I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Jose Ramon De La Cruz (hereinafter “Plaintiff”) seeks final approval of the Stipulation of Settlement of Class and PAGA Action Claims and Release of Claims (“Agreement”)¹, which if approved, would provide valuable monetary relief for 1,302 Settlement Class Members employed by Defendants Galpao Gaucho Two, LLC, Galpao Gaucho Three, LLC, Galpao Gaucho Four LLC, Galpao Gaucho Five LLC, Galpao Gaucho Eight LLC, and Galpao Gaucho Nine LLC (hereinafter “Defendants”) during the Class Period.

In an order dated February 20, 2025, and again on April 11, 2025, this Court preliminarily approved the Agreement and preliminarily certified the Class. Declaration of Jean-Claude Lapuyade (“JCL Dec.”), ¶ 4. On April 22, 2025, the Court-approved Class Notice was mailed to each Class Member via U.S. First Class Mail. Declaration of Madely Nava (“Apex Dec.”), ¶ 7. The Class greeted news of the Settlement with unanimous approval as, at the time of the filing of this motion, all 1,302 Class Members chose to participate in the Settlement.² There are zero opt-outs and zero objections to the Settlement. Apex Dec., ¶¶ 11-14. The unanimous approval by the Settlement Class evidences the clear fairness and reasonableness of the Settlement. JCL Dec., ¶ 8.

An objective evaluation of the proposed settlement of Nine Hundred Eighty-Five Thousand Five Hundred Sixteen Dollars and Sixty-Seven Cents³ ($985,516.67) (“Gross Settlement Amount”) confirms that the relief negotiated on behalf of the Settlement Class is fair, reasonable, and valuable. The Settlement is a product of informed, adversarial, and non-collusive negotiations between experienced counsel and presided over by Tripper Ortman, Esq., a wage and hour class action mediator. After deducting any Court-approved attorneys’ fees and costs, the class representative incentive payment, administration costs, and the payments to the Labor & Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”), the net settlement fund shall be distributed to the Settlement Class based on the number of Workweeks they worked while employed by Defendants during the Class Period. JCL Dec., ¶ 8.

¹ The Agreement is attached as Ex “A” to the Declaration of Jean-Claude Lapuyade (“JCL Dec.”) at ¶ 3. All citations to the Agreement incorporate by this reference a citation to the JCL Dec., ¶ 3. Further, unless indicated otherwise, capitalized terms used herein have the same meaning as those defined by the Agreement.

² Eighty-Six (86) Notices were deemed undeliverable. Apex Dec. at ¶ 10.

³ The originally executed GSA was Seven Hundred Twenty-Five Thousand ($725,000). However, the escalator was triggered, and this Court later preliminarily approved the Nine Hundred Eighty-Five Thousand Five Hundred Sixteen Dollars and Sixty-Seven Cents ($985,516.67) in its Order on April 11, 2025.

1 This Settlement provides substantial recovery to Settlement Class Members. Plaintiff estimates 2 that the Settlement, if approved, would result in a Net Settlement Amount of approximately 3 $573,061.11. This will result in an average Individual Class Payment of $440.00, a high payment of 4 $3,387.59, and a low payment of $15.40. Apex Dec. at ¶ 16. Aggrieved Employees will receive an 5 estimated average gross payment of $18.01 and a high payment of $46.67. JCL Dec., ¶ 9; Apex Dec.
6 at ¶ 17.

7 The relief offered by the Settlement is immediate and is particularly impressive when viewed 8 against the difficulties encountered by plaintiffs pursuing similar wage and hour cases (see infra).
9 Indeed, by settling now rather than proceeding to trial, the Settlement Class will not have to wait 10 (possibly years) for relief, nor will they have to bear the risks associated with prolonged and uncertain 11 litigation. JCL Dec., ¶ 10.

12 As discussed below, the proposed Settlement satisfies all criteria for final settlement approval 13 under California law and falls well within the range of reasonableness. Accordingly, the Class 14 Representative and Class Counsel respectfully request this Court grant final approval of the Agreement 15 and enter the proposed Final Approval Order and Judgment. JCL Dec., ¶ 11.

16 II. OVERVIEW OF THE LITIGATION

17 Defendants operate five Brazilian steakhouse restaurants in California under the name Galpão 18 Gaucho, including in Contra Costa County, where Plaintiff was employed. This action asserts claims 19 on behalf of all of Defendants' current and former non-exempt employees employed in California at 20 any time during the Class Period. Plaintiff worked for Defendants as a non-exempt employee in 21 California from September of 2020 to October of 2021. At all times during his employment, Plaintiff 22 earned an hourly wage and was entitled to legally compliant meal and rest periods, and minimum, 23 regular and overtime wages for all hours worked. Throughout his employment, Plaintiff was subject 24 to Defendants' policies and procedures. JCL Dec., ¶ 12; Declaration of Jose Ramon De La Cruz ("De 25 La Cruz Dec."), ¶¶ 2-4.

26 Generally, Plaintiff claims that Defendants failed to pay for all time worked, failed to provide 27 compliant meal and rest periods, failed to reimburse for required business expenses, unlawfully 28 deducted uniform expenses from wages, failed to furnish accurate itemized wage statements, and failed

1 to pay all wages when due. Defendants forcefully deny liability for each of Plaintiff's claims. Further,
2 Defendants assert that they fully complied with all applicable employment laws and raised several other 3 significant defenses to Plaintiff's claims, including but not limited to, asserting that they paid 4 employees for all hours worked, maintained facially compliant meal and rest period policies, did not 5 engage in unlawful payroll deductions, issued compliant wage statements, and timely paid all wages 6 when due. JCL Dec., ¶ 13.

7 On July 1, 2024, Plaintiff served Defendants and the Labor and Workforce Development Agency
8 ("LWDA") with a Notice of Violations ("PAGA Notice"). Plaintiff's PAGA Notice set forth the facts 9 and theories supporting Defendants' alleged violations of various provisions of the California Labor 10 Code and applicable Industrial Welfare Commissions ("IWC") Wage Order and of his intent to pursue 11 claims under California Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act, Cal. Lab. Code Sections 2698 et 12 seq. ("PAGA"). JCL Dec., ¶ 14.

13 On July 20, 2023, Plaintiff filed a class action complaint in the Contra Costa Superior Court, Case 14 Number C23-01770 ("Action"). The Action alleged nine causes of action against Defendants for: (1) 15 Unfair Competition in violation of Bus. and Prof. Code §§ 17200; (2) failure to pay minimum wages 16 in violation of California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197 and 1197.1; (3) failure to pay overtime wages 17 in violation of California Labor Code sections 510, et seq.; (4) failure to provide required meal periods
18 in violation of California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512; (5) failure to provide required rest periods
19 in violation of California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512; (6) failure to provide accurate itemized 20 wage statements in violation of California Labor Code section 226; (7) failure to provide wages when 21 due in violation of California Labor Code sections 201, 202 and 203; (8) failure to reimburse employees 22 for necessary business expenses in violation of California Labor Code section 2802; and (9) failure to 23 provide gratuities in violation of California Labor Code section 351. On September 3, 2024, Plaintiff 24 filed a First Amended Complaint to add a claim for violations of the Private Attorneys General Act 25 ("PAGA"). JCL Dec., ¶ 15.

26 Once the Parties agreed to mediation, the Parties further agreed to informally produce documents 27 and data points subject to the mediation privilege, including but not limited to a sampling of the Class 28 Members' time data and certain payroll data points. As discussed infra, Plaintiff's counsel retained the forensic consultants at Berger Consulting Group (“BCG”) to analyze Defendants’ time and payroll data. JCL Dec., ¶ 16.

On February 20, 2025, and again on April 11, 2025, this Court granted preliminary approval of the Settlement. JCL Dec., ¶ 4. On April 22, 2025, the Administrator mailed Notice Packets to all 1,302 Settlement Class Members. Apex Dec., ¶ 7. The mailing of the Notice Packets triggered a forty-five (45) day Response Deadline for the Settlement Class to submit requests for exclusion or objections to the Settlement. The response from the Settlement Class to the Settlement was outstanding – 100% of the Class Members are participating in the Settlement. Apex Dec., ¶ 14.

III. THE SETTLEMENT BEFORE THE COURT

The Court preliminarily approved an escalated Gross Settlement Amount of Nine Hundred Eighty-Five Thousand Five Hundred Sixteen Dollars and Sixty-Seven Cents ($985,516.67) based on a total of an estimated 37,213 Workweeks worked by the Class during the Class Period. The Gross Settlement Amount shall be used: (1) to satisfy Individual Class Payments; (2) to satisfy the Class Representative Service Award; (3) to satisfy the Class Counsel Award; (4) to satisfy the PAGA Payment; and (5) to satisfy the Settlement Administration Expenses incurred in this action. JCL Dec., ¶ 18.

Assuming there are no objectors, and no appeal is filed, Defendants will fund the $985,516.67 Gross Settlement Amount on the Funding Date. Agreement at ¶ III.A.3.

The Administrator will calculate Individual Class Payments by dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members during the Class Period and then multiplying the result by each Participating Class Member's Workweeks worked during the Class Period. Agreement, ¶ III.M.2. The estimated average Individual Class Payment is approximately $440.10. JCL Dec., ¶ 9; Apex Dec., ¶ 16.

In exchange for the valuable consideration, as of the funding of the Gross Settlement Amount, Plaintiff and the Settlement Class Members will release the Released Parties from the Released Class Claims for the Class Period. Agreement at ¶ III.A.1. The Aggrieved Employees will release the Released Parties from the Released PAGA Claims for the PAGA Period. Agreement at ¶ III.C.

Apex Class Action, LLC was appointed as the Administrator for the Class. Settlement Administration Expenses include those expenses of effectuating and administering the Settlement, i.e.,

1 the costs incurred to the Administrator, the costs of giving notice to the Class, the costs of administering
2 and disbursing the Individual Class Payments, and the fees of the Administrator (“Settlement 3 Administration Expenses”) approved for reimbursement by the court. The Settlement Administration 4 Expenses is $13,950.00. Apex Dec., ¶ 19. These expenses shall be paid from the Gross Settlement 5 Amount. Agreement, ¶ III.M.12.

6 Subject to Court approval, Class Counsel shall seek a Class Counsel Award in the amount of 7 $358,505.56 comprised of attorneys’ fees of $328,505.56 (one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount) 8 and up to $30,000.00 for actually incurred litigation expenses. Plaintiff’s counsel is to split the fees 9 50% to the JCL Law Firm, APC, and 50% to the Zakay Law Group, APLC. Agreement, ¶ I.F. Plaintiff 10 and Class Counsel have in place a written contingency fee agreement wherein Plaintiff agreed to the 11 split of fees. JCL Dec., ¶ 18. The Agreement also provides for a Class Representative Service Award 12 in the amount of $10,000.00 for Plaintiff, in consideration of his time, risk, and efforts as the Class 13 Representative on behalf of the Settlement Class and a general release. De La Cruz Dec. ¶ 14; 14 Agreement, ¶ III.M.9.

15 As explained in further detail below, the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable to the class 16 and should be granted final approval. This is evidenced by the unanimous approval of the Settlement by 17 the Settlement Class, the absence of any objections to the Settlement and the average Individual Class 18 Payment of $440.10. Apex Dec., ¶¶ 11-14; JCL Dec., ¶ 19.

19 IV. GENERAL STANDARDS APPLICABLE TO JUDICIAL REVIEW AND APPROVAL
20 OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENTS

21 Settlements of disputed claims are favored by the courts. Huens v. Tatum (1997) 52 Cal.App.4th 22 259, 265. In evaluating settlements, the courts have long recognized that compromise is particularly 23 appropriate since such litigation is difficult and notoriously uncertain. 7-Eleven Owners for Fair Fran.
24 v. Southland Corp. (2000) 85 Cal.App.4th 1135, 1151 (“voluntary conciliation and settlement are the 25 preferred means of dispute resolution. This is especially true in complex class action litigation”).

26 “[T]o prevent fraud, collusion or unfairness to the class, the settlement or dismissal of a class 27 action requires court approval.” Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 citing 28 Malibu Outrigger Bd. Of Governors v. Superior Court (1980) 103 Cal.App.3d 573, 578-579. The court

1 must decide whether the proposed settlement falls within the range of reasonable settlements, 2 considering that settlements are compromises between the parties reflecting subjective, unquantifiable 3 judgments concerning the risks and possible outcomes of litigation. See also Wershba v. Apple
4 Computer (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 246 (The proposed settlement is not to be judged against a 5 hypothetical or speculative measure of what might have been achieved had plaintiffs prevailed at trial.”).
6 In Wershba, appellants argued that the settlement was too low given the “clear” liability, however, the 7 Court rejected this argument and held that “the merits of the underlying class claims are not a basis for 8 upsetting the settlement of a class action.” Wershba, supra, at 246; see also 7-Eleven, supra, at 1150.

9 In these cases, Courts have repeatedly emphasized that there is a strong initial presumption that 10 the compromise is fair and reasonable. Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 245. Courts should not substitute 11 their judgment for that of the parties who negotiated the settlement. Id. At 246. The presumption of 12 fairness exists where: (1) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act 13 intelligently; (2) the settlement is reached through arm’s-length bargaining; (3) counsel is experienced 14 in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small. Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801, citing 15 Newberg & Conte, Newberg on Class Actions, (3d ed. 1992) §11.41, pp. 11-91. Here, all of these factors 16 support a presumption of fairness.

17 The essential evaluation is whether, given the risks of litigation and the range of probable results, 18 the settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable, and adequate to all concerned. Here, the facts and 19 circumstances compel the conclusion that the proposed settlement satisfies that standard.

20 V. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR, REASONABLE, AND ADEQUATE

21 The court must determine whether the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable. Dunk v. Ford 22 Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801; see also Officers for Justice v. Civil Service Com'n (9th 23 Cir. 1982) 688 F. 2d 615, 625. The purpose of the requirement is "the protection of those class members, 24 including the named plaintiffs, whose rights may not have been given due regard by the negotiating 25 parties." Dunk, supra, at 1801.

26 The trial court has broad discretion to determine whether the settlement is fair. Rebney v. Wells 27 Fargo Bank (1990) 220 Cal.App.3d 1117, 1138. “The well-recognized factors that the trial court should 28 consider in evaluating the reasonableness of a class action settlement agreement include 'the strength of 1 plaintiffs' case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the risk of 2 maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery 3 completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, the presence of a 4 governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement.' [Citations.]"

8 Due regard should be given to what is otherwise a private consensual agreement between the parties.
9 Id. The inquiry "must be limited to the extent necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the agreement 10 is not the product of fraud or overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating parties, and that the 11 settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable and adequate to all concerned." Id. "Ultimately, the 12 [trial] court's determination is nothing more than 'an amalgam of delicate balancing, gross 13 approximations and rough justice.' [Citation omitted.]" Id.

14 These factors are analyzed seriatim below and all support final approval of the class action 15 settlement before this Court.

16 A. Class Counsel Conducted a Thorough Investigation.

17 As detailed in the motion for preliminary approval, Class Counsel thoroughly investigated the 18 proposed Class Members' claims, applicable law, and potential defenses. Specifically, Class Counsel 19 assessed the value of the class claims using data and documents provided by Defendants through 20 informal discovery. Class Counsel obtained time, payroll, and policy records, as well as data regarding 21 the number of Class Members, aggregate workweeks and pay periods data for the Class, full and 22 complete copies of applicable handbooks containing, inter alia, compensation, timekeeping, and meal 23 and rest period policies. Class Counsel retained Berger Consulting Group ("BCG") to analyze 24 Defendants' time and payroll data to formulate damage models estimating Defendants' liability 25 exposure. Class Counsel's investigation, research, experience, and damage models informed and 26 guided the mediated negotiations that resulted in this settlement. Accordingly, Plaintiff's Counsel fully 27 understood the strengths and weaknesses of the class claims before the parties reached a settlement.
28 JCL Dec., ¶ 19-27.

1 B. The Parties Settled At Mediation.

2 On July 1, 2024, the Parties attended a full-day mediation with Tripper Ortman, Esq., a mediator
3 of wage and hour class and representative actions. Mediator Ortman helped to manage the Parties' 4 expectations and provided a useful, neutral analysis of the issues and risks to both sides. The Parties 5 made substantial progress with Mediator Ortman's assistance. Namely, the Parties exchanged 6 information regarding their respective claims and defenses, including their respective evaluations of 7 the damages. The mediation concluded with a settlement, the complete and final terms of which are 8 now set forth in the Agreement. The amount of the Class Representative Service Award was not 9 negotiated until after the parties agreed to the Gross Settlement Amount and many other terms. No 10 action would likely have been taken by Class Members individually, and no compensation would have 11 been recovered for them, but for Plaintiff's service on behalf of the Class. JCL Dec., ¶ 28.

12 C. Class Counsel is Experienced in Similar Litigation.

13 Class Counsel in this matter have extensive class action experience in multiple fields and have 14 represented tens-of-thousands of persons in class actions. Counsel have previously litigated similar 15 wage and hour class actions involving similar claims. Class Counsel have been approved as class 16 counsel in similar wage and hour class actions throughout the State of California. As such, courts 17 throughout California have deemed Class Counsel experienced and knowledgeable in this area of law.
18 Class Counsel have participated in every aspect of the settlement discussions and have concluded the 19 settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable and in the best interests of the Class. JCL Dec., ¶¶ 29-35; 20 Declaration of Shani Zakay ("Zakay Dec."), ¶¶ 1-3.

21 D. The Settlement Class Responded Positively to the Settlement.

22 The reaction of the Settlement Class unequivocally supports approval of the Settlement.
23 Significantly, after dissemination of the notice to the Settlement Class, which provided each class 24 member with the terms of the Settlement, including the specific estimated Individual Class Payments.
25 As of the filing of this motion, none of the 1,302 members of the Settlement Class opted-out of the 26 Settlement. Moreover, there are zero objections. Stated differently, 100% of the Settlement Class 27 chose to participate in the Settlement. JCL Dec., ¶ 8; Apex Dec., ¶¶ 11-14.

28 The unanimous approval by the Settlement Class strongly supports a finding that the Settlement

1 is fair, reasonable, and adequate. See In re Austrian & German Bank Holocaust Litigation (S.D.N.Y.
2 2000)80 F.Supp.2d 164, 175 ("If only a small number of objections are received, that fact can be viewed 3 as indicative of the adequacy of the settlement."); Stoetznier v. U.S. Steel Corp. (3d. Cir. 1990) 897 F.2d 4 115, 118-119 (29 objections out of 281 member class "strongly favors settlement"); Laskey v. Int'l
5 Union (6th Cir. 1981) 638 F.2d 954 (The fact that 7 out of 109 class members objected to the proposed 6 settlement should be considered when determining fairness of settlement.). Consequently, Class 7 Counsel respectfully request the Court to follow the unanimous approval of the Settlement Class and 8 grant final approval of the Settlement.

9 E. The Gross Settlement Amount is Fair and Reasonable.

10 The Gross Settlement Amount of Nine Hundred Eighty-Five Thousand Five Hundred Sixteen 11 Dollars and Sixty-Seven Cents ($985,516.67) in this case is fair and well within the range of recognized 12 reasonableness. The Kullar court acknowledged that "as the court does when it approves a settlement 13 as in good faith under Code of Civil Procedure section 877.6, the court must at least satisfy itself that 14 the class settlement is within the 'ballpark' of reasonableness." Kullar, supra, at 129; See Tech-Bilt, 15 Inc. v. Woodward-Clyde & Associates, 38 Cal.3d 488, 499-500 (1985).)

16 Here, the Settlement is clearly within the "ballpark" of reasonableness because the Settlement 17 provides a sizeable recovery to the Settlement Class and need not necessarily obtain 100 percent of the 18 damages sought to be fair, reasonable, and ultimately, meaningful. Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 250.
19 While the Gross Settlement Amount represents a discount on Defendants' potential exposure if Plaintiff 20 established liability on all claims and was awarded the full amount of the estimated damages at trial, this 21 compromise is reasonable because (1) the formidable defenses raised by Defendants presented a risk 22 that could award significantly less in damages than Plaintiff's estimate and (2) any theoretical post-trial 23 recovery may require many more years of litigation, resulting in added fees and costs without any 24 guarantee of recovery for the Class. JCL Dec., ¶ 36.

25 As detailed at the time of preliminary approval, the Gross Settlement Amount is fair and 26 reasonable considering the nature and magnitude of the claims being settled and the various potential 27 impediments to recovery. Class Counsel developed varied economic damages models measuring 28 Defendants' liability exposure while accounting for the uncertainties of continued litigation. The various models were informed by Class Counsel’s investigation, including the analysis of a significant sample of time and payroll data. As detailed in greater depth during the preliminary approval process, Class Counsel projected a range of Defendants’ liability exposure for the claims asserted on behalf of the Settlement Class. The Gross Settlement Amount represents approximately 20.7% of Defendants’ class-wide liability exposure as estimated by Class Counsel at the time of mediation. JCL Dec., ¶ 37.

In Stovall-Gusman v. W.W. Granger, Inc., 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78671, at * 4, the District Court for the Northern District of California granted final approval in a wage and hour misclassification action and found that the Gross Settlement Amount representing 10% of the estimated trial award was within the “range of reasonableness.” In Dunleavy v. Nadler (In re Mego Fin. Corp. Sec. Litig.) (9th Cir. 2000) 213 F.3d 454, 459, the Ninth Circuit approved a settlement representing “roughly one-sixth of the potential recovery.” Given the amount of the settlement here as compared to potential value of the claims, particularly the strength of Plaintiff’s action, the settlement is clearly fair and reasonable⁴.

The calculation methodology used to compensate the Settlement Class for the alleged damages was negotiated at the time of the Settlement. More importantly, the methodology is fair, objective, and impartial. The calculation methodology is based on the number of Workweeks each Settlement Class Member worked for Defendants during the Class Period. The number of Workweeks for the Settlement Class Members is established through Defendants’ data and documented compensation records. The Administrator is responsible for calculating the Individual Class Payments by dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members during the Class Period and then multiplying the result by each Participating Class Member’s Workweeks worked during the Class Period. Agreement, ¶ III.M.2. This process establishes an objectively fair and reasonable procedure to compensate the Settlement Class.

The settlement also provides significant relief to the Settlement Class Members. After deductions Oct. 11, 2016, No. 15-CV-02198) 2016 WL 5907869, at *3, 7 (approving a California wage and hour settlement where the class received 11.6% of the estimated total liability, or approximately $29 per work week); Leverage v. Litig. (D.D.C. Oct. 23, 1998) 1998 WL 765724, at *2 (“Courts have not identified a precise numerical range within which a settlement must fall in order to be deemed reasonable; but an agreement that secures roughly six to twelve percent of a potential trial recovery, while preventing further expenditures and delays and eliminating the risk that no recovery at all will be won, seems to be within the targeted range of reasonableness.”).

for the Class Counsel Award, Settlement Administration Expenses, the PAGA Payment, and the Class Representative Service Award, the Net Settlement Amount is currently estimated to be $573,061.11. Apex Dec., ¶15. The average Individual Class Payment is approximately $440.10, the highest is approximately $3,387.59, and the lowest payment is approximately $15.40. Apex Dec., ¶ 16. This average net recovery is on par with many wage and hour class action settlements approved by California state and federal courts. See, e.g., Palencia v. 99 Cents Only Stores, No. 34-2010-00079619 (Sacramento County Super. Ct) (average net recovery of approximately $80); Fukuchi v. Pizza Hut, Case No. BC302589 (L.A. County Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of approximately $120); Contreras v. United Food Group, LLC, Case No. BC389253 (L.A. County Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of approximately $120); Ressler v. Federated Department Stores, Inc., Case No. BC335018 (L.A. County Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of approximately $90); Doty v. Costco Wholesale Corp., Case No. CV05-3241 FMC-JWJx (C.D. Cal. May 14, 2007) (average net recovery of approximately $65); Sorenson v. PetSmart, Inc., Case No. 2:06-CV-02674-JAM-DAD (ED. Cal.) (average net recovery of approximately $60); Lim v. Victoria's Secret Stores, Inc., Case No. 04CC00213 (Orange County Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of approximately $35); and Gomez v. Amadeus Salon, Inc., Case No. BC392297 (L.A. Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of approximately $20). Additionally, Defendants must separately fund their share of any employer side payroll taxes. Agreement, ¶ I.P.

Clearly the goal of this litigation to obtain redress for the class has been met by this Settlement. Given the amount of the Settlement, the risks of litigation and the arm's length negotiations between experienced counsel, the settlement is fair and reasonable, and is therefore entitled to final approval. JCL Dec., ¶ 38.

F. The Strength of Plaintiff's Case and Risks of Continued Litigation

Although Class Counsel believe strongly in Plaintiff's claims, it would be misguided to ignore the asserted defenses. If successful on any one of their defenses, Defendants could defend the action or, at least, drastically undercut Plaintiff's claims. JCL Dec., ¶ 39. As the federal court in Glass v. UBS Fin. Servs., 2007 WL221862 held, where the parties faced uncertainties similar to those in this litigation:

1 In light of the above-referenced uncertainty in the law, the risk, expense, 2 complexity, and likely duration of further litigation likewise favors the 3 settlement. Regardless of how this Court might have ruled on the merits of 4 the legal issues, the losing party likely would have appealed, and the parties 5 would have faced the expense and uncertainty of litigating an appeal. The 6 expense and possible duration of the litigation should be considered in 7 evaluating the reasonableness of [a] settlement.

8 With respect to the most immediate challenge, i.e., class certification, the risks attendant to the 9 certification of similar wage and hour claims are demonstrated by Ali v. U.S.A. Cab Ltd. (2009) 176
10 Cal.App.4th 1333, 1341. There, the Court of Appeal affirmed the Trial Court's denial of class 11 certification because employees' declarations attesting to having taken meal and rest breaks 12 demonstrated that individualized inquiries were required to show harm. See also Campbell v. Best Buy 13 Stores, L.P., (C.D. Cal. 2013) 2013 WL 5302217 at *11-13 (following Brinker and denying certification 14 of proposed off-the-clock and rest and meal break classes due to lack of uniform policy); Brown v. Fed 15 Express Corp. (C.D. Cal. 2008) 249 F.R.D. 580, 587-88 (denying certification of driver meal and rest 16 period claims based on the predominance of individual issues). JCL Dec., ¶ 40.

17 Further, even if a class is certified, liability remains uncertain. The risks attendant to the issue of 18 Defendants' liability in similar wage and hour actions are demonstrated by Duran v. U.S. Bank National 19 Association (2014) 59 Cal.4th 1, 31. There, the Court reversed a trial verdict in favor plaintiffs in a 20 wage and hour class action. See also Tien v. Tenet Healthcare Corp. (2012) 209 Cal.App.4th 1077, 1088 21 ("[T]he reason, if any, that employees might not take their breaks were predominantly individualized 22 questions of fact not susceptible to class treatment."). JCL Dec., ¶ 41.

23 Finally, even if a class is certified and Defendants are found liable for the class claims alleged, 24 post-certification risks remain, including a reversal of a favorable judgment for Plaintiff and 25 decertification of the class. These post-certification risks are demonstrated by Magadia v. Wal-Mart
26 Associates, Inc. (9th Cir. 2021) 999 F.3d 668. There, the Ninth Circuit vacated reversed and remanded 27 a $110 million judgement against an employer for, inter alia, inaccurately paying overtime, and 28 directed the trial court to enter judgement in favor of the employer. See also O'Conner v. Uber 29 Technologies, Inc. (9th Cir. 2018) 904 F.3d 1087 (decertification of wage and hour misclassification 30 action). JCL Dec., ¶ 42.

1 Collectively, the examples cited above illustrate the uncertain nature of class litigation.
2 Consequently, the uncertainty of obtaining certification through a contested motion is a significant risk 3 factor favoring settlement. JCL Dec., ¶ 43.

4 Although Plaintiff is confident about the strength of his claims, Plaintiff nevertheless recognizes 5 that Defendants have factual and legal defenses that, if successful, would potentially defeat or impair 6 the value of the lawsuit. Legally, the fast-changing landscape of wage and hour litigation can drastically 7 affect the value of Plaintiff's claims and, in fact, already has. JCL Dec., ¶ 44.

8 In a similar wage and hour case, the federal district court in Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc., 2009
9 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 33900 at * 19-20 (N.D. Cal. 2009), granted approval of an overtime class action 10 settlement and explained:

11 Plaintiffs may have a strong case, but the risks inherent in continued 12 litigation are great. Defendants strongly deny liability for Plaintiffs' 13 principal claim that full-time Service Associates were misclassified as 14 exempt. In addition to the uncertainties raised by Defendants at the 15 preliminary stage regarding Plaintiffs' chance of success in this case, 16 Defendants notes that the question of an employer's duty to provide rest and 17 meal periods is an open one, signaling even less certainty for 18 Plaintiffs.....[T]he Total Settlement amount and the Class Members' 19 expected net recovery, after fees and other costs are deducted, appear 20 to be a reasonable compromise, in light of the risks of litigation.

21 See also Browning v. Yahoo!, Inc., 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 86266, at *30 (N.D. Cal. 2007) ("In 22 considering the strength of Plaintiffs' case, legal uncertainties at the time of settlement - particularly 23 those which go to fundamental legal issues - favor approval.").

24 As recognized in a federal decision approving settlement of an overtime wage class action:

25 The potential complexity and possible duration of trial also weigh in 26 favor of granting final approval. Plaintiffs acknowledge the difficulties 27 of proving damages, recognize the uncertainty of outcome, and believe 28 defendant would appeal in the event of adverse judgment. A post-judgment appeal would require many years to resolve and delay payment to class members. Plaintiffs believe the benefits of a guaranteed recovery today outweigh an uncertain future result. Accordingly, plaintiffs argue, and the Court agrees, the actual recovery confers substantial benefits on the class that outweigh the potential recovery through full adjudication.

Barcia v. Contain-A-Way, Inc., 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 17118, *9 (S.D. Cal. 2009); see also Louie v.

1 Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Inc., 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78314, *14 (S.D. Cal. 2008).

2 In sum, while other cases have approved class certification in wage and hour claims, class 3 certification in this action would have been hotly disputed and was by no means a foregone conclusion.
4 Where both sides face significant uncertainty, as here, the attendant risks favor settlement. Hanlon v.
5 Chrysler Corp. (9th Cir. 1998) 150 F.3d 1011, 1026.)

6 As demonstrated by the decisions in Magadia, supra, 999 F.3d 668, O’Conner v. Uber
7 Technologies (N.D. Cal. 2018) 82 F.Supp.3d 1133 and Duran v. U.S. Bank National Assn. (2014) 59 8 Cal.4th 1, the complexities and duration of further litigation cannot be overstated. Plaintiff fully expects 9 that Defendants would appeal any favorable judgment. A post-judgment appeal by Defendants would 10 have required many more years to resolve, assuming the judgment was affirmed. If the judgment was 11 not affirmed in total, then the case could have dragged on for years after the appeal. The benefits of a 12 guaranteed recovery today outweigh an uncertain result three or more years in the future. JCL Dec., ¶ 13 45.

14 Class Representative and Class Counsel believe that the Settlement confers substantial monetary 15 and non-monetary benefits upon the Class. Based upon their evaluation, Class Representative and 16 Class Counsel have determined that the Settlement set forth in the Agreement is in the best interest of 17 the Class, is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and should be granted final approval. JCL Dec., ¶ 46.

18 VI. THE PENALTIES UNDER THE PRIVATE ATTORNEY GENERAL ACT OF 2004 ARE 19 REASONABLE

20 Where settlements “negotiate a good faith amount” for PAGA penalties and “there is no 21 indication that this amount was the result of self-interest at the expense of class members,” such 22 amounts are generally considered reasonable. Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc., No. CV-08-0844 EDL, 23 2009 WL 928133, at *9 (N.D. Cal. Apr. 3, 2009). Courts routinely approve of amounts for PAGA
24 penalties in the range of zero to two percent of the settlement. See id. at *1, 9 (approving a PAGA 25 payment of 0.3%); Jack v. Hartford Fire Ins. Co., No. 09cv1683 MMA (JMA), 2011 WL 4899942, at 26 *6 (S.D. Cal. Oct. 13, 2011) (approving a PAGA payment of 0.25%); McKenzie v. Fed. Express Corp., 27 No. CV 10-02420 GAF (PLAx), 2012 WL 12882124, at *5 (C.D. Cal. Jan. 23, 2012) (acknowledging 28 that courts approve PAGA claim settlements in the range of zero to two percent of the total settlement).

1 Here, Plaintiff and Defendants negotiated a good faith PAGA Payment in the amount of $30,000
2 which is approximately 3% of the Gross Settlement Amount. As illustrated above, this amount falls
3 well within the range of approved PAGA Payments. Seventy-five percent (75%) of the PAGA 4 Payment ($22,500) will be paid to the LWDA ("LWDA Payment") with the remaining twenty-five 5 percent (25%) of the PAGA Payment ($7,500) to be distributed to the Aggrieved Employees 6 ("Individual PAGA Payments"), which is within the range of PAGA penalties approved by courts and 7 should be approved. JCL Dec., ¶ 47.

8 Class Counsel gave the LWDA notice of this Settlement and proposed allocation by filing a 9 copy of the Settlement, the Motion for Preliminary Approval, and this motion seeking final approval 10 with the LWDA. JCL Dec., ¶¶ 4-6, 48. By not registering an objection with either Class Counsel or 11 the Court, the LWDA has accepted and approved of the proposed PAGA Payment.

12 VII. CONCLUSION

13 Plaintiff respectfully submits that the proposed settlement satisfies the standard of fairness 14 established in California law and should therefore be finally approved as fair, reasonable, and adequate 15 and requests entry of the Final Approval Order and Judgment submitted herewith.
