I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff ROBERT BARAY (hereinafter “Plaintiff”) seeks final approval of the Stipulation of Settlement of Class and PAGA Action Claims and Release of Claims (“Agreement”)¹, which if approved, would provide valuable monetary relief for 149 Settlement Class Members employed by Defendant CURATION FOODS, INC. and Defendant LANDEC CORPORATION (hereinafter “Defendants”).

In an order dated February 2, 2023, this Court preliminarily approved the Agreement and preliminarily certified the Class. Declaration of Jean-Claude Lapuyade (“JCL Dec.”), ¶ 4. On March 24, 2023, the Settlement Administrator delivered notice of the proposed settlement to the Class. Declaration of Stephanie Molina (“ILYM Dec.”), ¶ 7.

*The Class greeted news of the Settlement with 100% approval.*² There are zero opt-outs and zero objections to the Settlement. ILYM Dec., ¶¶ 10-12. The high approval by the Settlement Class evidences the clear fairness and reasonableness of the Settlement. JCL Dec., ¶ 10.

An objective evaluation of the proposed settlement of Four Hundred Ninety-Five Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($495,000.00) (“Gross Settlement Amount”) confirms that the relief negotiated on behalf of the Settlement Class is fair, reasonable, and valuable. The Settlement is a product of informed, adversarial, and non-collusive negotiations, between experienced counsel, and presided over by David Rotman, Esq., an experienced mediator of wage and hour class and representative actions. After deducting any Court-approved attorneys’ fees and costs, class representative service awards, settlement administration costs, and the payments to the Labor & Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”), the net settlement amount shall be distributed to the Settlement Class based on the number of Workweeks they worked while employed by Defendants during the Class Period. JCL Dec., ¶ 10.

This Settlement provides substantial recovery to Class Members. Plaintiff estimates that the Settlement, if approved, would result in a Net Settlement Amount of approximately $264,550.00. This will result in an average Individual Settlement Payment of $1,775.17, with the estimated

1 highest gross payment being $3,649.61. Aggrieved Employees will receive an estimated average 2 gross payment of $58.82, with the estimated highest gross payment being $83.28. JCL Dec., ¶ 11; 3 ILYM Dec., ¶ 15.

4 The relief offered by the Settlement is immediate and is particularly impressive when viewed 5 against the difficulties encountered by plaintiffs pursuing similar wage and hour cases (see infra).
6 Indeed, by settling now rather than proceeding to trial, the Settlement Class will not have to wait 7 (possibly years) for relief, nor will they have to bear the risks associated with prolonged and 8 uncertain litigation. JCL Dec., ¶ 12.

9 As discussed below, the proposed Settlement satisfies all criteria for final settlement approval 10 under California law and falls well within the range of reasonableness. Accordingly, the Class 11 Representative and Class Counsel respectfully request this Court grant final approval of the 12 Agreement and entry of the proposed Final Approval Order and Judgment. JCL Dec., ¶ 13.

13 II. OVERVIEW OF THE LITIGATION

14 Defendants develop and commercialize packaged foods, including in Santa Barbara County, 15 California, where Plaintiff worked. This action asserts claims on behalf of Defendants' current and 16 former non-exempt employees employed in California. Plaintiff worked for Defendants as a non-17 exempt employee during the Class Period. At all times during his employment, Plaintiff earned an 18 hourly wage, was entitled to legally compliant meal and/or rest periods, and minimum, regular and 19 overtime wages for all hours worked. Throughout his employment, Plaintiff was subject to 20 Defendants' written policies and procedures contained in, among other documents, the "Apio, Inc.
21 Employee Policies" and "Curation Foods Employee Policies." JCL Dec., ¶ 14.

22 Generally, Plaintiff claims that Defendants failed to pay for all hours worked, including 23 overtime compensation, failed to provide legally compliant meal and rest periods, failed to issue 24 accurate itemized wage statements, and failed to pay all wages when due. Defendants forcefully 25 deny liability for each of Plaintiff's claims. Further, Defendants assert that they fully complied with 26 all applicable employment laws and raised several other significant defenses to Plaintiff's claims, 27 including but not limited to, complaint compensation policies and plans, compliant meal and rest 28 practices, compliant wage statements, and timely payment of all wages due upon separation of 1 employment. JCL Dec., ¶ 15.

2 On May 12, 2021, Plaintiff served Defendants and the Labor and Workforce Development
3 Agency (“LWDA”) with a Notice of Violations (“PAGA Notice”). Plaintiff’s PAGA Notice set 4 forth the facts and theories supporting Defendants’ alleged violations of various provisions of the 5 California Labor Code and applicable Industrial Welfare Commissions (“IWC”) Wage Order and 6 of his intent to pursue claims under California Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act, Cal. Lab.
7 Code Sections 2698 et seq (“PAGA”). JCL Dec., ¶ 16.

8 On July 16, 2022, Plaintiff filed a class action complaint in the Santa Barbara County 9 Superior Court, Case Number 21CV02834 (the “Action”). The Action alleged eight causes of 10 action against Defendants for: (1) Unfair Competition in Violation of California Business and 11 Professions Code §§ 17200; (2) Failure to Pay Minimum Wages in Violation of Cal. Lab. Code §§
12 1194, 1197 and 1197.1; (3) Failure to Pay Overtime Wages in Violation of Cal. Lab. Code §§ 510 13 et seq.; (4) Failure to Provide Required Meal Periods in Violation of Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7 and 14 512; (5) Failure to Provide Required Rest Periods in Violation of Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7 and 512; 15 (6) Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements in Violation of Cal. Lab. Code § 226; 16 (7) Failure to Provide Wages When Due in Violation of Cal. Lab. Code Sections § 201, 202, and 17 203; and (8) Violations of the Private Attorney General Act at Lab. Code §§ 2698 et. seq. (“Class 18 Claims”). JCL Dec., ¶ 17.

19 The Parties agreed to mediate the Action. To prepare for mediation, the Parties agreed to 20 informally exchange relevant documents and data points subject to the mediation privilege.
21 Pursuant to that agreement, Defendants produced a sample of the Class Members’ time and payroll 22 data along with itemized wage statements and relevant policies applicable to Class Members. As 23 discussed infra, Plaintiff’s counsel retained the forensic consultants at Berger Consulting Group 24 (“BCG”) to analyze Defendants’ time and payroll data. JCL Dec., ¶ 18.

25 On June 6, 2022, the Parties participated in a full day mediation with highly regarded wage 26 and hour mediator, David Rotman, Esq. After arms-length negotiations and bargaining, the Parties 27 reached an agreement to settle based on a Mediator’s proposal, and signed a Memorandum of 28 Understanding. After reaching an agreement in principle, the Parties negotiated a long-form

1 settlement agreement, which is the subject of the instant motion. JCL Dec., ¶ 19.

2 On February 2, 2023, this Court granted preliminary approval of the Settlement. JCL Dec., 3 ¶ 6. On March 24, 2023, the Settlement Administrator mailed Notice Packets to all 149 Class
4 Members. ILYM Dec., ¶ 7. The mailing of the Notice Packets triggered a forty-five (45) day 5 Response Deadline for the Settlement Class to submit requests for exclusion or objections to the 6 Settlement. The response from the Settlement Class to the Settlement was outstanding – 100% of 7 the Class Members are participating in the Settlement. ILYM Dec., ¶¶ 11-13.

8 III. THE SETTLEMENT BEFORE THE COURT

9 The Court preliminarily approved an initial Gross Settlement Amount of Four Hundred 10 Ninety-Five Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($495,000.00) based on a total of an estimated 11 20,012 Workweeks worked by the Class during the Class Period. The Gross Settlement Amount 12 shall be used: (1) to satisfy Individual Settlement Payments; (2) to satisfy the Class Representative 13 Service Award; (3) to satisfy the Class Counsel Award; (4) to satisfy the PAGA Settlement; and (5) 14 to satisfy the Settlement Administration Costs incurred in this action. JCL Dec., ¶ 20.

15 Defendants will fund the Settlement by transferring the Gross Settlement Amount to the 16 Settlement Administrator on the Funding Date, defined as ten (10) calendar days after the Effective 17 Date. Agreement, § I(N). Individual Settlement Payments and Aggrieved Employee Payments shall 18 be mailed by regular First-Class U.S. Mail to Settlement Class Members' and/or Aggrieved 19 Employees' last known mailing address no later than fifteen (15) calendar days after the Funding 20 Date. Agreement, § III(M)(7). The Settlement Administrator will calculate Individual Settlement
21 Payments by adding up the total number of Workweeks for all Class Members. The Settlement 22 Administrator will then divide the respective Workweeks for each member of the Settlement Class
23 by the total Workweeks for the entire Settlement Class, resulting in a Payment Ratio for each Class
24 Member. Each Settlement Class Member's Payment Ratio is then multiplied by the Net Settlement 25 Amount to calculate each estimated Individual Settlement Payment. Agreement, § III(M)(1). The 26 estimated average Individual Settlement Payment is approximately $1,775.17. JCL Dec., ¶ 21.

27 In exchange for the valuable consideration, as of the funding of the Gross Settlement
28 Amount, the Settlement Class Members will release the Released Parties from the Released Class

1 Claims that accrued during the Class Period. The Aggrieved Employees, the LWDA, and the State
2 of California will release the Released Parties from the Released PAGA Claims for the PAGA 3 Period. Agreement at §§ III(B), III(C).

4 ILYM Group, Inc. was appointed as the Settlement Administrator for the Class. Settlement
5 Administration Costs include those expenses of effectuating and administering the Settlement, i.e., 6 the costs incurred to the Settlement Administrator, the costs of giving notice to the Class, the costs
7 of administering and disbursing the Individual Settlement Payments, and the fees of the Settlement
8 Administrator approved for reimbursement by the court. The Settlement Administrator expenses 9 are $7,950.00. ILYM Dec., ¶ 16. These expenses shall be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount.
10 Agreement, § III(M)(12).

11 Subject to Court approval, Class Counsel shall seek Class Counsel Award in the amount of 12 $185,000.00, comprised of attorneys' fees equal to one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount 13 estimated to be at least $165,000.00 and up to $20,000.00 for actually incurred litigation expenses.
14 Plaintiff's counsel is to split the fees 50% to the JCL Law Firm, APC, and 50% to the Zakay Law
15 Group, APLC. Agreement, § I(E). The Agreement also provides for a Class Representative Service
16 Award in the amount of $17,500.00 paid to Plaintiff in consideration of his time, risk, and efforts 17 as the Class Representative on behalf of the Settlement Class. Agreement, §§ I(I); III(M)(9).

18 As explained in further detail below, the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable to the 19 class and should be granted final approval. This is evidenced by the high approval of the Settlement 20 by the Settlement Class and absence of any objections to the Settlement and the average Individual 21 Settlement Payment of $1,775.17. ILYM Dec., ¶ 15; JCL Dec., ¶ 21.

22 IV. GENERAL STANDARDS APPLICABLE TO JUDICIAL REVIEW AND 23 APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENTS

24 Settlements of disputed claims are favored by the courts. Huens v. Tatum (1997) 52
25 Cal.App.4th 259, 265. In evaluating settlements, the courts have long recognized that compromise 26 is particularly appropriate since such litigation is difficult and notoriously uncertain. 7-Eleven 27 Owners for Fair Fran. v. Southland Corp. (2000) 85 Cal.App.4th 1135, 1151 ("voluntary 28 conciliation and settlement are the preferred means of dispute resolution. This is especially true in 1 complex class action litigation”).

2 “[T]o prevent fraud, collusion or unfairness to the class, the settlement or dismissal of a class 3 action requires court approval.” Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 citing 4 Malibu Outrigger Bd. Of Governors v. Superior Court (1980) 103 Cal.App.3d 573, 578-579. The 5 court must decide whether the proposed settlement falls within the range of reasonable settlements, 6 considering that settlements are compromises between the parties reflecting subjective, 7 unquantifiable judgments concerning the risks and possible outcomes of litigation. See also 8 Wershba v. Apple Computer (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 2246 (The proposed settlement is not to 9 be judged against a hypothetical or speculative measure of what might have been achieved had 10 plaintiffs prevailed at trial.”). In Wershba, appellants argued that the settlement was too low given 11 the “clear” liability, however, the Court rejected this argument and held that “the merits of the 12 underlying class claims are not a basis for upsetting the settlement of a class action.” Wershba, 13 supra, at 246; see also 7-Eleven, supra, at 1150.

14 In these cases, Courts have repeatedly emphasized that there is a strong initial presumption 15 that the compromise is fair and reasonable. Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 245. Courts should not 16 substitute their judgment for that of the parties who negotiated the settlement. Id. at 246. The 17 presumption of fairness exists where: (1) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel 18 and the court to act intelligently; (2) the settlement is reached through arm’s-length bargaining; (3)
19 counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small. Dunk, 48
20 Cal.App.4th at 1801, citing Newberg & Conte, Newberg on Class Actions, (3d ed. 1992) §11.41, 21 pp. 11-91. Here, each factor supports a presumption of fairness.

22 The essential evaluation is whether, given the risks of litigation and the range of probable 23 results, the settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable, and adequate to all concerned. Here, 24 the facts and circumstances compel the conclusion that the proposed settlement satisfies that 25 standard.

26 V. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR, REASONABLE, AND ADEQUATE

27 The court must determine whether the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable. Dunk v.
28 Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801; see also Officers for Justice v. Civil Service

1 Com'n (9th Cir. 1982) 688 F. 2d 615, 625. The purpose of the requirement is “the protection of 2 those class members, including the named plaintiffs, whose rights may not have been given due 3 regard by the negotiating parties.” Dunk, supra, at 1801.

4 The trial court has broad discretion to determine whether the settlement is fair. Rebney v.
5 Wells Fargo Bank (1990) 220 Cal.App.3d 1117, 1138. “The well-recognized factors that the trial 6 court should consider in evaluating the reasonableness of a class action settlement agreement 7 include ‘the strength of plaintiffs’ case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further 8 litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, 9 the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of 10 counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the 11 proposed settlement.’ [Citations.]” Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 12 128; see also Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 13 408.

14 The list of factors is not exhaustive and should be tailored to each case. Dunk, supra, at 1801.
15 Due regard should be given to what is otherwise a private consensual agreement between the parties.
16 Id. The inquiry “must be limited to the extent necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the 17 agreement is not the product of fraud or overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating 18 parties, and that the settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable and adequate to all concerned.”
19 Id. “Ultimately, the [trial] court’s determination is nothing more than ‘an amalgam of delicate 20 balancing, gross approximations and rough justice.’ [Citation omitted.]” Id.

21 These factors are analyzed seriatim below and all support final approval of the class action 22 settlement before this Court.

23 A. Class Counsel Conducted a Thorough Investigation.

24 As detailed in the motion for preliminary approval, Class Counsel thoroughly investigated
25 the proposed Class Members’ claims, applicable law, and potential defenses. Specifically, Class 26 Counsel assessed the value of the claims using data and documents provided by Defendants through 27 informal discovery. Class Counsel obtained time, payroll, and policy records, as well as data 28 regarding the number of Class Members, workweeks, and average rate of pay to assess damages

1 before mediation. Class Counsel retained BCG to analyze Defendants' time and payroll data to 2 formulate damage models estimating Defendants' liability exposure. Class Counsel's investigation, 3 research, experience, and damage models informed and guided the mediated negotiations that 4 resulted in this settlement. Accordingly, Class Counsel fully understood the strengths and 5 weaknesses of the class claims before the parties reached a settlement. JCL Dec., ¶ 22-27.

6 B. The Parties Settled At Mediation.

7 On June 6, 2022, the Parties conducted a full-day mediation with David Rotman, Esq., an 8 experienced mediator of wage and hour class and representative actions. Mediator Rotman helped 9 to manage the Parties' expectations and provided a useful, neutral analysis of the issues and risks 10 to both sides. The Parties made substantial progress with Mediator Rotman's assistance. Namely, 11 the Parties exchanged information regarding their respective claims and defenses, including their 12 respective evaluations of the damages. After more than eight hours of arm's length and adversarial 13 negotiations, the mediation concluded with a settlement after both sides agreed to a Mediator's 14 proposal. The amount of the service award was not negotiated until after the parties agreed to the 15 Gross Settlement Amount and many other terms. No action would likely have been taken by Class 16 Members individually, and no compensation would have been recovered for them, but for Plaintiff's 17 services on behalf of the Class. JCL Dec., ¶ 28.

18 C. Class Counsel is Experienced in Similar Litigation.

19 Class Counsel in this matter has extensive class action experience in multiple fields and has 20 represented tens-of-thousands of persons in class actions. Counsel has previously litigated similar 21 wage and hour class actions involving similar claims. Class Counsel has been approved as class 22 counsel in similar wage and hour class actions throughout the State of California. As such, courts 23 throughout the California have deemed Class Counsel experienced and knowledgeable in this area 24 of law. Class Counsel has participated in every aspect of the settlement discussions and has 25 concluded the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable and in the best interests of the Class. JCL 26 Dec., ¶¶ 29-35; Declaration of Shani Zakay ("Zakay Dec."), ¶¶ 1-3.

27 D. The Settlement Class Responded Positively to the Settlement.

28 The reaction of the Settlement Class unequivocally supports approval of the Settlement.

1 Significantly, after dissemination of the notice to the Settlement Class, which provided each class
2 member with the terms of the Settlement, including the specific estimated Individual Settlement 3 Payments. To date, there are zero opt-outs and zero objections. Stated differently, 100% of the 4 Settlement Class chose to participate in the Settlement. JCL Dec., ¶ 10; ILYM Dec., ¶¶ 11-13.

5 The high approval by the Settlement Class strongly supports a finding that the Settlement is 6 fair, reasonable, and adequate. See In re Austrian & German Bank Holocaust Litigation (S.D.N.Y.
7 2000)80 F.Supp.2d 164, 175 (“If only a small number of objections are received, that fact can be 8 viewed as indicative of the adequacy of the settlement.”); Stoetznner v. U.S. Steel Corp. (3d. Cir.
9 1990) 897 F.2d 115, 118-119 (29 objections out of 281 member class “strongly favors settlement”); 10 Laskey v. Int’l Union (6th Cir. 1981) 638 F.2d 954 (The fact that 7 out of 109 class members 11 objected to the proposed settlement should be considered when determining fairness of settlement.).
12 Consequently, Class Counsel respectfully request the Court to follow the high approval of the 13 Settlement Class and grant final approval of the Settlement.

14 E. The Gross Settlement Amount is Fair and Reasonable.

15 The Gross Settlement Amount of Four Hundred Ninety-Five Thousand Dollars and Zero 16 Cents ($495,000.00) in this case is fair and well within the range of recognized reasonableness. The 17 Kullar court acknowledged that “as the court does when it approves a settlement as in good faith
18 under Code of Civil Procedure section 877.6, the court must at least satisfy itself that the class 19 settlement is within the ‘ballpark’ of reasonableness.” Kullar, supra, at 129; See Tech-Bilt, Inc. v.
20 Woodward-Clyde & Associates, 38 Cal.3d 488, 499-500 (1985).

21 Here, the Settlement is clearly within the “ballpark” of reasonableness because the Settlement
22 provides a sizeable recovery to the Settlement Class Members and need not necessarily obtain 100
23 percent of the damages sought to be fair, reasonable, and ultimately, meaningful. Wershba, 91
24 Cal.App.4th at 250. While the Gross Settlement Amount of Four Hundred Ninety-Five Thousand 25 Dollars and Zero Cents ($495,000.00) represents a discount on Defendants’ potential exposure if 26 Plaintiff established liability on all claims and were awarded the full amount of the estimated 27 damages at trial, this compromise is reasonable because (1) the formidable defenses raised by 28 Defendants presented a risk that could award significantly less in damages than Plaintiff’s estimate

1 and (2) any theoretical post-trial recovery may require many more years of litigation, resulting in 2 added fees and costs without any guarantee of recovery for the Class. JCL Dec., ¶ 36.

3 As detailed at the time of preliminary approval, the Gross Settlement Amount is fair and 4 reasonable considering the nature and magnitude of the claims being settled and the various 5 potential impediments to recovery. Class Counsel developed varied economic damages models
6 measuring Defendants' liability exposure while accounting for the uncertainties of continued 7 litigation. The various models were informed by Class Counsel's investigation, including the 8 analysis of a significant sample of time and payroll data. As detailed in greater depth during the 9 preliminary approval process, Class Counsel projected a range of Defendants' liability exposure for 10 the claims asserted on behalf of the Settlement Class. The Gross Settlement Amount represents 11 approximately 18.6% of the value of the maximum potential damages at issue. Even when 12 including the penalties for Plaintiff's claim for wage statement violations and waiting time penalties 13 under Labor Code Sections 203 and 226, the settlement represents up to 17% of the maximum 14 potential liability, assuming all of these amounts could be proved at trial. JCL Dec., ¶ 37.

15 In Stovall-Gusman v. W.W. Granger, Inc., 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78671, at * 12, the District
16 Court for the Northern District of California granted final approval in a wage and hour 17 misclassification action and found that the Gross Settlement Amount representing 10% of the 18 estimated trial award was within the "range of reasonableness." In Dunleavy v. Nadler (In re Mego 19 Fin. Corp. Sec. Litig.) (9th Cir. 2000) 213 F.3d 454, 459, the Ninth Circuit approved a settlement 20 representing "roughly one-sixth of the potential recovery." Given the amount of the settlement here 21 as compared to potential value of the claims, particularly the strength of Plaintiff's action, the 22 settlement is clearly fair and reasonable.³

23 The calculation methodology used to compensate the Settlement Class Members for the 26 (approving a California wage and hour settlement where the class received 11.6% of the estimated total liability, or 27 approximately $29 per work week); Leverage v. Traeger Pellet Grills, LLC (N.D. Cal. June 28, 2017, No. 16-CV-28 00784) 2017 WL 2797811, at *7 (Approving a California wage and hour settlement where the class received 18% of the estimated total liability); see also In re Newbridge Networks Sec. Litig. (D.D.C. Oct. 23, 1998) 1998 WL 765724, at *2 ("Courts have not identified a precise numerical range within which a settlement must fall in order to be deemed reasonable; but an agreement that secures roughly six to twelve percent of a potential trial recovery, while preventing further expenditures and delays and eliminating the risk that no recovery at all will be won, seems to be within the targeted range of reasonableness.").

1 alleged damages was negotiated at the time of the Settlement. More importantly, the methodology
2 is fair, objective, and impartial. The calculation methodology is based on the number of Workweeks 3 each Settlement Class Member worked for Defendants during the Class Period. The number of 4 Workweeks for the Settlement Class Members is established through Defendants' data and 5 documented compensation records. The Settlement Administrator is responsible for calculating the 6 Individual Settlement Payments by multiplying the Payment Ratio for each Settlement Class
7 Member by the Net Settlement Amount. The Settlement Administrator will calculate the Payment
8 Ratio by dividing the total number of Workweeks for each Settlement Class Member by the total 9 number of Workweeks for all Settlement Class Members. This process establishes an objectively 10 fair and reasonable procedure to compensate the Settlement Class. Agreement, § III(M)(1).

11 The Settlement also provides significant relief to the Settlement Class Members. After 12 deductions for the Class Counsel Award, Settlement Administration Costs, the PAGA Settlement, 13 and the Class Representative Service Award, the Net Settlement Amount is currently estimated to 14 be $264,550.00. The average settlement payment is approximately $1,775.17. ILYM Dec., ¶ 15.
15 This average net recovery is on par with many wage and hour class action settlements approved by 16 California state and federal courts. JCL Dec., ¶ 38. Additionally, Defendants must separately fund 17 its share of any employer side payroll taxes. Agreement, § III(A)(4).

18 Clearly the goal of this litigation – to obtain redress for the class – has been met by this 19 Settlement. Given the amount of the Settlement, the risks of litigation, and the arm's length 20 negotiations between experienced counsel, the settlement is fair and reasonable, and is therefore 21 entitled to final approval. JCL Dec., ¶ 39.

22 F. The Strength of Plaintiff's Case and Risks of Continued Litigation

23 Although Class Counsel believes strongly in Plaintiff's claims, it would be misguided to 24 ignore the asserted defenses. If successful on any one its defenses, Defendants could defend the 25 action or, at least, drastically undercut Plaintiff's claims. JCL Dec., ¶ 40. As the federal court in 26 Glass v. UBS Fin. Servs., 2007 WL221862 held, where the parties faced uncertainties similar to 27 those in this litigation:

28 In light of the above-referenced uncertainty in the law, the risk, expense, complexity, and likely duration of further litigation

1 likewise favors the settlement. Regardless of how this Court might 2 have ruled on the merits of the legal issues, the losing party likely 3 would have appealed, and the parties would have faced the expense
4 and uncertainty of litigating an appeal. The expense and possible 5 duration of the litigation should be considered in evaluating the 6 reasonableness of [a] settlement.

7 With respect to the most immediate challenge, i.e., class certification, the risks attendant to 8 the certification of similar wage and hour claims are demonstrated by Magadia v. Wal-Mart 9 Associates, Inc. (9th Cir. 2021) 999 F.3d 668. There, the Ninth Circuit, vacated, reversed, and 10 remanded a $110 million judgement against an employer for, inter alia, inaccurately paying 11 overtime, and directed the trial court to enter judgement in favor of the employer. See also 12 O’Conner v. Uber Technologies, Inc. (9th Cir. 2018) 904 F.3d 1087 (decertification of wage and 13 hour misclassification action); see also Duran v. U.S. Bank National Association (2014) 59 Cal.4th 14 1, 31 (reversing a trial verdict in favor plaintiffs in a wage and hour class action)); Tien v. Tenet 15 Healthcare Corp. (2012) 209 Cal.App.4th 1077, 1088 (“[T]he reason, if any, that employees might 16 not take their breaks were predominantly individualized questions of fact not susceptible to class 17 treatment.”); Ali v. U.S.A. Cab Ltd. (2009) 176 Cal.App.4th 1333, 1341 (affirming denial of 18 certification because employees’ declarations attesting to having taken meal and rest breaks 19 demonstrated that individualized inquiries were required to show harm); Campbell v. Best Buy 20 Stores, L.P., (C.D. Cal. 2013) 2013 WL 5302217 at *11-13 (following Brinker and denying 21 certification of proposed off-the-clock and rest and meal break classes due to lack of uniform 22 policy); Brown v. Fed Express Corp. (C.D. Cal. 2008) 249 F.R.D. 580, 587-88 (denying 23 certification of driver meal and rest period claims based on the predominance of individual issues).
24 Collectively, the examples cited above illustrate the uncertain nature of class litigation.
25 Consequently, the uncertainty of obtaining certification through a contested motion is a significant 26 risk factor favoring settlement. JCL Dec., ¶ 41.

27 Although Plaintiff is confident about the strength of his claims, Plaintiff nevertheless 28 recognizes that Defendants have factual and legal defenses that, if successful, would potentially 29 defeat or impair the value of the lawsuit. Legally, the fast-changing landscape of wage and hour 30 litigation can drastically affect the value of Plaintiff’s claims and, in fact, already has. JCL Dec., ¶ 31 42.

1 In a similar wage and hour case, the federal district court in Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc., 2 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 33900 at * 19-20 (N.D. Cal. 2009), granted approval of an overtime class 3 action settlement and explained:

4 Plaintiffs may have a strong case, but the risks inherent in 5 continued litigation are great. Defendants strongly deny liability for 6 Plaintiffs' principal claim that full-time Service Associates were 7 misclassified as exempt. In addition to the uncertainties raised by 8 Defendants at the preliminary stage regarding Plaintiffs' chance of 9 success in this case, Defendants notes that the question of an 10 employer's duty to provide rest and meal periods is an open one, 11 signaling even less certainty for Plaintiffs.....[T]he Total Settlement
12 amount and the Class Members' expected net recovery, after fees 13 and other costs are deducted, appear to be a reasonable 14 compromise, in light of the risks of litigation.

15 See also Browning v. Yahoo!, Inc., 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 86266, at *30 (N.D. Cal. 2007) (“In 16 considering the strength of Plaintiffs’ case, legal uncertainties at the time of settlement - particularly 17 those which go to fundamental legal issues - favor approval.”).

18 As recognized in a federal decision approving settlement of an overtime wage class action:

19 The potential complexity and possible duration of trial also weigh 20 in favor of granting final approval. Plaintiffs acknowledge the 21 difficulties of proving damages, recognize the uncertainty of 22 outcome, and believe defendant would appeal in the event of adverse 23 judgment. A post-judgment appeal would require many years to 24 resolve and delay payment to class members. Plaintiffs believe the 25 benefits of a guaranteed recovery today outweigh an uncertain future 26 result. Accordingly, plaintiffs argue, and the Court agrees, the actual 27 recovery confers substantial benefits on the class that outweigh the 28 potential recovery through full adjudication.

Barcia v. Contain-A-Way, Inc., 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 17118, *9 (S.D. Cal. 2009); see also Louie
v. Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Inc., 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78314, *14 (S.D. Cal. 2008).

In sum, while other cases have approved class certification in wage and hour claims, class certification in this action would have been hotly disputed and was by no means a foregone conclusion. Where both sides face significant uncertainty, as here, the attendant risks favor settlement. Hanlon v. Chrysler Corp. (9th Cir. 1998) 150 F.3d 1011, 1026.)

As demonstrated by the decisions in Magadia, supra, 999 F.3d 668, O’Conner v. Uber
Technologies (N.D. Cal. 2018) 82 F.Supp.3d 1133 and Duran v. U.S. Bank National Assn. (2014)

1 59 Cal.4th 1, the complexities and duration of further litigation cannot be overstated. There is little 2 doubt that if Defendants faced a large adverse judgement, Defendants undoubtedly have the 3 resources to post a bond and appeal. A post-judgment appeal by Defendants would have required
4 many more years to resolve, assuming the judgment was affirmed. If the judgment was not affirmed
5 in total, then the case could have dragged on for years after the appeal. The benefits of a guaranteed 6 recovery today outweigh an uncertain result three or more years in the future. JCL Dec., ¶ 43.

7 Class Representative and Class Counsel recognize the expense and length of a trial against 8 Defendants through possible appeals which could take another three years. In arriving at their 9 informed belief that the present settlement is fair and adequate, Class Counsel accounted for the 10 uncertain outcome and risk inherent in complex actions such as this one. Class Counsel is also 11 mindful of and recognize the inherent problems of proof under, and alleged defenses to, the claims 12 asserted in the litigation. Moreover, post-trial motions and appeals would have been inevitable.
13 Costs would have mounted, and recovery would have been delayed if not denied, thereby reducing 14 the benefits of an ultimate victory. Class Representative and Class Counsel believe that the 15 Settlement confers substantial monetary and non-monetary benefits upon the Class. Based upon 16 their evaluation, Class Representative and Class Counsel have determined that the Settlement set 17 forth in the Agreement is in the best interest of the Class, is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and 18 should be granted final approval. JCL Dec., ¶ 44.

19 VI. THE PENALTIES UNDER THE PRIVATE ATTORNEY GENERAL ACT OF 2004
20 ARE REASONABLE

21 Where settlements “negotiate a good faith amount” for PAGA penalties and “there is no 22 indication that this amount was the result of self-interest at the expense of class members,” such 23 amounts are generally considered reasonable. Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc., No. CV-08-0844 EDL, 24 2009 WL 928133, at *9 (N.D. Cal. Apr. 3, 2009). Courts routinely approve of amounts for PAGA
25 penalties in the range of zero to two percent of the settlement. See id. at *1, 9 (approving a PAGA 26 payment of 0.3%); Jack v. Hartford Fire Ins. Co., No. 09cv1683 MMA (JMA), 2011 WL 4899942, 27 at *6 (S.D. Cal. Oct. 13, 2011) (approving a PAGA payment of 0.25%); McKenzie v. Fed. Express
28 Corp., No. CV 10-02420 GAF (PLAx), 2012 WL 12882124, at *5 (C.D. Cal. Jan. 23, 2012)

1 (acknowledging that courts approve PAGA claim settlements in the range of zero to two percent of 2 the total settlement).

3 Here, the Parties negotiated a good faith PAGA Settlement in the amount of $20,000.00 4 which is approximately 4% of the Gross Settlement Amount. As illustrated above, this amount falls
5 well within the range of approved PAGA Settlements. Seventy-five percent (75%) of the PAGA 6 Settlement ($7,500) will be paid to the LWDA ("LWDA Payment") with the remaining twenty-five 7 percent (25%) to be distributed to the Aggrieved Employees, which is within the range of PAGA 8 penalties approved by courts and should be approved. JCL Dec., ¶ 45.

9 Class Counsel gave the LWDA notice of this Settlement and proposed allocation by filing a 10 copy of the Settlement, the Motion for Preliminary Approval, and this motion seeking final approval 11 with the LWDA. JCL Dec., ¶¶ 5-6, 46. By not registering an objection with either Class Counsel 12 or the Court, the LWDA has accepted and approved of the proposed PAGA Settlement.

13 VII. CONCLUSION

14 Plaintiff respectfully submits that the proposed settlement satisfies the standard of fairness 15 established in California law and should therefore be finally approved as fair, reasonable, and 16 adequate and requests entry of the Final Approval Order and Judgment submitted herewith.
