1 I. INTRODUCTION

2 Plaintiff ABIGAIL MCMURRY (hereinafter “Plaintiff”) seeks final approval of the Stipulation
3 of Settlement of Class and PAGA Action Claims and Release of Claims (“Agreement”)¹, which if 4 approved, would provide valuable monetary relief for 116 Settlement Class Members employed by 5 Defendant NVN MANAGEMENT LLC (dba ARBOR LODGING MANAGEMENT and NVN 6 HOTELS), Defendant ARBOR LODGING PARTNERS LLC, and/or Defendant NVN SAN 7 LEANDRO LLC (hereinafter, collectively referred to as “Defendants” and/or “Defendant”) during the 8 Class Period.

9 In an order dated February 29, 2024, this Court preliminarily approved the Agreement and 10 preliminarily certified the Class. Declaration of Jean-Claude Lapuyade (“JCL Dec.”), ¶ 4. On March 11 21, 2024, the Court-approved Class Notice was mailed to each Class Member via U.S. First Class Mail.
12 Declaration of Madely Nava of Apex Class Action, LLC (“Apex Dec.”), ¶ 7.

13 The Class greeted news of the Settlement with unanimous approval. There are zero objections
14 and zero opt-outs to the Settlement. Apex Dec., ¶¶ 10-11. The 100% approval by the Class evidences 15 the clear fairness and reasonableness of the Settlement. JCL Dec., ¶ 10.

16 An objective evaluation of the proposed settlement of Two Hundred Sixty-Seven Thousand
17 Dollars and Zero Cents ($267,000.00) (“Gross Settlement Amount”) confirms that the relief negotiated
18 on behalf of the Settlement Class Members is fair, reasonable, and valuable. The Settlement is a product
19 of informed, adversarial, and non-collusive negotiations, between experienced counsel, and presided
20 over by the Hon. Brian C. Walsh (Ret.). After deducting any Court-approved attorneys’ fees and costs,
21 the class representative service award, administration costs, and the payments to the Labor &
22 Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”), the Net Settlement Amount shall be distributed to 23 Settlement Class Members based on the number of Workweeks they were employed by Defendants 24 during the Class Period. JCL Dec., ¶ 10.

25 This Settlement provides substantial recovery for Defendants’ alleged wage and hour violations.

26
27 ¹ The Agreement is attached as Ex “1” to the Declaration of Jean-Claude Lapuyade (“JCL Dec.”) at ¶ 3. All citations to the 28 Agreement incorporate by this reference a citation to the JCL Dec., ¶ 3. Further, unless indicated otherwise, capitalized terms used herein have the same meaning as those defined by the Agreement.

1 Plaintiff estimates that the Settlement, if approved, would result in a Net Settlement Amount of 2 approximately $129,000.00. This will result in an average Individual Settlement Payment of $1,112.07
3 and a high payment of $5,763.53. JCL Dec., ¶ 11; Apex Dec. at ¶ 14.

4 The relief offered by the Settlement is immediate and is particularly impressive when viewed 5 against the difficulties encountered by plaintiffs pursuing similar wage and hour cases (see infra).
6 Indeed, by settling now rather than proceeding to trial, the Class Members will not have to wait
7 (possibly years) for relief, nor will they have to bear the risks associated with prolonged and uncertain
8 litigation. JCL Dec., ¶ 12.

9 As discussed below, the proposed Settlement satisfies all criteria for final settlement approval
10 under California law and falls well within the range of reasonableness. Accordingly, the Class 11 Representative and Class Counsel respectfully request that this Court grant final approval of the 12 Agreement and enter the proposed Final Approval Order and Judgment. JCL Dec., ¶ 13.

13 II. OVERVIEW OF THE LITIGATION

14 Defendants own, operate, and/or manage hotels throughout the state of California. This action
15 asserts claims on behalf of Defendants' non-exempt employees working in California. Plaintiff worked 16 for Defendants as a non-exempt employee in California from March of 2022 to August of 2022. At all 17 times during her employment, Plaintiff earned an hourly wage, including overtime, and was entitled to 18 legally compliant meal and/or rest periods. Throughout her employment, Plaintiff was subject to 19 Defendants' written policies and procedures. JCL Dec., ¶ 14.

20 Generally, Plaintiff claims that Defendants failed to provide compliant meal and rest periods,
21 failed to pay overtime, and sick pay, at the correct regular rate of pay, failed to furnish accurate itemized
22 wage statements, failed to pay all wages when due and failed to reimburse employees for mandatory
23 business expenses. Defendants forcefully deny liability for each of Plaintiff's claims. Further,
24 Defendants assert that they fully complied with all applicable employment laws and raised several other
25 significant defenses to Plaintiff's claims, including but not limited to, facially compliant meal and rest 26 period policies, compliant wage statements, and timely payment all wages due upon separation of 27 employment. JCL Dec., ¶ 15.

1 On December 14, 2022, Plaintiff filed a Notice of Violations (“PAGA Notice”) with the LWDA
2 and served the same on Defendants. Plaintiff’s PAGA Notice set forth the facts and theories supporting
3 Defendants’ alleged violations of various California Labor Code and applicable Industrial Welfare
4 Commissions (“IWC”) Wage Orders and of her intent to pursue claims under the California Labor Code
5 Private Attorneys General Act, Cal. Lab. Code sections 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”). JCL Dec., ¶ 16.

6 On February 21, 2023, Plaintiff filed a class action complaint in the Alameda Superior Court,
7 Case Number 23CV028220 (“Action”). The Action alleged nine causes of action against Defendants
8 for: (1) Unfair Competition in Violation of California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200; (2)
9 Failure to Pay Minimum Wages in Violation of California Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197 and 1197.1 (3)
10 Failure to Pay Overtime Wages in Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 et seq.; (4) Failure to 11 Provide Required Meal Periods in Violation of Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7 and 512; (5) Failure to Provide 12 Required Rest Periods in Violation of Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7 and 512; (6) Failure to Provide Wages
13 When Due in Violation of Cal. Lab. Code §§ 201, 202 and 203; (7) Failure to Provide Accurate
14 Itemized Wage Statements in Violation of Cal. Lab. Code §226; and (8) Violation of the Private 15 Attorneys General Act [Labor Code §§ 2698 et seq.]. JCL Dec., ¶ 17.

16 Plaintiff and Defendants agreed to mediate the Action with the Hon. Brian C. Walsh (Ret.), a 17 respected jurist and mediator. In anticipation of mediation, the Parties agreed to stay formal discovery
18 and continue responsive pleading deadlines in the Action. To prepare for mediation, Defendants agreed 19 to informally produce documents and data points subject to the mediation privilege, including but not 20 limited to, a sample of the Class Members’ time and payroll records. As discussed infra, Plaintiff’s
21 counsel retained the forensic consultants at Berger Consulting Group (“BCG”) to analyze Defendants’
22 time and payroll data. JCL Dec., ¶ 18.

23 On September 21, 2023, the Parties participated in a full day mediation with Judge Walsh. After 24 arms-length negotiations and bargaining, the Parties reached an agreement to settle and signed a 25 Memorandum of Understanding. Subsequently, the Parties drafted and negotiated a long-form 26 settlement agreement, which is the subject of the instant motion. The Parties now seek approval of the 27 entire Agreement. JCL Dec., ¶ 19.

On February 29, 2024, this Court granted preliminary approval of the Settlement. JCL Dec., ¶ 4. On March 21, 2024, the Settlement Administrator mailed Notice Packets to all 116 Class Members. Apex Dec., ¶ 7. The mailing of the Notice Packets triggered a forty-five (45) day Response Deadline for the Class to submit requests for exclusion or objections to the Settlement. The response from the Class to the Settlement was outstanding – 100% of the Class Members are participating in the Settlement. Apex Dec., ¶ 10.

III. THE SETTLEMENT BEFORE THE COURT

The Court preliminarily approved an initial Gross Settlement Amount of Two Hundred Sixty-Seven Thousand Dollars ($267,000.00) based on a total of an estimated 6,673 workweeks that the Class were employed during the Class Period. The Gross Settlement Amount shall be used: (1) to satisfy Individual Class Settlement Payments; (2) to satisfy the Service Award; (3) to satisfy the Attorneys’ Fees Payment and Attorneys’ Expenses Payment (collectively hereinafter “Attorneys’ Fees and Expenses Payment”); (4) to satisfy the PAGA Payment; and (5) to satisfy the Claims Administration Expenses incurred in this action. JCL Dec., ¶ 20.

Defendants will fund the Settlement by transferring the Gross Settlement Amount into a Qualified Settlement Fund by the Funding Date. Agreement, ¶ III(A)(3). The Settlement Administrator shall disburse the Individual Settlement Payments to the Settlement Class Members no later than fifteen (15) calendar days after the Funding Date. Agreement, ¶ III(N)(7). The Settlement Administrator will calculate Individual Settlement Payments by adding up the total number of Workweeks for all Class Members. The Settlement Administrator will then divide the Net Settlement Amount by the Workweek Total, resulting in a Workweek Value for each Class Member. Each Workweek Value is then multiplied by the number of Workweeks of all Settlement Class Members to calculate each estimated Individual Settlement Payments. Agreement, ¶ III(N)(1). The estimated average Individual Class Settlement Payment is approximately $1,112.07. Apex Dec., ¶ 14.

In exchange for the valuable consideration, as of the funding of the Gross Settlement Amount, the Settlement Class Member will release the Released Parties from the Released Class Claims that accrued during the Class Period. Agreement, ¶ III(B).

1 Apex Class Action LLC was appointed as the Settlement Administrator for the Class. The Claims
2 Administration Expenses include those expenses of effectuating and administering the Settlement, i.e.,
3 the costs incurred by the Settlement Administrator, the costs of giving notice to the Class, the costs of 4 administering and disbursing the Individual Settlement Payments, and the fees of the Settlement
5 Administrator approved for reimbursement by the court. The Settlement Administrator expenses are 6 $7,000.00. Apex Dec., ¶ 17. These expenses shall be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount.
7 Agreement, ¶ III(N)(12).

8 Subject to Court approval, Class Counsel shall seek an Attorneys' Fees and Expenses Payment in 9 the amount of $109,000.00 comprised of attorneys' fees equal to one-third of the Gross Settlement
10 Amount ($89,000.00) and up to $20,000 for actually incurred litigation expenses. Agreement, ¶
11 III(N)(10). Plaintiff's counsel is to split the fees 50% to the JCL Law Firm, APC, and 50% to the Zakay
12 Law Group, APLC. Agreement, ¶ I(E). The Agreement also provides for a Service Award in the amount 13 of $10,000 for Plaintiff, in consideration of her time, risk, and efforts as the Class Representative on 14 behalf of the Class. Agreement, ¶ III(N)(9).

15 As explained in further detail below, the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable to the class
16 and should be granted final approval. This is evidenced by the unanimous approval of the Settlement by 17 the Class, the absence of any objections to the Settlement and the average Individual Settlement Payment 18 of $1,112.07. Apex Dec., ¶¶ 10, 11, 14; JCL Dec., ¶ 21.

19 IV. GENERAL STANDARDS APPLICABLE TO JUDICIAL REVIEW AND APPROVAL
20 OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENTS

21 Settlements of disputed claims are favored by the courts. Huens v. Tatum (1997) 52 Cal.App.4th 22 259, 265. In evaluating settlements, the courts have long recognized that compromise is particularly 23 appropriate since such litigation is difficult and notoriously uncertain. 7-Eleven Owners for Fair Fran.
24 v. Southland Corp. (2000) 85 Cal.App.4th 1135, 1151 ("voluntary conciliation and settlement are the 25 preferred means of dispute resolution. This is especially true in complex class action litigation").

26 "[T]o prevent fraud, collusion or unfairness to the class, the settlement or dismissal of a class 27 action requires court approval." Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 citing

1 Malibu Outrigger Bd. Of Governors v. Superior Court (1980) 103 Cal.App.3d 573, 578-579. The court
2 must decide whether the proposed settlement falls within the range of reasonable settlements,
3 considering that settlements are compromises between the parties reflecting subjective, unquantifiable
4 judgments concerning the risks and possible outcomes of litigation. See also Wershba v. Apple
5 Computer (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 2246 (The proposed settlement is not to be judged against a 6 hypothetical or speculative measure of what might have been achieved had plaintiffs prevailed at trial.”).
7 In Wershba, appellants argued that the settlement was too low given the “clear” liability, however, the 8 Court rejected this argument and held that “the merits of the underlying class claims are not a basis for 9 upsetting the settlement of a class action.” Wershba, supra, at 246; see also 7-Eleven, supra, at 1150.

10 In these cases, Courts have repeatedly emphasized that there is a strong initial presumption that 11 the compromise is fair and reasonable. Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 245. Courts should not substitute 12 their judgment for that of the parties who negotiated the settlement. Id. At 246. The presumption of 13 fairness exists where: (1) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act
14 intelligently; (2) the settlement is reached through arm’s-length bargaining; (3) counsel is experienced
15 in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small. Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801, citing
16 Newberg & Conte, Newberg on Class Actions, (3d ed. 1992) §11.41, pp. 11-91. Here, all of these factors 17 support a presumption of fairness.

18 The essential evaluation is whether, given the risks of litigation and the range of probable results, 19 the settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable, and adequate to all concerned. Here, the facts and 20 circumstances compel the conclusion that the proposed settlement satisfies that standard.

21 V. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR, REASONABLE, AND ADEQUATE

22 The court must determine whether the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable. Dunk v. Ford
23 Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801; see also Officers for Justice v. Civil Service Com'n (9th 24 Cir. 1982) 688 F. 2d 615, 625. The purpose of the requirement is "the protection of those class members,
25 including the named plaintiffs, whose rights may not have been given due regard by the negotiating 26 parties." Dunk, supra, at 1801.

27 The trial court has broad discretion to determine whether the settlement is fair. Rebney v. Wells

1 Fargo Bank (1990) 220 Cal.App.3d 1117, 1138. “The well-recognized factors that the trial court should 2 consider in evaluating the reasonableness of a class action settlement agreement include 'the strength of 3 plaintiffs' case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the risk of 4 maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery
5 completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, the presence of a 6 governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement.' [Citations.]”
7 Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 128; see also Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola
8 Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408.

9 The list of factors is not exhaustive and should be tailored to each case. Dunk, supra, at 1801.
10 Due regard should be given to what is otherwise a private consensual agreement between the parties.
11 Id. The inquiry “must be limited to the extent necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the agreement 12 is not the product of fraud or overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating parties, and that the 13 settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable and adequate to all concerned.” Id. “Ultimately, the 14 [trial] court's determination is nothing more than 'an amalgam of delicate balancing, gross 15 approximations and rough justice.' [Citation omitted.]” Id.

16 These factors are analyzed seriatim below and all support final approval of the class action
17 settlement before this Court.

18 A. Class Counsel Conducted a Thorough Investigation.

19 As detailed in the motion for preliminary approval, Class Counsel thoroughly investigated the 20 proposed Class Members’ claims, applicable law, and potential defenses. Specifically, Class Counsel
21 assessed the value of the class claims using data and documents provided by Defendants through formal
22 and informal discovery. Class Counsel obtained time, payroll, and policy records, as well as data
23 regarding the number of Class Members, workweeks, and average rate of pay to assess damages before
24 mediation. Class Counsel retained BCG to analyze Defendants’ time and payroll data to formulate 25 damage models estimating Defendants’ liability exposure. Class Counsel’s investigation, research, 26 experience, and damage models informed and guided the mediated negotiations that resulted in this 27 settlement. Accordingly, Plaintiff’s Counsel fully understood the strengths and weaknesses of the class claims before the parties reached a settlement. JCL Dec., ¶ 22-27.
28

B. The Parties Settled Following Mediation.

On September 21, 2023, the Parties conducted a full day mediation with the Hon. Brian C. Walsh (Ret.), an experienced jurist and mediator. Judge Walsh helped to manage the Parties' expectations and provided a useful, neutral analysis of the issues and risks to both sides. The Parties made substantial progress with Judge Walsh's assistance. Namely, the Parties exchanged information regarding their respective claims and defenses, including their respective evaluations of the damages. After more than eight hours of arm's length and adversarial negotiations, the mediation concluded with a settlement. The amount of the service award was not negotiated until after the parties agreed to the Gross Settlement Amount and many other terms. No action would likely have been taken by Class Members individually, and no compensation would have been recovered for them, but for Plaintiff's service on behalf of the Class. JCL Dec., ¶ 28

C. Class Counsel is Experienced in Similar Litigation.

Class Counsel in this matter has extensive class action experience in multiple fields and has represented tens-of-thousands of persons in class actions. Counsel has previously litigated similar wage and hour class actions involving similar claims. Class Counsel has been approved as class counsel in similar wage and hour class actions throughout the State of California. As such, courts throughout California have deemed Class Counsel experienced and knowledgeable in this area of law. Class Counsel has participated in every aspect of the settlement discussions and has concluded the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable and in the best interests of the Class. JCL Dec., ¶¶ 29-35; Declaration of Shani Zakay ("Zakay Dec."), ¶¶ 1-3.

D. The Class Responded Positively to the Settlement.

The reaction of the Class unequivocally supports approval of the Settlement. Significantly, after dissemination of the notice to the Class, which provided each class member with the terms of the Settlement, including the specific estimated Individual Class Settlement Payments. To date, none of the 116 members of the Class opted out of the Settlement. Moreover, there are no objections. Stated differently, 100% of the Class chose to participate in the Settlement. Apex Dec., ¶¶ 10-12.

1 The unanimous approval by the Class strongly supports a finding that the Settlement is fair,
2 reasonable, and adequate. See In re Austrian & German Bank Holocaust Litigation (S.D.N.Y. 2000) 80
3 F.Supp.2d 164, 175 ("If only a small number of objections are received, that fact can be viewed as 4 indicative of the adequacy of the settlement."); Stoetznner v. U.S. Steel Corp. (3d. Cir. 1990) 897 F.2d
5 115, 118-119 (29 objections out of 281 member class "strongly favors settlement"); Laskey v. Int'l
6 Union (6th Cir. 1981) 638 F.2d 954 (The fact that 7 out of 109 class members objected to the proposed
7 settlement should be considered when determining fairness of settlement.). Consequently, Class
8 Counsel respectfully requests the Court to follow the unanimous approval of the Class and grant final 9 approval of the Settlement.

10 E. The Gross Settlement Amount is Fair and Reasonable.

11 The Gross Settlement Amount of Two Hundred Sixty-Seven Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents
12 ($267,000.00) in this case is fair and well within the range of recognized reasonableness. The Kullar
13 court acknowledged that "as the court does when it approves a settlement as in good faith under Code
14 of Civil Procedure section 877.6, the court must at least satisfy itself that the class settlement is within 15 the 'ballpark' of reasonableness." Kullar, supra, at 129; See Tech-Bilt, Inc. v. Woodward-Clyde &
16 Associates, 38 Cal.3d 488, 499-500 (1985).)

17 Here, the Settlement is clearly within the "ballpark" of reasonableness because the Settlement
18 provides a sizeable recovery to the Settlement Class Member and need not necessarily obtain 100 percent
19 of the damages sought to be fair, reasonable, and ultimately, meaningful. Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 20 250. While the Gross Settlement Amount of Two Hundred Sixty-Seven Thousand Dollars and Zero
21 Cents ($267,000.00) represents a discount on Defendants' potential exposure if Plaintiff established
22 liability on all claims and was awarded the full amount of the estimated damages at trial, this
23 compromise is reasonable because (1) the formidable defenses raised by Defendants presented a risk
24 that could award significantly less in damages than Plaintiff's estimate and (2) any theoretical post-trial
25 recovery may require many more years of litigation, resulting in added fees and costs without any 26 guarantee of recovery for the Class. JCL Dec., ¶ 36.

27 As detailed at the time of preliminary approval, the Gross Settlement Amount is fair and reasonable considering the nature and magnitude of the claims being settled and the various potential impediments to recovery. Class Counsel developed varied economic damage models measuring Defendants' liability exposure while accounting for the uncertainties of continued litigation. The various models were informed by Class Counsel's investigation, including the analysis of a significant sample of time and payroll data. Detailed in greater depth during the preliminary approval process, Class Counsel projected a range of Defendants' liability exposure for the claims asserted on behalf of the Class. The Gross Settlement Amount represents approximately 48.18% of Defendants' class-wide liability exposure as estimated by Class Counsel at the time of mediation. JCL Dec., ¶ 37.
28

In Stovall-Gusman v. W.W. Granger, Inc., 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78671, at * 12, the District Court for the Northern District of California granted final approval in a wage and hour misclassification action and found that the Gross Settlement Amount representing 10% of the estimated trial award was within the "range of reasonableness." In Dunleavy v. Nadler (In re Mego Fin. Corp. Sec. Litig.) (9th Cir. 2000) 213 F.3d 454, 459, the Ninth Circuit approved a settlement representing "roughly one-sixth of the potential recovery." Given the amount of the settlement here as compared to potential value of the claims, particularly the strength of Plaintiff's action, the settlement is clearly fair and reasonable.²

The calculation methodology used to compensate the Settlement Class Members for the alleged damages was negotiated at the time of the Settlement. More importantly, the methodology is fair, objective, and impartial. The calculation methodology is based on the number of Workweeks each Settlement Class Member was employed for Defendants during the Class Period. The number of Workweeks for the Settlement Class Member is established through Defendants' data and documented compensation records. The Settlement Administrator is responsible for calculating the Individual Settlement Payments by multiplying the Workweek Value for each Settlement Class Member by the Net

Oct. 11, 2016, No. 15-CV-02198) 2016 WL 5907869, at *3, 7 (approving a California wage and hour settlement where the class received 11.6% of the estimated total liability, or approximately $29 per work week); Leverage v. Traeger Pellet Grills, LLC (N.D. Cal. June 28, 2017, No. 16-CV-00784) 2017 WL 2797811, at *7 (Approving a California wage and hour settlement where the class received 18% of the estimated total liability); see also In re Newbridge Networks Sec. Litig. (D.D.C. Oct. 23, 1998) 1998 WL 765724, at *2 ("Courts have not identified a precise numerical range within which a settlement must fall in order to be deemed reasonable; but an agreement that secures roughly six to twelve percent of a potential trial recovery, while preventing further expenditures and delays and eliminating the risk that no recovery at all will be won, seems to be within the targeted range of reasonableness.").

1 Settlement Amount. The Settlement Administrator will calculate the payment ratio by dividing the total
2 number of Workweeks for each Settlement Class Member by the total number of Workweeks for all
3 Settlement Class Member. This process establishes an objectively fair and reasonable procedure to 4 compensate the Class. Agreement, ¶ III(N)(1).

5 The settlement also provides significant relief to the Settlement Class Members. After deductions
6 for the Attorneys' Fees and Expenses Payment, Claims Administration Expenses, the PAGA Payment,
7 and the Service Award, the Net Settlement Amount is currently estimated to be $129,000.00. Apex Dec.,
8 ¶ 13. The average settlement payment is approximately $1,112.07, and the highest is approximately 9 $5,763.53. Apex Dec., ¶ 14. Additionally, Defendants must separately fund their share of any employer
10 side payroll taxes. Agreement, ¶ III(A)(4).

11 Clearly the goal of this litigation to obtain redress for the class has been met by this Settlement.
12 Given the amount of the Settlement, the risks of litigation and the arm's length negotiations between 13 experienced counsel, the settlement is fair and reasonable, and is therefore entitled to final approval.
14 JCL Dec., ¶ 38.

15 F. The Strength of Plaintiff's Case and Risks of Continued Litigation

16 Although Class Counsel believes strongly in Plaintiff's claims, it would be misguided to ignore
17 the asserted defenses. If successful on any one of its defenses, Defendants could defend the action or,
18 at least, drastically undercut Plaintiff's claims. JCL Dec., ¶ 39. As the federal court in Glass v. UBS
19 Fin. Servs., 2007 WL221862 held, where the parties faced uncertainties similar to those in this 20 litigation:

21 In light of the above-referenced uncertainty in the law, the risk, expense, 22 complexity, and likely duration of further litigation likewise favors the 23 settlement. Regardless of how this Court might have ruled on the merits of 24 the legal issues, the losing party likely would have appealed, and the parties
25 would have faced the expense and uncertainty of litigating an appeal. The 26 expense and possible duration of the litigation should be considered in 27 evaluating the reasonableness of [a] settlement.

28 With respect to the most immediate challenge, i.e., class certification, the risks attendant to the certification of similar wage and hour claims are demonstrated by Magadia v. Wal-Mart Associates,

1 Inc. (9th Cir. 2021) 999 F.3d 668. There, the Ninth Circuit, vacated reversed and remanded a $110
2 million judgement against an employer for, inter alia, inaccurately paying overtime, and directed the 3 trial court to enter judgement in favor of the employer. See also O’Conner v. Uber Technologies, Inc.
4 (9th Cir. 2018) 904 F.3d 1087 (decertification of wage and hour misclassification action); see also
5 Duran v. U.S. Bank National Association (2014) 59 Cal.4th 1, 31 (reversing a trial verdict in favor
6 plaintiffs in a wage and hour class action)); Tien v. Tenet Healthcare Corp. (2012) 209 Cal.App.4th
7 1077, 1088 (“[T]he reason, if any, that employees might not take their breaks were predominantly
8 individualized questions of fact not susceptible to class treatment.”); Ali v. U.S.A. Cab Ltd. (2009) 176
9 Cal.App.4th 1333, 1341 (affirming denial of certification because employees’ declarations attesting to 10 having taken meal and rest breaks demonstrated that individualized inquiries were required to show
11 harm); Campbell v. Best Buy Stores, L.P., (C.D. Cal. 2013) 2013 WL 5302217 at *11-13 (following 12 Brinker and denying certification of proposed off-the-clock and rest and meal break classes due to lack 13 of uniform policy); Brown v. Fed Express Corp. (C.D. Cal. 2008) 249 F.R.D. 580, 587-88 (denying 14 certification of driver meal and rest period claims based on the predominance of individual issues).
15 Collectively, the examples cited above illustrate the uncertain nature of class litigation. Consequently,
16 the uncertainty of obtaining certification through a contested motion is a significant risk factor favoring 17 settlement. JCL Dec., ¶ 40.

18 Although Plaintiff is confident about the strength of her claims, Plaintiff nevertheless recognizes
19 that Defendants have factual and legal defenses that, if successful, would potentially defeat or impair
20 the value of the lawsuit. Legally, the fast-changing landscape of wage and hour litigation can drastically
21 affect the value of Plaintiff’s claims and, in fact, already has. JCL Dec., ¶ 41.

22 In a similar wage and hour case, the federal district court in Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc., 2009
23 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 33900 at * 19-20 (N.D. Cal. 2009), granted approval of an overtime class action
24 settlement and explained:

25 Plaintiffs may have a strong case, but the risks inherent in continued
26 litigation are great. Defendants strongly deny liability for Plaintiffs’ 27 principal claim that full-time Service Associates were misclassified as 28 exempt. In addition to the uncertainties raised by Defendants at the preliminary stage regarding Plaintiffs’ chance of success in this case,

Defendants notes that the question of an employer's duty to provide rest and meal periods is an open one, signaling even less certainty for Plaintiffs.....[T]he Total Settlement amount and the Class Members' expected net recovery, after fees and other costs are deducted, appear to be a reasonable compromise, in light of the risks of litigation.

See also Browning v. Yahoo!, Inc., 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 86266, at *30 (N.D. Cal. 2007) (“In considering the strength of Plaintiffs’ case, legal uncertainties at the time of settlement - particularly those which go to fundamental legal issues - favor approval.”).

As recognized in a federal decision approving settlement of an overtime wage class action:

The potential complexity and possible duration of trial also weigh in favor of granting final approval. Plaintiffs acknowledge the difficulties of proving damages, recognize the uncertainty of outcome, and believe defendant would appeal in the event of adverse judgment. A post-judgment appeal would require many years to resolve and delay payment to class members. Plaintiffs believe the benefits of a guaranteed recovery today outweigh an uncertain future result. Accordingly, plaintiffs argue, and the Court agrees, the actual recovery confers substantial benefits on the class that outweigh the potential recovery through full adjudication.

Barcia v. Contain-A-Way, Inc., 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 17118, *9 (S.D. Cal. 2009); see also Louie v. Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Inc., 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78314, *14 (S.D. Cal. 2008).

In sum, while other cases have approved class certification in wage and hour claims, class certification in this action would have been hotly disputed and was by no means a foregone conclusion. Where both sides face significant uncertainty, as here, the attendant risks favor settlement. Hanlon v. Chrysler Corp. (9th Cir. 1998) 150 F.3d 1011, 1026.)

As demonstrated by the decisions in Magadia, supra, 999 F.3d 668, O’Conner v. Uber Technologies (N.D. Cal. 2018) 82 F.Supp.3d 1133 and Duran v. U.S. Bank National Assn. (2014) 59 Cal.4th 1, the complexities and duration of further litigation cannot be overstated. There is little doubt that if Defendants faced a large adverse judgement, Defendants undoubtedly have the resources to post a bond and appeal. A post-judgment appeal by Defendants would have required many more years to resolve, assuming the judgment was affirmed. If the judgment was not affirmed in total, then the case could have dragged on for years after the appeal. The benefits of a guaranteed recovery today outweigh an uncertain result three or more years in the future. JCL Dec., ¶ 42.

1 Class Representative and Class Counsel recognize the expense and length of a trial against
2 Defendants through possible appeals which could take another three years. In arriving at their informed
3 belief that the present settlement is fair and adequate, Class Counsel accounted for the uncertain outcome
4 and risk inherent in complex actions such as this one. Class Counsel is also mindful of and recognize 5 the inherent problems of proof under, and alleged defenses to, the claims asserted in the litigation.
6 Moreover, post-trial motions and appeals would have been inevitable. Costs would have increased, and 7 recovery would have been delayed if not denied, thereby reducing the benefits of an ultimate victory.
8 Class Representative and Class Counsel believe that the Settlement confers substantial monetary and 9 non-monetary benefits upon the Class. Based upon their evaluation, Class Representative and Class
10 Counsel have determined that the Settlement set forth in the Agreement is in the best interest of the 11 Class, is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and should be granted final approval. JCL Dec., ¶ 43.

12 VI. THE PENALTIES UNDER THE PRIVATE ATTORNEY GENERAL ACT OF 2004
13 ARE REASONABLE

14 Where settlements “negotiate a good faith amount” for PAGA penalties and “there is no 15 indication that this amount was the result of self-interest at the expense of class members,” such 16 amounts are generally considered reasonable. Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc., No. CV-08-0844 EDL,
17 2009 WL 928133, at *9 (N.D. Cal. Apr. 3, 2009). Courts routinely approve of amounts for PAGA
18 penalties in the range of zero to two percent of the settlement. See id. at *1, 9 (approving a PAGA 19 payment of 0.3%); Jack v. Hartford Fire Ins. Co., No. 09cv1683 MMA (JMA), 2011 WL 4899942, at 20 *6 (S.D. Cal. Oct. 13, 2011) (approving a PAGA payment of 0.25%); McKenzie v. Fed. Express Corp., 21 No. CV 10-02420 GAF (PLAx), 2012 WL 12882124, at *5 (C.D. Cal. Jan. 23, 2012) (acknowledging 22 that courts approve PAGA claim settlements in the range of zero to two percent of the total settlement).

23 Here, Plaintiff and Defendants negotiated a good faith PAGA Payment in the amount of $12,000
24 which is 4.5% of the Gross Settlement Amount. As illustrated above, this amount falls well within 25 the range of approved PAGA settlements. Seventy-Five percent (75%) of the PAGA Payment
26 ($9,000) will be paid to the LWDA (“LWDA Payment”) with the remaining twenty-five percent (25%)
27 of the PAGA Payment ($3,000) to be distributed to the Aggrieved Employees (“Aggrieved Employees
28

1 Payment”), which is within the range of PAGA penalties approved by courts and should be approved.
2 JCL Dec., ¶ 44.

3 Class Counsel gave the LWDA notice of this Settlement and proposed allocation by filing a
4 copy of the Settlement, the Motion for Preliminary Approval, and this motion seeking final approval
5 with the LWDA. JCL Dec., ¶ 45. By not registering an objection with either Class Counsel or the 6 Court, the LWDA has accepted and approved of the proposed PAGA Payment.

7 VII. CONCLUSION

8 Plaintiff respectfully submits that the proposed settlement satisfies the standard of fairness
9 established in California law and should therefore be finally approved as fair, reasonable, and adequate 10 and requests entry of the Final Approval Order and Judgment submitted herewith.
