SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
FOR THE COUNTY OF SAN DIEGO

ROBIN WYATT, on behalf of herself and current and former aggrieved employees,

Plaintiff,

vs.

UNIFI AVIATION, LLC; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: 37-2023-00033935-CU-OE-CTL

PAGA ACTION

PLAINTIFF ROBIN WYATT'S COMPLAINT FOR:

- CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS
GENERAL ACT OF 2004
("PAGA"), LABOR CODE
SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

COMES NOW Plaintiff ROBIN WYATT ("Plaintiff"), who alleges and complains against Defendants UNIFI AVIATION, LLC; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive (collectively
"Defendants") as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.
("PAGA") representative action brought by Plaintiff on behalf of the State of California, herself and other current and former aggrieved employees of Defendants who worked as hourly non-exempt employees in California during the relevant time period seeking civil penalties associated with Defendants' violation of the Labor Code based on Defendants' for failure to pay wages for all hours worked at minimum wage and all overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay, failure

1 to authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant meal periods or pay meal period
2 premium wages; failure to authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant rest periods or 3 pay rest period premium wages, failure to timely pay earned wages during employment, failure to 4 provide complete and accurate wage statements, and failure to timely pay all unpaid wages
5 following separation of employment. Plaintiff seeks on a representative basis, following notice to 6 the Labor and Workforce Development Agency, civil penalties, reasonable attorneys' fees
7 pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g)(1) and costs brought on behalf of Plaintiff, the State of 8 California, and others aggrieved.

9 II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

10 2. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims of Plaintiff and all other current and 11 former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees because Plaintiff's lawsuit seeks 12 civil penalties on behalf of herself, all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
13 non-exempt employees, and the State of California in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars
14 ($25,000); Defendants employed Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-
15 based hourly non-exempt employees; and the injuries to Plaintiff and all other current and former 16 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees occurred in locations throughout 17 California, including but not limited to San Diego County at 3225 North Harbor Drive, San Diego, 18 CA 92101.

19 3. In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Judicial Council of California enacted 20 Emergency Rule 9 to the California Rules of Court, which provided that, notwithstanding any 21 other law, the statutes of limitations and repose for civil causes of action that exceed 180 days are 22 tolled from April 6, 2020, until October 1, 2020.

23 III. PARTIES

24 4. Plaintiff brings this action as a representative of the Labor and Workforce 25 Development Agency on behalf of herself and other current and former employees subject to 26 violations of the Labor Code. The named Plaintiff and the persons on whose behalf this action is 27 filed include current, former and/or future employees of Defendants who work, worked, or will 28 work for Defendants as direct employees as well as temporary employees employed through temp

1 agencies as hourly non-exempt employees in California. At all times mentioned herein, the 2 currently named Plaintiff is and was domiciled and a resident and citizen of California and was 3 employed by Defendants in an hourly position at Defendants' location in San Diego from 4 approximately June 27, 2022, until on or about April 25, 2023.

5 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant UNIFI
6 AVIATION, LLC is authorized to do business within the State of California and is doing business
7 in the State of California and/or that Defendants DOES 1-50 are, and at all times relevant hereto
8 were persons acting on behalf of Defendant UNIFI AVIATION, LLC in the establishment of, or 9 ratification of, the aforementioned illegal wage and hour practices or policies. Defendant UNIFI
10 AVIATION, LLC operates in San Diego County and employed Plaintiff and aggrieved employees
11 in San Diego County, including but not limited to, at 3225 North Harbor Drive, San Diego, CA 12 92101.

13 6. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 1 14 through 50 are corporations, or are other business entities or organizations of a nature unknown to 15 Plaintiff that employed Plaintiff and aggrieved California non-exempt employees, permitted 16 Plaintiff and aggrieved employees to work, and exercised control over the wages, hours and 17 working conditions of employment of Plaintiff and aggrieved employees.

18 7. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 51
19 through 100 are individuals unknown to Plaintiff. Each of the individual defendants is sued 20 individually and in his or her capacity as an agent, shareholder, owner, representative, manager, 21 supervisor, independent contractor and/or employee of each defendant who violated or caused to 22 be violated the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the Labor Code and/or any provision of 23 the Industrial Welfare Commission's wage orders regulating hours and days of work.

24 8. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names of Defendants DOES 1 through 100. Plaintiff
25 sues said defendants by said fictitious names, and will amend this complaint when the true names 26 and capacities are ascertained or when such facts pertaining to liability are ascertained, or as 27 permitted by law or by the Court. Plaintiff is informed and believes that each of the fictitiously 28 named defendants is in some manner responsible for the events and allegations set forth in this

1 complaint.

2 9. Plaintiff makes the allegations in this complaint without any admission that, as to 3 any particular allegation, Plaintiff bears the burden of pleading, proving, or persuading and 4 Plaintiff reserves all of Plaintiff's right to plead in the alternative.

5 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

6 CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT OF 7 2004, LABOR CODE SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

8 (Against all Defendants by Plaintiff)

9 10. Plaintiff incorporates all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

10 11. During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, Plaintiff alleges 11 Defendants violated Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1194, 1197, 12 and the applicable Wage Orders.

13 12. Specifically, Defendants have committed the following violations of California
14 Labor Code:

15 13. Failure to pay wages for all hours worked at the legal minimum wage:
16 Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt
17 employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," 18 which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the 19 employee is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either 20 directly or indirectly, performing services which inure to the benefit of the employer.

21 14. Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 require an employer to compensate employees 22 for all "hours worked" at least at a minimum wage rate of pay as established by the IWC and the 23 Wage Orders.

24 15. In this case, Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 25 hourly non-exempt employees worked more minutes per shift than Defendants credited them with 26 having worked. Specifically, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former 27 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages at the applicable minimum 28 wage for all hours worked due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to:

(a) Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to undergo the following off-the clock security procedures:

- i. Line up to wait to undergo and undergo security checks, including bag scans and going through metal detectors;
- ii. After completing the security checks, Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees were required to travel to a designated security door in which they had to line up and swipe their badges to gain access;
- iii. After gaining access, Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees were required to go through a second security door to line up and enter their employee identification number;
- iv. After accessing the second security door, they were finally permitted to clock-in for the start of the shift.

16. Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees were not paid for this time.

17. Therefore, Defendants suffered, permitted, and required Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to be subject to Defendants' control without paying wages for that time. This resulted in Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees working time for which they were not compensated any wages, in violation of Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 and the applicable Wage Order.

18. Failure to pay wages for overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay: Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the employee is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either

1 directly or indirectly, performing services that inure to the benefit of the employer.’

2 19. Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 require an employer to compensate employees a 3 higher rate of pay for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday, in excess of forty 4 (40) hours in a workweek, and on any seventh consecutive day of work in a workweek:

5 Any work in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, any work in excess of forty (40)
6 hours in any one (1) workweek, and the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of 7 work in any one (1) workweek, shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one-and-
8 one-half (1.5) times the regular rate of pay for an employee. Any work in excess of twelve 9 (12) hours in one (1) day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight (8) hours on any seventh day of a workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay of an employee.

10 Labor Code section 510.

11 20. In this case, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former 12 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees overtime wages for all overtime hours 13 worked due to Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to:

14 (a) Defendant required Requiring Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved
15 California-based hourly non-exempt employees to undergo the following off-the clock security 16 procedures:

- 17 i. Line up to wait to undergo and undergo security checks, including bag 18 scans and going through metal detectors;
- 19 ii. After completing the security checks, Plaintiff and other current and former 20 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees were required to 21 travel to a designated security door in which they had to line up and swipe 22 their badges to gain access;
- 23 iii. After gaining access, Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 24 California-based hourly non-exempt employees were required to go through 25 a second security door to line up and enter their employee identification 26 number;
- 27 iv. After accessing the second security door, they were finally permitted to 28 clock-in for the start of the shift.

21. The foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in time during each workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees were under the control of Defendants but were not compensated. To the extent that the foregoing uncompensated time occurred when Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a workday, more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, and/or seven (7) days in a workweek, Defendants failed to pay them at their overtime rate of pay for overtime hours worked, in violation of Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 and the applicable Wage Order.

22. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant meal periods: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than five (5) hours in length and shifts of more than ten (10) hours in length.

23. California law requires an employer to authorize or permit an employee an uninterrupted meal period of no less than thirty (30) minutes in which the employee is relieved of all duties and the employer relinquishes control over the employee's activities prior to the employee's sixth hour of work. Labor Code sections 226.7, 512; Wage Order 9 at §11; Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Super Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004. An employer may not employ an employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a second such meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes prior to the start of the eleventh hour of work. Id. If the employee is not relieved of all duty during a meal period, the meal period shall be considered an "on duty" meal period and counted as time worked. A paid "on duty" meal period is only permitted when: (1) the nature of the work prevents an employee from being relieved of all duty; and (2) the parties have a written agreement agreeing to on-duty meal periods.

24. If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the law, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay for each workday that a legally required and compliant meal period was not provided. Labor Code section 226.7; Wage Order 9 at §11.

25. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit legally required and compliant

1 meal periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-
2 exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures, including but not 3 limited to:

4 (a) Discouraging off-premises meal breaks by requiring Plaintiff and other current and 5 former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to undergo the above-described
6 off-the-clock security procedures during meal breaks if they wished to leave Defendants' premises
7 during their meal breaks.

8 26. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or
9 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-
10 based hourly non-exempt employees one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each
11 workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt
12 employees did not receive legally required and compliant meal periods, in violation of Labor Code
13 section 226.7.

14 27. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff
15 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not 16 receiving wages to compensate them for workdays during which Defendants did not provide them
17 with meal periods in compliance with California law.

18 28. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 19 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant rest periods: Plaintiff and other 20 current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked 21 shifts of more than three-and-a-half (3.5) hours.

22 29. California law requires every employer to authorize and permit an employee a rest
23 period of ten (10) net minutes for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof. Labor
24 Code section 226.7; Wage Order 9 at §12. Under California law, "[e]mployees are entitled to 10
25 minutes' rest for shifts from three and one-half to six hours in length, 20 minutes for shifts of more 26 than six hours up to 10 hours, 30 minutes for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so 27 on." Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Sup. Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1029; Labor Code 28 section 226.7; Wage Order 9 at §12. Rest periods, insofar as practicable, shall be in the middle of

1 each work period. Wage Order 9 at §12. Additionally, the rest period requirement “obligates
2 employers to permit – and authorizes employees to take – off-duty rest periods.” Augustus v. ABM
3 Security Services, Inc., (2016) 5 Cal.5th 257, 269. That is, during rest periods employers must 4 relieve employees of all duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time. Id.

5 30. If the employer fails to authorize or permit a required rest period, the employer
6 must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of pay for each workday
7 the employer did not authorize or permit a legally required rest period. Labor Code section 226.7;
8 Wage Order 9 at § 12.

9 31. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit all legally required and 10 compliant rest periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
11 non-exempt employees due to Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not 12 limited to:

13 (a) Discouraging off-premises rest breaks by requiring Plaintiff and other current and 14 former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to undergo the above-described
15 off-the-clock security procedures during rest breaks if they wished to leave Defendants’ premises 16 during their rest breaks.

17 32. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or
18 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-
19 based hourly non-exempt employees with one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each
20 workday they did not receive legally required and compliant rest periods, in violation of Labor 21 Code section 226.7.

22 33. Defendants’ foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff
23 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not 24 receiving wages to compensate them for workdays in which Defendants did not provide them with 25 rest periods in compliance with California law.

26 34. Failure to timely pay earned wages during employment: In California, wages 27 must be paid at least twice during each calendar month on days designated in advance by the 28 employer as regular paydays, subject to some exceptions. Labor Code section 204(a). Wages

1 earned between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 2 16th and the 26th day of that month and wages earned between the 16th and the last day,
3 inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 1st and 10th day of the following
4 month. Id. Other payroll periods such as those that are weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly, must be 5 paid within seven (7) calendar days following the close of the payroll period in which wages were 6 earned. Labor Code section 204(d).

7 35. As a derivative of Plaintiff's claims above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed
8 to timely pay Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-9 exempt employees' earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period 10 premium wages, and/or rest period premium wages), in violation of Labor Code section 204.
11 Defendants' aforementioned policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in their failure to pay 12 Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees'
13 their earned wages within the applicable time frames outlined in Labor Code section 204.

14 36. Failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements: Labor Code section 15 226, subdivision (a). Labor Code section 226(a) provides, inter alia, that, upon paying an 16 employee his or her wages, the employer must "furnish each of his or her employees ... an 17 itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the 18 employee, except for any employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary and who is 19 exempt from payment of overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable order of 20 the Industrial Welfare Commission, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable
21 piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided, that all
22 deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) 23 net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the pay period for which the employee is paid, (7) the 24 name of the employee and his or her social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal 25 entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and 26 the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee."

27 37. As a derivative of Plaintiff's allegations above, Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff
28 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages

1 earned (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and/or rest
2 period premium wages) rendered Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-
3 based hourly non-exempt employees' wage statements inaccurate, in violation of Labor Code
4 section 226.

5 38. Failure to pay employees all wages due at time of termination/resignation: An 6 employer is required to pay all unpaid wages timely after an employee's employment ends. The 7 wages are due immediately upon termination (Labor Code section 201) or within seventy-two (72)
8 hours of resignation (Labor Code section 202).

9 39. As a derivative of Plaintiff's allegations above, because Defendants failed to pay
10 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees
11 all their earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, 12 and/or rest period premium wages), Defendants failed to pay those employees timely after each 13 employee's termination and/or resignation, in violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

14 40. Labor Code sections 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g) authorize an aggrieved 15 employee, on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees, to bring a civil 16 action to recover civil penalties against all Defendants pursuant to the procedures specified in 17 Labor Code section 2699.3.

18 41. Plaintiff has complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in Labor 19 Code section 2699.3. On May 30, 2023, Plaintiff filed a PAGA Claim Notice with the LWDA and 20 provided notice to Defendants by certified mail which provided notice of the specific provisions of 21 the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the 22 violations alleged.

23 42. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, the LWDA must give written notice by 24 certified mail to the parties that it intends to investigate the alleged violations of the Labor Code 25 within 60 days of the date of the complainant's written notice. The LWDA failed to provide the 26 parties notice within 60 days of the date of Plaintiff's PAGA Claim Notice that the LWDA intends 27 to investigate Plaintiff's claims.

28 43. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) and (f), Plaintiff is entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1194, 1197, During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, preceding Plaintiff sending the initial PAGA Claim Notice to the LWDA to the present, in the following amounts:

a. For violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226.7, and 512; one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)].

b. For violations of Labor Code section 226, two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, one thousand dollars ($1000) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 226.3].

c. For violations of Labor Code section 510, fifty dollars ($50) for each employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 558].

d. For violations of Labor Code section 1194 and 1197, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 1197.1].

44. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g), Plaintiff is entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in connection with her claims for civil penalties.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, PLAINTIFF, ON BEHALF OF HERSELF AND ON OTHER CURRENT AND FORMER AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES, PRAYS AS FOLLOWS:

ON THE FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION:

1. That Defendants be found to have violated the provisions of the Labor Code and the IWC Wages Orders as to the Plaintiff and aggrieved employees;

1 2. For any and all legally applicable penalties during the relevant statute of limitations
2 subject to any permissible tolling, including but not limited to those recoverable under the 3 California Labor Code, including but not limited to section 2699(f);

4 3. For attorneys' fees and costs of suit, including but not limited to those recoverable
5 under California Labor Code section 2699(g); and 6 4. For such and other further relief, in law and/or equity, as the Court deems just or 7 appropriate
