1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff seeks approval of the Settlement Agreement entered between Plaintiff and 4 Defendants Blizzard Entertainment, Inc., Activision Blizzard, Inc., Activision Blizzard Media,
5 LLC, Activision Blizzard Shared Services, Inc., Activision Blizzard Studios, LLC, and Activision
6 Publishing, Inc. (“Defendant”). Plaintiff entered the Settlement Agreement on behalf of Plaintiff
7 and all current and former non-exempt or hourly-paid employees of Blizzard Entertainment, Inc.
8 or Activision Blizzard, Inc. within the State of California at any time during the period from March 9 20, 2023, through December 31, 2025.

10 II. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

11 On October 26, 2023, Plaintiff provided a written notice to the California Labor and 12 Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and Defendant. On May 24, 2024, Plaintiff filed a
13 representative Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”) action against Defendant.¹

14 After engaging in discovery, investigations, and negotiation, on October 30, 2025, the 15 Parties attended mediation with the mediator Hon. S. James Otero (Ret.) but were unable to 16 negotiate a settlement at the time. After continued negotiations with the mediator’s assistance, the 17 Parties negotiated a tentative settlement.²

18 In line with the settlement, on January 13, 2026, Plaintiff provided an amended written 19 notice to the LWDA and Defendant. Pursuant to the settlement, on February 10, 2026, Plaintiff
20 also filed a First Amended Complaint.³

28 ³ (Id. at ¶ 10; Exhibits, 10, 11.)

1 III. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT TERMS

2 A. Allocation of the Gross Settlement Amount

3 The Settlement Agreement provides that Defendant will pay a non-reversionary Gross
4 Settlement Amount of $290,000. The PAGA Penalties Fund will be the Gross Settlement Amount
5 less: (1) Plaintiff’s Counsel Fees Payment of $101,500; (2) Plaintiff’s Counsel Litigation
6 Expenses Payment of $19,691.61; (3) Service Payment of $5,000; and (4) Administration
7 Expenses Payment of $10,000.⁴

8 The current amount of the PAGA Penalties Fund is estimated to be $153,808.39. Seventy-
9 five percent (75%) of the PAGA Penalties Fund will be transmitted to the LWDA as the LWDA
10 Payment pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(i). The remaining twenty-five percent (25%) of 11 the PAGA Penalties Fund will be distributed to the Aggrieved Employees.⁵

12 B. Distribution of the PAGA Penalties Fund

13 Defendant shall provide the Administrator with a list of the Aggrieved Employees in the 14 manner and timeline set forth in the Agreement. The Gross Settlement Amount will be deposited 15 into a qualified settlement fund created by the Administrator and will be disbursed to the 16 appropriate entities and persons in the manner and timeline set forth in the Agreement. The 17 uncashed settlement checks will be directed to the California State Controller for deposit in the 18 Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Aggrieved Employee.⁶

19 C. The Scope of the Release in the Settlement Agreement

20 Upon Defendant’s funding of the Gross Settlement Amount, Plaintiff, LWDA, and all the 21 Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release, on behalf of themselves and their former and present
22 representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, the Released
23 Parties from all the claims for the PAGA penalties that were alleged, or could have been alleged,
24 based on the facts stated in the operative complaint and PAGA Notices and that occurred during

3 such, “represents the same legal right and interest as state labor law enforcement agencies”].)
4 A judgment in a PAGA action “binds not only that [plaintiff] employee but also the state labor
5 law enforcement agencies.” (Ibid.) Furthermore, “[b]ecause an aggrieved employee’s action
6 under [PAGA] functions as a substitute for an action brought by the government itself, a judgment 7 in that action binds all those, including nonparty aggrieved employees, who would be bound by 8 a judgment in an action brought by the government.” (Ibid.) “Accordingly, with respect to the 9 recovery of civil penalties, nonparty employees as well as the government are bound by the 10 judgment in an action brought under [PAGA]” (Ibid.)

11 D. No Right to Object to or Opt Out of the Settlement

18 PAGA because absent employees do not own a personal claim for PAGA civil penalties and

27 ///

28 ⁷ (Settlement Agreement, supra, at § 9.)₁₂

Consistent with this law, the Settlement Agreement does not have a procedure for the Aggrieved Employees to object to or exclude themselves from the Settlement Agreement.

IV. STANDARD FOR APPROVAL OF PAGA SETTLEMENT

The PAGA allows an “aggrieved employee” to bring a civil action on behalf of himself, other aggrieved employees, and State of California to recover civil penalties with respect to provisions of the Labor Code that do not provide for civil penalties. Before bringing a civil action under PAGA, an employee must comply with Labor Code section 2699.3. (Lab. Code § 2699(a).) A court “may award a lesser amount than the maximum civil penalty amount specified by this part if, based on the facts and circumstances of the particular case, to do otherwise would result in an award that is unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory.” (Id. at § 2699(e)(2).)

The settlement of a PAGA claim requires court approval. (Lab. Code § 2699(l)(2).) “A PAGA claim asserted on a non-class representative basis . . . is not considered a class action but a law enforcement action” and does not have to meet the requirements of a class action. (Casida v. Sears Holdings Corp. (E.D. Cal. Jan. 26, 2012) 2012 WL 253217, at *3; Thomas v. Aetna Health of Cal., Inc. (E.D. Cal. June 2, 2011) 2011 WL 2173715, at *11; Arias v. Sup. Ct., supra, 46 Cal.4th at pp. 980-988 (affirming lower court’s holding that “plaintiff need not satisfy class action requirements” to assert a PAGA claim); Pedroza v PetSmart, Inc. (C.D. Cal. Jan. 28, 2013) 2013 WL 1490667, at *15.) A court’s review of a PAGA settlement involves analysis of several unique features that render the approval process distinct from approval of a class action settlement. A court reviewing a PAGA settlement only needs to “ensur[e] that a negotiated resolution is fair to those affected.” (Williams v. Sup. Ct., supra, 3 Cal.5th at p. 549 (citing Lab. Code § 2699(l)(2)).) The Court of Appeal has held that “a trial court should evaluate a PAGA settlement to determine whether it is fair, reasonable, and adequate in view of PAGA’s purposes to remediate present labor law violations, deter future ones, and to maximize enforcement of state labor laws.” (Moniz v. Adecco USA, Inc. (2021) 72 Cal.App.5th 56, 77.)

1 The Court’s focus is on whether the total settlement amount achieves PAGA’s objectives.
2 PAGA’s purpose “to incentivize private parties to recover civil penalties for the government that
3 otherwise may not have been assessed and collected by overburdened state enforcement
4 agencies.” (Ochoa-Hernandez, supra, 2010 WL 3570777, at *4 (citing Arias v. Sup. Ct., supra, 5 46 Cal.4th at p. 986).) The penalties recovered under the PAGA are, in part, to “be distributed to 6 the [LWDA] for enforcement of labor laws . . . and for education of employers and employees 7 about their rights and responsibilities under this code, to be continuously appropriated to 8 supplement and not supplant the funding to the agency for those purposes.” (Lab. Code § 2699(j).)

9 V. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR AND SHOULD BE APPROVED.

10 A. The Factors Giving Rise to a Presumption of Fairness Exist.

11 A settlement agreement that is “the product of extensive and hard-fought adversarial 12 negotiations between the parties” is entitled to a presumption of fairness. (Wershba v. Apple
13 Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 245.)

14 The Court should give considerable weight to the competency, experience, and opinion
15 of counsel and the involvement of a neutral mediator in assuring that the Settlement is a product
16 of hard-fought negotiations that was entered without collusion. (Kirkorian v. Borelli (N.D. Cal.
17 1988) 695 F.Supp. 446, 451 (opinion of experienced counsel is entitled to considerable weight); 18 Boyd v. Bechtel Corp. (N.D. Cal. 1979) 485 F.Supp. 610, 616-617, 622 (recommendations of 19 Plaintiff’s Counsel should be given a presumption of reasonableness); see also Satchell v. Fed.
20 Express Corp. (N.D. Cal. Apr. 13, 2007) 2007 WL 1114010, at *4 (stating the “assistance of an 21 experienced mediator in the settlement process confirms that the settlement is non-collusive”).)
22 The Settlement Agreement is presumptively fair. This is because the Settlement Agreement: (1) 23 is the product of non-collusive, arm’s-length negotiations; (2) was negotiated by counsel with 24 experience in similar wage-and-hour litigation; and (3) occurred after counsel engaged in 25 thorough investigation of the strengths of this case and risks of continued litigation.

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

1 calculating the PAGA penalties. Plaintiff also recognized the risk that any PAGA award could be 2 reduced, meaning that the Gross Settlement Amount for PAGA penalties was reasonable. When 3 PAGA penalties are negotiated in good faith and “there is no indication that [the] amount was the 4 result of self-interest at the expense of other Class Members,” such amounts are generally
5 considered reasonable. (Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc. (N.D. Cal. Apr. 3, 2009) No. 08-00844,
6 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 33900 at *24; see e.g. Nordstrom Com. Cases (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th
7 576, 579 (“[T]rial court did not abuse its discretion in approving a settlement which does not
8 allocate any damages to the PAGA claims.”).)¹⁰

9 C. The Settlement Avoids Risky, Complex, and Lengthy Litigation.

10 The courts favor voluntary conciliation and settlement of complex litigation. (Class
11 Plaintiffs v. City of Seattle (9th Cir. 1992) 955 F.2d 1268, 1276.) Generally, “unless the settlement
12 is clearly inadequate, its acceptance and approval are preferable to lengthy and expensive
13 litigation with uncertain results.” (Nat’l Rural Telecomms. Coop. v. DIRECTV, Inc. (C.D. Cal.
14 Jan. 5, 2004) 221 F.R.D. 523, 526 (citation omitted).)

15 The Parties utilized the pre-mediation period to investigate the veracity, strength, and 16 scope of the PAGA claim. The Parties conducted discovery and exchanged documents to mediate 17 the claims related to the Labor Code violations and relevant defenses, as well as to assess the 18 potential value and strength of the PAGA claim. Plaintiff’s Counsel determined that pursuing a 19 settlement was preferable to taking the uncertain and potentially risky trial route. Even if a similar 20 settlement could have been negotiated down the line, it would have been significantly diminished
21 by additional costs and expenses incurred. Thus, the Settlement provides immediate recovery
22 rather than the mere possibility of recovery at an unspecified future date.¹¹

23 ///

24 ///

25 ///

26 ¹⁰ (Han Decl., supra, at ¶¶ 24-27.)

27 ¹¹ (Id. at ¶¶ 11-15.)

1 D. The Settlement Is Fair, Adequate, and Reasonable.

2 “[T]he very essence of a settlement is compromise, ‘a yielding of absolutes and an
3 abandoning of highest hopes.’” (Officers for Justice v. Civil Serv. Comm’n (9th Cir. 1981) 688
4 F.2d 615, 624.) “The proposed settlement is not to be judged against a hypothetical or speculative
5 measure of what might have been achieved by the negotiators.” (Id. at p. 625.)

6 The Settlement Agreement provides a reasonable monetary benefit to the LWDA and 7 Aggrieved Employees. The proposed plan of allocation of the PAGA Penalties Fund to the 8 LWDA and Aggrieved Employees fully complies with Labor Code section 2699(i). Furthermore,
9 Plaintiff and Plaintiff’s Counsel acknowledge the expense, duration, risk, and uncertainty
10 associated with the continued proceedings required to litigate this dispute. As previously
11 mentioned, to recover civil penalties, Plaintiff would need to demonstrate that the Aggrieved
12 Employees experienced the underlying Labor Code violations and that Defendant’s actions
13 resulted in the penalties. This process could extend over several months or even years. Plaintiff
14 and Plaintiff’s Counsel have also considered Defendant’s agreement to settle in a manner that 15 provides reasonable and immediate relief. Thus, Plaintiff and Plaintiff’s Counsel concluded that 16 the Settlement Agreement constitutes a fair, adequate, and reasonable resolution.¹²

17 E. Experience and Views of Plaintiff’s Counsel.

18 Plaintiff’s Counsel are experienced in complex representative and class action wage-and-
19 hour litigation. Plaintiff’s Counsel believe that the benefit offered by the Settlement Agreement
20 is fair and reasonable and in the best interests of the LWDA and Aggrieved Employees.¹³

27 ¹³ (Id. at ¶¶ 2-7; Exhibit 1.)

1 VI. APPROVAL OF THE PLAINTIFF'S COUNSEL FEES PAYMENT.

2 A. A Fee Award of a Percentage of the Entire Fund is Appropriate.

3 The Settlement Agreement provides for the payment of Plaintiff's Counsel Fees Payment
4 of $101,500 (35% of the Gross Settlement Amount) to Plaintiff's Counsel. The Plaintiff's
5 Counsel Fees Payment is commensurate with the: (1) risks undertaken; (2) time, effort, and 6 expense dedicated to this lawsuit; (3) skills and determination shown; (4) results achieved; and 7 (5) other cases turned down.

8 The propriety of calculating and awarding attorneys' fees as a percentage of a monetary
9 fund preserved or recovered for the benefit of others has been confirmed by the California
10 Supreme Court. (Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l, Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480, 486, 506.) While trial 11 courts have discretion to apply either a lodestar method or percentage of-the-fund method, the 12 California Supreme Court has taken the position that the trial courts "retain the discretion to forgo
13 a lodestar cross-check and use other means to evaluate the reasonableness of a requested 14 percentage fee[.]" and "[t]he percentage of fund method survives in California." (Ibid. (internal 15 quotes omitted); see also Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at p. 253.)

16 The percentage fee method is preferred in representative actions because "it better 17 approximates the workings of the marketplace than the lodestar approach." (Lealao v. Beneficial
18 Cal., Inc. (2000) 82 Cal.App.4th 19, 48.) California law provides that the award for attorneys' 19 fees should be equivalent to fees freely negotiated in the legal marketplace and paid in comparable 20 litigation based on the result achieved and risk incurred. (Lealao, at pp. 47, 50; Laffitte v. Robert 21 Half Int'l, Inc., supra, 1 Cal.5th at p. 503.) In cases where the agreement provides that the 22 defendant agrees to pay the attorneys a percentage of the fund created by the agreement, use of 23 that percentage method is appropriate. (Lealao, at p. 32.) The fees in class and representative 24 actions should approximate the probable terms of a contingent fee contract negotiated by a 25 sophisticated attorney and client in similar litigation. (Id. at p. 48.) "The ultimate goal ... is the 26 award of a 'reasonable' fee to compensate counsel for their efforts, irrespective of the method of 27 calculation." (Consumer Privacy Cases (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 545, 557-558.)

28 ///

1 Plaintiff's Counsel are entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees and costs as a matter
2 of right. (Lab. Code § 2699(g)(1).) Plaintiff's Counsel are entitled to fees and costs under Code
3 of Civil Procedure section 1021.5 as this case is by definition "for the benefit" of others and has 4 secured monetary awards for the Aggrieved Employees.¹⁴ The payment to the LWDA will benefit
5 the agency in enforcing labor laws and educating "employers and employees about their rights
6 and responsibilities under [the Labor Code]." (Lab. Code § 2699(i).)

7 B. The Plaintiff's Counsel Fees Payment is Reasonable Based on the Factors
8 Considered.

9 The factors courts consider in determining whether fee awards are reasonable are: (1) time 10 and labor required; (2) novelty and difficulty of the questions; (3) requisite skills to perform the 11 legal services; (4) preclusion of other employment by the attorney; (5) customary fee; (6) whether 12 the fee is fixed or contingent; (7) time limitation imposed; (8) amount involved and results
13 obtained; (9) experience, reputation and ability of the attorney; (10) undesirability of the case;
14 (11) nature and length of the professional relationship; and (12) awards in similar cases. (Camden
15 I Condo. Ass'n, Inc. v. Dunkel (11th Cir. 1991) 946 F.2d 768, 772.) It should be highlighted that 16 the percentage award sought is commensurate with the following factors: (a) results obtained; (b)
17 risks undertaken; (c) difficulty of this case; and (d) skills displayed and quality of work.

18 1. *The Results Obtained

19 The results attorneys obtain for their clients is an important factor when determining the 20 reasonability of a percentage-based fee. (Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l, Inc., supra, 1 Cal.5th at p.
21 489.) Law firms that obtain exceptional results expect those results to be reflected in their fees.

22 ///

23 ///

24 ///

26 ¹⁴ (Estrada v. FedEx Ground Package Sys. Inc. (2007) 154 Cal.App.4th 1, 16-17 27 (recognizing that recovery obtained on behalf of 209 individual satisfies the "significant benefit,"
28 "public interest," and "large class of persons" requirements of Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, regardless of plaintiff's personal motivation).)

1 The results obtained herein are reasonable as Plaintiff's Counsel obtained a settlement of 2 $290,000 without the need for extended litigation. If this case went to trial, there was no guarantee
3 that the trial would have been short or that either party would have prevailed. Even if the Parties
4 reached a similar settlement, it would have been undercut by additional expenses incurred. The 5 resolution of this dispute at this stage is preferred as the Parties were moving to a phase where 6 significant time and money would inevitably have to be spent to prepare for trial.

7 By avoiding the uncertainties associated with conducting trial and Defendant's responses
8 to the allegations, Plaintiff's Counsel obtained those results more quickly and surely than if the 9 matter had been litigated to final resolution. Under the law, this factor supports the Plaintiff's
10 Counsel Fees Payment. (Lealao v. Beneficial Cal., Inc., supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at p. 51.)

11 2. The Risks Undertaken

12 Whether or not representation is provided on a contingency basis is an important factor:

13 A contingent fee must be higher than a fee for the same legal services paid as they 14 are performed [and] [...] compensates the lawyer not only for the legal services he 15 renders but for the loan of those services. A lawyer who both bears the risk of not 16 being paid and provides legal services is not receiving the fair market value of his work if he is paid only for the second of these functions. If he is paid no more, competent counsel will be reluctant to accept fee award cases.

17 (Cates v. Chiang (2013) 213 Cal.App.4th 791, 823.)

18 Plaintiff executed a contingent fee agreement. This meant that no recovery would have 19 equated to no compensation for 249.3 hours of work and $19,691.61 in litigation costs incurred.
20 Several factors also made this case difficult, thereby contributing to the risks undertaken. These 21 factors included: (1) difficulties in pinning down job responsibilities, wages paid, and meal and 22 rest breaks taken; (2) number of documents that had to be analyzed; (3) shifting wage-and-hour
23 laws; (4) drafting and propounding formal discovery requests and reviewing the responses; (5)
24 some employees working for Defendant through temporary employment agencies; (6) Defendant
25 conducting its business in different locations; (7) engaging in motions practice with Defendant;
26 and (8) Defendant's initial resistance to the relief sought.¹⁵

27 ///

28 ¹⁵ (Han Decl., supra, at ¶¶ 28, 30, 31, 34.)
20

Attorneys being paid on an hourly basis as opposed to being paid on a contingent basis are assuming less risks. (See e.g. Ketchum v. Moses (2001) 24 Cal.4th 1122, 1132-1133.) The contingent risks are a major factor when determining attorneys' fees. (See e.g. Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l, Inc., supra, 1 Cal.5th at p. 504 (noting that trial court had carefully considered risks and contingency involved in awarding 33 and 1/3% fee).)

3. The Difficulty of the Litigation

The state of the law, factual complexities underlying the policies and practices in place, and other issues made this case complex and difficult. Plaintiff's Counsel overcame these obstacles by obtaining a settlement that is fair, adequate, and reasonable. Plaintiff's Counsel obtaining a fair settlement despite these roadblocks speaks volumes of their skill and experience. (Lealao v. Beneficial Cal., Inc., supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at p. 42 ("special skill and experience of counsel" is a relevant factor when determining fee award).)

Due to the difficulty of this case, Plaintiff's Counsel devoted several hours to this matter. The Task & Time Chart sets forth the hours worked, allocating the total time to the tasks required to conclude this lawsuit. As stated in the previous section, this was not a clear-cut case. Plaintiff's Counsel had to overcome roadblocks and obstacles before they could reach the settlement, which further illustrates the difficulty of this case.¹⁶

4. The Skill Displayed and Quality of Work

The level of skill displayed and quality of work it produced justify the Plaintiff's Counsel Fees Payment. Plaintiff's Counsel are skilled and experienced representatives and class action wage-and-hour litigators, and the Task & Time Chart illustrates this assertion.

Plaintiff's Counsel used the pre-mediation time to investigate the veracity, strength, and scope of the PAGA claim and to prepare for representative adjudication. This investigation included: (1) engaging in case strategy and analysis; (2) drafting, reviewing, and revising pleadings, formal discovery requests, motions, and mediation brief; (3) preparing for and appearing at court proceedings; (4) engaging in motions practice with Defendant; (5) calculating

¹⁶ (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 30; Exhibit 3.)

1 potential damages for mediation purposes; (6) preparing for and attending mediation and 2 settlement negotiations; and (7) working with Defendant’s counsel to draft and finalize the 3 Settlement Agreement (and exhibit). Plaintiff’s Counsel also undertook the length and arduous
4 task of locating and interviewing putative aggrieved employees to verify if the PAGA claim
5 raised individualized issues.¹⁷

6 Plaintiff’s Counsel’s accumulated skill and expertise contributed to the Settlement. Under 7 California law, this factor (skills displayed and quality of work) supports the Plaintiff’s Counsel
8 Fees Payment. (Lealao v. Beneficial Cal., Inc., supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at p. 51.)

9 C. The Lodestar Methodology Justifies the Plaintiff’s Counsel Fees Payment.

10 When a common fund is involved, courts may use the lodestar method. A court tasked 11 with cross-checking a percentage-based fee considers the reasonableness of the lodestar figure, 12 which is the time reasonably spent multiplied by the reasonable hourly compensation of the 13 attorneys. (Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 48.) The court may then adjust, increase, or 14 decrease that figure after considering factors like the novelty and complexity of the issues, skill
15 and expertise, extent the litigation precluded other employment, and risk involved. (Id. at p. 49.)

16 Based on the 249.3 hours worked, the base lodestar fees calculation is $177,990, resulting 17 in a negative multiplier of 0.57 when cross-checked with the Plaintiff’s Counsel Fees Payment.¹⁸

18 1. *Work Performed for a Reasonable Number of Hours.

19 Counsel is entitled to compensation for every hour reasonably spent. (Ketchum v. Moses, 20 supra, 24 Cal.4th at p. 1133.) The reasonableness is assessed by “the entire course of the 21 litigation, including pretrial matters, settlement negotiations, discovery, litigation tactics, and the 22 trial itself[.]” (Vo v. Las Virgenes Municipal Water Dist. (2000) 79 Cal.App.4th 440, 447.)

23 ///

24 ///

26 ¹⁷ (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 13.)

27 ¹⁸ (Id. at ¶¶ 31, 33.)

1 This matter required a significant amount of time and labor. The Task & Time Chart
2 evidenced the numerous tasks that were performed to obtain all the necessary information. The 3 Task & Time Chart illustrates that Plaintiffs' Counsel spent a reasonable number of hours
4 working on this case, thereby demonstrating the application for attorneys' fees is reasonable.¹⁹

5 The case involved gathering and analyzing information from Defendant and other sources.
6 Plaintiff's Counsel preparation to resolve the entire matter through mediation. These preparations
7 included locating and interviewing putative aggrieved employees, engaging in formal discovery, 8 engaging in motions practice, gathering and reviewing a myriad of documents, determining the 9 scope of the Aggrieved Employees, verifying the strengths of the PAGA claim, etc.

10 2. The Hourly Rates are Reasonable.

11 Plaintiff's Counsel's hourly rates are supported by the 2022 Real Rate Report that was 12 compiled by Wolters Kluwer, which surveyed the hourly rates charged in 2022 by hundreds of 13 attorneys in California. The hourly rates are also in line with the Laffey Matrix. The hourly rates
14 are also reasonable for the following reasons: (1) several courts in California have awarded 15 Plaintiff's Counsel fees at similar rates; (2) comparable hourly rates for similar services have 16 been deemed reasonable in several cases in California; and (3) surveys of legal rates have 17 supported the hourly rates. This shows that the hourly rates used for the lodestar calculation are 18 well within the range of non-contingent rates charged by comparable attorneys performing similar 19 work in State of California.²⁰

20 The California Supreme Court has ruled that an attorney fee award that is higher than the 21 actual fees incurred is proper in contingency cases:

22 “[A] contingent fee contract, since it involves a gamble on the result, may properly 23 provide for a larger compensation than would otherwise be reasonable.” The 24 purpose of a fee enhancement, or so-called multiplier, for contingent risk is to bring 25 the financial incentives for attorneys ... into line with incentives they have to undertake claims for which they are paid on a fee-for-services basis.

26 (Ketchum v. Moses, supra, 24 Cal.4th at p. 1132.)

27 ¹⁹ (Id. at ¶ 30; Exhibit 3.)

28 ²⁰ (Han Decl., supra, at ¶¶ 31-33; Exhibits 4, 5.)

Moreover, the California Supreme Court added:

The economic rationale for fee enhancement in contingency cases has been explained as follows: “A contingent fee must be higher than a fee for the same legal services paid as they are performed. The contingent fee compensates the lawyer not only for the legal services he renders but for the loan of those services. The implicit interest rate on such a loan is higher because the risk of default (the loss of the case, which cancels the debt of the client to the lawyer) is much higher than that of conventional loans.”

(Ketchum v. Moses, supra, 24 Cal.4th at pp. 1132-1133.)

Finally, “[F]ee enhancements are intended to compensate for the risk of loss generally in contingency cases as a class.” (Ketchum v. Moses, supra, 24 Cal.4th at p. 1133.)

VII. THE PLAINTIFF’S COUNSEL LITIGATION EXPENSES PAYMENT SHOULD BE APPROVED

The Settlement Agreement allows for Plaintiff’s Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment of up to $25,000. Plaintiff’s Counsel incurred $19,691.61 litigation in costs and expenses. Plaintiff’s Counsel request that the Court order the reimbursement of these costs and expenses.²¹

VIII. THE SERVICE PAYMENT SHOULD BE APPROVED

The Settlement Agreement provides for the payment of the Service Payment of $5,000 to Plaintiff for the services and contributions on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees. The purpose of such an award is to incentivize plaintiffs to step into the shoes of the state labor agency and undertake the risks associated with initiating a lawsuit and serving in a representative capacity. (Bell v. Farmers Ins. Exch. (2004) 115 Cal.App.4th 715, 726 (“service payments” compensate named plaintiff “for [her] efforts in bringing the action”); Clark v. Am. Residential Servs., LLC (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 785, 804 (“an incentive award is appropriate ‘if it is necessary to induce an individual to participate in the suit’”); accord Ingram v. The Coca-Cola Co. (N.D. Ga. 2001) 200 F.R.D. 685, 694 (internal quotation marks omitted) (“Courts routinely approve incentive awards to compensate named plaintiffs for the services they provided and the risks they incurred during the course of the [...] litigation.”).)

²¹ (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 34; Exhibit 6.)

1 Plaintiff spent time and effort in locating and producing relevant documents and past
2 employment records, reviewing relevant documents, and providing the facts and evidence
3 supporting the allegations. Plaintiff was available whenever needed by Plaintiff's Counsel and 4 actively tried to obtain and provide as much information as possible. Plaintiff spent hours
5 speaking with Plaintiff's Counsel about the alleged violations, discussing the work experiences
6 and work environment, helping Plaintiff's Counsel develop a strategy to obtain additional 7 documents, aiding Plaintiff's Counsel to determine the importance of the documents produced, 8 and reviewing the operative complaints, answer, formal discovery requests and responses, and 9 Settlement Agreement (and exhibit). Plaintiff also made himself available all day to participate
10 in and assist with mediation.²²

11 Plaintiff was advised of and accepted the risks and sacrifices associated with serving as 12 the named plaintiff. Plaintiff is also not related to anyone associated with Plaintiff's Counsel.
13 This is further proof that Plaintiff's interests are not adverse to the Aggrieved Employees.²³

14 IX. THE ADMINISTRATION EXPENSES PAYMENT SHOULD BE APPROVED

15 The Agreement provides for the payment of Administration Expenses Payment of up to 16 $10,000. The Administration Expenses Payment are intended to cover the costs incurred by the 17 Administrator for performing its duties outlined in the Agreement. Plaintiff's Counsel have 18 previously worked with the Administrator and are familiar with its superior reputation and work.

19 X. CONCLUSION

20 The Settlement Agreement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, as it represents a reasonable 21 compromise. Plaintiff requests that the Court approve the Settlement Agreement, including the 22 plan of allocation and distribution of the above-mentioned payments.
