1 I. INTRODUCTION

2 Plaintiff Dea Logsdon (“Plaintiff”) respectfully submit this memorandum in support of the 3 unopposed motion for preliminary approval of the proposed class action and Private Attorney General 4 Act (“PAGA”) settlement with Defendant Digirad Imaging Solutions, Inc. (“Defendant”), and seeks 5 entry of an order: (1) preliminarily approving the proposed settlement of this class and PAGA action
6 with Defendant; (2) for settlement purposes only, conditionally certifying the Class, which is comprised 7 of “all individuals who are or were employed by Defendant as a non-exempt employee in the State of 8 California at any time during the Class Period”, which is February 9, 2020 through December 22, 2023;
9 (3) for settlement purposes only, finding that the group of Aggrieved Employees for PAGA claim 10 resolution purposes is manageable, with that group being comprised of “all individuals wh are or were 11 employed by Defendant as a non-exempt employee in the State of California at any time during the 12 PAGA Period”, which is January 2, 2023 to December 22, 2023; (4) provisionally appointing Plaintiff 13 as the representatives of the Class; (5) provisionally appointing Blumenthal Nordrehaug Bhowmik De 14 Blouw LLP as Class Counsel; (6) approving the form and method for providing class-wide notice;
15 (7) directing that notice of the proposed settlement be given to the Class; (8) appointing Apex Class 16 Action LLC as Administrator, and (9) scheduling a final approval hearing date, proposed for May 28, 17 2026, to consider Plaintiff’s motion for final approval of the settlement and for approval of attorneys’
18 fees, expenses and the representative service award. Plaintiff and Defendant (collectively the “Parties”) 19 have reached a full and final settlement of the above-captioned action (the “Settlement”), which is set 20 forth in the Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement (“Agreement”) filed concurrently with the 21 Court.¹ A copy of the fully executed Agreement is attached as Exhibit #1 to the Declaration of Kyle 22 Nordrehaug (“Decl. Nordrehaug”), served and filed herewith. The form of the Agreement is based 23 upon the Los Angeles County Superior Court model form for a class and PAGA settlement.

24 As consideration for this Settlement, the non-reversionary Gross Settlement Amount of Two 25 Hundred Ten Thousand Dollars ($210,000) (the “Gross Settlement Amount”) is to be paid by 26 Defendant, as set forth in the Agreement. The Gross Settlement Amount will settle all issues pending 27

28 ¹ Capitalized terms shall have the same meaning as defined in the Agreement.

1 in the Action between the Parties and will be made in full and final settlement of the Released Class 2 Claims and Released PAGA Claims in exchange for the payments to Participating Class Members and 3 payment of the PAGA Penalties (75% to the LWDA and 25% to the Aggrieved Employees) from the 4 Gross Settlement Amount, respectively. The Gross Settlement Amount shall also be used to pay: (a) 5 the costs of administration of the settlement, (b) Class Counsel's attorneys' fees and costs requests (with 6 such payment also covering and/or resolving Plaintiff's claim for attorneys' fees and costs sought via 7 her PAGA claim), and (c) Class Representative Service Payment. (Agreement at ¶ 1.22.) Decl.
8 Nordrehaug at ¶3. The following is a table of the key Settlement terms and the proposed deductions:

9 $210,000 (Gross Settlement Amount)

- 10 - $12,500 (Plaintiff's proposed service award - not to exceed amount)
- 11 - $21,000 (Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment - not to exceed amount)
- 12 - $70,000 (Class Counsel Fees Payment - not to exceed 1/3 of settlement)
- 13 - $15,000 (PAGA Payment - 75% to LWDA / 25% to Aggrieved Employees)
- 14 - $5,000 (Administration Expenses Payment - not to exceed amount)

15 $86,500 (Net Settlement Amount)

16 Based upon 67 Class Members who worked an estimated 5,294 work weeks (Agreement at ¶ 4.1), the 17 Gross Settlement Amount provides an average value of $3,134 per Class Member and $39 per 18 workweek and after deductions the Net Settlement Amount provides an average recovery of $1,291.04 19 per Class Member and a recovery of $16.33 per workweek. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶6.

20 On May 19, 2025, the Parties participated in an all-day mediation with Jason Marsili, a 21 respected and experienced mediator of wage and hour class and representative actions. Following the 22 mediation, the Parties agreed on the basic terms of a settlement pursuant to a mediator's proposal, 23 memorialized in the form of a Memorandum of Understanding. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶5. The 24 Settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate, and should be preliminarily approved, because there is a 25 fair monetary payment, and there are significant litigation risks. Plaintiff respectfully requests that this 26 Court grant preliminary approval of the Agreement and enter the proposed order submitted herewith.

27 II. DESCRIPTION OF THE SETTLEMENT

28 The Gross Settlement Amount is Two Hundred Ten Thousand Dollars ($210,000). (Agreement at ¶ 1.22.) Under the Settlement, the Gross Settlement Amount consists of the following elements: (1) payment of the Individual Class Payments to the Participating Class Members; (2) Class Counsel Fees
Payment and Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment; (3) Administration Expenses Payment; (4)

1 the Class Representative Service Payment to the Plaintiff; and (5) the PAGA Penalties payment, which 2 is to be allocated 25% to the Aggrieved Employees and 75% to the LWDA. (Agreement at ¶ 1.22.) 3 The Gross Settlement Amount does not include Defendant's share of employer-side payroll taxes which 4 will be paid separately and not out of the Gross Settlement Amount. (Agreement at ¶ 3.1.) The Gross 5 Settlement Amount shall not revert to Defendant. (Agreement at ¶ 3.1.) Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶15.

6 The Agreement contains appropriate terms which have been previously approved by this Court
7 and Courts throughout California. (See Agreement at ¶¶ 1.28, 1.39, 3.2, 4.3, 5.1.) The proposed Class
8 Notice also provides the required protections for the Class to opt out, object or dispute their weeks
9 worked. (See Agreement at ¶¶ 8.5, 8.6, 8.7, and Exhibit A.) The additional details of the Settlement 10 are addressed in the Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶¶ 16-22. As set forth in the accompanying proof of service, 11 the LWDA has been served with this motion and the Agreement.

12 III. CASE BACKGROUND

13 The description of the case and claims, along with the procedural history is set forth in the 14 Declaration of Kyle Nordrehaug at ¶¶ 7-14. The Parties engaged in thorough investigation and the 15 exchange of documents and information in connection with the Action for more than one year which 16 permitted Class Counsel to perform a thorough analysis of the claims. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶¶ 10, 14.
17 The Parties participated in a mediation on May 19, 2025 with Jason Marsili, which after arms' length 18 negotiations during and after the mediation, resulted in this Settlement. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶12.

19 IV. THE SETTLEMENT MEETS THE CRITERIA NECESSARY FOR THIS COURT TO GRANT PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

20 California "[p]ublic policy generally favors the compromise of complex class action litigation."
21 Nordstrom Comm'n Cases, 186 Cal. App. 4th 576, 581 (2010) quoting Cellphone Termination Fee 22 Cases, 180 Cal.App.4th 1110, 1117-18 (2009). Class action settlements are approved where the 23 proposed settlement is "fair, adequate and reasonable." Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 24 1801 (1996) (citing Officers for Justice v. Civil Serv. Comm'n, 688 F.2d 615, 625 (9th Cir. 1982), cert.
25 denied, 459 U.S. 1217 (1983)).

26 Preliminary approval is the first of three steps that comprise the approval procedure for 27 settlements of class actions. The second step is the dissemination of notice of the settlement to all class 28

1 members. The third step is a final settlement approval hearing, at which evidence and argument 2 concerning the fairness, adequacy, and reasonableness of the settlement may be presented, and class 3 members may be heard regarding the settlement. See Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 4 1801 (1996); Manual for Complex Litigation, Second §30.44 (1993); Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.769.

5 The primary question presented on an application for preliminary approval of a proposed class 6 action settlement is whether the proposed settlement is “within the range of possible approval.”
7 Manual for Complex Litigation, Second §30.44 at 229; Gautreaux v. Pierce, 690 F.2d 616, 621 n.3 (7th 8 Cir. 1982).² Preliminary approval is merely the prerequisite to giving notice so that “the proposed 9 settlement... may be submitted to members of the prospective Class for their acceptance or rejection.”
10 Sayaman v. Baxter Healthcare Corp., 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 151997, *3 (C.D. Cal. 2010). There is 11 “a presumption of fairness . . . where . . . [a] settlement is reached through arms-length bargaining.”
12 Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91 Cal. App. 4th 224, 245 (2001) (citation omitted); see also Cho 13 v. Seagate Tech. Holdings, Inc., 177 Cal. App. 4th 734, 742-45 (2009) (upholding trial court’s 14 determination that settlement was “fair, reasonable and adequate” where the settlement “provided 15 valuable benefits to the class . . . that were ‘particularly valuable in light of the risks plaintiff would 16 have faced if she proceeded to litigate her case.’”); Newberg, 3d Ed., §11.41, p.11-88. However, the 17 ultimate question of whether the proposed settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate is made after 18 notice of the settlement to the class members and a final settlement hearing is held by the Court.

19 A. The Role Of The Court In Preliminary Approval Of A Class Action Settlement

20 The approval of a proposed settlement of a class action suit is a matter within the broad 21 discretion of the trial court. Wershba, supra, 91 Cal. App.4th at 234-235; Dunk, 48 Cal. App. 4th 22 1794. In considering a potential settlement for preliminary approval purposes, the trial court does not 23 have to reach any ultimate conclusions on the issues of fact and law which underlie the merits of the 24 dispute, and need not engage in a trial on the merits. Wershba, supra, 91 Cal. App. 4th at 239-40;

25
26 ² California courts look to federal authority on class actions. Vasquez v. Superior Court, 4 Cal.3d 27 800, 821 (1971). “It is well established that in the absence of relevant state precedents trial courts are 28 urged to follow the procedures prescribed in Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for conducting class actions.” Frazier v. City of Richmond, 184 Cal. App.3d 1491, 1499 (1986), citing Green v. Obledo, 29 Cal.3d 126, 145-146 (1981).

1 Dunk, supra, 48 Cal. App. 4th at 1807. The Ninth Circuit explained that, “the very essence of a 2 settlement is compromise, ‘a yielding of absolutes and an abandoning of highest hopes.’” Officers for 3 Justice, 688 F.2d at 624. Thus, when analyzing the settlement, the amount is “not to be judged against 4 a hypothetical or speculative measure of what might have been achieved by the negotiators.” Officers
5 for Justice, 688 F.2d at 625, 628.

6 With regard to class action settlements, the opinions of counsel should be given considerable 7 weight both because of counsel’s familiarity with this litigation and previous experience with cases
8 such as these. Officers for Justice, 688 F.2d at 625. As a result, courts hold that the recommendation
9 of counsel is entitled to significant weight. Nat’l Rural Telecomms. Coop. v. DIRECTV, Inc., 221
10 F.R.D. 523, 528 (C.D. Cal. 2004).

11 B. Factors To Be Considered In Granting Preliminary Approval

12 A number of factors are to be considered in evaluating a settlement for purposes of preliminary 13 approval. In determining whether to grant preliminary approval, the court considers whether “(1) the 14 proposed settlement appears to be the product of serious, informed, non-collusive negotiations, (2) has 15 no obvious deficiencies, (3) does not improperly grant preferential treatment to class representatives 16 or segments of the class, and (4) falls within the range of possible approval.” In re Tableware Antitrust 17 Litig., 484 F. Supp. 2d 1078, 1079 (N.D. Cal. 2007). Courts hold that “a presumption of fairness exists 18 where: (1) the settlement is reached through arm’s-length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery 19 are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar 20 litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small.” Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.
21 App. 4th 116, 128 (2008). Here, the Settlement meets all of the applicable criteria for preliminary 22 approval and therefore the presumption applies.

23 1. The Settlement is the Product of Serious, Informed and 24 Arm’s Length Negotiations by Experienced Counsel

25 This settlement is the result of hard-fought litigation negotiations before an experienced and 26 well-respected mediator. Defendant has expressly denied and continues to deny any wrongdoing or 27 legal liability arising out of the conduct alleged in the Action. Plaintiff and Class Counsel have 28 determined that it is desirable and beneficial to the Class to resolve the Released Class Claims and

1 Released PAGA Claims as to the Aggrieved Employees. of the Class in accordance with this 2 Settlement. The Class and PAGA releases is appropriately tethered to factual allegations in the 3 Operative Complaint. (Agreement at ¶¶ 1.39, 1.40 and 6.2.)

4 Class Counsel are experienced and qualified to evaluate the class claims, the defenses asserted, 5 and the risks and benefits of trial and settlement, and Class Counsel are particularly experienced in 6 wage and hour employment class actions, as Class Counsel has previously litigated and certified similar 7 claims against other employers. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶31. The view of qualified and well-informed 8 counsel that a class action settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable is entitled to significant weight.
9 See Kullar v. Foot Locker, 168 Cal. App. 4th 116, 133 (2008) (the trial court "undoubtedly should 10 continue to place reliance on the competence and integrity of counsel, the involvement of a qualified 11 mediator, and the paucity of objectors to the settlement."); Dunk, 48 Cal. App. 4th at 1802.

12 The Parties attended an arms-length mediation session with Jason Marsili, a respected and 13 experienced mediator of wage and hour class and representative actions, in order to reach this 14 Settlement. In preparation for the mediation, Defendant provided Class Counsel with payroll, time and 15 employment data, along with other information regarding the Class Members, various internal 16 documents, and other compensation and employment-related materials. Class Counsel analyzed the 17 data with the assistance of damages expert Berger Consulting and prepared and submitted a mediation 18 brief to the mediator. The final settlement terms were negotiated and set forth in the Agreement now 19 presented for this Court's approval. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 5. Importantly, Plaintiff and Class Counsel 20 believe that this Settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate.

21 Class Counsel has conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of the class and PAGA 22 action as detailed in the Decl. Nordrehaug. Based on the Class data and their own independent 23 investigation, evaluation and experience, Class Counsel believes that the settlement with Defendant 24 on the terms set forth in the Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best interest of 25 the Class in light of all known facts and circumstances, including the risk of significant delay, defenses 26 asserted by Defendant, and potential appellate issues. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶ 14. Plaintiff and Class 27 Counsel recognize the risks, expense and length of continuing to litigate and trying this Action against 28 Defendant and then litigating possible appeals which could take several years. Plaintiff and Class

1 Counsel have determined that the Settlement set forth in the Agreement is in the best interest of the 2 Class Members. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶ 23.

3 Here, there can be no dispute that the litigation has been hard-fought with aggressive and 4 capable advocacy on both sides. The Parties were represented by experienced and capable counsel who 5 zealously advocated their positions. Accordingly, “[t]here is likewise every reason to conclude that 6 settlement negotiations were vigorously conducted at arms’ length and without any suggestion of undue 7 influence.” In re Wash. Public Power Supply Sec. Litig., 720 F. Supp. 1379, 1392 (D. Ariz 1989).

8 2. The Settlement Has No "Obvious Deficiencies" and Falls Well Within 9 the Range for Approval

10 The proposed Settlement herein has no “obvious deficiencies” and is well within the range of 11 possible approval. All Class Members will receive an opportunity to participate in the Settlement and 12 receive payment according to the same formula. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(e).) Based upon 67 Class 13 Members who worked an estimated 5,294 work weeks (Agreement at ¶ 4.1), the Gross Settlement 14 Amount provides an average value of $3,134 per Class Member and $39 per workweek and after 15 deductions the Net Settlement Amount provides an average recovery of $1,291.04 per Class Member 16 and a recovery of $16.33 per workweek. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶6.

17 The calculations to compensate for the amount due for the Class at the time of the mediation 18 were calculated by Berger Consulting, Plaintiff’s damage expert. As to the Class whose claims are at 19 issue in this Action, Plaintiffs used this expert to analyze the data and determine the potential unpaid 20 wages for the employees. The maximum potential damages were calculated to be $286,505 for the 21 alleged unpaid wages for off-the-clock work at 1 hour per week, $5,616 for the alleged underpaid 22 overtime due to the miscalculation of the regular rate, $949 for the alleged unpaid meal break premiums 23 and sick pay due to the miscalculation of the regular rate, $0 for alleged missed meal period damages 24 because the number of premiums paid exceeded the number of potential violations in the time records; 25 $792,729 for alleged rest period damages based upon a 100% violation rate for each shift worked 26 during the Class Period, $6,435 for alleged unreimbursed cell-phone expenses at $5 per month. Decl.
27 Nordrehaug, ¶6. As a result, the total damage valuation was calculated such that Defendant was subject 28 to a maximum damage claim in the amount of $1,092,234. As to potential penalties, Plaintiffs

1 calculated that potential waiting time penalties were a maximum of $51,300, and potential maximum 2 wage statement penalties were $300,110.³ Defendant vigorously disputed Plaintiff's calculations and 3 exposure theories. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶6.

4 Consequently, the Gross Settlement Amount of $210,000 represents more than 19% of the 5 maximum value of the alleged damages at issue in this case at the time this Settlement was negotiated.⁴
6 Importantly, the recent decision that good faith belief of compliance by the employer in Naranjo v.
7 Spectrum Sec. Servs., Inc., 15 Cal. 5th 1056, 1065 (2024), could completely negate the claims for 8 waiting time and wage statement penalties, even if wages were owed to the Class. The above 9 maximum calculations should then be realistically risk-adjusted in consideration for both the risk of 10 class certification and class-wide liability on all claims. Given the amount of the settlement as 11 compared to the potential value of claims in this case and the defenses asserted by Defendant, this 12 settlement is fair and reasonable.⁵ Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶6.

13 Where both sides face significant uncertainty, the attendant risks favor settlement. Hanlon v.
14 Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1026 (9th Cir. 1998). Here, a number of defenses asserted by 15 Defendant present serious threats to the claims of the Plaintiff and the other Class Members. Some of 16

17 ³ While Plaintiffs alleged claims for statutory penalties pursuant to Labor Code Sections 203 and 18 226, at mediation Plaintiffs recognized that these claims were subject to additional, separate defenses 19 asserted by Defendant, including, a good faith dispute defense as to whether any premium wages for 20 meal or rest periods or other wages were owed given Defendant's position that Plaintiff and Class
21 Members were properly compensated. See Nordstrom Commission Cases, 186 Cal. App. 4th 576, 584 22 (2010) ("There is no willful failure to pay wages if the employer and employee have a good faith 23 dispute as to whether and when the wages were due.").

24 ⁴ Because the PAGA claim is not a class claim and primarily is paid to the State of California, 25 Plaintiffs has not included the PAGA claim in her discussion of the value of the class claims. The 26 PAGA claim is addressed in the Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶33.

27 ⁵ See Glass v. UBS Fin. Servs., 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 8476 (N.D. Cal. 2007) (approving a 28 settlement where the settlement amount constituted approximately 25% of the estimated overtime damages for the class); Stovall-Gusman v. W.W. Granger, Inc., 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78671, at *12 (N.D. Cal. 2015) (granting final approval where the settlement "represents approximately 10% of what class might have been awarded had they succeeded at trial."); Viceral v. Mistras Grp., Inc., 2016 WL 5907869 (N.D. Cal. 2016) (approving wage and hour class action settlement amounting to 8.1% of full value); Ma v. Covidien Holding, Inc., 2014 WL 2472316, (C.D. Cal. 2014) (approving wage and hour class action settlement worth "somewhere between 9% and 18%" of maximum valuation).

1 those include the following: Defendant asserted that its wage and hour policies and procedures in effect 2 during the Class Period were legally compliant and easily digestible, with Defendant not only using 3 straightforward language to relay such policies, but also charts (such as for its meal period and rest 4 break policies) to ensure full understanding by its employees. Defendant argued, as to all alleged off-
5 the-clock work, that Class Members were paid for all time worked and that work time was properly 6 recorded. Indeed, Defendant noted that it paid Class Members significant amounts of overtime and 7 doubletime wages during the Class Period, at least circumstantially indicating payment for all time 8 worked and/or that any supposed off-the-clock work was nominal or unknown to it. Defendant also 9 maintained there was no miscalculation of the regular rate resulting in the underpayment of wages, 10 arguing that the bonuses reflected in a handful of Class Members' wage statements were discretionary.
11 Moreover, Defendant contends that its meal and rest period policies fully complied with California law 12 and that Defendant did not fail to provide the opportunity for legally required meal and rest breaks.
13 Defendant also argued that its payment of significant meal period premiums is evidence of its lawful 14 practices, especially with there being an "overpayment" of premiums (with Defendant potentially being 15 able to argue that the premium wages that could not be tethered to meal period violations found in the 16 time records, were actually paid to cover and compensate for rest break violations). Further, Defendant 17 contends that there was no failure to pay for business expenses, arguing that Plaintiff's claim of 18 personal cell phone use not being reimbursed was undermined by Plaintiff's and other Class Members' 19 wage statements reflecting a monthly cellular telephone reimbursement equating to around $180 per 20 year, that there was uniform reimbursement, and that the Class Members did not drive their personal 21 vehicles to customer locations. Finally, Defendant argued that the Supreme Court decision in Brinker
22 v. Superior Court, 53 Cal. 4th 1004 (2012), weakened Plaintiff's claims, on liability, value, and class
23 certifiability as to the meal and rest period claims. Defendant also argued that based on its facially 24 lawful practices, Defendant acted in good faith and without willfulness, which if accepted would negate 25 the claims for waiting time penalties and/or inaccurate wage statements. See e.g. Naranjo v. Spectrum 26 Sec. Servs., Inc., 15 Cal. 5th 1056, 1065 (2024) ("if an employer reasonably and in good faith believed 27 it was providing a complete and accurate wage statement in compliance with the requirements of 28 section 226, then it has not knowingly and intentionally failed to comply with the wage statement

1 law.”) If successful, Defendant’s defenses could eliminate or substantially reduce any recovery to the 2 Class. While Plaintiff believes that these defenses could be overcome, Defendant maintains these 3 defenses have merit and therefore present a serious risk to recovery by the Class. See Decl.
4 Nordrehaug, ¶ 24 which has additional details as well.

5 There was also a significant risk that, if the Action was not settled, Plaintiff would be unable 6 to certify a class and maintain that certification through trial, and thereby not recover on behalf of any 7 employees other than themselves. At the time of the mediation, Defendant forcefully opposed the 8 propriety of class certification, arguing that individual issues precluded class certification. Further, as 9 demonstrated by the California Supreme Court decision in Duran v. U.S. Bank National Assn., 59 Cal.
10 4th 1 (2014), there are significant hurdles to overcome for a class-wide recovery even where the class
11 has been certified. While other cases have approved class certification in wage and hour claims, class 12 certification in this action was hotly disputed and the maintenance of a certified class through trial was 13 by no means a foregone conclusion. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶ 25.

14 After arm’s length negotiations between experienced and informed counsel, the Parties 15 recognized the potential risks and agreed on the Settlement with a Gross Settlement Amount of 16 $210,000. As the Court held in Glass, where the parties faced uncertainties similar to those here:

17 In light of the above-referenced uncertainty in the law, the risk, expense, complexity, 18 and likely duration of further litigation likewise favors the settlement. Regardless of 19 how this Court might have ruled on the merits of the legal issues, the losing party likely would have appealed, and the parties would have faced the expense and uncertainty of litigating an appeal.

21 3. The Settlement Does Not Improperly Grant Preferential Treatment To 22 Class Representatives or Segments Of The Class

23 The relief provided in the Settlement will benefit all members of the Class. The Settlement does 24 not grant preferential treatment to Plaintiff or segments of the Class in any way. Payments to the Class 25 Members are all determined under a neutral methodology. Each Participating Class Member will 26 receive the same opportunity to participate in and receive payment through a neutral formula that is 27 based upon the Workweeks for that individual. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶4.

28 Plaintiff will apply to the Court for a Class Representative Service Payment in consideration

1 for her service and for the risks undertaken on behalf of the Class. (Agreement at ¶ 3.2(a).) Plaintiff 2 performed her duties admirably by working with Class Counsel over the course of litigation, and is 3 giving a general release for this service award. The Declarations of the Plaintiff is submitted herewith 4 in support. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶27. At this stage, the requested service award is within the range of 5 reasonableness for purposes of preliminary approval. See e.g. Andrews v. Plains All Am. Pipeline L.P., 6 2022 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 172183, at *11 (C.D. Cal. 2022) (service awards of $15,000 each are 7 appropriate); Louie v. Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Inc., 2008 WL 4473183, *7 (S.D.Cal. 2008)
8 (awarding $25,000 service award); Reynolds v. Direct Flow Med., Inc., 2019 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 149865, 9 at *19 (N.D. Cal. 2019) (granting request for $12,500 service award); Mathein v. Pier 1 Imps. (U.S.), 10 Inc., 2018 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 71386 (E.D. Cal. 2018) (awarding $12,500). As explained in Glass, 11 service awards are routinely awarded to compensate for the time and effort expended on the case, for 12 the risk of litigation, for the fear of suing an employer and retaliation there from, and to serve as an 13 incentive to vindicate the statutory rights of all employees. 2007 WL 221862 at *16-17.

14 4. The Stage Of The Proceedings Are Sufficiently Advanced To Permit 15 Preliminary Approval Of The Settlement

16 The stage of the proceedings at which this Settlement was reached also militates in favor of 17 preliminary approval and ultimately, final approval of the Settlement. Class Counsel has conducted 18 a thorough investigation into the facts of the class action. Class Counsel engaged in informal discovery 19 to obtain necessary information. Class Counsel conducted a review and analysis of the relevant 20 documents and data with the assistance of an expert. Class Counsel was also experienced with these 21 claims. Accordingly, the agreement to settle did not occur until Class Counsel possessed sufficient 22 information to make an informed judgment regarding the likelihood of success on the merits and the 23 results that could be obtained through further litigation. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶28.

24 Based on the foregoing data and their own independent investigation and evaluation, Class 25 Counsel is of the opinion that the Settlement with Defendant for the consideration and on the terms set 26 forth in the Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is in the best interest of the Class in light 27 of all known facts and circumstances, including the risk of significant delay, defenses asserted by 28 Defendant, and numerous potential appellate issues. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶29.

1 V. THE CLASS IS PROPERLY CERTIFIED FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES ONLY

2 Plaintiff contends that the proposed settlement meet all of the requirements for class 3 certification under California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 as demonstrated below, and therefore, the 4 Court may appropriately approve the Class as defined in the Agreement. This Court should 5 conditionally certify the Class for settlement purposes only, defined as follows:

6 All individuals who are or were employed by Defendant as a non-exempt employee in 7 the State of California at any time during the Class Period.

8 (Agreement at ¶ 1.5.)

9 The Class Period is from February 9, 2020 through December 22, 2023. (Agreement at ¶ 1.13).

10 A. California Code of Civil Procedure § 382

11 Plaintiff seeks certification of this Class for settlement purposes under California Code of Civil 12 Procedure § 382. The California Supreme Court explained the standard for determining whether class 13 certification is appropriate as follows:

14 Code of Civil Procedure Section 382 authorizes class actions “when the question is one 15 of a common or general interest, of many persons, or when the parties are numerous, 16 and it is impracticable to bring them all before the court....” The “community of interest” requirement embodies three factors: (1) predominant common questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class.

17 Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc. v. Superior Court, 34 Cal. 4th 319, 326 (2004).

18 While Defendant reserves all rights to dispute that the Plaintiff can satisfy these requirements, 19 the Parties agree that Defendant will not dispute that these requirements may be satisfied in this case 20 for purposes of settlement only and therefore, the proposed Class should be certified for purposes of 21 settlement only. (Agreement at ¶ 2.10.)

22 B. The Proposed Class Is Ascertainable and Numerous

23 Plaintiffs brings this Action on behalf of a Class of non-exempt employees of the Defendant
24 during the Class Period. Plaintiff asserts that all of these individuals are ascertainable because the class
25 members can readily be determined through examination of Defendant’s files. Given that the Class 26 consists of approximately 67 individuals, Plaintiff maintains that numerosity is clearly satisfied. See 27 Bowles v. Superior Court, 44 Cal.2d 574 (1955) (class with 10 members); Rose v. City of Hayward, 28 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934 (1981) (class of 48 members satisfies numerosity requirement.) Here,

1 Plaintiff asserts that the 67 current and former workers that comprise the Class can be identified based 2 on Defendant's records and are sufficiently numerous for class certification. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶30.

3 C. Common Issues of Law and Fact Predominate

4 Predominance of common issues of law or fact does not require that the common issues be 5 dispositive of the entire controversy or even that they be dispositive of all liability issues. 1 Newberg 6 on Class Actions, Section 4.25 at 4-82, 4-83 (1992). "Predominance is a comparative concept, and 'the 7 necessity for class members to individually establish eligibility and damages does not mean individual 8 fact questions predominate.'" Sav-On, 34 Cal. 4th at 334.

9 Commonality exists if there is a predominant common legal question regarding how an 10 employer's policies impact its employees. Ghazaryan v. Diva Limousine, Ltd., 169 Cal. App. 4th 1524, 11 1536 (2008) ("[T]he common legal question remains the overall impact of Diva's policies on its 12 drivers.") Whether the plaintiff is likely to prevail on their theory of recovery is irrelevant at the 13 certification stage since the question is "essentially a procedural one that does not ask whether an action 14 is legally or factually meritorious." Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co., 23 Cal. 4th 429, 439-440 (2003).

15 Here, Plaintiff contends that common questions of law and fact are present, specifically the 16 common questions of whether Defendant's practices were lawful, whether Defendant failed to provide 17 meal and rest periods to Class Members, whether Class Members were lawfully compensated for all 18 hours worked, whether Defendant miscalculated the regular rate when paying overtime, meal premiums 19 and/or sick pay, whether Defendant failed to provide required expense reimbursement, and whether 20 Class Members are entitled to damages and penalties as a result of these practices. Plaintiff contends 21 that certification of this Class is appropriate because Defendant allegedly engaged in uniform practices 22 with respect to the Class Members. As a result, these common questions of liability could be answered 23 on a class wide basis. Decl. Nordrehaug, ¶30. Defendant disputes that common questions predominate 24 but will not oppose such a finding for purposes of this Settlement only.

25 D. The Claims of the Plaintiff Are Typical of the Class Claims

26 The typicality requirement requires the Plaintiff to demonstrate that the members of the Class 27 have the same or similar claims as the Plaintiff. "The typicality requirement is met when the claims 28 of the [p]laintiff arise from the same event or are based on the same legal theories." Tate v.

1 Weyerhaeuser Co., 723 F.2d 598, 608 (8th Cir. 1983). In Hanlon, supra, 150 F.3d at 1020, the Ninth 2 Circuit held that “[u]nder the rule’s permissive standards, representative claims are ‘typical’ if they are 3 reasonably coextensive with those of absent class members; they need not be substantially identical.”

4 In this Action, Plaintiff contends that the typicality requirement is fully satisfied. Plaintiff, like 5 every other member of the Class, was employed by Defendant as a non-exempt employee, and, like 6 every other member of the Class, was subject to the same employment policies and practices. Plaintiff, 7 like every other member of the Class, also claims owed compensation as a result of the Defendant’s 8 allegedly uniform company policies and practices. Thus, the claims of Plaintiff and the members of 9 the Class arise from the same course of conduct by Defendant, involve the same issues, and are based 10 on the same legal theories. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶30. Plaintiff asserts that the typicality requirement 11 is met as to the common issues presented in this case. Defendant disputes that the typicality 12 requirement is satisfied but do not oppose a finding of typicality for purposes of this Settlement only.

13 E. The Class Representation Fairly and Adequately Protected the Class

14 Plaintiff contends that the Class Members are adequately represented here because Plaintiff and 15 Class Counsel (a) do not have any conflicts of interest with other class members, and (b) will prosecute 16 the case vigorously on behalf of the class. Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1020. This requirement is met here.
17 First, Plaintiff is well aware of her duties as the representatives of the Class and has actively 18 participated in the prosecution of this case to date. Plaintiff effectively communicated with Class 19 Counsel, provided documents and information to Class Counsel, and participated in the investigation 20 and resolution of the Action. The personal involvement of the Plaintiff was essential to the prosecution 21 of the Action and the monetary settlement reached. Second, Plaintiff retained competent counsel who 22 are experienced in employment class and representative actions and who have no conflicts. Decl.
23 Nordrehaug at ¶ 31. Third, there is no antagonism between the interests of the Plaintiff and those of 24 the Class. Both the Plaintiff and the Class Members seek monetary relief under the same set of facts 25 and legal theories. Under such circumstances, there can be no conflicts of interest, and adequacy of 26 representation is satisfied. Reaves v. Ketoro, Inc., 2020 U.S. Dist. Lexis 167926, *23 (C.D. Cal. 2020).

27 F. The Superiority Requirement Is Met

28 To certify a class, the Court must also determine that a class action is superior to other available

1 methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy. As the Supreme Court has explained:

2 Absent class treatment, each individual plaintiff would present in separate, duplicative 3 proceedings the same or essentially the same arguments and evidence, including expert 4 testimony. The result would be a multiplicity of trials conducted at enormous expense 5 to both the judicial system and the litigants.

6 Sav-On, 34 Cal. 4th at 340.

7 Here, Plaintiff contends that a class action is the superior mechanism for resolution of the 8 claims as pled by the Plaintiff. While Defendant disputes that the superiority requirement is satisfied, 9 Defendant does not dispute a finding of superiority for purposes of this Settlement only.

10 VI. THE PROPOSED METHOD OF CLASS NOTICE IS APPROPRIATE

11 The Court has broad discretion in approving a practical notice program. 7- Eleven Owners for 12 Fair Franchising v. Southland Corp., 85 Cal. App. 4th 1135, 1164 (2000). The Parties have agreed 13 upon procedures by which the Class Members will be provided with written notice of the Settlement
14 similar to that approved and utilized in hundreds of class action settlements and the Class Notice 15 includes all relevant information. (See Exhibit "A" to the Agreement.) Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶32. The 16 Class Notice will explain that the Class Members shall have forty-five (45) days from the date that the 17 Class Notice is mailed to them (the "Response Deadline") to request exclusion (opt-out) or to submit 18 a written objection. (Agreement at ¶¶ 1.43, 8.5, 8.7.) Class Members shall be given the opportunity 19 to object to the Settlement and/or the attorneys' fees and expenses, and to appear at the Final Approval 20 Hearing. (Agreement at ¶ 8.7.) This notice program was designed to meaningfully reach the Class 21 Members providing notice of all pertinent information concerning the Settlement, and is the best notice 22 practicable in compliance with Rules of Court 3.766 and 3.769(f).. Decl. Nordrehaug at ¶32.

23 VII. CONCLUSION

24 Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court preliminarily approve the proposed settlement and 25 sign the proposed Preliminary Approval Order, which is submitted herewith, and schedule the final 26 approval hearing for the proposed date of May 28, 2026.
