I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff EDRALIN LEGASPI ("Plaintiff") seeks final approval of the Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement ("Agreement" or "Settlement Agreement")[1], which if approved, would provide valuable monetary relief for 1,204 Class Members employed by Defendant AAA T.L.C. Health Care, Inc. ("Defendant") during the period from February 14, 2019, through May 31, 2024 ("Class Period").

In an order dated March 3, 2026, this Court preliminarily approved the Agreement and preliminarily certified the Class. Declaration of Jean-Claude Lapuyade ("JCL Dec."), ¶ 4. On March 17, 2026, the Court-approved Class Notice was mailed to each Class Member via U.S. First Class Mail. Declaration of Beth Paris ("Apex Dec."), ¶ 7. The Class greeted news of the Settlement with nearly unanimous approval.[2] There were zero objections and only one opt-out to the Settlement. Apex Dec., ¶¶ 10-14. The 99.91% approval by the Class evidences the fairness and reasonableness of the Settlement. JCL Dec., ¶ 8.

An objective evaluation of the proposed settlement of Three Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($350,000.00) ("Gross Settlement Amount") confirms that the relief negotiated on behalf of the Class Members is fair, reasonable, and valuable. The Settlement is a product of informed, adversarial, and non-collusive negotiations, between experienced counsel, and in a mediation presided over by the Honorable Steven R. Denton (Ret.), a respected jurist and mediator of wage and hour class actions. After deducting any Court-approved PAGA Penalties, Class Representative Service Payment, Class Counsel Award, and Administration Expenses Payment, the Net Settlement Amount shall be distributed to the Participating Class Members based on the number of Workweeks they worked while employed by Defendant during the Class Period. JCL Dec., ¶ 8.

This Settlement provides substantial recovery for Defendant's alleged wage and hour violations. Plaintiff estimates that the Settlement, if approved, would result in a Net Settlement Amount of approximately $170,708.33. This will result in an average Individual Class Payment of $141.90, a high payment of $1,532.15, and low payment of $5.51. JCL Dec., ¶ 9; Apex Dec., ¶ 17. Additionally, the settlement results in an average Individual PAGA Payment of $5.59, a high payment of $33.65, and low payment of $0.52. Apex Dec., ¶ 19.

The relief offered by the Settlement is immediate and is particularly impressive when viewed against the difficulties encountered by plaintiffs pursuing similar wage and hour cases (see infra). Indeed, by settling now rather than proceeding to trial, the Class will not have to wait (possibly years) for relief, nor will they have to bear the risks associated with prolonged and uncertain litigation. JCL Dec., ¶ 10.

As discussed below, the proposed Settlement satisfies all criteria for final settlement approval under California law and falls well within the range of reasonableness. Accordingly, the Class Representative and Class Counsel respectfully request this Court grant final approval of the Agreement and entry of the proposed Final Approval Order and Judgment. JCL Dec., ¶ 11.

II. OVERVIEW OF THE LITIGATION

Defendant provides home health care services, including but not limited to, long term, transitional, memory and specialty care to patients throughout California, including in Los Angeles County, where Plaintiff worked. Plaintiff was employed by Defendant as an hourly, non-exempt caregiver in California from November 2021 through July 2022. At all times during his employment, Plaintiff earned an hourly wage and was entitled to legally compliant meal and/or rest periods, and minimum, regular and overtime wages for all hours worked. Throughout his employment, Plaintiff was subject to Defendant's policies and procedures. JCL Dec., ¶ 12; Declaration of Edralin Legaspi ("Legaspi Dec."), ¶¶ 3-4.

Generally, Plaintiff claims that Defendant failed to pay for all time worked, failed to provide compliant meal and rest periods, failed to furnish accurate itemized wage statements, failed to reimburse them for business expenses, and failed to pay all wages upon separation. Defendant forcefully denies liability for each of Plaintiff's claims. Further, Defendant asserts that Plaintiff, the Class Members, and the Aggrieved Employees are personal attendants and accordingly, are exempt from meal and rest break requirements, that Plaintiff, the Class Members, and the Aggrieved Employees signed arbitration agreements Defendant contends are enforceable that include a class action waiver that prohibit the class claims at issue and require the arbitration of all individual claims. JCL Dec., ¶

On December 9, 2022, Plaintiff submitted a Notice of Violations ("PAGA Notice") to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") and served the same on Defendant. Plaintiff's PAGA Notice set forth the facts and theories supporting Defendant's alleged violations of various provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable Industrial Welfare Commissions ("IWC") Wage Order and of his intent to pursue claims under California Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act, Cal. Lab. Code Sections 2698 et seq. ("PAGA"). JCL Dec., ¶ 14.

On February 14, 2023, Plaintiff filed a class action complaint in the Los Angeles Superior Court, Case Number 23STCV03126 ("Action"). The Action alleged ten causes of action against Defendant for: (1) Unfair Competition in Violation of Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200, et seq.; (2) Failure to Pay Minimum Wages in Violation Of Cal. Lab. Code §§ 1194, 1197 & 1197.1; (3) Failure to Pay Overtime Wages in Violation Of Cal. Lab. Code §§ 510, et seq.; (4) Failure to Provide Required Meal Periods in Violation Of Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7 & 512 and the Applicable IWC Wage Order; (5) Failure to Provide Required Rest Periods in Violation Of Cal. Lab Code §§ 226.7 & 512 and the Applicable IWC Wage Order; (6) Failure to Reimburse Required Business Expenses in violation of Cal. Lab. Code §§ 2800 and 2802; (7) Failure to Provide Wages When Due in Violation Of Cal. Labor Code §§ 201, 202 and 203; (8) Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Statements in Violation Of Cal. Lab. Code § 226; (9) Unlawful Deductions in Violation of Cal. Lab. Code § 221; and (10) Violation of the Private Attorneys General Act [Labor Code §§ 2698 et seq.]. JCL Dec., ¶ 15.

Plaintiff's counsel served written discovery in August 2023, and investigated the facts relevant to the Action. After meeting and conferring, the Parties agreed to attend private mediation. On May 31, 2024, the Parties participated in mediation presided by the Honorable Steven R. Denton (Ret.) a respected jurist and mediator of wage and hour class actions. After arm's-length negotiations and bargaining, the Parties reached an agreement to settle and signed a Memorandum of Understanding. Thereafter, the Parties drafted and negotiated a long-form settlement agreement, which is the subject of the instant motion. JCL Dec., ¶ 16.

On March 3, 2026, this Court granted preliminary approval of the Settlement. JCL Dec., ¶ 17. On March 17, 2026, the Administrator mailed Notice Packets to all 1,204 Class Members. Apex Dec.,

¶ 7. The mailing of the Notice Packets triggered a forty-five (45) day Response Deadline for the Class to submit requests for exclusion or objections to the Settlement. The response from the Class to the Settlement was outstanding – 99.91% of the Class Members are participating in the Settlement. Apex Dec., ¶ 14.

III. THE SETTLEMENT BEFORE THE COURT

The Court preliminarily approved an initial Gross Settlement Amount of Three Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($350,000.00) based on a total of an estimated 30,975 Workweeks worked by the Class during the Class Period. The Gross Settlement Amount shall be used to satisfy: (1) the Individual Class Payments to Participating Class Members; (2) the Class Representative Service Payment; (3) the PAGA Penalties; (4) the Administration Expenses Payment; and (5) Class Counsel Award. JCL Dec., ¶ 18.

Defendant will fund the Settlement by transferring the Gross Settlement Amount into a Qualified Settlement Fund through the Administrator within 60 days after Final Approval. Agreement at § 4.2. Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments shall be mailed by regular First-Class U.S. Mail to Settlement Class Members' and/or Aggrieved Employees' last known mailing address Within 14 days after Defendant funds the Gross Settlement Amount. Agreement at § 4.3. The Administrator will calculate Individual Class Payments by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members during the Class Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Participating Class Member's Workweeks worked during the Class Period. Agreement at § 3.2.4. "Workweeks" is defined as any 7 consecutive days beginning on Sunday and ending on Saturday, in which a Class Member performed work as a caregiver for Defendant in California during the Class Period. Agreement at § 1.46. The estimated average Individual Class Payment is approximately $141.9. Apex Dec., ¶ 17. The Administrator will calculate each Individual PAGA Payment by (a) dividing the amount of the Aggrieved Employees' 25% share of PAGA Penalties ($4,000) by the total number of PAGA Period Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Aggrieved Employee's PAGA Period Pay Periods. Agreement at § 3.2.4.1.

In exchange for the valuable consideration, upon the date when Defendant fully funds the entire Gross Settlement Amount and funds all employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portion of the Individual Class Payments, all Participating Class Members will release the Released Parties from the Released Class Claims and all Aggrieved Employees will release the Released Parties from the Released PAGA Claims as defined in the Agreement. Agreement at §§ 1.40; 1.41; 5.2; 5.3.

Apex Class Action LLC was appointed as the Administrator for the Class. The Administration Expenses Payment includes those expenses of effectuating and administering the Settlement, i.e., the costs incurred to the Administrator, the costs of giving notice to the Class, the costs of administering and disbursing the Individual Class Payments, and the fees of the Administrator approved for reimbursement by the court. The Administration Expenses Payment are $11,625.00. Apex Dec., ¶ 20. These expenses shall be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount. Agreement at § 1.3.

Subject to Court approval, Class Counsel shall seek a payment of Class Counsel Award in the amount of up to $141,666.67, comprised of attorneys' fees of up to one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount ($116,666.67) and an estimated $25,000.00 for actually incurred litigation expenses. Class Counsel is to divide the fees equally (50% to JCL Law Firm, APC, and 50% to Zakay Law Group, APLC). Agreement at §§ 1.7. The Agreement also provides for a Class Representative Service Payment in the amount of $10,000.00 to Plaintiff, in consideration of his time, risk, and efforts as the Class Representative on behalf of the Class. Agreement at §§ 3.2.1.

As explained in further detail below, the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable to the class and should be granted final approval. This is evidenced by the unanimous approval of the Settlement by the Class, the absence of any objections to the Settlement and the average Individual Class Payment of $141.90. Apex Dec., ¶ 17; JCL Dec., ¶ 19.

IV. GENERAL STANDARDS APPLICABLE TO JUDICIAL REVIEW AND APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENTS

Settlements of disputed claims are favored by the courts. Huens v. Tatum (1997) 52 Cal.App.4th 259, 265. In evaluating settlements, the courts have long recognized that compromise is particularly appropriate since such litigation is difficult and notoriously uncertain. 7-Eleven Owners for Fair Fran. v. Southland Corp. (2000) 85 Cal.App.4th 1135, 1151 ("voluntary conciliation and settlement are the preferred means of dispute resolution. This is especially true in complex class action litigation").

"[T]o prevent fraud, collusion or unfairness to the class, the settlement or dismissal of a class action requires court approval." Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 citing Malibu Outrigger Bd. Of Governors v. Superior Court (1980) 103 Cal.App.3d 573, 578-79. The court must decide whether the proposed settlement falls within the range of reasonable settlements, considering that settlements are compromises between the parties reflecting subjective, unquantifiable judgments concerning the risks and possible outcomes of litigation. See also Wershba v. Apple Computer (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 226 (The proposed settlement is not to be judged against a hypothetical or speculative measure of what might have been achieved had plaintiffs prevailed at trial."). In Wershba, appellants argued that the settlement was too low given the "clear" liability, however, the Court rejected this argument and held that "the merits of the underlying class claims are not a basis for upsetting the settlement of a class action." Wershba, supra, at 246; see also 7-Eleven, supra, at 1150.

In these cases, Courts have repeatedly emphasized that there is a strong initial presumption that the compromise is fair and reasonable. Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 245. Courts should not substitute their judgment for that of the parties who negotiated the settlement. Id. At 246. The presumption of fairness exists where: (1) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (2) the settlement is reached through arm's-length bargaining; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small. Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801, citing Newberg & Conte, Newberg on Class Actions, (3d ed. 1992) §11.41, pp. 11-91. Here, all of these factors support a presumption of fairness.

The essential evaluation is whether, given the risks of litigation and the range of probable results, the settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable, and adequate to all concerned. Here, the facts and circumstances compel the conclusion that the proposed settlement satisfies that standard.

V. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR, REASONABLE, AND ADEQUATE

The court must determine whether the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable. Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801; see also Officers for Justice v. Civil Service Com'n (9th Cir. 1982) 688 F. 2d 615, 625. The purpose of the requirement is "the protection of those class members, including the named plaintiffs, whose rights may not have been given due regard by the negotiating parties." Dunk, supra, at 1801.

The trial court has broad discretion to determine whether the settlement is fair. Rebney v. Wells Fargo Bank (1990) 220 Cal.App.3d 1117, 1138. "The well-recognized factors that the trial court should consider in evaluating the reasonableness of a class action settlement agreement include 'the strength of plaintiffs' case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement.' [Citations.]" Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 128; see also Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408.

The list of factors is not exhaustive and should be tailored to each case. Dunk, supra, at 1801. Due regard should be given to what is otherwise a private consensual agreement between the parties. Id. The inquiry "must be limited to the extent necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the agreement is not the product of fraud or overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating parties, and that the settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable and adequate to all concerned." Id. "Ultimately, the [trial] court's determination is nothing more than 'an amalgam of delicate balancing, gross approximations and rough justice.' [Citation omitted.]" Id.

These factors are analyzed seriatim below and all support final approval of the class action settlement before this Court.

A. Class Counsel Conducted a Thorough Investigation.

As detailed in the motion for preliminary approval, Class Counsel thoroughly investigated the proposed Class Members' claims, applicable law, and potential defenses. Specifically, Class Counsel assessed the value of the class claims using data and documents provided by Defendant through informal discovery. To prepare for mediation, Defendant agreed to produce a sample of time and payroll records. Defendant produced nearly ten thousand pages of documents including but not limited to policies and time and payroll records. Class Counsel retained Berger Consulting Group ("BCG") to analyze Defendant's time and payroll data to formulate damage models estimating Defendant's liability exposure. Class Counsel's investigation, research, experience, and damage models informed and guided the mediation that resulted in this settlement. Accordingly, Class Counsel fully understood the strengths and weaknesses of the class claims before the parties reached a settlement. JCL Dec., ¶¶ 20-26.

B. The Parties Settled at Mediation.

On May 31, 2024, the Parties participated in a full day of mediation with Hon. Steen R. Denton (Ret.), a respected jurist and mediator of wage and hour class and representative actions. Judge Denton helped manage the Parties' expectations and provided a useful, neutral analysis of the issues and risks to both sides. The Parties made substantial progress with Judge Denton's assistance. Namely, the Parties exchanged information regarding their respective claims and defenses, including their respective evaluation of the damages. The mediation concluded with a settlement, the complete and final terms of which are now set forth in the Agreement. Class Counsel submits that the Settlement constitutes a fair, adequate, and reasonable compromise of the claims at issue. JCL Dec., ¶ 29.

C. Class Counsel is Experienced in Similar Litigation.

Class Counsel in this matter has extensive class action experience in multiple fields and has represented tens-of-thousands of persons in class actions. Counsel has previously litigated similar wage and hour class actions involving similar claims. Class Counsel has been approved as class counsel in similar wage and hour class actions throughout the State of California. As such, courts throughout California have deemed Class Counsel experienced and knowledgeable in this area of law. Class Counsel has participated in every aspect of the settlement discussions and has concluded the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable and in the best interests of the Class. JCL Dec., ¶¶ 28-34; Declaration of Shani O. Zakay ("Zakay Dec."), ¶ 3.

D. The Class Responded Positively to the Settlement.

The reaction of the Class unequivocally supports approval of the Settlement. Significantly, after dissemination of the notice to the Class, which provided each Class Member with the terms of the Settlement, including the specific estimated Individual Class Payments. To date, only one of the 1,204 Class Members opted out of the Settlement. Moreover, there are zero objections. Stated differently, 99.91% of the Class chose to participate in the Settlement. JCL Dec., ¶ 8; Apex Dec., ¶ 14.

The near unanimous approval rate by the Class strongly supports a finding that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. See In re Austrian & German Bank Holocaust Litigation (S.D.N.Y.

2000) 80 F.Supp.2d 164, 175 ("If only a small number of objections are received, that fact can be viewed as indicative of the adequacy of the settlement."); Stoetzner v. U.S. Steel Corp. (3d. Cir. 1990) 897 F.2d 115, 118-119 (29 objections out of 281 member class "strongly favors settlement"); Laskey v. Int'l Union (6th Cir. 1981) 638 F.2d 954 (The fact that 7 out of 109 class members objected to the proposed settlement should be considered when determining fairness of settlement.). Consequently, Class Counsel respectfully requests the Court to follow the near unanimous participation rate of the Class and grant final approval of the Settlement.

E. The Gross Settlement Amount is Fair and Reasonable.

The Gross Settlement Amount of Three Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($350,000.00) in this case is fair and well within the range of recognized reasonableness. The Kullar court acknowledged that "as the court does when it approves a settlement as in good faith under Code of Civil Procedure section 877.6, the court must at least satisfy itself that the class settlement is within the 'ballpark' of reasonableness." Kullar, supra, at 129; See Tech-Bilt, Inc. v. Woodward-Clyde & Associates, 38 Cal.3d 488, 499-500 (1985).

Here, the Settlement is clearly within the "ballpark" of reasonableness because the Settlement provides a sizeable recovery to the Class and need not necessarily obtain 100 percent of the damages sought to be fair, reasonable, and ultimately, meaningful. Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 250. While the Gross Settlement Amount of Three Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($350,000.00) represents a discount on Defendant's potential exposure if Plaintiff established liability on all claims and was awarded the full amount of the estimated damages at trial, this compromise is reasonable because (1) the formidable defenses raised by Defendant presented a risk that could award significantly less in damages than Plaintiff's estimate and (2) any theoretical post-trial recovery may require many more years of litigation, resulting in added fees and costs without any guarantee of recovery for the Class. JCL Dec., ¶ 35.

As detailed at the time of preliminary approval, the Gross Settlement Amount is fair and reasonable considering the nature and magnitude of the claims being settled and the various potential impediments to recovery. Class Counsel developed varied economic damages models measuring Defendant's liability exposure while accounting for the uncertainties of continued litigation. The various models were informed by Class Counsel's investigation, including the analysis of a significant sample of time and payroll data. As detailed in greater depth during the preliminary approval process, Class Counsel projected a range of Defendant's liability exposure for the claims asserted on behalf of the Class. The Gross Settlement Amount represents 17% of Defendant's maximum class wide liability exposure for damages and statutory penalties (excluding PAGA penalties). JCL Dec., ¶ 36.

In Stovall-Gusman v. W.W. Granger, Inc., 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78671, at *12, the District Court for the Northern District of California granted final approval in a wage and hour misclassification action and found that the Total Settlement Amount representing 10% of the estimated trial award was within the "range of reasonableness." In Dunleavy v. Nadler (In re Mego Fin. Corp. Sec. Litig.) (9th Cir. 2000) 213 F.3d 454, 459, the Ninth Circuit approved a settlement representing "roughly one-sixth of the potential recovery." Given the amount of the settlement here as compared to potential value of the claims, particularly the strength of Plaintiff's action, the settlement is clearly fair and reasonable.[3]

The calculation methodology used to compensate the Class Members for the alleged damages was negotiated at the time of the Settlement. More importantly, the methodology is fair, objective, and impartial. The calculation methodology is based on the number of Workweeks each Class Member worked for Defendant during the Class Period. The number of Workweeks for the Class Member is established through Defendant's data and documented compensation records. The Administrator is responsible for calculating the Individual Class Payments by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members during the Class Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Participating Class Member's Workweeks worked during the Class Period. Agreement at § 3.2.4. This process establishes an objectively fair and reasonable procedure to compensate the Class. JCL Dec., ¶ 37.

The Settlement also provides significant relief to the Class Members. After deductions for the [3] See also Viceral v. Mistras Grp., Inc. (N.D. Cal. Oct. 11, 2016, No. 15-CV-02198) 2016 WL 5907869, at *3, 7 (approving a California wage and hour settlement where the class received 11.6% of the estimated total liability, or approximately $29 per work week); Leverage v. Traeger Pellet Grills, LLC (N.D. Cal. June 28, 2017, No. 16-CV-00784) 2017 WL 2797811, at *7 (Approving a California wage and hour settlement where the class received 18% of the estimated total liability); see also In re Newbridge Networks Sec. Litig. (D.D.C. Oct. 23, 1998) 1998 WL 765724, at *2 ("Courts have not identified a precise numerical range within which a settlement must fall in order to be deemed reasonable; but an agreement that secures roughly six to twelve percent of a potential trial recovery, while preventing further expenditures and delays and eliminating the risk that no recovery at all will be won, seems to be within the targeted range of reasonableness.").

Class Counsel Award, the Administration Expenses Payment, the PAGA Penalties, and the Class Representative Service Payment, the Net Settlement Amount is currently estimated to be $170,708.33. Apex Dec., ¶ 15. The average settlement payment is approximately $141.90, and the highest is approximately $1,532.15. Apex Dec., ¶ 17. This average net recovery is on par with many wage and hour class action settlements approved by California state and federal courts. See, e.g., Palencia v. 99 Cents Only Stores, No. 34-2010-00079619 (Sacramento County Super. Ct) (average net recovery of approximately $80); Fukuchi v. Pizza Hut, Case No. BC302589 (LA. County Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of approximately $120); Contreras v. United Food Group, LLC, Case No. BC389253 (L.A. County Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of approximately $120); Ressler v. Federated Department Stores, Inc., Case No. BC335018 (L.A. County Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of approximately $90); Doty v. Costco Wholesale Corp., Case No. CV05-3241 FMC-JWJx (C.D. Cal. May 14, 2007) (average net recovery of approximately $65); Sorenson v. PetSmart, Inc., Case No. 2:06-CV-02674-JAM-DAD (ED. Cal.) (average net recovery of approximately $60); Lim v. Victoria's Secret Stores, Inc., Case No. 04CC00213 (Orange County Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of approximately $35); and Gomez v. Amadeus Salon, Inc., Case No. BC392297 (L.A. Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of approximately $20). Additionally, Defendant must separately fund its share of any employer side payroll taxes. Agreement at § 3.1.

Clearly the goal of this litigation to obtain redress for the class has been met by this Settlement. Given the amount of the Settlement, the risks of litigation and the arm's length negotiations between experienced counsel, the Settlement is fair and reasonable, and is therefore entitled to final approval. JCL Dec., ¶ 38.

F. The Strength of Plaintiff's Case and Risks of Continued Litigation

Although Class Counsel believes strongly in Plaintiff's claims, it would be misguided to ignore the asserted defenses. If successful on any one of its defenses, Defendant could defend the action or, at least, drastically undercut Plaintiff's claims. JCL Dec., ¶ 39. As the federal court in Glass v. UBS Fin. Servs., 2007 WL221862 held, where the parties faced uncertainties similar to those in this litigation:

> In light of the above-referenced uncertainty in the law, the risk, expense, complexity, and likely duration of further litigation likewise favors the > settlement. Regardless of how this Court might have ruled on the merits of the legal issues, the losing party likely would have appealed, and the parties would have faced the expense and uncertainty of litigating an appeal. The expense and possible duration of the litigation should be considered in evaluating the reasonableness of [a] settlement.

With respect to the most immediate challenge, i.e., class certification, the risks attendant to the certification of similar wage and hour claims are demonstrated by Ali v. U.S.A. Cab Ltd. (2009) 176 Cal.App.4th 1333, 1341. There, the Court of Appeal affirmed the Trial Court's denial of class certification because employees' declarations attesting to having taken meal and rest breaks demonstrated that individualized inquiries were required to show harm. See also Campbell v. Best Buy Stores, L.P., (C.D. Cal. 2013) 2013 WL 5302217 at *11-13 (following Brinker and denying certification of proposed off-the-clock and rest and meal break classes due to lack of uniform policy); Brown v. Fed Express Corp. (C.D. Cal. 2008) 249 F.R.D. 580, 587-88 (denying certification of driver meal and rest period claims based on the predominance of individual issues). JCL Dec., ¶ 40.

Further, even if a class is certified, liability remains uncertain. The risks attendant to the issue of Defendant's liability in similar wage and hour actions are demonstrated by Duran v. U.S. Bank National Association (2014) 59 Cal.4th 1, 31. There, the Court reversed a trial verdict in favor plaintiffs in a wage and hour class action. See also Tien v. Tenet Healthcare Corp. (2012) 209 Cal.App.4th 1077, 1088 ("[T]he reason, if any, that employees might not take their breaks were predominantly individualized questions of fact not susceptible to class treatment."). JCL Dec., ¶ 41.

Finally, even if a class is certified and Defendant is found liable for the class claims alleged, post-certification risks remain, including a reversal of a favorable judgment for Plaintiff and decertification of the class. These post-certification risks are demonstrated by Magadia v. Wal-Mart Associates, Inc. (9th Cir. 2021) 999 F.3d 668. There, the Ninth Circuit vacated reversed and remanded a $110 million judgement against an employer for, inter alia, inaccurately paying overtime, and directed the trial court to enter judgement in favor of the employer. See also O'Conner v. Uber Technologies, Inc. (9th Cir. 2018) 904 F.3d 1087 (decertification of wage and hour misclassification action). JCL Dec., ¶ 42.

Collectively, the examples cited above illustrate the uncertain nature of class litigation.

Consequently, the uncertainty of obtaining certification through a contested motion is a significant risk factor favoring settlement. JCL Dec., ¶ 43.

Although Plaintiff is confident about the strength of his claims, Plaintiff nevertheless recognizes that Defendant has factual and legal defenses that, if successful, would potentially defeat or impair the value of the lawsuit. Legally, the fast-changing landscape of wage and hour litigation can drastically affect the value of Plaintiff's claims and, in fact, already has. JCL Dec., ¶ 44.

In a similar wage and hour case, the federal district court in Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc., 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 33900 at * 19-20 (N.D. Cal. 2009), granted approval of an overtime class action settlement and explained:

> Plaintiffs may have a strong case, but the risks inherent in continued litigation are great. Defendants strongly deny liability for Plaintiffs' principal claim that full-time Service Associates were misclassified as exempt. In addition to the uncertainties raised by Defendants at the preliminary stage regarding Plaintiffs' chance of success in this case, Defendants notes that the question of an employer's duty to provide rest and meal periods is an open one, signaling even less certainty for Plaintiffs.....[T]he Total Settlement amount and the Class Members' expected net recovery, after fees and other costs are deducted, appear to be a reasonable compromise, in light of the risks of litigation.

See also Browning v. Yahoo!, Inc., 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 86266, at *30 (N.D. Cal. 2007) ("In considering the strength of Plaintiffs' case, legal uncertainties at the time of settlement - particularly those which go to fundamental legal issues - favor approval.").

As recognized in a federal decision approving settlement of an overtime wage class action:

> The potential complexity and possible duration of trial also weigh in favor of granting final approval. Plaintiffs acknowledge the difficulties of proving damages, recognize the uncertainty of outcome, and believe defendant would appeal in the event of adverse judgment. A post-judgment appeal would require many years to resolve and delay payment to class members. Plaintiffs believe the benefits of a guaranteed recovery today outweigh an uncertain future result. Accordingly, plaintiffs argue, and the Court agrees, the actual recovery confers substantial benefits on the class that outweigh the potential recovery through full adjudication.

Barcia v. Contain-A-Way, Inc., 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 17118, *9 (S.D. Cal. 2009); see also Louie v. Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Inc., 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78314, *14 (S.D. Cal. 2008).

In sum, while other cases have approved class certification in wage and hour claims, class certification in this action would have been hotly disputed and was by no means a foregone conclusion. Where both sides face significant uncertainty, as here, the attendant risks favor settlement. Hanlon v. Chrysler Corp. (9th Cir. 1998) 150 F.3d 1011, 1026.)

As demonstrated by the decisions in Magadia, supra, 999 F.3d 668, O'Conner v. Uber Technologies (N.D. Cal. 2018) 82 F.Supp.3d 1133 and Duran v. U.S. Bank National Assn. (2014) 59 Cal.4th 1, the complexities and duration of further litigation cannot be overstated. There is little doubt that if Defendant faced a large adverse judgement, Defendant undoubtedly has the resources to post a bond and appeal. A post-judgment appeal by Defendant would have required many more years to resolve, assuming the judgment was affirmed. If the judgment was not affirmed in total, then the case could have dragged on for years after the appeal. The benefits of a guaranteed recovery today outweigh an uncertain result three or more years in the future. JCL Dec., ¶ 45.

Class Representative and Class Counsel believe that the Settlement confers substantial monetary and non-monetary benefits upon the Class. Based upon their evaluation, Class Representatives and Class Counsel have determined that the Settlement set forth in the Agreement is in the best interest of the Class, is fair, reasonable and adequate, and should be granted final approval. JCL Dec., ¶ 46.

VI. THE PENALTIES UNDER THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT OF 2004 ARE REASONABLE

Where settlements "negotiate a good faith amount" for PAGA penalties and "there is no indication that this amount was the result of self-interest at the expense of class members," such amounts are generally considered reasonable. Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc., No. CV-08-0844 EDL, 2009 WL 928133, at *9 (N.D. Cal. Apr. 3, 2009). Courts routinely approve of amounts for PAGA penalties in the range of zero to two percent of the settlement. See id. at *1, 9 (approving a PAGA payment of 0.3%); Jack v. Hartford Fire Ins. Co., No. 09cv1683 MMA (JMA), 2011 WL 4899942, at *6 (S.D. Cal. Oct. 13, 2011) (approving a PAGA payment of 0.25%); McKenzie v. Fed. Express Corp., No. CV 10-02420 GAF (PLAx), 2012 WL 12882124, at *5 (C.D. Cal. Jan. 23, 2012) (acknowledging that courts approve PAGA claim settlements in the range of zero to two percent of the total settlement).

Here, Plaintiff and Defendant negotiated a good faith PAGA Penalties payment in the amount of $16,000 which is nearly 5% of the Gross Settlement Amount. As illustrated above, this amount falls well within the range of approved PAGA settlements. Seventy-Five percent (75%) of the PAGA Penalties ($12,000.00) will be paid to the LWDA ("LWDA PAGA Payment") with the remaining twenty-five percent (25%) of the PAGA Penalties ($4,000.00) to be distributed to the Aggrieved Employees, which is within the range of PAGA Penalties approved by courts and should be approved. JCL Dec., ¶ 47.

Class Counsel gave the LWDA notice of this Settlement and proposed allocation by filing a copy of the Settlement, the Motion for Preliminary Approval, and this motion seeking final approval with the LWDA. By not registering an objection with either Class Counsel or the Court, the LWDA has accepted and approved of the proposed PAGA Penalties. JCL Dec., ¶ 48.

VII. CONCLUSION

Plaintiff respectfully submits that the proposed settlement satisfies the standard of fairness established in California law and should therefore be finally approved as fair, reasonable, and adequate and requests entry of the Final Approval Order and Judgment submitted herewith.
