I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff SERENITY JEAN DEWOLF (hereinafter “Plaintiff”) seeks final approval of the Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement (“Agreement”)¹, which if approved, would provide valuable monetary relief for 347 Participating Class Members employed by Defendant and Cross-Complainant Mountain Counties Supply Company (“Defendant Mountain Counties”), Defendant and Cross-Complainant Prabhjot S. Randhawa (“Defendant Randhawa”), Defendant and Cross-Complainant Maruti Mountain Oil, LLC (“Defendant Maruti Mountain”), or Cross-Defendant Nichole Torsey (“Defendant Torsey”) (collectively, “Defendants”) and performed work in California during the period from April 1, 2018 through July 27, 2024 (“Class Period”).

In an order dated April 24, 2025, this Court preliminarily approved the Agreement and preliminarily certified the Class. Declaration of Jean-Claude Lapuyade (“JCL Dec.”), ¶ 4. On July 3, 2025, the Court-approved Class Notice was mailed to each Class Member via U.S. First Class Mail. Declaration of Madely Nava (“Apex Dec.”), ¶ 7. *The Class greeted news of the Settlement with 100% approval.*² There are zero opt-outs and zero objections to the Settlement. Apex Dec., ¶¶ 11-12. The high approval rate by the Class evidences the fairness and reasonableness of the Settlement. JCL Dec., ¶ 26.

An objective evaluation of the proposed settlement of Five Hundred Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($525,000.00) (“Gross Settlement Amount”) confirms that the relief negotiated on behalf of the Participating Class Members is fair, reasonable, and valuable. The Settlement is a product of informed, adversarial, and non-collusive negotiations, between experienced counsel, and presided over by Monique Ngo-Bonnici, Esq., a mediator of wage and hour class and PAGA actions. After deducting any Court-approved PAGA Payment, Service Award, Attorneys’ Expenses, Attorneys’ Fees, and the Claims Administration Expenses, the Net Settlement Amount shall be distributed to the Participating Class Members based on the number of Workweeks they worked while employed by Defendants during the Class Period. JCL Dec., ¶ 8.

This Settlement provides substantial recovery for Defendants’ alleged wage and hour violations.

¹ The Agreement is attached as Ex “1” to the Declaration of Jean-Claude Lapuyade (“JCL Dec.”) at ¶ 3. All citations to the Agreement incorporate by this reference a citation to the JCL Dec., ¶ 3. Further, unless indicated otherwise, capitalized terms used herein have the same meaning as those defined by the Agreement.

² Thirteen (13) Notices were deemed undeliverable. Apex Dec. at ¶ 10.

1 Plaintiff estimates that the Settlement, if approved, would result in a Net Settlement Amount of 2 approximately $277,510.00. Apex Dec., ¶ 15. This will result in an average Individual Settlement
3 Payment of $799.72, a high payment of $ 5,409.87, and low payment of $ 17.74. Apex Dec., ¶ 16.
4 Additionally, the settlement results in an average Individual PAGA Payment of $34.53, a high payment
5 of $ 154.62, and low payment of $0.12. Apex Dec. ¶ 18.

6 The relief offered by the Settlement is immediate and is particularly impressive when viewed 7 against the difficulties encountered by plaintiffs pursuing similar wage and hour cases (see infra).
8 Indeed, by settling now rather than proceeding to trial, the Class will not have to wait (possibly years)
9 for relief, nor will they have to bear the risks associated with prolonged and uncertain litigation. JCL
10 Dec., ¶ 10.

11 As discussed below, the proposed Settlement satisfies all criteria for final settlement approval
12 under California law and falls well within the range of reasonableness. Accordingly, the Class
13 Representative and Class Counsel respectfully request this Court grant final approval of the Agreement
14 and entry of the proposed Final Approval Order and Judgment. JCL Dec., ¶ 11.

15 II. OVERVIEW OF THE LITIGATION

16 Defendants operate and manage gas stations throughout the county of Siskiyou. This action 17 asserts claims on behalf of all non-exempt employees who are or previously were employed by 18 Defendants and performed work in California during the period from April 1, 2018 through July 27,
19 2024. At all times during her employment, Plaintiff was classified by Defendants as a non-exempt 20 employee, paid on an hourly basis, and was entitled to legally compliant meal and/or rest periods, and 21 minimum, regular and overtime wages for all hours worked. Throughout her employment, Plaintiff was 22 subject to Defendants' written policies and procedures contained in, among other documents, the 23 "Employee Handbook." JCL Dec., ¶ 12; Declaration of Serenity Dewolf ("Dewolf Dec.") at ¶ 3.

24 Generally, Plaintiff claims that Defendants failed to pay employees for all time worked, 25 including overtime, failed to provide them with proper meal and rest breaks, failed to reimburse for 26 required business expenses, and failed to issue accurate itemized wage statements. Defendants 27 forcefully deny liability for each of Plaintiff's claims. Further, Defendants assert that they fully 28 complied with all applicable employment laws and raised several other significant defenses to

1 Plaintiff's claims, including but not limited to, facially compliant meal and rest period polices, payment
2 of minimum wages and overtime, and timely payment of all wages due upon separation of employment.
3 Dewolf Dec., ¶ 4. Defendants forcefully deny liability for each of Plaintiff's claims. Further,
4 Defendants assert that they fully complied with all applicable employment laws and raised several other
5 significant defenses to Plaintiff's claims, including but not limited to, facially compliant meal and rest
6 period polices, payment of minimum wages and overtime, and timely payment of all wages due upon 7 separation of employment. JCL Dec., ¶ 13.

8 On January 24, 2022, Plaintiff served Defendants and the Labor and Workforce Development
9 Agency ("LWDA") with a Notice of Violations ("PAGA Notice"). Plaintiff's PAGA Notice set forth
10 the facts and theories supporting Defendants' alleged violations of various provisions of the California
11 Labor Code and applicable Industrial Welfare Commissions ("IWC") Wage Order and of her intent to 12 pursue claims under California Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act, Cal. Lab. Code Sections
13 2698 et seq ("PAGA"). JCL Dec., ¶ 14.

14 On April 1, 2022, Plaintiff filed a class action complaint in the Siskiyou Superior Court, Case 15 Number CVCV 22-329 ("Class Action"). The Class Action alleged nine causes of action against 16 Defendants for: (1) Unfair Competition in Violation of California Business and Professions Code §§
17 17200; (2) Failure to Pay Minimum Wages in Violation of California Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197 and 18 1197.1; (3) Failure to Pay Overtime Wages in Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 et seq.; (4)
19 Failure to Provide Required Meal Periods in Violation of Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7 and 512; (5) Failure
20 to Provide Required Rest Periods in Violation of Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7 and 512; (6) Failure to 21 Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements in Violation of Cal. Lab. Code §226; (7) Failure to Provide 22 Wages When Due in Violation of Cal. Lab. Code §§ 201, 202 and 203; (8) Failure to Reimburse 23 Employees for Required Expenses; and (9) Violations of the Private Attorneys General Act pursuant 24 to Labor Code section 2698, et seq. JCL Dec., ¶ 15.

25 On May 6, 2022, Plaintiff served an amended PAGA notice to the LWDA to add Defendant
26 Prabhjot S. Randhawa as an additional Defendant who acted as Plaintiff's joint employer. On May 12, 27 2022, Plaintiff filed a First Amended complaint for the purpose of adding Defendant Randhawa as an 28 additional Defendant in the action. On August 28, 2023, Defendants Mountain Counties and Randhawa

1 and Cross-Complainant Maruti Mountain Oil, LLC filed a cross-complaint against Cross-Defendant
2 Nichole Torsey, alleging Cross-Defendant was the sole shareholder of Mountain Counties at all
3 relevant times, until Cross-Defendant sold the company effective on or about February 1, 2021. JCL
4 Dec., ¶ 16.

5 On October 10, 2023, Plaintiff served a second amended PAGA notice to the LWDA to add
6 Defendant Maruti Mountain Oil, LLC as an additional Defendant who acted as Plaintiff's joint-
7 employer. On October 12, 2023, Plaintiff filed a Second Amendment to the complaint for the purpose
8 of identifying Defendant Maruti Mountain Oil, LLC as DOE 2 in the Class Action. JCL Dec., ¶ 17.

9 Plaintiff commenced written discovery on July 20, 2022. The Parties agreed to attend private 10 mediation with Monique Ngo-Bonnici, Esq. on August 27, 2024. To facilitate settlement negotiations, 11 Defendants agreed to informally produce documents and data points subject to the mediation privilege,
12 including but not limited to, a sampling of the Class Members' time and payroll data, and pertinent
13 written wage and hour policies. As discussed infra, Plaintiff's counsel retained the forensic consultants
14 at Berger Consulting Group ("BCG") to analyze Defendants' time and payroll data. JCL Dec., ¶ 20.

15 The Parties engaged in arms-length settlement negotiations with Mrs. Ngo-Bonnici's assistance,
16 though the mediation concluded without a settlement. However, Ms. Ngo-Bonnici presented a mediator's
17 proposal, which was accepted by the Parties and subsequently memorialized in the form of a Memorandum
18 of Understanding. Subsequently, the Parties drafted and negotiated a long-form settlement agreement, 19 which is the subject of the instant motion. The Parties now seek approval of the entire Agreement.
20 JCL Dec., ¶ 23.

21 On April 24, 2025, this Court granted preliminary approval of the Settlement. JCL Dec., ¶ 4.
22 On July 3, 2025, the Administrator mailed Notice Packets to all 347 Class Members. Apex Dec., ¶ 7.
23 The mailing of the Notice Packets triggered a forty-five (45) day Response Deadline for the Class to 24 submit requests for exclusion or objections to the Settlement. The response from the Class to the 25 Settlement was outstanding – 100% of the Class Members are participating in the Settlement. Apex
26 Dec., ¶ 14.

Defendants will fund the Settlement by transferring the Gross Settlement Amount into a Qualified Settlement Fund within ninety (90) calendar days after the Effective Date. Agreement, § I(O). The Administrator shall mail checks for all of the Individual Settlement Payments to the Participating Class Members no later than fourteen (14) calendar days after Defendants fund the Gross Settlement Amount. Agreement, § III(O)(7). The Administrator will calculate Individual Settlement Payments by dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by Participating Class Members. The result will then be multiplied by the number of workweeks worked by each individual Participating Class Member to calculate each Participating Class Member's estimated Individual Settlement Payments. Agreement, § III(O)(1). The estimated average Individual Settlement Payment is approximately $799.72. Apex Dec., ¶ 16.

Apex Class Action LLC was appointed as the Administrator for the Class. The Claims Administration Expenses includes those expenses of effectuating and administering the Settlement, i.e., the costs incurred to the Administrator, the costs of giving notice to the Class, the costs of administering and disbursing the Individual Settlement Payments, and the fees of the Administrator approved for reimbursement by the court. The Administrator expenses are $7,490.00. Apex Dec., ¶ 19. These expenses shall be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount. Agreement, § III(O)(12).

Subject to Court approval, Class Counsel shall seek a payment of Attorneys' Fees and Expenses in the amount of up to $200,000, comprised of attorneys' fees of up to one-third of the Gross Settlement

Amount estimated to be $175,000.00 and up to $25,000.00 for actually incurred litigation expenses. Agreement, § III(O)(10). Class Counsel is to split the fees as follows: 50% to JCL Law Firm, APC, and 50% to Zakay Law Group, APLC. Agreement, § I(E). Plaintiff has consented in writing to the fee split. JCL., ¶ 17; DeWolf Dec. ¶ 16. The Agreement also provides for a Service Award in the amount of $10,000 to Plaintiff, in consideration of her time, risk, and efforts as the Class Representative on behalf of the Class. Agreement, § III(O)(9).

As explained in further detail below, the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable to the class and should be granted final approval. This is evidenced by the high approval of the Settlement by the Class, the absence of any objections to the Settlement and the average Individual Settlement Payment of $799.72. Apex Dec., ¶ 16; JCL Dec., ¶ 26.

IV. GENERAL STANDARDS APPLICABLE TO JUDICIAL REVIEW AND APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENTS

Settlements of disputed claims are favored by the courts. Huens v. Tatum (1997) 52 Cal.App.4th 259, 265. In evaluating settlements, the courts have long recognized that compromise is particularly appropriate since such litigation is difficult and notoriously uncertain. 7-Eleven Owners for Fair Fran. v. Southland Corp. (2000) 85 Cal.App.4th 1135, 1151 (“voluntary conciliation and settlement are the preferred means of dispute resolution. This is especially true in complex class action litigation”).

“[T]o prevent fraud, collusion or unfairness to the class, the settlement or dismissal of a class action requires court approval.” Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 citing Malibu Outrigger Bd. Of Governors v. Superior Court (1980) 103 Cal.App.3d 573, 578-579. The court must decide whether the proposed settlement falls within the range of reasonable settlements, considering that settlements are compromises between the parties reflecting subjective, unquantifiable judgments concerning the risks and possible outcomes of litigation. See also Wershba v. Apple Computer (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 2246 (The proposed settlement is not to be judged against a hypothetical or speculative measure of what might have been achieved had plaintiffs prevailed at trial.”). In Wershba, appellants argued that the settlement was too low given the “clear” liability, however, the Court rejected this argument and held that “the merits of the underlying class claims are not a basis for upsetting the settlement of a class action.” Wershba, supra, at 246; see also 7-Eleven, supra, at 1150.

1 In these cases, Courts have repeatedly emphasized that there is a strong initial presumption that
2 the compromise is fair and reasonable. Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 245. Courts should not substitute
3 their judgment for that of the parties who negotiated the settlement. Id. At 246. The presumption of 4 fairness exists where: (1) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act
5 intelligently; (2) the settlement is reached through arm's-length bargaining; (3) counsel is experienced
6 in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small. Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801, citing
7 Newberg & Conte, Newberg on Class Actions, (3d ed. 1992) §11.41, pp. 11-91. Here, all of these factors 8 support a presumption of fairness.

9 The essential evaluation is whether, given the risks of litigation and the range of probable results,
10 the settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable, and adequate to all concerned. Here, the facts and 11 circumstances compel the conclusion that the proposed settlement satisfies that standard.

12 V. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR, REASONABLE, AND ADEQUATE

13 The court must determine whether the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable. Dunk v. Ford
14 Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801; see also Officers for Justice v. Civil Service Com'n (9th 15 Cir. 1982) 688 F. 2d 615, 625. The purpose of the requirement is "the protection of those class members,
16 including the named plaintiffs, whose rights may not have been given due regard by the negotiating 17 parties." Dunk, supra, at 1801.

18 The trial court has broad discretion to determine whether the settlement is fair. Rebney v. Wells
19 Fargo Bank (1990) 220 Cal.App.3d 1117, 1138. "The well-recognized factors that the trial court should 20 consider in evaluating the reasonableness of a class action settlement agreement include 'the strength of 21 plaintiffs' case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the risk of 22 maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery
23 completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, the presence of a 24 governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement.' [Citations.]"
25 Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 128; see also Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola
26 Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408.

27 The list of factors is not exhaustive and should be tailored to each case. Dunk, supra, at 1801.
28 Due regard should be given to what is otherwise a private consensual agreement between the parties.

1 Id. The inquiry “must be limited to the extent necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the agreement
2 is not the product of fraud or overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating parties, and that the 3 settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable and adequate to all concerned.” Id. “Ultimately, the 4 [trial] court's determination is nothing more than 'an amalgam of delicate balancing, gross
5 approximations and rough justice.' [Citation omitted.]” Id.

6 These factors are analyzed seriatim below and all support final approval of the class action
7 settlement before this Court.

8 A. Class Counsel Conducted a Thorough Investigation.

9 As detailed in the motion for preliminary approval, Class Counsel thoroughly investigated the 10 proposed Class Members’ claims, applicable law, and potential defenses. Specifically, Class Counsel
11 assessed the value of the class claims using data and documents provided by Defendants through 12 informal discovery. Class Counsel obtained time, payroll, and policy records, as well as data regarding 13 the number of Class Members, and the average length of shift, and average rate of pay to assess damages 14 before mediation. Class Counsel retained BCG to analyze Defendant’s time and payroll data to 15 formulate damage models estimating Defendants’ liability exposure. Class Counsel’s investigation, 16 research, experience, and damage models informed and guided the mediated negotiations that resulted 17 in this settlement. Accordingly, Class Counsel fully understood the strengths and weaknesses of the 18 class claims before the parties reached a settlement. JCL Dec., ¶ 27-33.

19 B. Class Counsel is Experienced in Similar Litigation.

20 Class Counsel in this matter has extensive class action experience in multiple fields and has 21 represented tens-of-thousands of persons in class actions. Counsel has previously litigated similar wage 22 and hour class actions involving similar claims. Class Counsel has been approved as class counsel in 23 similar wage and hour class actions throughout the State of California. As such, courts throughout 24 California have deemed Class Counsel experienced and knowledgeable in this area of law. Class
25 Counsel has participated in every aspect of the settlement discussions and has concluded the Settlement
26 is fair, adequate, and reasonable and in the best interests of the Class. JCL Dec., ¶¶ 34-40; Declaration
27 of Shani Zakay (“Zakay Dec.”), ¶¶ 1-3.

28 ///

1 C. The Class Responded Positively to the Settlement.

2 The reaction of the Class unequivocally supports approval of the Settlement. Significantly, after 3 dissemination of the notice to the Class, which provided each Class Member with the terms of the 4 Settlement, including the specific estimated Individual Settlement Payments, zero of the 347 Class
5 Members opted out of the Settlement. Moreover, there are zero objections. Stated differently, 100%
6 of the Class chose to participate in the Settlement. JCL Dec., ¶ 26; Apex Dec., ¶¶ 11-14.

7 The high approval rate by the Class strongly supports a finding that the Settlement is fair,
8 reasonable, and adequate. See In re Austrian & German Bank Holocaust Litigation (S.D.N.Y. 2000)
9 80 F.Supp.2d 164, 175 ("If only a small number of objections are received, that fact can be viewed as 10 indicative of the adequacy of the settlement."); Stoetznier v. U.S. Steel Corp. (3d. Cir. 1990) 897 F.2d
11 115, 118-119 (29 objections out of 281 member class "strongly favors settlement"); Laskey v. Int'l
12 Union (6th Cir. 1981) 638 F.2d 954 (The fact that 7 out of 109 class members objected to the proposed 13 settlement should be considered when determining fairness of settlement.). Consequently, Class
14 Counsel respectfully requests the Court to follow the high participation rate of the Class and grant final 15 approval of the Settlement.

16 D. The Gross Settlement Amount is Fair and Reasonable.

17 The Gross Settlement Amount of Five Hundred Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents
18 ($525,000.00) in this case is fair and well within the range of recognized reasonableness. The Kullar
19 court acknowledged that "as the court does when it approves a settlement as in good faith under Code
20 of Civil Procedure section 877.6, the court must at least satisfy itself that the class settlement is within 21 the 'ballpark' of reasonableness." Kullar, supra, at 129; See Tech-Bilt, Inc. v. Woodward-Clyde &
22 Associates, 38 Cal.3d 488, 499-500 (1985).)

23 Here, the Settlement is clearly within the "ballpark" of reasonableness because the Settlement
24 provides a sizeable recovery to the Participating Class Members and need not necessarily obtain 100
25 percent of the damages sought to be fair, reasonable, and ultimately, meaningful. Wershba, 91
26 Cal.App.4th at 250. While the Gross Settlement Amount of Five Hundred Twenty-Five Thousand 27 Dollars and Zero Cents ($525,000.00) represents a discount on Defendants' potential exposure if 28 Plaintiff established liability on all claims and was awarded the full amount of the estimated damages at trial, this compromise is reasonable because (1) the formidable defenses raised by Defendants presented a risk that could award significantly less in damages than Plaintiff's estimate and (2) any theoretical post-trial recovery may require many more years of litigation, resulting in added fees and costs without any guarantee of recovery for the Class. JCL Dec., ¶ 41.

As detailed at the time of preliminary approval, the Gross Settlement Amount is fair and reasonable considering the nature and magnitude of the claims being settled and the various potential impediments to recovery. Class Counsel developed varied economic damages models measuring Defendants' liability exposure while accounting for the uncertainties of continued litigation. The various models were informed by Class Counsel's investigation, including the analysis of a significant sample of time and payroll data. Detailed in greater depth during the preliminary approval process, Class Counsel projected a range of Defendants' liability exposure for the claims asserted on behalf of the Class. The Gross Settlement Amount represents between 29.95% - 36.9% of Defendant's class-wide liability exposure as estimated by Class Counsel at the time of mediation. JCL Dec., ¶ 42.

In Stovall-Gusman v. W.W. Granger, Inc., 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78671, at * 12, the District Court for the Northern District of California granted final approval in a wage and hour misclassification action and found that the Total Settlement Amount representing 10% of the estimated trial award was within the "range of reasonableness." In Dunleavy v. Nadler (In re Mego Fin. Corp. Sec. Litig.) (9th Cir. 2000) 213 F.3d 454, 459, the Ninth Circuit approved a settlement representing "roughly one-sixth of the potential recovery." Given the amount of the settlement here as compared to potential value of the claims, particularly the strength of Plaintiff's action, the Settlement is clearly fair and reasonable.³

The calculation methodology used to compensate the Participating Class Members for the alleged damages was negotiated at the time of the Settlement. More importantly, the methodology is fair, objective, and impartial. The calculation methodology is based on the number of Workweeks each

³ See also Viceral v. Mistras Grp., Inc. (N.D. Cal. Oct. 11, 2016, No. 15-CV-02198) 2016 WL 5907869, at *3, 7 (approving a California wage and hour settlement where the class received 11.6% of the estimated total liability, or approximately $29 per work week); Leverage v. Traeger Pellet Grills, LLC (N.D. Cal. June 28, 2017, No. 16-CV-00784) 2017 WL 2797811, at *7 (Approving a California wage and hour settlement where the class received 18% of the estimated total liability); see also In re Newbridge Networks Sec. Litig. (D.D.C. Oct. 23, 1998) 1998 WL 765724, at *2 ("Courts have not identified a precise numerical range within which a settlement must fall in order to be deemed reasonable; but an agreement that secures roughly six to twelve percent of a potential trial recovery, while preventing further expenditures and delays and eliminating the risk that no recovery at all will be won, seems to be within the targeted range of reasonableness.").

1 Participating Class Member worked for Defendants during the Class Period. The number of Workweeks
2 for the Participating Class Member is established through Defendants' data and documented
3 compensation records. The Administrator is responsible for calculating the Individual Settlement
4 Payments by dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all
5 Participating Class members, and multiplying the result by the number of Workweeks worked by each
6 individual Participating Class Member to calculate each Participating Class Member's estimated 7 Individual Settlement Payment. Agreement, § III(O)(1). This process establishes an objectively fair and 8 reasonable procedure to compensate the Class. JCL Dec., ¶ 43.

9 The settlement also provides significant relief to the Participating Class Members. After 10 deductions for Attorneys' Fees and Expenses, Claims Administration Expenses, the PAGA Payment,
11 and the Service Award, the Net Settlement Amount is currently estimated to be $277,510.00. Apex Dec., 12 ¶ 15. The average settlement payment is approximately $799.72, and the highest is approximately 13 $5,409.87. Apex Dec., ¶ 16. This average net recovery is on par with many wage and hour class action
14 settlements approved by California state and federal courts. See, e.g., Palencia v. 99 Cents Only Stores, 15 No. 34-2010-00079619 (Sacramento County Super. Ct) (average net recovery of approximately $80); 16 Fukuchi v. Pizza Hut, Case No. BC302589 (L.A. County Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of 17 approximately $120); Contreras v. United Food Group, LLC, Case No. BC389253 (L.A. County Super.
18 Ct.) (average net recovery of approximately $120); Ressler v. Federated Department Stores, Inc., Case
19 No. BC335018 (L.A. County Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of approximately $90); Doty v. Costco
20 Wholesale Corp., Case No. CV05-3241 FMC-JWJx (C.D. Cal. May 14, 2007) (average net recovery of 21 approximately $65); Sorenson v. PetSmart, Inc., Case No. 2:06-CV-02674-JAM-DAD (ED. Cal.)
22 (average net recovery of approximately $60); Lim v. Victoria's Secret Stores, Inc., Case No. 04CC00213
23 (Orange County Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of approximately $35); and Gomez v. Amadeus Salon, 24 Inc., Case No. BC392297 (L.A. Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of approximately $20). Additionally, 25 Defendants must separately fund their share of any employer side payroll taxes. Agreement, § III(A)(1).

26 Clearly the goal of this litigation to obtain redress for the class has been met by this Settlement.
27 Given the amount of the Settlement, the risks of litigation and the arm's length negotiations between 28 experienced counsel, the settlement is fair and reasonable, and is therefore entitled to final approval.

1 JCL Dec., ¶ 44.

2 E. The Strength of Plaintiff's Case and Risks of Continued Litigation

3 Although Class Counsel believes strongly in Plaintiff's claims, it would be misguided to ignore
4 the asserted defenses. If successful on any one of its defenses, Defendants could defend the action or,
5 at least, drastically undercut Plaintiff's claims. JCL Dec., ¶ 45. As the federal court in Glass v. UBS
6 Fin. Servs., 2007 WL221862 held, where the parties faced uncertainties similar to those in this 7 litigation:

8 In light of the above-referenced uncertainty in the law, the risk, expense, 9 complexity, and likely duration of further litigation likewise favors the 10 settlement. Regardless of how this Court might have ruled on the merits of 11 the legal issues, the losing party likely would have appealed, and the parties 12 would have faced the expense and uncertainty of litigating an appeal. The 13 expense and possible duration of the litigation should be considered in 14 evaluating the reasonableness of [a] settlement.

15 With respect to the most immediate challenge, i.e., class certification, the risks attendant to the 16 certification of similar wage and hour claims are demonstrated by Ali v. U.S.A. Cab Ltd. (2009) 176
17 Cal.App.4th 1333, 1341. There, the Court of Appeal affirmed the trial court's denial of class
18 certification because employees' declarations attesting to having taken meal and rest breaks
19 demonstrated that individualized inquiries were required to show harm. See also Campbell v. Best Buy 20 Stores, L.P., (C.D. Cal. 2013) 2013 WL 5302217 at *11-13 (following Brinker and denying 21 certification of proposed off-the-clock and rest and meal break classes due to lack of uniform
22 policy); Brown v. Fed Express Corp. (C.D. Cal. 2008) 249 F.R.D. 580, 587-88 (denying certification
23 of driver meal and rest period claims based on the predominance of individual issues). JCL Dec., ¶ 46.

24 Further, even if a class is certified, liability remains uncertain. The risks attendant to the issue of 25 Defendants' liability in similar wage and hour actions are demonstrated by Duran v. U.S. Bank National 26 Association (2014) 59 Cal.4th 1, 31. There, the court reversed a trial verdict in favor of plaintiffs in a 27 wage and hour class action. See also Tien v. Tenet Healthcare Corp. (2012) 209 Cal.App.4th 1077, 28 1088 ("[T]he reason, if any, that employees might not take their breaks were predominantly individualized questions of fact not susceptible to class treatment."). JCL Dec., ¶ 47.

Finally, even if a class is certified and Defendants are found liable for the class claims alleged,

1 post-certification risks remain, including a reversal of a favorable judgment for Plaintiff and 2 decertification of the class. These post-certification risks are demonstrated by Magadia v. Wal-Mart
3 Associates, Inc. (9th Cir. 2021) 999 F.3d 668. There, the Ninth Circuit vacated, reversed and remanded 4 a $110 million judgement against an employer for, inter alia, inaccurately paying overtime, and 5 directed the trial court to enter judgement in favor of the employer. See also O'Conner v. Uber
6 Technologies, Inc. (9th Cir. 2018) 904 F.3d 1087 (decertification of wage and hour misclassification
7 action). JCL Dec., ¶ 48.

8 Collectively, the examples cited above illustrate the uncertain nature of class litigation.
9 Consequently, the uncertainty of obtaining certification through a contested motion is a significant risk
10 factor favoring settlement. JCL Dec., ¶ 49.

11 Although Plaintiff is confident about the strength of her claims, Plaintiff nevertheless recognizes
12 that Defendants have factual and legal defenses that, if successful, would potentially defeat or impair
13 the value of the lawsuit. Legally, the fast-changing landscape of wage and hour litigation can drastically 14 affect the value of Plaintiff's claims and, in fact, already has. JCL Dec., ¶ 50.

15 In a similar wage and hour case, the federal district court in Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc., 2009
16 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 33900 at * 19-20 (N.D. Cal. 2009), granted approval of an overtime class action
17 settlement and explained:

18 Plaintiffs may have a strong case, but the risks inherent in continued
19 litigation are great. Defendants strongly deny liability for Plaintiffs' 20 principal claim that full-time Service Associates were misclassified as 21 exempt. In addition to the uncertainties raised by Defendants at the 22 preliminary stage regarding Plaintiffs' chance of success in this case, 23 Defendants notes that the question of an employer's duty to provide rest and 24 meal periods is an open one, signaling even less certainty for 25 Plaintiffs.....[T]he Total Settlement amount and the Class Members'
26 expected net recovery, after fees and other costs are deducted, appear 27 to be a reasonable compromise, in light of the risks of litigation.

28 See also Browning v. Yahoo!, Inc., 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 86266, at *30 (N.D. Cal. 2007) ("In considering the strength of Plaintiffs' case, legal uncertainties at the time of settlement - particularly those which go to fundamental legal issues - favor approval.").

As recognized in a federal decision approving settlement of an overtime wage class action:

1 The potential complexity and possible duration of trial also weigh in
2 favor of granting final approval. Plaintiffs acknowledge the difficulties
3 of proving damages, recognize the uncertainty of outcome, and believe
4 defendant would appeal in the event of adverse judgment. A post-judgment
5 appeal would require many years to resolve and delay payment to class
6 members. Plaintiffs believe the benefits of a guaranteed recovery today
7 outweigh an uncertain future result. Accordingly, plaintiffs argue, and the 8 Court agrees, the actual recovery confers substantial benefits on the class 9 that outweigh the potential recovery through full adjudication.

10 Barcia v. Contain-A-Way, Inc., 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 17118, *9 (S.D. Cal. 2009); see also Louie v.
11 Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Inc., 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78314, *14 (S.D. Cal. 2008).

12 In sum, while other cases have approved class certification in wage and hour claims, class 13 certification in this action would have been hotly disputed and was by no means a foregone conclusion.
14 Where both sides face significant uncertainty, as here, the attendant risks favor settlement. Hanlon v.
15 Chrysler Corp. (9th Cir. 1998) 150 F.3d 1011, 1026.)

16 As demonstrated by the decisions in Magadia, supra, 999 F.3d 668, O’Conner v. Uber
17 Technologies (N.D. Cal. 2018) 82 F.Supp.3d 1133 and Duran v. U.S. Bank National Assn. (2014) 59
18 Cal.4th 1, the complexities and duration of further litigation cannot be overstated. There is little doubt 19 that if Defendants faced a large adverse judgement, Defendants would post a bond and appeal. A post-
20 judgment appeal by Defendants would have required many more years to resolve, assuming the 21 judgment was affirmed. If the judgment was not affirmed in total, then the case could have dragged on 22 for years after the appeal. The benefits of a guaranteed recovery today outweigh an uncertain result 23 three or more years in the future. JCL Dec., ¶ 51.

24 The Class Representative and Class Counsel recognize the expense and length of a trial against 25 Defendants through possible appeals which could take another three years. In arriving at their informed
26 belief that the present settlement is fair and adequate, Class Counsel accounted for the uncertain outcome
27 and risk inherent in complex actions such as this one. Class Counsel is also mindful of and recognizes 28 the inherent problems of proof under, and alleged defenses to, the claims asserted in the litigation.
29 Moreover, post-trial motions and appeals would have been inevitable. Costs would have increased, and 30 recovery would have been delayed if not denied, thereby reducing the benefits of an ultimate victory.
31 The Class Representative and Class Counsel believe that the Settlement confers substantial monetary

1 and non-monetary benefits upon the Class. Based upon their evaluation, the Class Representative and
2 Class Counsel have determined that the Settlement set forth in the Agreement is in the best interest of 3 the Class, is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and should be granted final approval. JCL Dec., ¶ 52.

4 VI. THE PENALTIES UNDER THE PRIVATE ATTORNEY GENERAL ACT OF 2004 ARE 5 REASONABLE

6 Where settlements “negotiate a good faith amount” for PAGA penalties and “there is no 7 indication that this amount was the result of self-interest at the expense of class members,” such 8 amounts are generally considered reasonable. Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc., No. CV-08-0844 EDL,
9 2009 WL 928133, at *9 (N.D. Cal. Apr. 3, 2009). Courts routinely approve of amounts for PAGA
10 penalties in the range of zero to two percent of the settlement. See id. at *1, 9 (approving a PAGA 11 payment of 0.3%); Jack v. Hartford Fire Ins. Co., No. 09cv1683 MMA (JMA), 2011 WL 4899942, at 12 *6 (S.D. Cal. Oct. 13, 2011) (approving a PAGA payment of 0.25%); McKenzie v. Fed. Express Corp., 13 No. CV 10-02420 GAF (PLAx), 2012 WL 12882124, at *5 (C.D. Cal. Jan. 23, 2012) (acknowledging 14 that courts approve PAGA claim settlements in the range of zero to two percent of the total settlement).

15 Here, Plaintiff and Defendants negotiated a good faith PAGA Payment in the amount of 16 $25,000.00 which is 4.7% of the Gross Settlement Amount. As illustrated above, this amount falls
17 well within the range of approved PAGA settlements. Seventy-Five percent (75%) of the PAGA
18 Payment ($18,750.00) will be paid to the LWDA with the remaining twenty-five percent (25%) of the 19 PAGA Payment ($6,250.00) to be distributed to the Aggrieved Employees (“Individual PAGA
20 Payment”), which is within the range of PAGA Payment approved by courts and should be approved.
21 JCL Dec., ¶ 53.

22 Class Counsel gave the LWDA notice of this Settlement and proposed allocation by filing a
23 copy of the Settlement, the Motion for Preliminary Approval, and this motion seeking final approval 24 with the LWDA. JCL Dec., ¶ 54. By not registering an objection with either Class Counsel or the 25 Court, the LWDA has accepted and approved of the proposed PAGA Payment.

26

1 VII. CONCLUSION

2 Plaintiff respectfully submits that the proposed Settlement satisfies the standard of fairness
3 established in California law and should therefore be finally approved as fair, reasonable, and adequate
