and in good faith, in an effort to agree on whether to include them as Class Members. If the Parties agree, such persons will be Class Members entitled to the same rights as other Class Members, and the Administrator will send, via email or overnight delivery, a Class Notice requiring them to exercise options under this Agreement not later than 14 days after receipt of Class Notice, or the deadline dates in the Class Notice, whichever are later.

8.5. Requests for Exclusion (Opt-Outs).

- (a) Class Members who wish to exclude themselves (opt-out of) the Class Settlement must send the Administrator, by fax, email, or mail, a signed written Request for Exclusion not later than the Response Deadline (plus an additional 14 days for Class Members whose Class Notice is re-mailed). A Request for Exclusion is a letter from a Class Member or his/her representative that reasonably communicates the Class Member's election to be excluded from the Settlement and includes the Class Member's name, address and email address or telephone number. To be valid, a Request for Exclusion must be timely faxed, emailed, or postmarked by the Response Deadline.

- (b) The Administrator may not reject a Request for Exclusion as invalid because it fails to contain all the information specified in the Class Notice. The Administrator shall accept any Request for Exclusion as valid if the Administrator can reasonably ascertain the identity of the person as a Class Member and the Class Member's desire to be excluded. The Administrator's determination shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge. If the Administrator has reason to question the authenticity of a Request for Exclusion, the Administrator may demand additional proof of the Class Member's identity. The Administrator's determination of authenticity shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge.
- (c) Every Class Member who does not submit a timely and valid Request for Exclusion is deemed to be a Participating Class Member under this Agreement, entitled to all benefits and bound by all terms and conditions of the Settlement, including the Participating Class Members' Releases under Paragraph 6.2 of the Agreement, regardless whether the Participating Class Member actually receives the Class Notice or objects to the Settlement.
- (d) Every Class Member who submits a valid and timely Request for Exclusion is a Non-Participating Class Member and shall not receive an Individual Class Payment or have the right to object to the class action components of the Settlement. Because future PAGA claims are subject to claim preclusion upon entry of the Judgment, Non-Participating Class Members who are Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release the claims identified in Paragraph 6.3 of this Agreement and are eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment. If a Class Member submits both a Request for Exclusion and an objection, only the Request for Exclusion will be accepted and the objection will be void.

8.6. Challenges to Calculation of Workweeks. Each Class Member shall have until the Response Deadline (plus an additional 14 days for Class Members whose Class Notice is re-mailed) to challenge the number of Class Workweeks and PAGA Pay Periods (if any) allocated to the Class Member in the Class Notice. The Class Member may challenge the allocation by communicating with the Administrator via fax, email or mail. The Administrator must encourage the challenging Class Member to submit supporting documentation. In the absence of any contrary documentation, the Administrator is entitled to presume that the Workweeks contained in the Class Notice are correct so long as they are consistent with the Class Data. The Administrator's determination of each Class Member's allocation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge. The Administrator shall promptly provide copies of all challenges to calculation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods to Defense Counsel and Class Counsel and the Administrator's determination as to the challenges

8.7. Objections to Settlement.

- (a) Only Participating Class Members may object to the class action components of the Settlement and/or this Agreement, including contesting the fairness of the Settlement, and/or amounts requested for the Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and/or Class Representative Service Payment.
- (b) Participating Class Members may send written objections to the Administrator, by fax, email, or mail. In the alternative, or in addition to a written objection, Participating Class Members may appear in Court (or hire an attorney to appear in Court) to present verbal objections at the Final Approval Hearing. A Participating Class Member who elects to send a written objection to the Administrator must do so not later than the Response Deadline (plus an additional 14 days for Class Members whose Class Notice was re-mailed).
- (c) Non-Participating Class Members have no right to object to any of the class action components of the Settlement. If a Class Member submits both a Request for Exclusion and an objection, only the Request for Exclusion will be accepted and the objection will be void.

8.8. Administrator Duties. The Administrator has a duty to perform or observe all tasks to be performed or observed by the Administrator contained in this Agreement or otherwise.

- (a) Website, Email Address and Toll-Free Number. The Administrator will establish and maintain and use an internet website to post information of interest to Class Members including the date, time and location for the Final Approval Hearing and copies of the Settlement Agreement, Motion for Preliminary Approval, the Preliminary Approval, the Class Notice, the Motion for Final Approval, the Motion for Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and Class Representative Service Payment, the Final Approval and the Judgment. The Administrator will also maintain and monitor an email address and a toll-free telephone number to receive Class Member calls, faxes and emails.
- (b) Request for Exclusion (Opt-Outs) and Exclusion List. The Administrator will promptly review on a rolling basis Requests for Exclusion to ascertain their validity. Not later than 7 days after the expiration of the deadline for submitting Requests for Exclusion, the Administrator shall email a list to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel containing (a) the names and other identifying information of Class Members who have timely submitted valid Requests for Exclusion (“Exclusion List”); (b) the names and other identifying information of Class Members who have submitted invalid Requests for Exclusion; (c) copies of all Requests for Exclusion from Settlement submitted (whether valid or invalid).
- (c) Workweek and/or Pay Period Challenges. The Administrator has the authority to address and make final decisions consistent with the terms of this Agreement on all Class Member challenges over the calculation of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods. The Administrator's decision shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge.

- (d) Weekly Reports. The Administrator must, on a weekly basis, provide written reports to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel that, among other things, tally the number of: Class Notices mailed or re-mailed, Class Notices returned undelivered, Requests for Exclusion (whether valid or invalid) received, objections received, challenges to Workweeks and/or Pay Periods received and/or resolved, and checks mailed for Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments ("Weekly Report"). The Weekly Reports must include the Administrator's assessment of the validity of Requests for Exclusion and attach copies of all Requests for Exclusion and objections received.
- (e) Administrator's Declaration. Not later than 7 days before the date by which Plaintiff is required to file the Motion for Final Approval of the Settlement, the Administrator will provide to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel, a signed declaration suitable for filing in Court attesting to its due diligence and compliance with all of its obligations under this Agreement, including, but not limited to, its mailing of Class Notice, the Class Notices returned as undelivered, the re-mailing of Class Notices, attempts to locate Class Members, the total number of Requests for Exclusion from Settlement it received (both valid or invalid), the number of written objections and attach the Exclusion List. The Administrator will supplement its declaration as needed or requested by the Parties and/or the Court. Class Counsel is responsible for filing the Administrator's declaration(s) in Court.
- (f) Final Report by Administrator. Within 10 days after the Administrator disburses all funds of the Gross Settlement Amount, the Administrator will provide Class Counsel and Defense Counsel with a final report detailing its disbursements by employee identification number only of all payments made under this Agreement. At least 7 days before any deadline set by the Court, the Administrator will prepare, and submit to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel, a signed declaration suitable for filing in Court attesting to its disbursement of all payments required under this Agreement. Class Counsel is responsible for filing the Administrator's declaration in Court. If a second declaration attesting to the distribution of uncashed checks is required, the Administrator shall provide this second declaration at least 7 days before any deadline for a second declaration and Class Counsel shall be responsible for filing the second declaration with the Court.

9. CLASS SIZE MODIFICATION AND ESCALATOR CLAUSE. Based on its records, Defendant provided figures as to the Class size as set forth in paragraph 4.1 above. In regard hereto, Defendant is providing a declaration as set forth in paragraph 7.1 above. If the actual number of workweeks during the Class Period is more than 10% of 200,000 (i.e., exceeds 220,000), then Defendant may (i) make a proportional increase to the Gross Settlement Amount by the percentage increase for each additional workweek above 220,000, or (ii) choose to end the Class Period and PAGA Period on the date of the 220,000th Workweek. Plaintiff will have no right to object to Defendant's election.

10. DEFENDANT'S RIGHT TO WITHDRAW. If the number of valid Requests for Exclusion identified in the Exclusion List exceeds 5% of the total of all Class Members, Defendant may, but is not obligated, elect to withdraw from the Settlement. The Parties agree that, if Defendant withdraws, the Settlement shall be void ab initio, have no force or effect whatsoever, and that neither Party will have any further obligation to perform under this Agreement; provided, however, Defendant will remain responsible for paying all Administration Expenses incurred as of the date Defendant makes this election to withdraw. Defendant must notify Class Counsel and the Court of its election to withdraw not later than 7 days after the Administrator sends the final Exclusion List to Defense Counsel. Invalid Requests for Exclusion will have no effect on this threshold for an election.

11. MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, not later than 16 court days before the calendared Final Approval Hearing, Plaintiff will file in Court, a motion for final approval of the Settlement that includes a request for approval of the PAGA settlement under Labor Code section 2699(l), a Proposed Final Approval Order and a proposed Judgment (collectively "Motion for Final Approval"). Plaintiff shall provide drafts of these documents to Defense Counsel not later than 7 days prior to filing the Motion for Final Approval. Class Counsel and Defense Counsel will expeditiously meet and confer and in good faith, to resolve any disagreements concerning the Motion for Final Approval.

11.1. Response to Objections. Each Party retains the right to respond to any objection raised by a Participating Class Member, including the right to file responsive documents in Court no later than 5 court days prior to the Final Approval Hearing, or as otherwise ordered or accepted by the Court.

11.2. Duty to Cooperate. If the Court does not grant Final Approval or conditions Final Approval on any material change to the Settlement (including, but not limited to, the scope of release to be granted by Class Members), the Parties will expeditiously work together in good faith to address the Court's concerns by revising the Agreement as necessary to obtain Final Approval. The Court's decision to award less than the amounts requested for a Class Representative Service Payment, Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and/or Administration Expenses Payment shall not constitute a material modification to the Agreement within the meaning of this paragraph.

11.3. Continuing Jurisdiction of the Court. The Parties agree that, after entry of Judgment, the Court will retain jurisdiction over the Parties, Action, and the Settlement under C.C.P. section 664.6 solely for purposes of (i) enforcing this Agreement and/or Judgment, (ii) addressing settlement administration matters, and (iii) addressing such post-Judgment matters as are permitted by law.

11.4. Waiver of the Right to Appeal. Provided the Judgment is consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, specifically including the Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment set forth in this Settlement, the Parties, their respective counsel, and all Participating Class Members who did not object to the Settlement as provided in this Agreement, waive all rights to appeal from the Judgment, including all rights to post-judgment and appellate proceedings, the right to file motions to vacate judgment, motions for new trial, extraordinary writs, and appeals. The waiver of appeal does not include any waiver of the right to oppose such motions, writs or appeals. If an objector appeals the Judgment, the Parties' obligations to perform under this Agreement will be suspended until such time as the appeal is finally resolved and the Judgment becomes final, except as to matters that do not affect the amount of the Net Settlement Amount.

11.5. Appellate Court Orders to Vacate, Reverse, or Materially Modify Judgment. If the reviewing Court vacates, reverses, or modifies the Judgment in a manner that requires a material modification of this Agreement (including, but not limited to, the scope of release to be granted by Class Members), this Agreement shall be null and void. The Parties shall nevertheless expeditiously work together in good faith to address the appellate court's concerns and to obtain Final Approval and entry of Judgment, sharing, on an equal basis, any additional Administration Expenses reasonably incurred at the time of remittitur. An appellate decision to vacate, reverse, or modify the Court's award of the Class Representative Service Payment or any payments to Class Counsel shall not constitute a material modification of the Judgment within the meaning of this paragraph, as long as the Gross Settlement Amount remains unchanged.

12. AMENDED JUDGMENT. If any amended judgment is required under Code of Civil Procedure section 384, the Parties will work together in good faith to jointly submit and a proposed amended judgment.

13. ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS

13.1. No Admission of Liability, Class Certification or Representative Manageability for Other Purposes. This Agreement represents a compromise and settlement of highly disputed claims. Nothing in this Agreement is intended or should be construed as an admission by Defendant that any of the allegations in the Operative Complaint have merit or that Defendant has any liability for any claims asserted; nor should it be intended or construed as an admission by Plaintiff that Defendant's defenses in the Action have merit. The Parties agree that class certification and representative treatment is for purposes of this Settlement only. If, for any reason the Court does not grant Preliminary Approval, Final Approval or Judgment pursuant to this Agreement, Defendant reserves the right to contest certification of any class for any reasons, and Defendant reserves all available defenses to the claims in the Action, and Plaintiff reserves the right to move for class certification on any grounds available and to contest Defendant's defenses. The Settlement, this Agreement and Parties' willingness to settle the Action will have no bearing on, and will not be admissible in connection with, any litigation (except for proceedings to enforce or effectuate the Settlement and this Agreement).

- 13.2. Confidentiality Prior to Preliminary Approval. Plaintiff, Class Counsel, Defendant and Defense Counsel separately agree that, until the Motion for Preliminary Approval of Settlement is filed, they and each of them will not disclose, disseminate and/or publicize, or cause or permit another person to disclose, disseminate or publicize, any of the terms of the Agreement directly or indirectly, specifically or generally, to any person, corporation, association, government agency, or other entity except: (1) to the Parties' attorneys, accountants, or spouses, all of whom will be instructed to keep this Agreement confidential; (2) counsel in a related matter; (3) to the extent necessary to report income to appropriate taxing authorities; (4) in response to a court order or subpoena; or (5) in response to an inquiry or subpoena issued by a state or federal government agency. Each Party agrees to immediately notify each other Party of any judicial or agency order, inquiry, or subpoena seeking such information. Plaintiff, Class Counsel, Defendant and Defense Counsel separately agree not to, directly or indirectly, initiate any conversation or other communication, before the filing of the Motion for Preliminary Approval, any with third party regarding this Agreement or the matters giving rise to this Agreement except to respond only that "the matter was resolved," or words to that effect. This paragraph does not restrict Class Counsel's communications with Class Members in accordance with Class Counsel's ethical obligations owed to Class Members.
- 13.3. No Solicitation. The Parties separately agree that they and their respective counsel and employees have not and will not solicit any Class Member to opt out of or object to the Settlement, or appeal from the Judgment. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to restrict Class Counsel's ability to communicate with Class Members in accordance with Class Counsel's ethical obligations owed to Class Members.
- 13.4. Integrated Agreement. Upon execution by all Parties and their counsel, this Agreement together with its attached exhibits shall constitute the entire agreement between the Parties relating to the Settlement, superseding any and all oral representations, warranties, covenants, or inducements made to or by any Party.
- 13.5. Attorney Authorization. Class Counsel and Defense Counsel separately warrant and represent that they are authorized by Plaintiff and Defendant, respectively, to take all appropriate action required or permitted to be taken by such Parties pursuant to this Agreement to effectuate its terms, and to execute any other documents reasonably required to effectuate the terms of this Agreement including any amendments to this Agreement.
- 13.6. Cooperation. The Parties and their counsel will cooperate with each other and use their best efforts, in good faith, to implement the Settlement by, among other things, modifying the Settlement Agreement, submitting supplemental evidence and supplementing points and authorities as requested by the Court. In the event the Parties are unable to agree upon the form or content of any document necessary to implement the Settlement, or on any modification of the Agreement that may become necessary to implement the Settlement, the Parties will seek the assistance of a mediator and/or the Court for resolution.

- 13.7. Prior Assignments. The Parties separately represent and warrant that they have not directly or indirectly assigned, transferred, encumbered, or purported to assign, transfer, or encumber to any person or entity and portion of any liability, claim, demand, action, cause of action, or right released and discharged by the Party in this Settlement.
- 13.8. Tax Advice. Neither Plaintiff, Class Counsel, Defendant nor Defense Counsel are providing any advice regarding taxes or taxability, nor shall anything in this Settlement be relied upon as such within the meaning of United States Treasury Department Circular 230 (31 CFR Part 10, as amended) or otherwise.
- 13.9. Modification of Agreement. This Agreement, and all parts of it, may be amended, modified, changed, or waived only by an express written instrument signed by all Parties or their representatives, and approved by the Court.
- 13.10. Agreement Binding on Successors. This Agreement will be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the successors of each of the Parties.
- 13.11. Applicable Law. All terms and conditions of this Agreement and its exhibits will be governed by and interpreted according to the internal laws of the state of California, without regard to conflict of law principles.
- 13.12. Cooperation in Drafting. The Parties have cooperated in the drafting and preparation of this Agreement. This Agreement will not be construed against any Party on the basis that the Party was the drafter or participated in the drafting.
- 13.13. Confidentiality. To the extent permitted by law, all agreements made, and orders entered during Action and in this Agreement relating to the confidentiality of information shall survive the execution of this Agreement.
- 13.14. Use and Return of Class Data. Information provided to Class Counsel pursuant to Cal. Evid. Code §1152, and all copies and summaries of the Class Data provided to Class Counsel by Defendant in connection with the mediation, other settlement negotiations, or in connection with the Settlement, may be used only with respect to this Settlement, and no other purpose, and may not be used in any way that violates any existing contractual agreement, statute, or rule of court. Not later than 90 days after the date when the Court discharges the Administrator's obligation to provide a Declaration confirming the final pay out of all Settlement funds, Plaintiff shall destroy, all paper and electronic versions of Class Data received from Defendant.

13.15. Headings. The descriptive heading of any section or paragraph of this Agreement is inserted for convenience of reference only and does not constitute a part of this Agreement.

13.16. Calendar Days. Unless otherwise noted, all reference to “days” in this Agreement shall be to calendar days. In the event any date or deadline set forth in this Agreement falls on a weekend or federal legal holiday, such date or deadline shall be on the first business day thereafter.

13.17. Notice. All notices, demands or other communications between the Parties in connection with this Agreement will be in writing and deemed to have been duly given as of the third business day after mailing by United States mail, or the day sent by email or messenger, addressed as follows:

EXHIBIT A

[NOTICE OF PROPOSED SETTLEMENT OF CLASS ACTION AND HEARING DATE FOR

EXHIBIT “A”

COURT APPROVED NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT AND HEARING DATE FOR FINAL COURT APPROVAL

Kong v. Manos Home Care, Inc.,
Superior Court of the State of California, County of Alameda, Case No. 24CV091691

The Superior Court for the State of California authorized this Notice. Read it carefully!
It's not junk mail, spam, an advertisement, or solicitation by a lawyer. You are not being sued.

YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS MAY BE AFFECTED WHETHER YOU ACT OR DO NOT ACT. PLEASE READ THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY.

You may be eligible to receive money from an employee class action lawsuit (“Action”) against Defendant Manos Home Care, Inc. (“Defendant”) for alleged wage and hour violations. The Action was filed by Plaintiff Robin Kong (“Plaintiff”) and seeks payment of (1) wages and other relief on behalf of all individuals who are or previously were employed by Defendant in California and classified as non-exempt and/or exempt pursuant to the Personal Attendant Exemption at any time during the Class Period (September 17, 2020 through December 31, 2025) (“Class Members”), and (2) penalties and other relief on behalf of all individuals who are or previously were employed by Defendant in California and classified as non-exempt and/or exempt pursuant to the Personal Attendant Exemption at any time during the PAGA Period (July 9, 2023 through _____) (“Aggrieved Employees”).

The proposed Settlement has two main parts: (1) a Class Settlement requiring Defendant to fund Individual Class Payments to Class Members, and (2) a PAGA Settlement requiring Defendant to fund the PAGA Penalties to pay penalties to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and Individual PAGA Payments to Aggrieved Employees.

Based on Defendant’s records, and the Parties’ current assumptions, your Individual Class Payment is estimated to be <<$ _____>> (less withholding), and your Individual PAGA Payment is estimated to <<be $ _____>>. The actual amount you may receive likely will be different and will depend on a number of factors. (If $0.00 is stated, then according to Defendant’s records you are not eligible for that payment.)

The above estimates are based on Defendant’s records showing that you worked << _____>> workweeks during the Class Period and you worked << _____>> pay periods during the PAGA Period. If you believe that you worked more workweeks and/or pay periods during either period, you can submit a challenge by the deadline date. See Section 5 of this Notice below.

The Court has already preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement and approved this Notice. The Court has not yet decided whether to grant final approval. Your legal rights are affected whether you act or do not act. Read this Notice carefully. You will be deemed to have carefully read and understood it. At the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will decide whether to finally approve the Settlement and how much of the Settlement will be paid to Plaintiff and Plaintiff's attorneys ("Class Counsel"). The Court will also decide whether to enter a judgment that requires Defendant to make payments under the Settlement and requires Class Members and Aggrieved Employees to give up their rights to assert certain claims against Defendant.

If you worked for Defendant during the Class Period and/or the PAGA Period, you have two basic options under the Settlement:

- (1) Do Nothing. You don't have to do anything to participate in the proposed Settlement and be eligible for an Individual Class Payment, and/or an Individual PAGA Payment. As a Participating Class Member, though, you will give up your right to assert Released Class Claims against Defendant as described below in Section 4 below.
- (2) Opt-Out of the Class Settlement. You can exclude yourself from the Class Settlement (opt-out) by submitting the written Request for Exclusion or otherwise notifying the Administrator in writing. If you opt-out of the Settlement, you will not receive an Individual Class Payment, however you will preserve your right to personally pursue Released Class Claims against Defendant. If you are an Aggrieved Employee, you remain eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement.

Defendant will not retaliate against you for any actions you take with respect to the proposed Settlement.

SUMMARY OF YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS SETTLEMENT:
You Don't Have to Do Anything to Participate in the Settlement	If you do nothing, you will be a Participating Class Member, eligible for an Individual Class Payment and an Individual PAGA Payment (if any). In exchange, you will give up your right to assert the wage claims against Defendant that are covered by this Settlement (Released Class Claims).
You Can Opt-out of the Class Settlement but not the PAGA Settlement The Opt-out Deadline is _____.	If you don't want to fully participate in the proposed Settlement, you can opt-out of the Class Settlement by sending the Administrator a written Request for Exclusion. Once excluded, you will be a Non-Participating Class Member and no longer eligible for an Individual Class Payment. Non-Participating Class Members cannot object to any portion of the proposed Settlement. See Section 7 of this Notice. However, you cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement. If you are also an Aggrieved Employee and exclude yourself, you will still be paid your Individual PAGA Payment and will remain subject to the release of the Released PAGA Claims regardless of whether you submit a request for exclusion.

Participating Class Members Can Object to the Class Settlement Written Objections Must be Submitted by the Response Deadline _____	All Class Members who do not opt-out (“Participating Class Members”) can object to any aspect of the proposed Settlement. The Court’s decision whether to finally approve the Settlement will include a determination of how much will be paid to Class Counsel and Plaintiff who pursued the Action on behalf of the Class. You can object to the Settlement and/or the amounts requested by Class Counsel or Plaintiff if you think they are unreasonable. See Section 8 of this Notice.
You Can Participate in the _____ Final Approval Hearing	The Court’s Final Approval Hearing is scheduled to take place on _____ at _____ [a.m./p.m.], at the Alameda County Superior Court, in Department 21 before Judge Somnath Raj Chatterjee. This hearing may change as explained below in Section 9. You don’t have to attend but you do have the right to appear (or hire an attorney to appear on your behalf at your own cost), in person, by telephone or by using the Court’s virtual appearance platform. Participating Class Members can verbally object to the Settlement at the Final Approval Hearing. See Section 9 of this Notice
You Can Challenge the Calculation of Your Workweeks / Pay Periods Written Challenges Must be Submitted by the Response Deadline (_____)	The amount of your Individual Class Payment depends on how many workweeks you worked at least one day during the Class Period. The amount of your Individual PAGA Payment (if any) depends on how many pay periods you worked at least one day during the PAGA Period. The number of Class Period workweeks and number of PAGA Period pay periods you worked according to Defendant’s records is stated on the first page of this Notice. If you disagree with either of these numbers, you must challenge it by _____. See Section 5 of this Notice

1. What is the action about?

Plaintiff was an employee of Defendant. The Action accuses Defendant of violating California labor laws by failing to pay minimum wages, failing to pay overtime wages, failing to provide required meal periods and unpaid premiums, failing to provide required rest periods and unpaid premiums, failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements, failing to provide required expense reimbursement, failing to provide wages when due, failure to pay sick wages, and engaging in unfair competition. Plaintiff also seeks civil penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”).

Defendant denies that it has done anything wrong and disputes all the claims in the Action.

2. What does it mean that the action has settled?

So far, the Court has made no determination whether Defendant or Plaintiff are correct on the merits. In the meantime, Plaintiff and Defendant hired an experienced, neutral mediator in an effort to resolve the Action by negotiating to end the case by agreement (settle the case) rather than continuing the expensive and time-consuming process of litigation. The negotiations were successful. By signing a written Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement (“Agreement”) and agreeing to ask the Court to enter a judgment ending the Action and enforcing the Agreement, Plaintiff and Defendant have negotiated a proposed Settlement that is subject to the Court’s Final Approval. Both sides agree the proposed Settlement is a compromise of disputed claims. By agreeing to settle, Defendant do not admit any violations or concede the merit of any claims. Plaintiff and Class Counsel strongly believe the Settlement is a good deal for you because they believe that: (1) Defendant has agreed to pay a fair, reasonable and adequate amount considering the strength of the claims and the risks and uncertainties of continued litigation; and (2) Settlement is in the best interests of the Class Members. The Court preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement as fair, reasonable and adequate, authorized this Notice, and scheduled a hearing to determine Final Approval.

3. What are the terms of the Settlement?

Gross Settlement Amount. Defendant has agreed to pay an “all in” amount One Million Nine Hundred Ninety-Nine Thousand Nine Hundred Ninety-Nine Dollars ($1,999,999) (the “Gross Settlement Amount”) to fund the settlement of the Action. The Gross Settlement Amount includes all payments of Individual Class Payments, Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, Class Representative Service Payment, the Administration Expenses Payment, and the PAGA Penalties for civil penalties under PAGA. Any employer-side payroll taxes on the portion of the Individual Class Payments allocated to wages shall be separately paid by Defendant. Defendant shall fund the Gross Settlement Amount, and also fund the amounts necessary to fully pay Defendant’s share of payroll taxes, by transmitting the funds to the Administrator no later than 30 days after the Effective Date. The “Effective Date” means the date the Judgment is entered, unless there are objections or an appeal, in which case it is the date the Judgment is final and no longer subject to appeal. Within 14 days after Defendant funds the Gross Settlement Amount, the Administrator will mail checks for all Individual Class Payments to Participating Class Members.

Court Approved Deductions from Gross Settlement Amount. The proposed payments, subject to Court approval, will be deducted from the Gross Settlement Amount before payments of Individual Class Payments are made to Class Members who do not request exclusion (“Participating Class Members”). At the Final Approval Hearing, Plaintiff and/or Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve the following deductions from the Gross Settlement, the amounts of which will be decided by the Court at the Final Approval Hearing:

- Administration Expenses Payment. Payment to the Administrator, estimated not to exceed $20,500, for expenses, including expenses of notifying the Class Members of the Settlement, processing opt outs, and distributing settlement checks and tax forms.
- Attorneys’ Fees and Costs. Payment to Class Counsel of reasonable attorneys’ fees not to exceed one-third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount, which presently equals $666,666 and an additional amount to reimburse actual litigation costs incurred by the Plaintiff not to exceed $30,000. Class Counsel has been prosecuting the Action on behalf of Plaintiff and the Class on a contingency fee basis (that is, without being paid any money to date) and has been paying all litigation costs and expenses. The amounts stated are what Class Counsel will be requesting and the final amounts to be paid will be decided at the Final Approval Hearing.

- Class Representative Service Payment. A Class Representative Service Payment in an amount not more than $15,000 to the Plaintiff as a service award, or such lesser amount as may be approved by the Court, to compensate for services on behalf of the Class in initiating and prosecuting the Action, and for the risks Plaintiff undertook. The amount stated is what Plaintiff will be requesting and the final amount to be paid will be decided at the Final Approval Hearing.
- PAGA Penalties. A payment of $50,000 relating to Plaintiff's claim under PAGA, $32,500 of which will be paid to the State of California's Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA"). The remaining $17,500 will be distributed to the Aggrieved Employees as Individual PAGA Payments. The Administrator will calculate each Individual PAGA Payment by (a) dividing the amount of the Aggrieved Employees' 35% share of PAGA Penalties ($17,500) by the total number of PAGA Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Aggrieved Employee's PAGA Pay Periods. Aggrieved Employees assume full responsibility and liability for any taxes owed on their Individual PAGA Payment. "PAGA Pay Period" means any Pay Period during which an Aggrieved Employee worked for Defendant for at least one day during the PAGA Period, which is July 9, 2023, through _____.

Participating Class Members have the right to object to any of these deductions. The Court will consider all objections.

Calculation of Payments to Class Members. After all of the payments of the court-approved Attorneys' Fees and Costs, the Class Representative Service Payment, the PAGA Penalties, and the Administration Expenses Payment are deducted from the Gross Settlement Amount, the remaining portion, the "Net Settlement Amount", shall be distributed as Individual Class Payments to the Participating Class Members. The Net Settlement Amount is estimated to be at least $1,217,833. The Administrator will pay an Individual Class Payment from the Net Settlement Amount to each Participating Class Member. The Individual Class Payment for each Participating Class Member will be calculated by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members during the Class Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Participating Class Member's Workweeks. "Workweek" means any week during the Class Period in which a Class Member worked for Defendant as a Class Member for at least one day. The number of Workweeks will be based on Defendant's records; however, Class Members may challenge the number of Workweeks as explained below.

If the Settlement is approved by the Court and you do not exclude yourself, you will automatically be mailed a check for your Individual Class Payment to the same address as this Class Notice. You do not have to do anything to receive a payment. If your address has changed, you must contact the Administrator to inform them of your correct address to ensure you receive your payment.

Tax Matters. Twenty Percent (20%) of each Participating Class Member's Individual Class

Payment is in settlement of wage claims (the “Wage Portion”). Accordingly, the Wage Portion is subject to wage withholdings, and shall be reported on IRS Form W-2. Eighty Percent (80%) of each Participating Class Member’s Individual Class Payment is in settlement of claims for non-wages, expense reimbursement, interest and penalties allegedly due to employees (collectively the “Non-Wage Portion”). The Non-Wage Portion and any Individual PAGA Payment shall not be subject to wage withholdings and shall be reported on IRS Form 1099. The employee portion of all applicable income and payroll taxes will be the responsibility of the Participating Class Members. Neither Class Counsel nor Defendant’s Counsel intend anything contained in this Class Notice to constitute advice regarding taxes or taxability. The tax issues for each Participating Class Member are unique to him/her, and each Participating Class Member may wish to consult a tax advisor concerning the tax consequences of the payments received under the Settlement.

Conditions of Settlement. This Settlement and your receipt of the Individual Class Payment is conditioned upon the Court entering an order granting final approval of the Settlement and entering judgment.

The Proposed Settlement Will be Void if the Court Denies Final Approval. It is possible the Court will decline to grant Final Approval of the Settlement or decline to enter a Judgment. Plaintiff and Defendant have agreed that, in either case, the Settlement will be void: Defendant will not pay any money and Class Members will not release any claims against Defendant.

Need to Promptly Cash Payment Checks. The front of every check issued will show the date when the check expires (the void date). If you don’t cash it by the void date, your check will be automatically cancelled, and the monies will be transmitted to the Cy-Pres Recipient. The Parties propose Legal Aid at Work as the Cy Pres Recipient, subject to Court approval. The Parties, Class Counsel and Defense Counsel represent that they have no interest or relationship, financial or otherwise, with the intended Cy Pres Recipient.

Administrator. The Court has appointed a neutral company, _____ (the “Administrator”) to send this Notice, calculate and make payments, and process Class Members’ Requests for Exclusion. The Administrator will also decide Class Member challenges over Workweeks, mail and re-mail settlement checks and tax forms, and perform other tasks necessary to administer the Settlement. The Administrator’s contact information is contained in Section 8 of this Notice.

4. What Do I Release Under the Settlement?

Released Class Claims. Effective on the date when Defendant fully funds the entire Gross Settlement Amount and funds all employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portion of the Individual Class Payments, all Participating Class Members, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, release Released Parties from the Released Class Claims. The “Released Class Claims” are all claims that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the facts stated in the Operative Complaint which occurred during the Class Period. Except as expressly set forth in the Agreement, Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair

Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers' compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside the Class Period.

This means that, if you do not timely and formally exclude yourself from the settlement, you cannot sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against Defendant and any other Released Party about the Released Class Claims resolved by this Settlement. It also means that all of the Court's orders in the Action will apply to you and legally bind you.

Released PAGA Claims. Effective on the date when Defendant fully funds the entire Gross Settlement Amount and funds all employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portion of the Individual Class Payments, the LWDA is deemed to release, on behalf of itself and its respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, the Released Parties from the Released PAGA Claims. The "Released PAGA Claims" are all claims for PAGA penalties that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the facts stated in the PAGA Notice, which occurred during the PAGA Period. The Released PAGA Claims do not include other PAGA claims, underlying wage and hour claims, claims for wrongful termination, discrimination, unemployment insurance, disability and worker's compensation, and claims outside of the PAGA Period.

Released Parties. The Released Parties are: Defendant and each of its former and present directors, officers, shareholders, owners, attorneys, insurers, predecessors, successors, assigns and subsidiaries.

5. How much will my payment be?

Individual Class Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual Class Payments by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members during the Class Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Participating Class Member's Workweeks.

Defendant's records reflect that you worked <<_____>> Workweeks during the Class Period (September 17, 2020 through December 31, 2025).

Based on this information, your estimated Individual Class Payment from the Net Settlement Amount is <<_____>>.

Defendant's records reflect that you worked <<_____>> PAGA Pay Periods during the during the PAGA Period (July 9, 2023 through _____). Based on this information your estimated Individual PAGA Payment is <<_____>>.

If you wish to challenge the information set forth above, then you must submit a written, signed dispute challenging the information along with supporting documents, to the Administrator at the address provided in this Class Notice no later than the Response Deadline, which is _____ [sixty (60) days after the mailing of the Class Notice or an additional 14 days in the case of re-mailing]. You may also fax the dispute to _____ or email the dispute to _____ by no later than the Response Deadline. Any dispute should include credible written evidence and will be resolved by the Administrator.

You need to support your challenge by sending copies of pay stubs or other records. The Administrator will accept Defendant's calculation of Workweeks based on Defendant's records as accurate unless you send copies of records containing contrary information. You should send copies rather than originals because the documents will not be returned to you. The Administrator will resolve Workweek challenges based on your submission and on input from Class Counsel (who will advocate on behalf of Participating Class Members) and Defendant's Counsel.

6. How can I get a payment?

To get money from the Settlement, you do not have to do anything. A check for your Individual Class Payment will be mailed automatically to the same address as this Class Notice.

Your check will be sent to the same address as this Class Notice. If you change your address, be sure to notify the Administrator as soon as possible. Section 8 of this Class Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

7. What if I don't want to be a part of the Settlement?

If you do not wish to participate in the Settlement, you may exclude yourself from the Class portion of the Settlement or "opt out." If you opt out, you will not receive an Individual Class Payment from the Settlement, and you will not be bound by its terms, which means you will retain the right to sue Defendant for the Released Class Claims. However, Aggrieved Employees who opt out will still be paid their allocation of the PAGA Penalties and will remain subject to the release of the Released PAGA Claims regardless of whether they submit a request for exclusion.

To opt out, you must submit to the Administrator a written, signed and dated request to opt-out postmarked no later than the Response Deadline which is _____. You may also fax your request to opt out to _____ or email the dispute to _____ by no later than the Response Deadline. The request to opt-out should state in substance that you wish to be excluded from the class settlement in the Kong v. Manos Home Care lawsuit. The request to opt-out should state the Class Member's full name, address and email address or telephone number. Please include the name and number of the case, which is Kong v. Manos Home Care, Case No. 24CV091691. The request to opt-out must be completed and signed by you. No other person may opt-out for a living member of the Class.

The address for the Administrator is _____. Written requests for exclusion that are postmarked after _____, or are incomplete or unsigned will be rejected, and those Class Members will remain bound by the Settlement and the release described above.

8. How do I Object to the Settlement?

Only Participating Class Members have the right to object to the Settlement. Before deciding whether to object, you may wish to see what Plaintiff and Defendant are asking the Court to approve. At least sixteen (16) court days before the Final Approval Hearing, scheduled for _____, Class Counsel and Plaintiff will file in Court a Motion for Final Approval that includes, among other things, the reasons why the proposed Settlement is fair, and stating (i) the amount Class Counsel is requesting for attorneys' fees and litigation expenses; and (ii) the amount Plaintiff is requesting as a Class Representative Service Payment. Manos Home Care* or on the Court's website (<https://eportal.alameda.courts.ca.gov/>) and entering the Case No. 24CV091691.

[ORDER GRANTING PRELIMINARY APPROVAL]

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
COUNTY OF ALAMEDA

ROBIN KONG, an individual, on behalf of herself and on behalf of all persons similarly situated,

Plaintiff,

vs.

MANOS HOME CARE, INC., a California
Corporation; and DOES 1 through 50, inclusive,

Defendants.

CASE NO.: 24CV091691

[PROPOSED] PRELIMINARY APPROVAL ORDER

Hearing Date: _____
Hearing Time: _____

Judge: Hon. Somnath Raj Chatterjee
Dept: 21

Date Filed: September 17, 2024
Trial Date: Not set

This matter came before the Honorable Somnath Raj Chatterjee of the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County Alameda, on _____[DATE], for hearing on the unopposed motion by Plaintiff Robin Kong ("Plaintiff") for preliminary approval of the Settlement with Defendant Manos Home Care, Inc. ("Defendant"). The Court, having considered

PRELIMINARY APPROVAL ORDER

1 the briefs, argument of counsel and all matters presented to the Court and good cause appearing,
2 hereby GRANTS Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement.

4 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

5 1. The Court preliminarily approves the Class Action and PAGA Settlement
6 Agreement ("Agreement") attached as Exhibit ____ to the Declaration of Kyle Nordrehaug in 7 Support of Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement. This is based 8 on the Court's determination that the Settlement set forth in the Agreement is within the range of 9 possible final approval, pursuant to the provisions of Section 382 of the California Code of Civil 10 Procedure and California Rules of Court, rule 3.769.

11 2. This Order incorporates by reference the definitions in the Agreement, and all 12 terms defined therein shall have the same meaning in this Order as set forth in the Agreement.

13 3. The Gross Settlement Amount that Defendant shall pay is One Million Nine 14 Hundred Ninety-Nine Thousand Nine Hundred Ninety-Nine Dollars ($1,999,999). It appears to 15 the Court on a preliminary basis that the settlement amount and terms are fair, adequate and 16 reasonable as to all potential Class Members when balanced against the probable outcome of 17 further litigation and the significant risks relating to certification, liability and damages issues. It 18 further appears that investigation and research have been conducted such that counsel for the 19 Parties are able to reasonably evaluate their respective positions. It further appears to the Court
20 that the Settlement will avoid substantial additional costs by all Parties, as well as avoid the delay
21 and risks that would be presented by the further prosecution of the Action. It further appears that 22 the Settlement has been reached as the result of serious and non-collusive, arm's-length 23 negotiations.

24 4. The Court preliminarily finds that the Settlement appears to be within the range of 25 reasonableness of a settlement that could ultimately be given final approval by this Court. The 26 Court has reviewed the monetary recovery that is being granted as part of the Settlement and 27 preliminarily finds that the monetary settlement made available to the Class is fair, adequate, and 28

1 reasonable when balanced against the probable outcome of further litigation and the significant
2 risks relating to certification, liability, and damages issues.

3 5. The Agreement specifies for an attorneys' fees award not to exceed one-third of the 4 Gross Settlement Amount, an award of litigation expenses incurred, not to exceed $30,000, and 5 proposed Class Representative Service Payment to the Plaintiff in an amount not to exceed 6 $15,000. The Court will not approve the amount of attorneys' fees and costs, nor the amount of 7 any service award, until the Final Approval Hearing. Plaintiff will be required to present evidence 8 supporting these requests, including lodestar, prior to final approval.

9 6. The Court recognizes that Plaintiff and Defendant stipulate and agree to 10 representative treatment and certification of a class for settlement purposes only. This stipulation 11 will not be deemed admissible in this or any other proceeding should this Settlement not become 12 final. For settlement purposes only, the Court conditionally certifies the Class which consists of 13 "all individuals who are or previously were employed by Defendant in California and classified as 14 non-exempt and/or exempt pursuant to the Personal Attendant Exemption at any time during the 15 Class Period." The "Class Period" is September 17, 2020 through December 31, 2025.

16 7. The Court concludes that, for settlement purposes only, the Class meets the 17 requirements for certification under section 382 of the California Code of Civil Procedure in that:
18 (a) the Class is ascertainable and so numerous that joinder of all members of the Class is 19 impracticable; (b) common questions of law and fact predominate, and there is a well-defined
20 community of interest amongst the members of the Class with respect to the subject matter of the 21 litigation; (c) the claims of the Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the members of the Class; (d)
22 the Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the members of the Class; (e) a class 23 action is superior to other available methods for the efficient adjudication of this controversy; and 24 (f) counsel for the Class is qualified to act as counsel for the Class and the Plaintiff is an adequate 25 representative of the Class.

26 8. The Court provisionally appoints Plaintiff as the representative of the Class. The 27 Court provisionally appoints Norman B. Blumenthal, Kyle R. Nordrehaug, and Aparajit Bhowmik

1 of Blumenthal Nordrehaug Bhowmik De Blouw LLP as Class Counsel for the Class.

2 9. The Agreement provides for a PAGA Penalties out of the Gross Settlement
3 Amount of $50,000, which shall be allocated $32,500 to the Labor & Workforce Development
4 Agency (“LWDA”) as the LWDA’s 65% share of the settlement of civil penalties paid under this
5 Agreement pursuant to the PAGA and $17,500 to the Aggrieved Employees. “Aggrieved
6 Employees” are all individuals who are or previously were employed by Defendant in California
7 and classified as non-exempt and/or exempt pursuant to the Personal Attendant Exemption at any 8 time during the PAGA Period (July 9, 2023 through _____). Pursuant to Labor
9 Code section 2699, the LWDA will be provided notice of the Agreement and these settlement
10 terms. The Court finds the PAGA Penalties to be reasonable.

11 10. The Court hereby approves, as to form and content, the Class Notice attached to the 12 Agreement as Exhibit A. The Court finds that the Class Notice appears to fully and accurately
13 inform the Class of all material elements of the proposed Settlement, of the Class Members’ right
14 to be excluded from the Class by submitting a written opt-out request, and of each member’s right 15 and opportunity to object to the Settlement. The Court further finds that the distribution of the 16 Class Notice substantially in the manner and form set forth in the Agreement and this Order meets 17 the requirements of due process, is the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and shall 18 constitute due and sufficient notice to all persons entitled thereto. The Court orders the mailing of 19 the Class Notice by first class mail pursuant to the terms set forth in the Agreement. If a Class
20 Notice Packet is returned because of an incorrect address, the Administrator will promptly search
21 for a more current address for the Class Member and re-mail the Class Notice Packet to any new 22 address for the Class Member no later than seven (7) days after the receipt of the undelivered
23 Class Notice.

24 11. The Court hereby appoints _____ as the Administrator. No later than 25 fifteen (15) days after this Order, Defendant will provide the Class Data to the Administrator. The 26 Administrator will perform address updates and verifications as necessary prior to the first 27 mailing. Using best efforts to mail it as soon as possible, and in no event later than fourteen (14)
28

1 days after receiving the Class Data, the Administrator will mail the Class Notice Packet to all
2 Class Members via first-class regular U.S. Mail to their last known address.

3 12. The Court hereby preliminarily approves the proposed procedure for exclusion
4 from the Settlement. Any Class Member may individually choose to opt out of and be excluded
5 from the Class as provided in the Class Notice by following the instructions for requesting 6 exclusion from the Class that are set forth in the Class Notice. All requests for exclusion must be 7 postmarked or received no later than sixty (60) calendar days after the date of the mailing of the 8 Class Notice (“Response Deadline”). If a Class Notice Packet is re-mailed, the Response Deadline
9 for requests for exclusion will be extended an additional fourteen (14) days. A Request for 10 Exclusion may also be faxed or emailed to the Administrator as indicated in the Class Notice.
11 Any such person who chooses to opt out of and be excluded from the Class will not be entitled to 12 any recovery under the Class Settlement and will not be bound by the Class Settlement or have 13 any right to object, appeal or comment thereon. Class Members who have not requested exclusion 14 shall be bound by all determinations of the Court, the Agreement and the Judgment. A request for 15 exclusion may only opt out that particular individual, and any attempt to effect an opt-out of a 16 group, class, or subclass of individuals is not permitted and will be deemed invalid.

17 13. Any Class Member who has not opted out may appear at the final approval hearing
18 and may object or express the Member’s views regarding the Settlement and may present evidence 19 and file briefs or other papers that may be proper and relevant to the issues to be heard and 20 determined by the Court as provided in the Class Notice. Class Members will have until the 21 Response Deadline to submit their written objections to the Administrator. Written objections
22 may also be faxed or emailed to the Administrator as indicated in the Class Notice. If a Class 23 Notice Packet is re-mailed, the Response Deadline for written objections will be extended an 24 additional fourteen (14) days. Alternatively, Class Members may appear at the Final Approval
25 Hearing to make an oral objection.

26 14. A final approval hearing shall be held before this Court on _____ 27 _____ at _____ in Department 21 of the Alameda County Superior Court to hear 28

1 the motion for final approval and for attorneys' fees and costs, and to determine all necessary
2 matters concerning the Settlement, including: whether the proposed settlement of the Action on 3 the terms and conditions provided for in the Agreement is fair, adequate and reasonable and 4 should be finally approved by the Court; whether the Final Approval Order and Judgment should 5 be entered herein; whether the plan of allocation contained in the Agreement should be approved
6 as fair, adequate and reasonable to the Class Members; and to finally approve attorneys' fees and 7 costs, service award, and the expenses of the Administrator. All papers in support of the motion
8 for final approval and for attorneys' fees, costs and service award shall be filed with the Court and 9 served on all counsel no later than sixteen (16) court days before the hearing and both motions 10 shall be heard at this final approval hearing.

11 15. Neither the Settlement nor any exhibit, document, or instrument delivered 12 thereunder shall be construed as a concession or admission by Defendant in any way that the 13 claims asserted have any merit or that this Action was properly brought as a class or representative
14 action, and shall not be used as evidence of, or used against Defendant as, an admission or 15 indication in any way, including with respect to any claim of any liability, wrongdoing, fault or 16 omission by Defendant or with respect to the truth of any allegation asserted by any person.
17 Whether or not the Settlement is finally approved, neither the Settlement, nor any exhibit,
18 document, statement, proceeding or conduct related to the Settlement, nor any reports or accounts 19 thereof, shall in any event be construed as, offered or admitted in evidence as, received as or 20 deemed to be evidence for any purpose adverse to the Defendant, including, but not limited to,
21 evidence of a presumption, concession, indication or admission by Defendant of any liability, 22 fault, wrongdoing, omission, concession or damage.

23 16. In the event the Settlement does not become effective in accordance with the terms
24 of the Agreement, or the Settlement is not finally approved, or is terminated, canceled or fails to 25 become effective for any reason, this Order shall be rendered null and void and shall be vacated,
26 and the Parties shall revert to their respective positions as of before entering into the Agreement,
27 and expressly reserve their respective rights regarding the prosecution and defense of this Action, 28

1 including all available defenses and affirmative defenses, and arguments that any claim in the 2 Action could not be certified as a class action and/or managed as a representative action. In such 3 an event, the Court's orders regarding the Settlement, including this Order, shall not be used or 4 referred to in litigation for any purpose. Nothing in this paragraph is intended to alter the terms of 5 the Agreement with respect to the effect of the Agreement if it is not approved.

6 17. The Court reserves the right to adjourn or continue the date of the final approval
7 hearing and all dates provided for in the Agreement without further notice to Class Members and 8 retains jurisdiction to consider all further applications arising out of or connected with the 9 proposed Settlement.

10 18. The Action is stayed and all trial and related pre-trial dates, if any, are vacated, 11 subject to further orders of the Court at the Final Approval Hearing.

ORDER AND JUDGMENT

Hearing Date: _____
Hearing Time: _____

Judge: Hon. Somnath Raj Chatterjee
Dept: 21

Date Filed: September 17, 2024

FINAL APPROVAL ORDER AND JUDGMENT

1 The unopposed motion of Plaintiff Robin Kong (“Plaintiff”) for an order finally approving
2 the Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement (“Agreement”) with Defendant Manos Home
3 Care, Inc. (“Defendant”), attorneys’ fees and costs, service payment, and the expenses of the 4 Administrator duly came on for hearing on _____ before the Honorable Somnath Raj
5 Chatterjee.

6 I.

7 FINDINGS

8 Based on the oral and written argument and evidence presented in connection with the 9 motion, the Court makes the following findings:

- 10 1. All terms used herein shall have the same meaning as defined in the Agreement.
- 11 2. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this litigation pending before 12 the Superior Court for the State of California, in and for the County of Alameda, and over all 13 Parties to this litigation, including the Class.
- 14 3. Based on a review of the papers submitted by Plaintiff and a review of the 15 applicable law, the Court finds that the Gross Settlement Amount of One Million Nine Hundred 16 Ninety-Nine Thousand Nine Hundred Ninety-Nine Dollars ($1,999,999) and the terms set forth in 17 the Agreement are fair, reasonable, and adequate.
- 18 4. The Court further finds that the Settlement was the result of arm’s length 19 negotiations conducted after Class Counsel had adequately investigated the claims and became 20 familiar with the strengths and weaknesses of those claims. In particular, the amount of the 21 Settlement, and the assistance of an experienced mediator in the settlement process, among other 22 factors, support the Court’s conclusion that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate.

23 Preliminary Approval of the Settlement

- 24 5. On _____, the Court granted preliminary approval of the Settlement. At 25 this same time, the Court approved conditional certification of the Class for settlement purposes 26 only.

1 Notice to the Class

2 6. In compliance with the Preliminary Approval Order, the Court-approved Class
3 Notice was mailed by first class mail to members of the Class at their last-known addresses on or 4 about _____. The mailing of the Class Notice to their last-known addresses was the 5 best notice practicable under the circumstances and was reasonably calculated to communicate
6 actual notice of the litigation and the proposed settlement to the Class. The Class Notice given to 7 the Class Members fully and accurately informed the Class Members of all material elements of 8 the proposed Settlement and of their opportunity to object to or comment thereon or to seek 9 exclusion from the Settlement; was valid, due, and sufficient notice to all Class Members; and 10 complied fully with the laws of the State of California, the United States Constitution, due process
11 and other applicable law. The Class Notice fairly and adequately described the Settlement and 12 provided Class Members adequate instructions and a variety of means to obtain additional 13 information.

14 7. The Response Deadline for opting out or submitting written objections to the 15 Settlement was _____, which for re-mailings was extended by fourteen (14) days. There 16 was an adequate interval between notice and the deadline to permit Class Members to choose what 17 to do and to act on their decision. A full and fair opportunity has been afforded to the Class 18 Members to participate in this hearing, and all Class Members and other persons wishing to be 19 heard have had a full and fair opportunity to be heard. Class Members also have had a full and 20 fair opportunity to exclude themselves from the proposed Settlement and Class. Accordingly, the 21 Court determines that all Class Members who did not timely and properly submit a request for 22 exclusion are bound by the Settlement and this Final Approval Order and Judgment.

23 Fairness of the Settlement

24 8. The Agreement is entitled to a presumption of fairness. Dunk v. Ford Motor Co.
25 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 (1996).

26 a. The settlement was reached through arm's-length bargaining between the 27 Parties during an all-day mediation before Brandon McKelvey, a respected and experienced 28

1 mediator of wage and hour class actions. There has been no collusion between the Parties in 2 reaching the Settlement.

3 b. Plaintiff and Class Counsel's investigation and discovery have been 4 sufficient to allow the Court and counsel to act intelligently.

5 c. Counsel for all Parties are experienced in similar employment class action
6 litigation. Class Counsel recommended approval of the Agreement.

7 d. The percentage of objectors and requests for exclusion is small. ____
8 objections were received. _____ requests for exclusion were received.

9 e. The participation rate was high. _____ Participating Class Members will 10 be mailed a settlement payment, representing ____% of the overall Class.

11 9. The consideration to be given to the Class Members under the terms of the 12 Agreement is fair, reasonable and adequate considering the strengths and weaknesses of the claims 13 asserted in this action and is fair, reasonable and adequate compensation for the release of 14 Participating Class Members' claims, given the uncertainties and significant risks of the litigation 15 and the delays which would ensue from continued prosecution of the action.

16 10. The Agreement is approved as fair, adequate and reasonable and in the best 17 interests of the Class Members.

18 Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment

19 11. An award of $_____ for attorneys' fees, representing one-third of the 20 Gross Settlement Amount, and $_____ for litigation costs and expenses, is reasonable, 21 in light of the contingent nature of Class Counsel's fee, the hours worked by Class Counsel, and 22 the results achieved by Class Counsel. The requested awards have been supported by Class
23 Counsel's lodestar and billing statement.

24 Class Representative Service Payment

25 12. The Agreement provides for a Class Representative Service Payment of not more
26 than $15,000 to the Plaintiff, subject to the Court's approval. The Court finds that Class 27 Representative Service Payments in the amount of $_____ to the Plaintiff is reasonable in 28

1 light of the risks and burdens undertaken by the Plaintiff in this litigation and for their time and
2 effort in bringing and prosecuting this matter on behalf of the Class.

3 Administration Expenses Payment

4 13. The Administrator shall calculate and administer the payment to be made to the 5 Class Members, transmit payment for attorneys' fees and costs to Class Counsel, transmit the 6 Class Representative Service Payment to the Plaintiff, issue all required tax reporting forms, 7 calculate withholdings and perform the other remaining duties set forth in the Agreement. The 8 Administrator has documented $_____ in fees and expenses, and this amount is reasonable in 9 light of the work performed by the Administrator.

10 PAGA Penalties

11 14. The Agreement provides for a PAGA Penalties out of the Gross Settlement
12 Amount of $50,000, which shall be allocated $32,500 to the Labor & Workforce Development
13 Agency ("LWDA") as the LWDA's 65% share of the settlement of civil penalties paid under this 14 Agreement pursuant to the PAGA and $17,500 to be distributed to the Aggrieved Employees and 15 allocated by (a) dividing the amount of the Aggrieved Employees' 35% share of PAGA Penalties
16 ($17,500) by the total number of PAGA Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees during 17 the PAGA Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Aggrieved Employee's PAGA Pay 18 Periods. "Aggrieved Employees" are all individuals who are or previously were employed by 19 Defendant in California and classified as non-exempt and/or exempt pursuant to the Personal 20 Attendant Exemption at any time during the PAGA Period (July 9, 2023 through 21 _____). Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, the LWDA was provided notice of 22 the Agreement and these settlement terms and has not indicated any objection thereto. The Court
23 finds the PAGA Penalties to be reasonable.

24 II.

25 ORDERS

26 Based on the foregoing findings, and good cause appearing, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:
27

1 15. The Class is certified for the purposes of settlement only. The Class is defined as 2 follows:

21 accordance with the Agreement. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, Class Counsel shall 22 submit a copy of this Final Approval Order and Judgment to the LWDA within 10 days after its 23 entry.

24 23. Neither the Agreement nor this Settlement is an admission by Defendant, nor is this 25 Final Approval Order and Judgment a finding, of the validity of any claims in the Action or of any 26 wrongdoing by Defendant or that this Action is appropriate for class or representative treatment 27 (other than for settlement purposes). Neither this Final Approval Order and Judgment, the 28

1 Agreement, nor any document referred to herein, nor any action taken to carry out the Agreement
2 is, may be construed as, or may be used as an admission by or against Defendant of any fault,
3 wrongdoing or liability whatsoever. The entering into or carrying out of the Agreement, and any 4 negotiations or proceedings related thereto, shall not in any event be construed as, or deemed to be 5 evidence of, an admission or concession with regard to the denials or defenses by Defendant.
6 Notwithstanding these restrictions, Defendant may file in the Action or in any other proceeding
7 this Final Approval Order and Judgment, the Agreement, or any other papers and records on file in 8 the Action as evidence of the Settlement to support a defense of res judicata, collateral estoppel,
9 release, or other theory of claim or issue preclusion or similar defense as to the Released Class
10 Claims and/or Released PAGA Claims.

11 24. Notice of entry of this Final Approval Order and Judgment shall be given to all
12 Parties by Class Counsel on behalf of Plaintiff and all Class Members. The Final Approval Order
13 and Judgment shall be posted on the website as set forth in the Class Notice to the Class. It shall 14 not be necessary to send notice of entry of this Final Approval Order and Judgment to individual 15 Class Members.

16 25. If the Agreement does not become final and effective in accordance with the terms 17 of the Agreement, then this Final Approval Order and Judgment, and all orders entered in 18 connection herewith, shall be rendered null and void and shall be vacated, and the Parties shall 19 revert to their respective positions as of before entering into the Agreement, and expressly reserve
20 their respective rights regarding the prosecution and defense of this Action, including all available
21 defenses and affirmative defenses, and arguments that any claim in the Action could not be 22 certified as a class action and/or managed as a representative action.

23 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDICATED AND DECREED THAT:

24 26. Except as set forth in the Agreement and this Final Approval Order and Judgment, 25 Plaintiffs, and all members of the Class, shall take nothing in the Action.

27 provided in the Agreement and in this Final Approval Order and Judgment.

6 respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors,
7 and assigns, release Released Parties from the Released Class Claims. The “Released Class
8 Claims” are all claims that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the facts
9 stated in the Operative Complaint which occurred during the Class Period. Except as expressly set 10 forth in the Agreement, Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, including

REPORTED CASES

Sakkab v. Luxottica Retail N. Am., Inc., 803 F.3d 425 (9th Cir. 2015) (The panel reversed the district court's order granting Luxottica Retail North America, Inc.'s motion to compel arbitration of claims and dismissing plaintiff's first amended complaint, in a putative class action raising class employment-related claims and a non-class representative claim for civil penalties under the Private Attorney General Act.);

Securitas Security Services USA, Inc. v. Superior Court, 234 Cal. App. 4th 1109 (Cal. Feb. 27, 2015) (Court of Appeal concluded the trial court correctly ruled that Iskanian rendered the PAGA waiver within the parties' dispute resolution agreement unenforceable. However, the Court of Appeal then ruled the trial court erred by failing to invalidate the non-severable class action waiver from the agreement and remanded the entire complaint, including class action and PAGA claims, be litigated in the Superior Court);

Sussex v. United States Dist. Court for the Dist. of Nev., 781 F.3d 1065 (9th Cir. 2015) (The panel determined that the district court clearly erred in holding that its decision to intervene mid-arbitration was justified under Aerojet-General. Specifically, the panel held that the district court erred in predicting that an award issued by the arbitrator would likely be vacated because of his "evident partiality" under 9 U.S.C. § 10(a)(2).);

Provost v. YourMechanic, Inc., 2020 Cal. App. Lexis 955 (Oct. 15, 2020) (Court of Appeals affirmed denial of arbitration of PAGA claim, and held in a case of first impression, that there was no additional standing rules for PAGA claim brought by independent contractor); In re Tobacco Cases II, 41 Cal. 4th 1257 (2007); Washington Mutual Bank v. Re: Notice Of Violations Of California Labor Code Sections §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218, 221, 226(a), 226.7, 227.3, 246, 510, 512, 558(a)(1)(2), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2802, California Code of Regulations, Title 8, Section 11040, Subdivision 5(A)-(B), California Code of Regulations, Title 8, Section 1 1070(14) (Failure to Provide Seating), and Violation of Applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order(s), brought Pursuant To California Labor Code Section 2699.5.

Dear Sir/Madam:

“Aggrieved Employees” refers to all individuals who are or previously were employed by Manos Home Care, Inc. in California, including any employees staffed with Manos Home Care, Inc. by a third party, and classified as non-exempt employees during the time period of July 9, 2023 until a date as determined by the Court. Our offices represent Plaintiff Robin Kong (“Plaintiff”) and other Aggrieved Employees in a lawsuit against Manos Home Care, Inc. (“Defendant”). Plaintiff has been employed by Defendant in California since October of 2022. Plaintiff has been at all times classified by Defendant as a non-exempt employee, paid on an hourly basis, and entitled to the legally required meal and rest periods and payment of minimum and overtime wages due for all time worked. Defendant, however, unlawfully fails to record and pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees for, including but not limited to, all of their time worked, including minimum and overtime wages and sick pay wages at the correct rate, for all of their missed meal and rest breaks at the correct regular rates, and for all of their time spent working off the clock. Moreover, when Defendants required Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees to report for work, but “furnished less than half said employee’s usual or scheduled day’s work,” Defendant violated Cal. Code Regs., tit. 8 § 11040, subd. 5(A) by failing to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees for at least two (2) hours’ worth of work at their regular rate of pay. In addition, when Defendant required Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees to respond to and engage in additional work, this resulted in a second reporting for work in a single workday, and Defendant failed to pay these employees reporting time pay as required by Cal. Code Regs., tit. 8, § 11040, subd. 5(B). Further, Defendant failed to advise Plaintiff and the other Aggrieved Employees of their right to take separately and hourly paid duty-free ten (10) minute rest periods.

See Vaquero v. Stoneledge Furniture, LLC, 9 Cal. App. 5th 98, 110 (2017). Additionally, pursuant to Labor Code § 204 et seq., Defendant failed to timely provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with their wages. Plaintiff further contends that Defendant failed to provide accurate wage statements to her, and other Aggrieved Employees, in violation of California Labor Code section 226(a). Specifically, PLAINTIFF and the AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES were paid on an hourly basis. As such, the wage statements should reflect all applicable hourly rates during the pay period and the total hours worked, and the applicable pay period in which the wages were earned pursuant to California Labor Code Section 226(a). The wage statements Defendants provided to PLAINTIFF and the AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES failed to identify such information. More specifically, the wage statements failed to identify the accurate total hours worked each pay period in violation of Cal. Lab. Code Section 226(a)(2). Additionally, Plaintiff contends that Defendants failed to comply with Industrial Wage Order 7(A)(3) in that Defendants failed to keep time records showing when Plaintiff began and ended each shift and meal period. Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees performed tasks that reasonably permit sitting, and a seat would not interfere with their performance of any of their tasks that may require them to stand. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with suitable seats. Said conduct, in addition to the foregoing, as well as the conduct alleged in the incorporated Complaint, violates Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218, 221, 226(a), 226.7, 227.3, 246, 510, 512, 558(a)(1)(2), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2802, California Code of Regulations, Title 8, Section 11040, Subdivision 5(A)-(B), California Code of Regulations, Title 8, Section 1 1070(14) (Failure to Provide Seating), Violation of the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order(s), and is therefore actionable under California Labor Code section 2699.3.

A true and correct copy of the Complaint by Plaintiff against Defendant, which (i) identifies the alleged violations, (ii) details the facts and theories which support the alleged violations, (iii) details the specific work performed by Plaintiff, (iii) sets forth the people/entities, dates, classifications, violations, events, and actions which are at issue to the extent known to Plaintiff, and (iv) sets forth the illegal practices used by Defendant, is attached hereto. This information provides notice to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency of the facts and theories supporting the alleged violations for the agency's reference. Plaintiff therefore incorporates the allegations of the attached Complaint into this letter as if fully set forth herein. If the agency needs any further information, please do not hesitate to ask.

This notice is provided to enable Plaintiff to proceed with the Complaint against Defendant as authorized by California Labor Code section 2699. The lawsuit consists of other Aggrieved Employees. As counsel, our intention is to vigorously prosecute the claims as alleged in the Complaint, and to procure civil penalties as provided by the Private Attorney General Statue of 2004 on behalf of Plaintiff and all Aggrieved Employees. Your earliest response to this notice is appreciated. If you have any questions of concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me at the above number and address.

DEMAND FOR A JURY TRIAL

1 Robin Kong (“PLAINTIFF”), an individual, on behalf of herself and all other similarly 2 situated current and former employees alleges on information and belief, except for her own acts
3 and knowledge which are based on personal knowledge, the following.

5 THE PARTIES

6 1. Manos Home Care, Inc. (“DEFENDANT”) is a corporation that at all relevant 7 times mentioned herein conducted and continues to conduct substantial business in California.

8 2. DEFENDANT provides health services in California.

9 3. PLAINTIFF is currently employed by DEFENDANT in California. PLAINTIFF’S
10 employment with DEFENDANT started in October of 2022. PLAINTIFF has been at all times
11 classified by DEFENDANT as a non-exempt employee, paid on an hourly basis, and entitled 12 to the legally required meal and rest periods and payment of minimum and overtime wages due 13 for all time worked.

14 4. PLAINTIFF brings this Class Action on behalf of herself and a California class, 15 defined as all individuals who are or previously were employed by DEFENDANT in California, 16 including any employees staffed with DEFENDANT by a third party, and classified as non-17 exempt employees (the “CALIFORNIA CLASS”) at any time during the period beginning four 18 (4) years prior to the filing of this Complaint and ending on the date as determined by the Court
19 (the “CALIFORNIA CLASS PERIOD”). The amount in controversy for the aggregate claim 20 of CALIFORNIA CLASS Members is under five million dollars ($5,000,000.00).

21 5. PLAINTIFF brings this Class Action on behalf of herself and a CALIFORNIA
22 CLASS in order to fully compensate the CALIFORNIA CLASS for their losses incurred
23 during the CALIFORNIA CLASS PERIOD caused by DEFENDANT’s policy and practice
24 which failed to lawfully compensate these employees. DEFENDANT’s policy and practice 25 alleged herein was an unlawful, unfair and deceptive business practice whereby
26 DEFENDANT retained and continues to retain wages due PLAINTIFF and the other 27 members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS. PLAINTIFF and the other members of the 28 CALIFORNIA CLASS seek an injunction enjoining such conduct by DEFENDANT in the

1 future, relief for the named PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA
2 CLASS who have been economically injured by DEFENDANT's past and current unlawful 3 conduct, and all other appropriate legal and equitable relief.

4 6. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, subsidiary,
5 partnership, associate or otherwise of defendants DOES 1 through 50, inclusive, are 6 presently unknown to PLAINTIFF who therefore sues these Defendants by such fictitious
7 names pursuant to Cal. Civ. Proc. Code § 474. PLAINTIFF will seek leave to amend this 8 Complaint to allege the true names and capacities of Does 1 through 50, inclusive, when 9 they are ascertained. PLAINTIFF is informed and believes, and based upon that information
10 and belief alleges, that the Defendants named in this Complaint, including DOES 1 through 11 50, inclusive, are responsible in some manner for one or more of the events and happenings 12 that proximately caused the injuries and damages hereinafter alleged.

13 7. The agents, servants and/or employees of the Defendants and each of them 14 acting on behalf of the Defendants acted within the course and scope of his, her or its 15 authority as the agent, servant and/or employee of the Defendants, and personally 16 participated in the conduct alleged herein on behalf of the Defendants with respect to the 17 conduct alleged herein. Consequently, the acts of each Defendant are legally attributable to 18 the other Defendants and all Defendants are jointly and severally liable to PLAINTIFF and 19 the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS, for the loss sustained as a proximate result 20 of the conduct of the Defendants' agents, servants and/or employees.

21 22 THE CONDUCT

23 8. Pursuant to the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders, DEFENDANT
24 was required to pay PLAINTIFF and CALIFORNIA CLASS Members for all their time 25 worked, meaning the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an 26 employer, including all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work.
27 DEFENDANT requires PLAINTIFF and CALIFORNIA CLASS Members to work without 28 paying them for all the time they are under DEFENDANT's control. Among other things,

1 DEFENDANT requires PLAINTIFF to work while clocked out during what is supposed to 2 be PLAINTIFF's off-duty meal break. PLAINTIFF was from time to time interrupted by 3 work assignments while clocked out for what should have been PLAINTIFF's off-duty meal
4 break. DEFENDANT, as a matter of established company policy and procedure, administers
5 a uniform practice of rounding the actual time worked and recorded by PLAINTIFF and 6 CALIFORNIA CLASS Members, always to the benefit of DEFENDANT, so that during the 7 course of their employment, PLAINTIFF and CALIFORNIA CLASS Members are paid less 8 than they would have been paid had they been paid for actual recorded time rather than 9 "rounded" time. Additionally, DEFENDANT engages in the practice of requiring 10 PLAINTIFF and CALIFORNIA CLASS Members to perform work off the clock in that 11 DEFENDANT, as a condition of employment, required these employees to submit to 12 mandatory temperature checks and symptom questionnaires for COVID-19 screening prior 13 to clocking into DEFENDANT's timekeeping system for the workday. As a result,
14 PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS Members forfeit minimum wage, overtime
15 wage compensation, and off-duty meal breaks by working without their time being correctly 16 recorded and without compensation at the applicable rates. DEFENDANT's policy and 17 practice not to pay PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS Members for all time
18 worked, is evidenced by DEFENDANT's business records.

19 9. State and federal law provides that employees must be paid overtime and meal
20 and rest break premiums at one-and-one-half times their "regular rate of pay." PLAINTIFF
21 and other CALIFORNIA CLASS Members are compensated at an hourly rate plus incentive 22 pay that is tied to specific elements of an employee's performance.

23 10. The second component of PLAINTIFF's and other CALIFORNIA CLASS
24 Members' compensation is DEFENDANT's non-discretionary incentive program that paid
25 PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS Members incentive wages based on their 26 performance for DEFENDANT. The non-discretionary incentive program provided all 27 employees paid on an hourly basis with incentive compensation when the employees met the 28 various performance goals set by DEFENDANT. However, when calculating the regular

1 rate of pay in order to pay overtime and meal and rest break premiums to PLAINTIFF and 2 other CALIFORNIA CLASS Members, DEFENDANT failed to include the incentive
3 compensation as part of the employees' "regular rate of pay" for purposes of calculating 4 overtime pay and meal and rest break premium pay. Management and supervisors described 5 the incentive program to potential and new employees as part of the compensation package.
6 As a matter of law, the incentive compensation received by PLAINTIFF and other
7 CALIFORNIA CLASS Members must be included in the "regular rate of pay." The failure
8 to do so has resulted in a underpayment of overtime compensation and meal and rest break
9 premiums to PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS Members by DEFENDANT.

10 11. As a result of their rigorous work schedules, PLAINTIFF and other 11 CALIFORNIA CLASS Members were from time to time unable to take thirty (30) minute
12 off duty meal breaks and were not fully relieved of duty for their meal periods. PLAINTIFF
13 and other CALIFORNIA CLASS Members were required from time to time to perform 14 work as ordered by DEFENDANT for more than five (5) hours during some shifts without 15 receiving a meal break. Further, DEFENDANT from time to time failed to provide 16 PLAINTIFF and CALIFORNIA CLASS Members with a second off-duty meal period for 17 some workdays in which these employees were required by DEFENDANT to work ten (10)
18 hours of work. DEFENDANT also engaged in the practice of rounding the meal period
19 times to avoid paying penalties to PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS Members.
20 PLAINTIFF and other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS therefore forfeit meal breaks
21 without additional compensation and in accordance with DEFENDANT's corporate policy 22 and practice.

23 12. During the CALIFORNIA CLASS PERIOD, PLAINTIFF and other 24 CALIFORNIA CLASS Members were also required from time to time to work in excess of 25 four (4) hours without being provided ten (10) minute rest periods. Further, these employees 26 were denied their first rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes for some shifts worked of at 27 least two (2) to four (4) hours from time to time, a first and second rest period of at least ten 28 (10) minutes for some shifts worked of between six (6) and eight (8) hours from time to

1 time, and a first, second and third rest period of at least ten (10) minutes for some shifts
2 worked of ten (10) hours or more from time to time. PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA
3 CLASS Members were also not provided with one hour wages in lieu thereof. Additionally,
4 the applicable California Wage Order requires employers to provide employees with off-
5 duty rest periods, which the California Supreme Court defined as time during which an 6 employee is relieved from all work related duties and free from employer control. In so 7 doing, the Court held that the requirement under California law that employers authorize and 8 permit all employees to take rest period means that employers must relieve employees of all
9 duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time which includes control
10 over the locations where employees may take their rest period. Employers cannot impose 11 controls that prohibit an employee from taking a brief walk - five minutes out, five minutes
12 back. Here, DEFENDANT's policy restricted PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA
13 CLASS Members from unconstrained walks and is unlawful based on DEFENDANT's rule
14 which states PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS Members cannot leave the work 15 premises during their rest period.

16 13. During the CALIFORNIA CLASS PERIOD, DEFENDANT failed to 17 accurately record and pay PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS Members for the 18 actual amount of time these employees worked. Pursuant to the Industrial Welfare
19 Commission Wage Orders, DEFENDANT was required to pay PLAINTIFF and other 20 CALIFORNIA CLASS Members for all time worked, meaning the time during which an 21 employee was subject to the control of an employer, including all the time the employee was 22 permitted or suffered to permit this work. DEFENDANT required these employees to work
23 off the clock without paying them for all the time they were under DEFENDANT's control.
24 As such, DEFENDANT knew or should have known that PLAINTIFF and the other
25 members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS were under compensated for all time worked. As a 26 result, PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS Members forfeited time worked by 27 working without their time being accurately recorded and without compensation at the 28 applicable minimum wage and overtime wage rates. To the extent that the time worked off

1 the clock does not qualify for overtime premium payment, DEFENDANT fails to pay
2 minimum wages for the time worked off-the-clock in violation of Cal. Lab. Code §§ 1194,
3 1197, and 1197.1.

4 14. From time to time, DEFENDANT also failed to provide PLAINTIFF and the 5 other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS with complete and accurate wage statements
6 which failed to show, among other things, the correct gross and net wages earned. Cal. Lab.
7 Code § 226 provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees with an 8 accurate itemized wage statement in writing showing, among other things, gross wages 9 earned and all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding 10 amount of time worked at each hourly rate. PLAINTIFF and CALIFORNIA CLASS
11 Members were paid on an hourly basis. As such, the wage statements should reflect all 12 applicable hourly rates during the pay period and the total hours worked, and the applicable
13 pay period in which the wages were earned pursuant to California Labor Code Section
14 226(a). The wage statements DEFENDANT provided to PLAINTIFF and other 15 CALIFORNIA CLASS Members failed to identify such information. More specifically, the 16 wage statements failed to identify the accurate total hours worked each pay period. When 17 the hours shown on the wage statements were added up, they did not equal the actual total 18 hours worked during the pay period in violation of Cal. Lab. Code 226(a)(2). Aside, from 19 the violations listed above in this paragraph, DEFENDANT failed to issue to PLAINTIFF
20 an itemized wage statement that lists all the requirements under California Labor Code 226
21 et seq. As a result, DEFENDANT from time to time provided PLAINTIFF and the other
22 members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS with wage statements which violated Cal. Lab. Code 23 § 226.

24 15. DEFENDANT underpaid sick pay wages to PLAINTIFF and other 25 CALIFORNIA CLASS Members by failing to pay such wages at the regular rate of pay in 26 violation of Cal. Lab. Code Section 246. Specifically, PLAINTIFF and other non-exempt
27 employees earn non-discretionary remuneration. Rather than pay sick pay at the regular rate 28

1 of pay, DEFENDANT underpaid sick pay to PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS
2 Members at their base rates of pay.

3 16. Cal. Lab. Code Section 246(1)(2) requires that paid sick time for nonexempt
4 employees be calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime
5 premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 6 days of employment.

7 17. DEFENDANT violated Cal. Lab. Code Section 246 by failing to pay sick pay
8 at the regular rate of pay. PLAINTIFF and CALIFORNIA CLASS Members routinely 9 earned non-discretionary incentive wages which increased their regular rate of pay.
10 However, when sick pay was paid, it was paid at the base rate of pay for PLAINTIFF and 11 members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS, as opposed to the correct, higher regular rate of pay, 12 as required under Cal. Lab. Code Section 246.

13 18. As a pattern and practice, DEFENDANT regularly failed to pay PLAINTIFF
14 and other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS their correct wages and accordingly owe 15 waiting time penalties pursuant to Cal. Lab. Code Section 203. Further, PLAINTIFF is 16 informed and believes and based thereon alleges that such failure to pay sick pay at regular 17 rate was willful, such that PLAINTIFF and members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS whose 18 employment has separated are entitled to waiting time penalties pursuant to Cal. Lab. Code
19 Sections 201-203.

20 19. Pursuant to Cal. Lab. Code Section 221, "It shall be unlawful for any employer
21 to collect or receive from an employee any part of wages theretofore paid by said employer 22 to said employee." DEFENDANT failed to pay all compensation due to PLAINTIFF and 23 other CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS Members, made unlawful deductions from 24 compensation payable to PLAINTIFF and CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS Members,
25 failed to disclose all aspects of the deductions from compensation payable to PLAINTIFF
26 and CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS Members, and thereby failed to pay these 27 employees all wages due at each applicable pay period and upon termination. PLAINTIFF
28

1 and members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS seek recovery of all illegal
2 deductions from wages according to proof, related penalties, interest, attorney fees and costs.

3 20. DEFENDANT intentionally and knowingly failed to reimburse and indemnify
4 PLAINTIFF and the other CALIFORNIA CLASS Members for required business expenses
5 incurred by the PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS Members in direct
6 consequence of discharging their duties on behalf of DEFENDANT. Under California
7 Labor Code Section 2802, employers are required to indemnify employees for all expenses
8 incurred in the course and scope of their employment. Cal. Lab. Code § 2802 expressly 9 states that "an employer shall indemnify his or her employee for all necessary expenditures
10 or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her 11 duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer, even though unlawful, 12 unless the employee, at the time of obeying the directions, believed them to be unlawful."

13 21. In the course of their employment PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA
14 CLASS Members as a business expense, were required by DEFENDANT to use their own 15 personal cellular phones as a result of and in furtherance of their job duties as employees for 16 DEFENDANT but are not reimbursed or indemnified by DEFENDANT for the cost
17 associated with the use of their personal cellular phones for DEFENDANT's benefit.
18 Specifically, PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS Members were required by 19 DEFENDANT to use their personal cellular phones. As a result, in the course of their 20 employment with DEFENDANT, PLAINTIFF and other members of the CALIFORNIA 21 CLASS incurred unreimbursed business expenses which included, but were not limited to,
22 costs related to the use of their personal cellular phones all on behalf of and for the benefit 23 of DEFENDANT.

24 22. In violation of the applicable sections of the California Labor Code and the 25 requirements of the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC") Wage Order, 26 DEFENDANT as a matter of company policy, practice and procedure, intentionally, 27 knowingly and systematically failed to provide PLAINTIFF and the other Aggrieved 28

1 Employees suitable seating when the nature of these employees' work reasonably permitted 2 sitting.

3 23. DEFENDANT knew or should have known that PLAINTIFF and other
4 Aggrieved Employees were entitled to suitable seating and/or were entitled to sit when it did
5 not interfere with the performance of their duties, and that DEFENDANT did not provide 6 suitable seating and/or did not allow them to sit when it did not interfere with the 7 performance of their duties.

8 24. By reason of this conduct applicable to PLAINTIFF and all Aggrieved
9 Employees, DEFENDANT violated California Labor Code Section 1198 and California
10 Code of Regulations, Title 8, Section 11070(14) (Failure to Provide Seating), Wage Order
11 4-2001, Section 14 by failing to provide suitable seats. PLAINTIFF seeks penalties on 12 behalf of PLAINTIFF and other Aggrieved Employees as provided herein. Providing 13 suitable seating is the DEFENDANT's burden. As a result of DEFENDANT's intentional
14 disregard of the obligation to meet this burden, DEFENDANT violated the California Labor 15 Code and regulations promulgated thereunder as herein alleged.

16 25. Specifically as to PLAINTIFF, DEFENDANT failed to provide all the legally
17 required off-duty meal and rest breaks to PLAINTIFF as required by the applicable Wage
18 Order and Labor Code and failed to pay PLAINTIFF all minimum and overtime wages due
19 to PLAINTIFF. DEFENDANT did not have a policy or practice which provided timely off-20 duty meal and rest breaks to PLAINTIFF and also failed to compensate PLAINTIFF for 21 PLAINTIFF's missed meal and rest breaks. The nature of the work performed by the 22 PLAINTIFF did not prevent PLAINTIFF from being relieved of all of PLAINTIFF's duties 23 for the legally required off-duty meal periods. As a result, DEFENDANT's failure to 24 provide PLAINTIFF with the legally required meal periods is evidenced by DEFENDANT's 25 business records. The amount in controversy for PLAINTIFF individually does not exceed 26 the sum or value of $75,000.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

26. This Court has jurisdiction over this Action pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure, Section 410.10 and California Business & Professions Code, Section 17203. This action is brought as a Class Action on behalf of PLAINTIFF and similarly situated employees of DEFENDANT pursuant to Cal. Code of Civ. Proc. § 382.

27. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure, Sections 395 and 395.5, because PLAINTIFF worked in this County for DEFENDANT and DEFENDANT (i) currently maintains and at all relevant times maintained offices and facilities in this County and/or conducts substantial business in this County, and (ii) committed the wrongful conduct herein alleged in this County against members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS.

THE CALIFORNIA CLASS

28. PLAINTIFF brings the First Cause of Action for Unfair, Unlawful and Deceptive Business Practices pursuant to Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200, et seq. (the "UCL") as a Class Action, pursuant to Cal. Code of Civ. Proc. § 382, on behalf of a California class, defined as all individuals who are or previously were employed by DEFENDANT in California, including any employees staffed with DEFENDANT by a third party, and classified as non-exempt employees (the "CALIFORNIA CLASS") at any time during the period beginning four (4) years prior to the filing of this Complaint and ending on the date as determined by the Court (the "CALIFORNIA CLASS PERIOD"). The amount in controversy for the aggregate claim of CALIFORNIA CLASS Members is under five million dollars ($5,000,000.00).

29. To the extent equitable tolling operates to toll claims by the CALIFORNIA CLASS against DEFENDANT, the CALIFORNIA CLASS PERIOD should be adjusted accordingly.

1 30. DEFENDANT, as a matter of company policy, practice and procedure, and in 2 violation of the applicable Labor Code, Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage
3 Order requirements, and the applicable provisions of California law, intentionally,
4 knowingly, and wilfully, engaged in a practice whereby DEFENDANT failed to record all
5 meal and rest breaks missed by PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA CLASS Members,
6 even though DEFENDANT enjoyed the benefit of this work, required employees to perform 7 this work and permits or suffers to permit this work.

8 31. DEFENDANT has the legal burden to establish that each and every 9 CALIFORNIA CLASS Member was paid accurately for all meal and rest breaks missed as 10 required by California laws. The DEFENDANT, however, as a matter of policy and 11 procedure failed to have in place during the CALIFORNIA CLASS PERIOD and still fails
12 to have in place a policy or practice to ensure that each and every CALIFORNIA CLASS
13 Member is paid as required by law. This common business practice is applicable to each 14 and every CALIFORNIA CLASS Member can be adjudicated on a class-wide basis as 15 unlawful, unfair, and/or deceptive under Cal. Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.
16 (the “UCL”) as causation, damages, and reliance are not elements of this claim.

17 32. The CALIFORNIA CLASS, is so numerous that joinder of all CALIFORNIA
18 CLASS Members is impracticable.

19 33. DEFENDANT violated the rights of the CALIFORNIA CLASS under 20 California law by:

- 21 (a) Committing an act of unfair competition in violation of , Cal. Bus. &
22 Prof. Code §§ 17200, et seq. (the "UCL"), by unlawfully, unfairly 23 and/or deceptively having in place company policies, practices and 24 procedures that failed to record and pay PLAINTIFF and the other 25 members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS for all time worked, including 26 minimum wages owed and overtime wages owed for work performed 27 by these employees; and,
28

- 1 (b) Committing an act of unfair competition in violation of the UCL, by 2 failing to provide the PLAINTIFF and the other members of the 3 CALIFORNIA CLASS with the legally required meal and rest periods.

4 34. This Class Action meets the statutory prerequisites for the maintenance of a
5 Class Action as set forth in Cal. Code of Civ. Proc. § 382, in that:

- 6 (a) The persons who comprise the CALIFORNIA CLASS are so numerous 7 that the joinder of all such persons is impracticable and the disposition
8 of their claims as a class will benefit the parties and the Court;
- 9 (b) Nearly all factual, legal, statutory, declaratory and injunctive relief
10 issues that are raised in this Complaint are common to the 11 CALIFORNIA CLASS will apply to every member of the 12 CALIFORNIA CLASS;
- 13 (c) The claims of the representative PLAINTIFF are typical of the claims
14 of each member of the CALIFORNIA CLASS. PLAINTIFF, like all
15 the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS, was classified as a 16 non-exempt employee paid on an hourly basis who was subjected to the 17 DEFENDANT's deceptive practice and policy which failed to provide 18 the legally required meal and rest periods to the CALIFORNIA CLASS
19 and thereby underpaid compensation to PLAINTIFF and 20 CALIFORNIA CLASS. PLAINTIFF sustained economic injury as a 21 result of DEFENDANT's employment practices. PLAINTIFF and the 22 members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS were and are similarly or 23 identically harmed by the same unlawful, deceptive and unfair
24 misconduct engaged in by DEFENDANT; and,
- 25 (d) The representative PLAINTIFF will fairly and adequately represent and 26 protect the interest of the CALIFORNIA CLASS, and has retained
27 counsel who are competent and experienced in Class Action litigation.
28 There are no material conflicts between the claims of the representative

1 PLAINTIFF and the members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS that would
2 make class certification inappropriate. Counsel for the CALIFORNIA
3 CLASS will vigorously assert the claims of all CALIFORNIA CLASS
4 Members.

5 35. In addition to meeting the statutory prerequisites to a Class Action, this action
6 is properly maintained as a Class Action pursuant to Cal. Code of Civ. Proc. § 382, in that:

7 (a) Without class certification and determination of declaratory, injunctive,
8 statutory and other legal questions within the class format, prosecution
9 of separate actions by individual members of the CALIFORNIA
10 CLASS will create the risk of:

- 11 1) Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual
12 members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS which would establish 13 incompatible standards of conduct for the parties opposing the 14 CALIFORNIA CLASS; and/or,
15 2) Adjudication with respect to individual members of the 16 CALIFORNIA CLASS which would as a practical matter be 17 dispositive of interests of the other members not party to the 18 adjudication or substantially impair or impede their ability to 19 protect their interests.

20 (b) The parties opposing the CALIFORNIA CLASS have acted or refused
21 to act on grounds generally applicable to the CALIFORNIA CLASS,
22 making appropriate class-wide relief with respect to the CALIFORNIA
23 CLASS as a whole in that DEFENDANT failed to pay all wages due to 24 members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS as required by law;

- 25 1) With respect to the First Cause of Action, the final relief on 26 behalf of the CALIFORNIA CLASS sought does not relate 27 exclusively to restitution because through this claim
28 PLAINTIFF seeks declaratory relief holding that the

1 DEFENDANT's policy and practices constitute unfair
2 competition, along with declaratory relief, injunctive relief, and 3 incidental equitable relief as may be necessary to prevent and 4 remedy the conduct declared to constitute unfair competition;

5 (c) Common questions of law and fact exist as to the members of the 6 CALIFORNIA CLASS, with respect to the practices and violations of 7 California law as listed above, and predominate over any question
8 affecting only individual CALIFORNIA CLASS Members, and a Class
9 Action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient 10 adjudication of the controversy, including consideration of:

- 11 1) The interests of the members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS in 12 individually controlling the prosecution or defense of separate 13 actions in that the substantial expense of individual actions will 14 be avoided to recover the relatively small amount of economic 15 losses sustained by the individual CALIFORNIA CLASS
16 Members when compared to the substantial expense and burden 17 of individual prosecution of this litigation;
- 18 2) Class certification will obviate the need for unduly duplicative 19 litigation that would create the risk of:
 - 20 A. Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to 21 individual members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS, which 22 would establish incompatible standards of conduct for the 23 DEFENDANT; and/or,
 - 24 B. Adjudications with respect to individual members of the 25 CALIFORNIA CLASS would as a practical matter be 26 dispositive of the interests of the other members not 27 parties to the adjudication or substantially impair or 28 impede their ability to protect their interests;

- 1 3) In the context of wage litigation because a substantial number of 2 individual CALIFORNIA CLASS Members will avoid asserting
3 their legal rights out of fear of retaliation by DEFENDANT,
4 which may adversely affect an individual's job with 5 DEFENDANT or with a subsequent employer, the Class Action
6 is the only means to assert their claims through a representative;
7 and,
8 4) A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair
9 and efficient adjudication of this litigation because class
10 treatment will obviate the need for unduly and unnecessary
11 duplicative litigation that is likely to result in the absence of 12 certification of this action pursuant to Cal. Code of Civ. Proc. §
13 382.

14 36. This Court should permit this action to be maintained as a Class Action
15 pursuant to Cal. Code of Civ. Proc. § 382 because:

- 16 (a) The questions of law and fact common to the CALIFORNIA CLASS
17 predominate over any question affecting only individual CALIFORNIA
18 CLASS Members because the DEFENDANT's employment practices
19 are applied with respect to the CALIFORNIA CLASS;
20 (b) A Class Action is superior to any other available method for the fair 21 and efficient adjudication of the claims of the members of the 22 CALIFORNIA CLASS because in the context of employment litigation
23 a substantial number of individual CALIFORNIA CLASS Members
24 will avoid asserting their rights individually out of fear of retaliation or 25 adverse impact on their employment;
26 (c) The members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS are so numerous that it is 27 impractical to bring all members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS before 28 the Court;

- 1 (d) PLAINTIFF, and the other CALIFORNIA CLASS Members, will not
2 be able to obtain effective and economic legal redress unless the action
3 is maintained as a Class Action;
- 4 (e) There is a community of interest in obtaining appropriate legal and
5 equitable relief for the acts of unfair competition, statutory violations
6 and other improprieties, and in obtaining adequate compensation for 7 the damages and injuries which DEFENDANT's actions have inflicted 8 upon the CALIFORNIA CLASS;
- 9 (f) There is a community of interest in ensuring that the combined assets of 10 DEFENDANT are sufficient to adequately compensate the members of 11 the CALIFORNIA CLASS for the injuries sustained;
- 12 (g) DEFENDANT has acted or refused to act on grounds generally
13 applicable to the CALIFORNIA CLASS, thereby making final class-
14 wide relief appropriate with respect to the CALIFORNIA CLASS as a 15 whole;
- 16 (h) The members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS are readily ascertainable 17 from the business records of DEFENDANT; and,
- 18 (i) Class treatment provides manageable judicial treatment calculated to 19 bring a efficient and rapid conclusion to all litigation of all wage and 20 hour related claims arising out of the conduct of DEFENDANT as to 21 the members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS.

22 37. DEFENDANT maintains records from which the Court can ascertain and 23 identify by job title each of DEFENDANT's employees who have been intentionally 24 subjected to DEFENDANT's company policy, practices and procedures as herein alleged.
25 PLAINTIFF will seek leave to amend the Complaint to include any additional job titles of 26 similarly situated employees when they have been identified.

THE CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS

38. PLAINTIFF further brings the Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, and Eighth causes Action on behalf of a California sub-class, defined as all members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS who are or previously were employed by DEFENDANT in California, including any employees staffed with DEFENDANT by a third party, and classified as non exempt employees (the “CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS”) at any time during the period three (3) years prior to the filing of the complaint and ending on the date as determined by the Court (the “CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS PERIOD”) pursuant to Cal. Code of Civ. Proc. § 382. The amount in controversy for the aggregate claim of CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS Members is under five million dollars ($5,000,000.00).

39. DEFENDANT, in violation of the applicable Labor Code, Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order requirements, and the applicable provisions of California law, intentionally, knowingly, and wilfully, engaged in a practice whereby DEFENDANT failed to correctly calculate compensation for the time worked by PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS and reporting time wages owed to these employees, even though DEFENDANT enjoyed the benefit of this work, required employees to perform this work and permitted or suffered to permit this work. DEFENDANT has denied these CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS Members wages to which these employees are entitled in order to unfairly cheat the competition and unlawfully profit. To the extent equitable tolling operates to toll claims by the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS against DEFENDANT, the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS PERIOD should be adjusted accordingly.

40. DEFENDANT maintains records from which the Court can ascertain and identify by name and job title, each of DEFENDANT’s employees who have been intentionally subjected to DEFENDANT’s company policy, practices and procedures as herein alleged. PLAINTIFF will seek leave to amend the complaint to include any additional job titles of similarly situated employees when they have been identified.

1 41. The CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS is so numerous that joinder of all
2 CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS Members is impracticable.

3 42. Common questions of law and fact exist as to members of the CALIFORNIA
4 LABOR SUB-CLASS, including, but not limited, to the following:

- 5 (a) Whether DEFENDANT unlawfully failed to correctly calculate and pay
6 compensation due to members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-
7 CLASS for missed meal and rest breaks in violation of the California
8 Labor Code and California regulations and the applicable California
9 Wage Order;
- 10 (b) Whether DEFENDANT failed to provide the PLAINTIFF and the other 11 members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS with accurate 12 itemized wage statements;
- 13 (c) Whether DEFENDANT has engaged in unfair competition by the 14 above-listed conduct;
- 15 (d) The proper measure of damages and penalties owed to the members of 16 the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS; and,
- 17 (e) Whether DEFENDANT's conduct was willful.

18 43. DEFENDANT violated the rights of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-19 CLASS under California law by:

- 20 (a) Violating Cal. Lab. Code § 510, by failing to correctly pay the 21 PLAINTIFF and the members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-22 CLASS all wages due for overtime worked, for which DEFENDANT is 23 liable pursuant to Cal. Lab. Code § 1194;
- 24 (b) Violating Cal. Lab. Code §§ 1194, 1197 & 1197.1 et seq., by failing to 25 accurately pay PLAINTIFF and the members of the CALIFORNIA
26 LABOR SUB-CLASS the correct minimum wage pay for which 27 DEFENDANT is liable pursuant to Cal. Lab. Code §§ 1194 and 1197;
- 28

- 1 (c) Violating Cal. Lab. Code § 226, by failing to provide PLAINTIFF and 2 the members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS with an 3 accurate itemized statement in writing showing the corresponding 4 correct amount of wages earned by the employee;
- 5 (d) Violating Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7 and 512, by failing to provide
6 PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR
7 SUB-CLASS with all legally required off-duty, uninterrupted thirty 8 (30) minute meal breaks and the legally required off-duty rest breaks;
- 9 (e) Violating Cal. Lab. Code §§ 201, 202 and/or 203, which provides that 10 when an employee is discharged or quits from employment, the 11 employer must pay the employee all wages due without abatement, by 12 failing to tender full payment and/or restitution of wages owed or in the 13 manner required by California law to the members of the 14 CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS who have terminated their 15 employment; and,
- 16 (f) Violating Cal. Lab. Code § 2802 by failing to reimburse PLAINTIFF
17 and the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS members with necessary
18 expenses incurred in the discharge of their job duties.

19 44. This Class Action meets the statutory prerequisites for the maintenance of a 20 Class Action as set forth in Cal. Code of Civ. Proc. § 382, in that:

- 21 (a) The persons who comprise the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS
22 are so numerous that the joinder of all CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-23 CLASS Members is impracticable and the disposition of their claims as 24 a class will benefit the parties and the Court;
- 25 (b) Nearly all factual, legal, statutory, declaratory and injunctive relief
26 issues that are raised in this Complaint are common to the 27 CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS and will apply to every member
28 of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS;

- 1 (c) The claims of the representative PLAINTIFF are typical of the claims
2 of each member of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS.
3 PLAINTIFF, like all the other members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR
4 SUB-CLASS, was a non-exempt employee paid on an hourly basis who 5 was subjected to the DEFENDANT's practice and policy which failed
6 to pay the correct amount of wages due to the CALIFORNIA LABOR
7 SUB-CLASS. PLAINTIFF sustained economic injury as a result of 8 DEFENDANT's employment practices. PLAINTIFF and the members
9 of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS were and are similarly or 10 identically harmed by the same unlawful, deceptive, and unfair
11 misconduct engaged in by DEFENDANT; and,
- 12 (d) The representative PLAINTIFF will fairly and adequately represent and 13 protect the interest of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS, and 14 has retained counsel who are competent and experienced in Class 15 Action litigation. There are no material conflicts between the claims of 16 the representative PLAINTIFF and the members of the CALIFORNIA
17 LABOR SUB-CLASS that would make class certification
18 inappropriate. Counsel for the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS
19 will vigorously assert the claims of all CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-
20 CLASS Members.

21 45. In addition to meeting the statutory prerequisites to a Class Action, this action
22 is properly maintained as a Class Action pursuant to Cal. Code of Civ. Proc. § 382, in that:

- 23 (a) Without class certification and determination of declaratory, injunctive,
24 statutory and other legal questions within the class format, prosecution
25 of separate actions by individual members of the CALIFORNIA
26 LABOR SUB-CLASS will create the risk of:
- 27 1) Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual 28 members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for the parties opposing the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS; or,

- 2) Adjudication with respect to individual members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS which would as a practical matter be dispositive of interests of the other members not party to the adjudication or substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests.

- (b) The parties opposing the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS, making appropriate class-wide relief with respect to the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS as a whole in that DEFENDANT fails to pay all wages due. Including the correct wages for all time worked by the members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS as required by law;

- (c) Common questions of law and fact predominate as to the members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS, with respect to the practices and violations of California Law as listed above, and predominate over any question affecting only individual CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS Members, and a Class Action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy, including consideration of:

- 1) The interests of the members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS in individually controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions in that the substantial expense of individual actions will be avoided to recover the relatively small amount of economic losses sustained by the individual CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS Members when compared

1 to the substantial expense and burden of individual prosecution
2 of this litigation;

3 2) Class certification will obviate the need for unduly duplicative
4 litigation that would create the risk of:

5 A. Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to
6 individual members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-7 CLASS, which would establish incompatible standards of 8 conduct for the DEFENDANT; and/or,

9 B. Adjudications with respect to individual members of the 10 CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS would as a
11 practical matter be dispositive of the interests of the other 12 members not parties to the adjudication or substantially
13 impair or impede their ability to protect their interests;

14 3) In the context of wage litigation because a substantial number of 15 individual CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS Members will 16 avoid asserting their legal rights out of fear of retaliation by 17 DEFENDANT, which may adversely affect an individual's job
18 with DEFENDANT or with a subsequent employer, the Class
19 Action is the only means to assert their claims through a 20 representative; and,

21 4) A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair
22 and efficient adjudication of this litigation because class
23 treatment will obviate the need for unduly and unnecessary
24 duplicative litigation that is likely to result in the absence of 25 certification of this action pursuant to Cal. Code of Civ. Proc. §
26 382.

27 46. This Court should permit this action to be maintained as a Class Action
28 pursuant to Cal. Code of Civ. Proc. § 382 because:

- 1 (a) The questions of law and fact common to the CALIFORNIA LABOR
2 SUB-CLASS predominate over any question affecting only individual
3 CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS Members;
- 4 (b) A Class Action is superior to any other available method for the fair
5 and efficient adjudication of the claims of the members of the 6 CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS because in the context of 7 employment litigation a substantial number of individual
8 CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS Members will avoid asserting 9 their rights individually out of fear of retaliation or adverse impact on 10 their employment;
- 11 (c) The members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS are so 12 numerous that it is impractical to bring all members of the 13 CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS before the Court;
- 14 (d) PLAINTIFF, and the other CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS
15 Members, will not be able to obtain effective and economic legal 16 redress unless the action is maintained as a Class Action;
- 17 (e) There is a community of interest in obtaining appropriate legal and 18 equitable relief for the acts of unfair competition, statutory violations
19 and other improprieties, and in obtaining adequate compensation for 20 the damages and injuries which DEFENDANT's actions have inflicted 21 upon the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS;
- 22 (f) There is a community of interest in ensuring that the combined assets of 23 DEFENDANT are sufficient to adequately compensate the members of 24 the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS for the injuries sustained;
- 25 (g) DEFENDANT has acted or refused to act on grounds generally
26 applicable to the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS, thereby 27 making final class-wide relief appropriate with respect to the 28 CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS as a whole;

- 1 (h) The members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS are readily
2 ascertainable from the business records of DEFENDANT. The
3 CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS consists of all CALIFORNIA
4 CLASS Members who worked for DEFENDANT in California at any 5 time during the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS PERIOD; and,
6 (i) Class treatment provides manageable judicial treatment calculated to 7 bring a efficient and rapid conclusion to all litigation of all wage and
8 hour related claims arising out of the conduct of DEFENDANT as to 9 the members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS.

11 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

12 For Unlawful Business Practices

13 [Cal. Bus. And Prof. Code §§ 17200, et seq.]

14 (By PLAINTIFF and the CALIFORNIA CLASS and Against All Defendants)

15 47. PLAINTIFF, and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS, reallege 16 and incorporate by this reference, as though fully set forth herein, the prior paragraphs of 17 this Complaint.

18 48. DEFENDANT is a “person” as that term is defined under Cal. Bus. and Prof.
19 Code § 17021.

20 49. California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. (the “UCL”)
21 defines unfair competition as any unlawful, unfair, or fraudulent business act or practice.
22 Section 17203 authorizes injunctive, declaratory, and/or other equitable relief with respect to 23 unfair competition as follows:

24 Any person who engages, has engaged, or proposes to engage in unfair
25 competition may be enjoined in any court of competent jurisdiction. The court 26 may make such orders or judgments, including the appointment of a receiver, 27 as may be necessary to prevent the use or employment by any person of any 28 practice which constitutes unfair competition, as defined in this chapter, or as may be necessary to restore to any person in interest any money or property, real or personal, which may have been acquired by means of such unfair competition.

1 Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17203.

2 50. By the conduct alleged herein, DEFENDANT has engaged and continues to 3 engage in a business practice which violates California law, including but not limited to, the 4 applicable Industrial Wage Order(s), the California Code of Regulations and the California
5 Labor Code including Sections 221, 226.7, 246, 510, 512, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2802
6 and the Fair Labor Standards Act and federal regulations promulgated thereunder, for which 7 this Court should issue declaratory and other equitable relief pursuant to Cal. Bus. & Prof.
8 Code § 17203 as may be necessary to prevent and remedy the conduct held to constitute 9 unfair competition, including restitution of wages wrongfully withheld.

10 51. By the conduct alleged herein, DEFENDANT's practices were unlawful and 11 unfair in that these practices violate public policy, were immoral, unethical, oppressive, 12 unscrupulous or substantially injurious to employees, and were without valid justification or 13 utility for which this Court should issue equitable and injunctive relief pursuant to Section
14 17203 of the California Business & Professions Code, including restitution of wages 15 wrongfully withheld.

16 52. By the conduct alleged herein, DEFENDANT's practices were deceptive and 17 fraudulent in that DEFENDANT's policy and practice failed to provide the legally mandated 18 meal and rest periods, the required amount of compensation for missed meal and rest 19 periods and overtime and minimum wages owed, failed to timely pay wages, and failed to 20 reimburse all necessary business expenses incurred, and failed to provide Fair Labor 21 Standards Act overtime wages due for overtime worked as a result of failing to include non-22 discretionary incentive compensation into their regular rates of pay for purposes of 23 computing the proper overtime pay due to a business practice that cannot be justified, 24 pursuant to the applicable Cal. Lab. Code, and Industrial Welfare Commission requirements
25 in violation of Cal. Bus. Code §§ 17200, et seq., and for which this Court should issue
26 injunctive and equitable relief, pursuant to Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17203, including 27 restitution of wages wrongfully withheld.

1 53. By the conduct alleged herein, DEFENDANT's practices were also unlawful,
2 unfair and deceptive in that DEFENDANT's employment practices caused PLAINTIFF and 3 the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS to be underpaid during their employment
4 with DEFENDANT.

5 54. By the conduct alleged herein, DEFENDANT's practices were also unlawful,
6 unfair and deceptive in that DEFENDANT's policies, practices and procedures failed to 7 provide all legally required meal breaks to PLAINTIFF and the other members of the 8 CALIFORNIA CLASS as required by Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7 and 512.

9 55. Therefore, PLAINTIFF demands on behalf of herself and on behalf of each
10 CALIFORNIA CLASS Member, one (1) hour of pay for each workday in which an off-duty 11 meal period was not timely provided for each five (5) hours of work, and/or one (1) hour of 12 pay for each workday in which a second off-duty meal period was not timely provided for 13 each ten (10) hours of work.

14 56. PLAINTIFF further demands on behalf of herself and each member of the 15 CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS, one (1) hour of pay for each workday in which an off 16 duty paid rest period was not timely provided as required by law.

17 57. By and through the unlawful and unfair business practices described herein, 18 DEFENDANT has obtained valuable property, money and services from PLAINTIFF and 19 the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS, including earned wages for all time 20 worked, and has deprived them of valuable rights and benefits guaranteed by law and 21 contract, all to the detriment of these employees and to the benefit of DEFENDANT so as to 22 allow DEFENDANT to unfairly compete against competitors who comply with the law.

23 58. All the acts described herein as violations of, among other things, the 24 Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders, the California Code of Regulations, and the 25 California Labor Code, were unlawful and in violation of public policy, were immoral, 26 unethical, oppressive and unscrupulous, were deceptive, and thereby constitute unlawful,
27 unfair and deceptive business practices in violation of Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200, et 28 seq.

1 59. PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS are entitled 2 to, and do, seek such relief as may be necessary to restore to them the money and property
3 which DEFENDANT has acquired, or of which PLAINTIFF and the other members of the 4 CALIFORNIA CLASS have been deprived, by means of the above described unlawful and 5 unfair business practices, including earned but unpaid wages for all time worked.

6 60. PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS are further 7 entitled to, and do, seek a declaration that the described business practices are unlawful,
8 unfair and deceptive, and that injunctive relief should be issued restraining DEFENDANT 9 from engaging in any unlawful and unfair business practices in the future.

10 61. PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS have no
11 plain, speedy and/or adequate remedy at law that will end the unlawful and unfair business
12 practices of DEFENDANT. Further, the practices herein alleged presently continue to occur
13 unabated. As a result of the unlawful and unfair business practices described herein, 14 PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS have suffered and will 15 continue to suffer irreparable legal and economic harm unless DEFENDANT is restrained 16 from continuing to engage in these unlawful and unfair business practices.

18 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

19 For Failure To Pay Minimum Wages

20 [Cal. Lab. Code §§ 1194, 1197 and 1197.1]

22 and Against All Defendants)

23 62. PLAINTIFF, and the other members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-
24 CLASS, reallege and incorporate by this reference, as though fully set forth herein, the prior
25 paragraphs of this Complaint.

26 63. PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-
27 CLASS bring a claim for DEFENDANT's willful and intentional violations of the 28 California Labor Code and the Industrial Welfare Commission requirements for

1 DEFENDANT's failure to accurately calculate and pay minimum wages to PLAINTIFF and 2 CALIFORNIA CLASS Members.

3 64. Cal. Lab. Code § 1197 provides the minimum wage for employees fixed by 4 the commission is the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a less 5 wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful.

6 65. Cal. Lab. Code § 1194 establishes an employee's right to recover unpaid
7 wages, including minimum wage compensation and interest thereon, together with the costs 8 of suit.

9 66. DEFENDANT maintained a wage practice of paying PLAINTIFF and the 10 other members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS without regard to the correct 11 amount of time they work. As set forth herein, DEFENDANT's policy and practice was to 12 unlawfully and intentionally deny timely payment of wages due to PLAINTIFF and the 13 other members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS.

14 67. DEFENDANT's unlawful wage and hour practices manifested, without 15 limitation, applicable to the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS as a whole, as a result of 16 implementing a policy and practice that denies accurate compensation to PLAINTIFF and 17 the other members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS in regards to minimum 18 wage pay.

19 68. In committing these violations of the California Labor Code, DEFENDANT
20 inaccurately calculated the correct time worked and consequently underpaid the actual time
21 worked by PLAINTIFF and other members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS.
22 DEFENDANT acted in an illegal attempt to avoid the payment of all earned wages, and 23 other benefits in violation of the California Labor Code, the Industrial Welfare Commission 24 requirements and other applicable laws and regulations.

25 69. As a direct result of DEFENDANT's unlawful wage practices as alleged 26 herein, PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS did 27 not receive the correct minimum wage compensation for their time worked for 28 DEFENDANT.

1 70. During the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS PERIOD, DEFENDANT
2 required, permitted or suffered PLAINTIFF and CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS
3 Members to work without paying them for all the time they were under DEFENDANT's
4 control. During the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS PERIOD, PLAINTIFF and the 5 other members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS were paid less for time worked 6 that they were entitled to, constituting a failure to pay all earned wages.

7 71. By virtue of DEFENDANT's unlawful failure to accurately pay all earned
8 compensation to PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-9 CLASS for the true time they worked, PLAINTIFF and the other members of the 10 CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS have suffered and will continue to suffer an 11 economic injury in amounts which are presently unknown to them and which will be 12 ascertained according to proof at trial.

13 72. DEFENDANT knew or should have known that PLAINTIFF and the other 14 members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS were under compensated for their 15 time worked. DEFENDANT elected, either through intentional malfeasance or gross
16 nonfeasance, to not pay employees for their labor as a matter of company policy, practice
17 and procedure, and DEFENDANT perpetrated this scheme by refusing to pay PLAINTIFF
18 and the other members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS the correct minimum 19 wages for their time worked.

21 labor laws, and refusing to compensate the members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-
22 CLASS for all time worked and provide them with the requisite compensation,
23 DEFENDANT acted and continues to act intentionally, oppressively, and maliciously
24 toward PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS
25 with a conscious and utter disregard for their legal rights, or the consequences to them, and 26 with the despicable intent of depriving them of their property and legal rights, and otherwise 27 causing them injury in order to increase company profits at the expense of these employees.
28

74. PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS therefore request recovery of all unpaid wages, according to proof, interest, statutory costs, as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against DEFENDANT, in a sum as provided by the California Labor Code and/or other applicable statutes. To the extent minimum wage compensation is determined to be owed to the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS Members who have terminated their employment, DEFENDANT's conduct also violates Labor Code §§ 201 and/or 202, and therefore these individuals are also be entitled to waiting time penalties under Cal. Lab. Code § 203, which penalties are sought herein on behalf of these CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS Members. DEFENDANT's conduct as alleged herein was willful, intentional and not in good faith. Further, PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS Members are entitled to seek and recover statutory costs.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

For Failure To Pay Overtime Compensation

[Cal. Lab. Code § 510]

(By PLAINTIFF and the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS and Against All Defendants)

75. PLAINTIFF, and the other members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS, reallege and incorporate by this reference, as though full set forth herein, the prior paragraphs of this Complaint.

76. PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS bring a claim for DEFENDANT's willful and intentional violations of the California Labor Code and the Industrial Welfare Commission requirements for DEFENDANT's failure to pay these employees for all overtime worked, including, work performed in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday, and/or twelve (12) hours in a workday, and/or forty (40) hours in any workweek.

1 77. Cal. Lab. Code § 510 further provides that employees in California shall not 2 be employed more than eight (8) hours per workday and more than forty (40) hours per 3 workweek unless they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in 4 amounts specified by law.

5 78. Cal. Lab. Code § 1194 establishes an employee's right to recover unpaid
6 wages, including minimum wage and overtime compensation and interest thereon, together
7 with the costs of suit. Cal. Lab. Code § 1198 further states that the employment of an 8 employee for longer hours than those fixed by the Industrial Welfare Commission is 9 unlawful.

10 79. During the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS PERIOD, PLAINTIFF and 11 CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS Members were required, permitted or suffered by 12 DEFENDANT to work for DEFENDANT and were not paid for all the time they worked, 13 including overtime work.

14 80. DEFENDANT's unlawful wage and hour practices manifested, without 15 limitation, applicable to the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS as a whole, as a result of 16 implementing a policy and practice that failed to accurately record overtime worked by 17 PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS Members and denied accurate
18 compensation to PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-
19 CLASS for overtime worked, including, the overtime work performed in excess of eight (8) 20 hours in a workday, and/or twelve (12) hours in a workday, and/or forty (40) hours in any 21 workweek.

22 81. In committing these violations of the California Labor Code, DEFENDANT
23 inaccurately recorded overtime worked and consequently underpaid the overtime worked by 24 PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA LABOR-SUB CLASS Members. DEFENDANT
25 acted in an illegal attempt to avoid the payment of all earned wages, and other benefits in 26 violation of the California Labor Code, the Industrial Welfare Commission requirements 27 and other applicable laws and regulations. As a direct result of DEFENDANT's unlawful 28 wage practices as alleged herein, the PLAINTIFF and the other members of the

1 CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS did not receive full compensation for overtime 2 worked.

3 82. Cal. Lab. Code § 515 sets out various categories of employees who are exempt
4 from the overtime requirements of the law. None of these exemptions are applicable to the 5 PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS. Further,
6 PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS were not 7 subject to a valid collective bargaining agreement that would preclude the causes of action
8 contained herein this Complaint. Rather, PLAINTIFF brings this Action on behalf of 9 herself and the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS based on DEFENDANT's violations
10 of non-negotiable, non-waiveable rights provided by the State of California.

11 83. During the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS PERIOD, PLAINTIFF and 12 the other members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS have been paid less for 13 overtime worked that they are entitled to, constituting a failure to pay all earned wages.

14 84. DEFENDANT failed to accurately pay the PLAINTIFF and the other 15 members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS overtime wages for the time they 16 worked which was in excess of the maximum hours permissible by law as required by Cal.
17 Lab. Code §§ 510, 1194 & 1198, even though PLAINTIFF and the other members of the 18 CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS were required to work, and did in fact work, overtime
19 as to which DEFENDANT failed to accurately record and pay as evidenced by 20 DEFENDANT's business records and witnessed by employees.

21 85. By virtue of DEFENDANT's unlawful failure to accurately pay all earned
22 compensation to PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-
23 CLASS for the true amount of time they worked, PLAINTIFF and the other members of the 24 CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS have suffered and will continue to suffer an 25 economic injury in amounts which are presently unknown to them and which will be 26 ascertained according to proof at trial.

27 86. DEFENDANT knew or should have known that PLAINTIFF and the other
28 members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS were under compensated for all

1 overtime worked. DEFENDANT elected, either through intentional malfeasance or gross
2 nonfeasance, to not pay employees for their labor as a matter of company policy, practice
3 and procedure, and DEFENDANT perpetrated this scheme by refusing to pay PLAINTIFF
4 and the other members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS for overtime worked.

5 87. In performing the acts and practices herein alleged in violation of California
6 labor laws, and refusing to compensate the members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-
7 CLASS for all overtime worked and provide them with the requisite overtime compensation,
8 DEFENDANT acted and continues to act intentionally, oppressively, and maliciously
9 toward PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS
10 with a conscious of and utter disregard for their legal rights, or the consequences to them, 11 and with the despicable intent of depriving them of their property and legal rights, and 12 otherwise causing them injury in order to increase company profits at the expense of these 13 employees.

14 88. PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-
15 CLASS therefore request recovery of all overtime wages, according to proof, interest, 16 statutory costs, as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against DEFENDANT, 17 in a sum as provided by the California Labor Code and/or other applicable statutes. To the 18 extent minimum and/or overtime compensation is determined to be owed to the 19 CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS Members who have terminated their employment, 20 DEFENDANT's conduct also violates Labor Code §§ 201 and/or 202, and therefore these 21 individuals are also be entitled to waiting time penalties under Cal. Lab. Code § 203, which 22 penalties are sought herein on behalf of these CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS
23 Members. DEFENDANT's conduct as alleged herein was willful, intentional and not in 24 good faith. Further, PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS Members 25 are entitled to seek and recover statutory costs.

1 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 For Failure to Provide Required Meal Periods

3 [Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7 & 512]

4 (By PLAINTIFF and the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS and Against All
5 Defendants)

6 89. PLAINTIFF, and the other members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-
7 CLASS, reallege and incorporate by this reference, as though fully set forth herein, the prior
8 paragraphs of this Complaint.

9 90. During the CALIFORNIA CLASS PERIOD, DEFENDANT from time to time
10 failed to provide all the legally required off-duty meal breaks to PLAINTIFF and the other
11 CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS Members as required by the applicable Wage Order
12 and Labor Code. The nature of the work performed by PLAINTIFF and CALIFORNIA
13 LABOR SUB-CLASS MEMBERS did not prevent these employees from being relieved of 14 all of their duties for the legally required off-duty meal periods. As a result of their rigorous
15 work schedules, PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS Members
16 were from time to time not fully relieved of duty by DEFENDANT for their meal periods.
17 Additionally, DEFENDANT's failure to provide PLAINTIFF and the CALIFORNIA
18 LABOR SUB-CLASS Members with legally required meal breaks prior to their fifth (5th)
19 hour of work is evidenced by DEFENDANT's business records from time to time. Further,
20 DEFENDANT failed to provide PLAINTIFF and CALIFORNIA CLASS Members with a 21 second off-duty meal period in some workdays in which these employees were required by 22 DEFENDANT to work ten (10) hours of work from time to time. As a result, PLAINTIFF
23 and other members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS therefore forfeited meal
24 breaks without additional compensation and in accordance with DEFENDANT's strict 25 corporate policy and practice.

26 91. DEFENDANT further violates California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and the 27 applicable IWC Wage Order by failing to compensate PLAINTIFF and CALIFORNIA
28 LABOR SUB-CLASS Members who were not provided a meal period, in accordance with

1 the applicable Wage Order, one additional hour of compensation at each employee's regular 2 rate of pay for each workday that a meal period was not provided.

3 92. As a proximate result of the aforementioned violations, PLAINTIFF and
4 CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS Members have been damaged in an amount according 5 to proof at trial, and seek all wages earned and due, interest, penalties, expenses and costs of 6 suit.

7 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

8 For Failure to Provide Required Rest Periods

9 [Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7 & 512]

10 (By PLAINTIFF and the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS and Against All 11 Defendants)

12 93. PLAINTIFF, and the other members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-
13 CLASS, reallege and incorporate by this reference, as though fully set forth herein, the prior
14 paragraphs of this Complaint.

15 94. PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS Members were 16 from time to time required to work in excess of four (4) hours without being provided ten 17 (10) minute rest periods. Further, these employees from time to time were denied their first 18 rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes for some shifts worked of at least two (2) to four (4) 19 hours, a first and second rest period of at least ten (10) minutes for some shifts worked of 20 between six (6) and eight (8) hours, and a first, second and third rest period of at least ten 21 (10) minutes for some shifts worked of ten (10) hours or more from time to time.

22 PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS Members were also not 23 provided with one hour wages in lieu thereof. As a result of their rigorous work schedules,
24 PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS Members were periodically
25 denied their proper rest periods by DEFENDANT and DEFENDANT's managers.

26 95. DEFENDANT further violated California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and the 27 applicable IWC Wage Order by failing to compensate PLAINTIFF and CALIFORNIA
28 LABOR SUB-CLASS Members who were not provided a rest period, in accordance with

1 the applicable Wage Order, one additional hour of compensation at each employee's regular
2 rate of pay for each workday that rest period was not provided.

3 96. As a proximate result of the aforementioned violations, PLAINTIFF and
4 CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS Members have been damaged in an amount according 5 to proof at trial, and seek all wages earned and due, interest, penalties, expenses and costs of 6 suit.

7 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

8 For Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Statements

9 [Cal. Lab. Code § 226]

10 (By PLAINTIFF and the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS and Against All 11 Defendants)

12 97. PLAINTIFF, and the other members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-
13 CLASS, reallege and incorporate by this reference, as though fully set forth herein, the prior
14 paragraphs of this Complaint.

15 98. Cal. Labor Code § 226 provides that an employer must furnish employees with 16 an "accurate itemized" statement in writing showing:

- 17 (1) gross wages earned,
- 18 (2) total hours worked by the employee, except for any employee whose 19 compensation is solely based on a salary and who is exempt from payment of 20 overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable order of the 21 Industrial Welfare Commission,
- 22 (3) the number of piecerate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee 23 is paid on a piece-rate basis,
- 24 (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the 25 employee may be aggregated and shown as one item,
- 26 (5) net wages earned,
- 27 (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid,
- 28 (7) the name of the employee and his or her social security number, except that by January 1, 2008, only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number may be shown on the itemized statement,
- (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and
- (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

99. From time to time, DEFENDANT also failed to provide PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS with complete and accurate

1 wage statements which failed to show, among other things, the correct gross and net wages
2 earned. Cal. Lab. Code § 226 provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her
3 employees with an accurate itemized wage statement in writing showing, among other 4 things, gross wages earned and all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and 5 the corresponding amount of time worked at each hourly rate. PLAINTIFF and 6 CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS Members were paid on an hourly basis. As such, the 7 wage statements should reflect all applicable hourly rates during the pay period and the total 8 hours worked, and the applicable pay period in which the wages were earned pursuant to 9 California Labor Code Section 226(a). The wage statements DEFENDANT provided to 10 PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS Members failed to identify 11 such information. More specifically, the wage statements failed to identify the accurate total
12 hours worked each pay period. When the hours shown on the wage statements were added
13 up, they did not equal the actual total hours worked during the pay period in violation of Cal.
14 Lab. Code 226(a)(2). Aside, from the violations listed above in this paragraph, 15 DEFENDANT failed to issue to PLAINTIFF an itemized wage statement that lists all the 16 requirements under California Labor Code 226 et seq. As a result, DEFENDANT from time
17 to time provided PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-18 CLASS with wage statements which violated Cal. Lab. Code § 226.

19 100. DEFENDANT knowingly and intentionally failed to comply with Cal. Lab.
20 Code § 226, causing injury and damages to PLAINTIFF and the other members of the 21 CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS. These damages include, but are not limited to, costs 22 expended calculating the correct wages for all missed meal and rest breaks and the amount 23 of employment taxes which were not properly paid to state and federal tax authorities.
24 These damages are difficult to estimate. Therefore, PLAINTIFF and the other members of 25 the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS may elect to recover liquidated damages of fifty 26 dollars ($50.00) for the initial pay period in which the violation occurred, and one hundred 27 dollars ($100.00) for each violation in a subsequent pay period pursuant to Cal. Lab. Code § 28 226, in an amount according to proof at the time of trial (but in no event more than four

1 thousand dollars ($4,000.00) for PLAINTIFF and each respective member of the 2 CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS herein).

4 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

5 For Failure to Reimburse Employees for Required Expenses

6 [Cal. Lab. Code § 2802]

7 (By PLAINTIFF and the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS and Against All
8 Defendants)

9 101. PLAINTIFF and the other CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS members
10 reallege and incorporate by this reference, as though fully set forth herein, the prior
11 paragraphs of this Complaint.

12 102. Cal. Lab. Code § 2802 provides, in relevant part, that:

13 An employer shall indemnify his or her employee for all necessary 14 expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the 15 discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer, even though unlawful, unless the employee, at the time of obeying the directions, believed them to be unlawful.

16 103. At all relevant times herein, DEFENDANT violated Cal. Lab. Code § 2802,
17 by failing to indemnify and reimburse PLAINTIFF and the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-18 CLASS members for required expenses incurred in the discharge of their job duties for 19 DEFENDANT's benefit. DEFENDANT failed to reimburse PLAINTIFF and the 20 CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS members for expenses which included, but were not 21 limited to, costs related to using their personal cellular phones on behalf of and for the 22 benefit of DEFENDANT. Specifically, PLAINTIFF and other CALIFORNIA LABOR
23 SUB-CLASS Members were required by DEFENDANT to use their personal cellular 24 phones and home offices in order to perform work related job tasks. DEFENDANT's policy
25 and practice was to not reimburse PLAINTIFF and the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-
26 CLASS members for expenses resulting from using their personal cellular phones and home 27 offices for DEFENDANT within the course and scope of their employment for 28

1 DEFENDANT. These expenses were necessary to complete their principal job duties.
2 DEFENDANT is estopped by DEFENDANT's conduct to assert any waiver of this
3 expectation. Although these expenses were necessary expenses incurred by PLAINTIFF
4 and the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS members, DEFENDANT failed to indemnify
5 and reimburse PLAINTIFF and the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS members for 6 these expenses as an employer is required to do under the laws and regulations of California.

7 104. PLAINTIFF therefore demands reimbursement for expenditures or losses
8 incurred by herself and the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS members in the discharge
9 of their job duties for DEFENDANT, or their obedience to the directions of DEFENDANT, 10 with interest at the statutory rate and costs under Cal. Lab. Code § 2802.

11 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

12 For Failure to Pay Sick Pay Wages

13 [Cal. Lab. Code §§ 201-203, 233, 246]

15 and Against All Defendants)

16 105. PLAINTIFF, and the other members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-
17 CLASS, reallege and incorporate by reference, as though fully set forth herein, the prior
18 paragraphs of this Complaint.

19 106. Cal Lab. Code § 233 provides that an employer must permit an employee to 20 use accrued sick leave in accordance with Cal Lab. Code § 246.5 at the employee's then 21 current rate of entitlement. Cal Lab. Code § 246 provides that an employee is entitled to 22 sick pay wages for use of accrued sick leave pursuant to Cal Lab. Code § 246.5.
23 Specifically, once accrued sick leave is used as paid sick time, an employee has a vested 24 right to sick pay wages, which an employer must calculate and compensate based on one of 25 two calculations: (i) "Paid sick time for nonexempt employees shall be calculated in the 26 same manner as the regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee uses paid 27 sick time, whether or not the employee actually works overtime in that workweek," or (ii)
28 "Paid sick time for nonexempt employees shall be calculated by dividing the employee's

1 total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in 2 the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment." Under Cal Lab. Code §§ 218 and 3 233, employees may sue to recover underpaid sick pay wages as damages.

4 107. As a matter of policy and practice, DEFENDANT pays sick pay wages to 5 PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS at the 6 incorrect rate of pay. PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR-
7 SUB-CLASS regularly use accrued sick leave in the workweeks in which they also earn
8 non-hourly remuneration. As a matter of policy and practice, DEFENDANT pays sick pay
9 wages to PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR-SUB-CLASS 10 at the base hourly pay, as opposed to the regular rate of pay, which would consider all non-11 hourly remuneration in addition to base hourly wages, or the rate resulting from dividing the 12 employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours
13 worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment. As a result, 14 DEFENDANT underpaid sick pay wages to PLAINTIFF and the other members of the 15 CALIFORNIA LABOR-SUB-CLASS.

16 108. Cal. Lab. Code § 246 specifically requires that, upon use of accrued sick 17 leave, vested sick pay wages are due and to be paid no later than the payday for the next 18 regular payroll period after accrued sick leave is used as paid sick time. Similarly, Cal. Lab.
19 Code § 201 provides that if an employer discharges an employee, wages earned and unpaid 20 at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately. Cal. Lab. Code § 202 provides 21 that an employee is entitled to receive all unpaid wages no later than 72 hours after an 22 employee quits his or her employment, unless the employee has given 72-hour notice of his 23 or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time
24 of quitting. The Labor Code penalizes untimely payments. For example, Cal. Lab. Code §
25 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed in accordance with Cal.
26 Lab. Code §§ 201-202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the 27 due date, and at the same rate until paid, but the wages shall not continue for more than 28

1 thirty (30) days. Under Cal. Lab. Code §§ 203 and 218, employees may sue to recover
2 applicable penalties.

3 109. As alleged herein and as a matter of policy and practice, DEFENDANT
4 routinely underpays sick pay wages and thus did not timely pay PLAINTIFF and the other
5 members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR-SUB-CLASS all owing and underpaid sick pay
6 wages. As a result, DEFENDANT violates Cal. Lab. Code §§ 201-203, 233, and 246,
7 among other Labor Code provisions. PLAINTIFF is informed and believes that 8 DEFENDANT was advised by skilled lawyers and knew, or should have known, of the 9 mandates of the Labor Code as it relates to PLAINTIFF's allegations, especially since the 10 California Supreme Court has explained that "[c]ourts have recognized that 'wages' also 11 include those benefits to which an employee is entitled as a part of his or her compensation, 12 including money, room, board, clothing, vacation pay, and sick pay." Murphy v. Kenneth
13 Cole Prods., Inc., 40 Cal. 4th 1094, 1103 (2007)(emphasis added). Because DEFENDANT
14 willfully fails to timely pay PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA
15 LABOR-SUB-CLASS all sick pay wages due, DEFENDANT is subject to applicable 16 penalties.

17 110. Such a pattern, practice, and uniform administration of corporate policy is 18 unlawful and entitles PLAINTIFF and the other members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR-
19 SUB-CLASS to underpaid sick pay wages, including interest thereon, applicable penalties, 20 attorney's fees, and costs of suit.

21 22 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

23 WHEREFORE, PLAINTIFF prays for judgment against each Defendant, jointly and 24 severally, as follows:

25 1. On behalf of the CALIFORNIA CLASS:

26 A) That the Court certify the First Cause of Action asserted by the CALIFORNIA
27 CLASS as a class action pursuant to Cal. Code of Civ. Proc. § 382; 28

- 1 B) An order temporarily, preliminarily and permanently enjoining and restraining
2 DEFENDANT from engaging in similar unlawful conduct as set forth herein;
3 C) An order requiring DEFENDANT to pay all wages and all sums unlawfully
4 withheld from compensation due to PLAINTIFF and the other members of the 5 CALIFORNIA CLASS; and,
6 D) Restitutionary disgorgement of DEFENDANT's ill-gotten gains into a fluid fund 7 for restitution of the sums incidental to DEFENDANT's violations due to 8 PLAINTIFF and to the other members of the CALIFORNIA CLASS.

9 2. On behalf of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS:

- 10 A) That the Court certify the Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh and Eighth
11 Causes of Action asserted by the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS as a class
12 action pursuant to Cal. Code of Civ. Proc. § 382;
13 B) Compensatory damages, according to proof at trial, including compensatory
14 damages for minimum and overtime compensation due PLAINTIFF and the other
15 members of the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS, during the applicable
16 CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS PERIOD plus interest thereon at the 17 statutory rate;
18 C) The greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period 19 in which a violation occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) per each member of 20 the CALIFORNIA LABOR SUB-CLASS for each violation in a subsequent pay 21 period, not exceeding an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000), and 22 an award of costs for violation of Cal. Lab. Code § 226; 23 D) Meal and rest period compensation pursuant to Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7, 512 and 24 the applicable IWC Wage Order;
25 E) For liquidated damages pursuant to California Labor Code Sections 1194.2 and 26 1197;
28

1 F) The amount of the expenses PLAINTIFF and each member of the CALIFORNIA
2 LABOR SUBCLASS incurred in the course of their job duties, plus interest, and 3 costs of suit.; and,

4 G) The wages of all terminated employees in the CALIFORNIA LABOR
5 SUB-CLASS as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or 6 until an action therefore is commenced, in accordance with Cal. Lab. Code § 203.

7 3. On all claims:

8 A) An award of interest, including prejudgment interest at the legal rate;

9 B) Such other and further relief as the Court deems just and equitable; and,

10 C) An award of penalties, attorneys' fees and cost of suit, as allowable under the 11 law, including, but not limited to, pursuant to Labor Code §221, §226, §1194, 12 and/or §2802.
