1 I. INTRODUCTION

2 Plaintiff THOMAS E. WEATHERMON III (“Plaintiff”) seeks final approval of the Stipulation 3 of Settlement of Class and PAGA Action Claims and Release of Claims (“Agreement”)¹, which if 4 approved, would provide valuable monetary relief for 646 Settlement Class Members employed by 5 Defendant Pacific Production Plumbing (“Defendant”) during the period beginning February 14, 2019, 6 through June 7, 2025 (“Class Period”).

7 In an order dated November 6, 2025, this Court preliminarily approved the Agreement and 8 preliminarily certified the Class. Declaration of Sydney Castillo-Johnson (“SCJ Dec.”) ¶ 4. On 9 December 4, 2025, the Court-approved Class Notice was mailed to each Class Member via U.S. First 10 Class Mail. Declaration of Katie Tran (“Apex Dec.”), ¶ 7. The Class greeted news of the Settlement 11 with 100% approval.² There are zero requests for exclusion, zero disputes, and zero objections to the 12 Settlement. Apex Dec., ¶¶ 11-13. The unanimous approval by the Class evidences the fairness and 13 reasonableness of the Settlement. SCJ Dec., ¶ 7.

14 An objective evaluation of the proposed settlement of Eight Hundred Fifteen Thousand Dollars 15 and Zero Cents ($815,000.00) (“Gross Settlement Amount”) confirms that the relief negotiated on 16 behalf of the Settlement Class Members is fair, reasonable, and valuable. The Settlement is a product 17 of informed, adversarial, and non-collusive negotiations, between experienced counsel, and presided 18 over by Monique Ngo-Bonnici, Esq. (“Mediator”), a respected mediator of wage and hour class and 19 PAGA actions. After deducting any Court-approved PAGA Payment, Service Award, Class Counsel 20 Award, and the Settlement Administration Costs, the Net Settlement Amount shall be distributed to 21 Settlement Class Members based on the number of Workweeks they worked while employed by 22 Defendant during the Class Period. SCJ Dec., ¶ 7.

23 This Settlement provides substantial recovery for Defendant’s alleged wage and hour violations.
24 Plaintiff estimates that the Settlement, if approved, would result in a Net Settlement Amount of 25 approximately $439,750.00. This will result in an average Individual Settlement Payment of $680.74,

27 ¹ The Agreement is attached as Ex “1” to the Declaration of Sydney Castillo-Johnson (“SCJ Dec.”) at ¶ 3. All citations to 28 the Agreement incorporate by this reference a citation to the SCJ Dec., ¶ 3. Further, unless indicated otherwise, capitalized terms used herein have the same meaning as those defined by the Agreement.

² Eight (8) Notices were deemed undeliverable. Apex Dec. at ¶ 10.

1 a high payment of $2,976.12 and low payment of $9.05 Apex Dec., ¶ 17. Additionally, the settlement
2 results in an average Aggrieved Employee Payment of $22.57, a high payment of $69.20, and low 3 payment of $.38. Apex Dec. ¶ 16.

4 The relief offered by the Settlement is immediate and is particularly impressive when viewed 5 against the difficulties encountered by plaintiffs pursuing similar wage and hour cases (see infra).
6 Indeed, by settling now rather than proceeding to trial, the Class will not have to wait (possibly years)
7 for relief, nor will they have to bear the risks associated with prolonged and uncertain litigation. SCJ 8 Dec., ¶ 8.

9 As discussed below, the proposed Settlement satisfies all criteria for final settlement approval 10 under California law and falls well within the range of reasonableness. Accordingly, the Class 11 Representative and Class Counsel respectfully request this Court grant final approval of the Agreement 12 and entry of the proposed Final Approval Order and Judgment. SCJ Dec., ¶ 9.

13 II. OVERVIEW OF THE LITIGATION

14 Defendant provides plumbing services to private, commercial, and construction company 15 customers in the state of California, including San Diego County, where Plaintiff worked. Plaintiff was 16 employed by Defendant from August 2018 to December 2024, as a non-exempt employee paid on an 17 hourly and piece rate basis. Declaration of Thomas E. Weathermon III (“TW Dec.”) at ¶ 3. Plaintiff 18 alleges that he was denied legally compliant meal and/or rest periods, and minimum, regular and 19 overtime during his employment. Throughout his employment, Plaintiff was subject to Defendant’s 20 written policies and procedures contained in, among other documents, the “Pacific Production 21 Plumbing Employee Handbook.” SCJ Dec., ¶ 10; TW Dec. at ¶¶ 3-4.

22 On December 8, 2022, Plaintiff served Defendant and the Labor and Workforce Development 23 Agency (“LWDA”) with a Notice of Violations (“PAGA Notice”). Plaintiff’s PAGA Notice set forth 24 the facts and theories supporting Defendant’s alleged violations of various provisions of the California 25 Labor Code and applicable Industrial Welfare Commissions (“IWC”) Wage Order and of his intent to 26 pursue claims under California Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act, Cal. Lab. Code Sections 27 2698 et seq. (“PAGA”). SCJ Dec., ¶ 11.

28 On February 14, 2023, Plaintiff filed a class action complaint in the San Diego Superior Court

1 alleging ten causes of action against Defendant for: (1) Unfair Competition in Violation of Cal. Bus. &
2 Prof. Code §17200 et seq.; (2) Failure to Pay Minimum Wages in Violation of Cal. Lab. Code §§ 1194, 3 1197 & 1197.1; (3) Failure to Pay Overtime Wages in Violation of Cal. Lab. Code §§ 510, et seq.; (4) 4 Failure to Provide Required Meal Periods in Violation of Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7 & 512 and the 5 Applicable IWC Wage Order; (5) Failure to Provide Required Rest Periods in Violation of Cal. Lab.
6 Code §§ 226.7 & 512 and the Applicable IWC Wage Order; (6) Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized
7 Statements in Violation of Cal. Lab. Code § 226; (7) Failure to Provide Wages When Due in Violation 8 of Cal. Lab. Code §§ 201, 202 and 203; (8) Failure to Reimburse Employees for Required Expenses in 9 Violation of Cal. Lab. Code § 2802; (9) Retaliation in Violation of Cal. Lab. Code §§ 98.6 and 1102.5; 10 and (10) Violation Of The Private Attorneys General Act in Violation of Cal. Lab. Code §§ 2698 et 11 seq. (the “Action”). SCJ Dec., ¶ 12.

12 On March 28, 2023, Plaintiff filed the operative First Amended Complaint (the “Operative 13 Complaint”) to amend the Class definition to include only persons who are or previously were 14 employed by Defendant in California who were classified as non-exempt employees, including those 15 who were paid in whole or in part on a piece rate basis. SCJ Dec., ¶ 13.

16 Generally, Plaintiff claims that Defendant failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements, 17 failed to provide meal and rest breaks, failed pay for all hours worked, failed to reimburse employees 18 for mandatory business expenses, and failed to timely pay all wages due upon separation of 19 employment. Defendant forcefully denies liability for each of Plaintiff’s claims. Further, Defendant 20 asserts that they fully complied with all applicable employment laws and raised several other significant 21 defenses to Plaintiff’s claims, including but not limited to, asserting that it provided compliant wage 22 statements, maintained facially compliant meal and rest period policies, paid for all hours worked, 23 reimbursed its employees for business expenses, and timely payment of all wages due upon separation 24 of employment. SCJ Dec., ¶ 14.

25 Plaintiff propounded written discovery in March of 2023. Such discovery included special 26 interrogatories, form interrogatories, request for production, and requests for admissions regarding 27 Defendant’s time and payroll records as well as relevant employment policies. The Parties agreed to 28 attend private mediation. To facilitate settlement negotiations, Defendant agreed to informally produce documents and data points subject to the mediation privilege, including but not limited to, a sampling of the Class Members' time and payroll data, and pertinent written wage and hour policies. As discussed infra, Plaintiff's counsel retained the forensic consultants at Berger Consulting Group ("BCG") to analyze Defendant's time and payroll data. SCJ Dec., ¶ 15.

On May 15, 2025, the Parties participated in a full day mediation with mediator Monique Ngo-Bonnici, Esq. ("Mediator"), a mediator of class and PAGA actions. The mediation was successful and the Parties subsequently memorialized the agreement in the form of a Memorandum of Understanding. After reaching an agreement in principle, the Parties drafted and negotiated a long-form settlement agreement, which is the subject of the instant motion. SCJ Dec., ¶ 16.

On November 6, 2025, this Court granted preliminary approval of the Settlement. On December 4, 2025, the Settlement Administrator mailed Notice Packets to all 646 Class Members. Apex Dec., ¶ 7. The mailing of the Notice Packets triggered a forty-five (45) day Response Deadline for the Class to submit requests for exclusion or objections to the Settlement. The response from the Class to the Settlement was outstanding – 100% of the Class Members are participating in the Settlement. SCJ Dec., ¶ 17.

III. THE SETTLEMENT BEFORE THE COURT

The Court preliminarily approved an initial Gross Settlement Amount of Eight Hundred Fifteen Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($815,000.00) based on a total of an estimated 47,668 Workweeks worked by the Class during the Class Period. The Gross Settlement Amount shall be used to satisfy: (1) the Individual Settlement Payments to the Settlement Class; (2) a Service Award of $10,000.00 to Plaintiff for his services on behalf of the Settlement Class; (3) a PAGA Payment in the amount of $40,000.00; (4) Settlement Administration Costs estimated at $10,000.00; and (5) the Class Counsel Award in the amount of $315,250.00, comprised of attorneys' fees equal to thirty-three percent (33%) of the Gross Settlement Amount estimated to be $268,950.00 and an estimated $30,000.00 for actually incurred litigation expenses. SCJ Dec., ¶ 18.

Defendant will fund the Settlement by transferring the Gross Settlement Amount into a Qualified Settlement Fund within sixty (60) days of the Effective Date. Agreement, ¶ I(N). The Settlement Administrator shall mail checks for all of the Individual Settlement Payments and Aggrieved Employee

1 Payments to the Settlement Class Members' and/or Aggrieved Employees' last known mailing address
2 no later than fifteen (15) days after Defendant funds the Gross Settlement Amount. Agreement, ¶
3 III(M)(7). The Settlement Administrator will calculate Individual Settlement Payments by adding up 4 the total number of Workweeks for all Class Members. The respective Workweeks for each Class 5 Member will then be divided by the total Workweeks for all Class Members, resulting in the Payment 6 Ratio for each Class Member. Each Class Member's Payment Ratio will then be multiplied by the Net 7 Settlement Amount to calculate each Class Member's estimated Individual Settlement Payments.
8 Agreement, ¶ III(M)(1). The estimated average Individual Settlement Payment is approximately 9 $680.74. Apex Dec., ¶ 17.

10 In exchange for the valuable consideration, as of the funding of the Gross Settlement Amount, 11 the Settlement Class Members will release the Released Parties from the Released Class Claims as 12 defined in the Agreement. Agreement, ¶ III(B). As of the Funding Date, in exchange for the 13 consideration set forth in the Agreement, the Plaintiff, the LWDA, the State of California, and Aggrieved 14 Employees will release the Released Parties from the Released PAGA Claims as defined in the 15 Agreement. Agreement, ¶ III(C).

16 Apex Class Action LLC was appointed as the Settlement Administrator for the Class. The 17 Settlement Administration Costs include those expenses of effectuating and administering the 18 Settlement, i.e., the costs incurred to the Settlement Administrator, the costs of giving notice to the Class, 19 the costs of administering and disbursing the Individual Settlement Payments, and the fees of the 20 Settlement Administrator approved for reimbursement by the court. The Settlement Administration 21 Costs are $9,990.00. Apex Dec., ¶ 18. These expenses shall be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount.
22 Agreement, ¶ III(M)(12).

23 Subject to Court approval, Class Counsel shall seek a payment of Class Counsel Award in the 24 amount of $315,250.00, comprised of attorneys' fees of up to thirty-three percent (33%) of the Gross 25 Settlement Amount estimated to be at least $268,950.00 and up to $30,000.00 for actually incurred 26 litigation expenses. Agreement, ¶ III(M)(10). Class Counsel is to split the fees 50% to JCL Law Firm, 27 APC, and 50% to Zakay Law Group, APLC. Agreement, ¶ I(E). Plaintiff has consented in writing to the 28 fee division. TW Dec., ¶ 17. The Agreement also provides for Service Award in the amount of 1 $10,000.00 to Plaintiff, in consideration of his time, risk, and efforts as the Class Representative on 2 behalf of the Class. Agreement, ¶¶ I(HH); III(M)(9).

3 As explained in further detail below, the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable to the class 4 and should be granted final approval. This is evidenced by the high approval of the Settlement by the 5 Class, the absence of any objections to the Settlement and the average Individual Settlement Payment 6 of $680.74. Apex Dec., ¶ 17; SCJ Dec., ¶ 19.

7 IV. GENERAL STANDARDS APPLICABLE TO JUDICIAL REVIEW AND APPROVAL
8 OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENTS

9 Settlements of disputed claims are favored by the courts. Huens v. Tatum (1997) 52 Cal.App.4th 10 259, 265. In evaluating settlements, the courts have long recognized that compromise is particularly 11 appropriate since such litigation is difficult and notoriously uncertain. 7-Eleven Owners for Fair Fran.
12 v. Southland Corp. (2000) 85 Cal.App.4th 1135, 1151 (“voluntary conciliation and settlement are the 13 preferred means of dispute resolution. This is especially true in complex class action litigation”).

14 “[T]o prevent fraud, collusion or unfairness to the class, the settlement or dismissal of a class 15 action requires court approval.” Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 citing 16 Malibu Outrigger Bd. Of Governors v. Superior Court (1980) 103 Cal.App.3d 573, 578-579. The court 17 must decide whether the proposed settlement falls within the range of reasonable settlements, 18 considering that settlements are compromises between the parties reflecting subjective, unquantifiable 19 judgments concerning the risks and possible outcomes of litigation. See also Wershba v. Apple 20 Computer (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 246 (The proposed settlement is not to be judged against a 21 hypothetical or speculative measure of what might have been achieved had plaintiffs prevailed at trial.”).
22 In Wershba, appellants argued that the settlement was too low given the “clear” liability, however, the 23 Court rejected this argument and held that “the merits of the underlying class claims are not a basis for 24 upsetting the settlement of a class action.” Wershba, supra, at 246; see also 7-Eleven, supra, at 1150.

25 In these cases, Courts have repeatedly emphasized that there is a strong initial presumption that 26 the compromise is fair and reasonable. Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 245. Courts should not substitute 27 their judgment for that of the parties who negotiated the settlement. Id. At 246. The presumption of 28 fairness exists where: (1) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (2) the settlement is reached through arm's-length bargaining; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small. Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801, citing Newberg & Conte, Newberg on Class Actions, (3d ed. 1992) §11.41, pp. 11-91. Here, all of these factors support a presumption of fairness.

The essential evaluation is whether, given the risks of litigation and the range of probable results, the settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable, and adequate to all concerned. Here, the facts and circumstances compel the conclusion that the proposed settlement satisfies that standard.

V. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR, REASONABLE, AND ADEQUATE

The court must determine whether the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable. Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801; see also Officers for Justice v. Civil Service Com'n (9th Cir. 1982) 688 F. 2d 615, 625. The purpose of the requirement is "the protection of those class members, including the named plaintiffs, whose rights may not have been given due regard by the negotiating parties." Dunk, supra, at 1801.

The trial court has broad discretion to determine whether the settlement is fair. Rebney v. Wells Fargo Bank (1990) 220 Cal.App.3d 1117, 1138. "The well-recognized factors that the trial court should consider in evaluating the reasonableness of a class action settlement agreement include 'the strength of plaintiffs' case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement.' [Citations.]" Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 128; see also Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408.

The list of factors is not exhaustive and should be tailored to each case. Dunk, supra, at 1801. Due regard should be given to what is otherwise a private consensual agreement between the parties. Id. The inquiry "must be limited to the extent necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the agreement is not the product of fraud or overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating parties, and that the settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable and adequate to all concerned." Id. "Ultimately, the [trial] court's determination is nothing more than 'an amalgam of delicate balancing, gross

1 approximations and rough justice.’ [Citation omitted.]” Id.

2 These factors are analyzed seriatim below and all support final approval of the class action 3 settlement before this Court.

4 A. Class Counsel Conducted a Thorough Investigation.

5 As detailed in the motion for preliminary approval, Class Counsel thoroughly investigated the 6 proposed Class Members’ claims, applicable law, and potential defenses. Specifically, Class Counsel 7 assessed the value of the class claims using data and documents exchanged through formal discovery, 8 and reviewing documents and information provided by Defendant informally to prepare for mediation.
9 Class Counsel obtained time, payroll, and policy records, as well as data regarding the number of Class 10 Members, workweeks, and average rate of pay to assess damages before mediation. Class Counsel 11 retained BCG to analyze Defendant’s time and payroll data to formulate damage models estimating 12 Defendant’s liability exposure. Class Counsel’s investigation, research, experience, and damage 13 models informed and guided the mediated negotiations that resulted in this settlement. Accordingly, 14 Class Counsel fully understood the strengths and weaknesses of the class claims before the parties 15 reached a settlement. SCJ Dec., ¶¶ 20-27.

16 B. Class Counsel is Experienced in Similar Litigation.

17 Class Counsel in this matter has extensive class action experience in multiple fields and has 18 represented tens-of-thousands of persons in class actions. Counsel has previously litigated similar wage 19 and hour class actions involving similar claims. Class Counsel has been approved as class counsel in 20 similar wage and hour class actions throughout the State of California. As such, courts throughout 21 California have deemed Class Counsel experienced and knowledgeable in this area of law. Class 22 Counsel has participated in every aspect of the settlement discussions and has concluded the settlement 23 is fair, adequate, and reasonable and in the best interests of the Class. SCJ Dec. ¶¶ 28-32, JCL Dec., 24 ¶¶ 1-9; Declaration of Shani Zakay (“Zakay Dec.”), ¶¶ 1-3.

25 C. The Class Responded Positively to the Settlement.

26 The reaction of the Class unequivocally supports approval of the Settlement. Significantly, after 27 dissemination of the notice to the Class, which provided each Class Member with the terms of the 28 Settlement, including the specific estimated Individual Settlement Payments. To date, none of the 646

1 Class Members submitted a request for exclusion. Moreover, there are zero objections. Stated
2 differently, 100% of the Class chose to participate in the Settlement. SCJ Dec., ¶ 33; Apex Dec., ¶¶ 3 11-14.

4 The high approval by the Class strongly supports a finding that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, 5 and adequate. See In re Austrian & German Bank Holocaust Litigation (S.D.N.Y. 2000) 80 F.Supp.2d 6 164, 175 (“If only a small number of objections are received, that fact can be viewed as indicative of 7 the adequacy of the settlement.”); Stoetznier v. U.S. Steel Corp. (3d. Cir. 1990) 897 F.2d 115, 118-119 8 (29 objections out of 281 member class “strongly favors settlement”); Laskey v. Int’l Union (6th Cir.
9 1981) 638 F.2d 954 (The fact that 7 out of 109 class members objected to the proposed settlement 10 should be considered when determining fairness of settlement.). Consequently, Class Counsel 11 respectfully requests the Court to follow the high participation rate of the Class and grant final approval 12 of the Settlement.

13 D. The Gross Settlement Amount is Fair and Reasonable.

14 The Gross Settlement Amount of Eight Hundred Fifteen Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents
15 ($815,000.00) in this case is fair and well within the range of reasonableness recognized by California 16 courts. The Kullar court acknowledged that “as the court does when it approves a settlement as in good 17 faith under Code of Civil Procedure section 877.6, the court must at least satisfy itself that the class 18 settlement is within the ‘ballpark’ of reasonableness.” Kullar, supra, at 129; See Tech-Bilt, Inc. v.
19 Woodward-Clyde & Associates (1985) 38 Cal.3d 488, 499-500.)

20 Here, the Settlement is clearly within the “ballpark” of reasonableness because the Settlement 21 provides a sizeable recovery to the Settlement Class Members and need not necessarily obtain 100
22 percent of the damages sought to be fair, reasonable, and ultimately, meaningful. Wershba, 91
23 Cal.App.4th at 250. While the Gross Settlement Amount of Eight Hundred Fifteen Thousand Dollars
24 and Zero Cents ($815,000.00) represents a discount on Defendant’s potential exposure if Plaintiff 25 established liability on all claims and was awarded the full amount of the estimated damages at trial, this 26 compromise is reasonable because (1) the formidable defenses raised by Defendant presented a risk that 27 could award significantly less in damages than Plaintiff’s estimate and (2) any theoretical post-trial 28 recovery may require many more years of litigation, resulting in added fees and costs without any

1 guarantee of recovery for the Class. SCJ Dec., ¶ 34.

2 As detailed at the time of preliminary approval, the Gross Settlement Amount is fair and 3 reasonable considering the nature and magnitude of the claims being settled and the various potential 4 impediments to recovery. Class Counsel developed varied economic damages models measuring 5 Defendant's liability exposure while accounting for the uncertainties of continued litigation. The various 6 models were informed by Class Counsel's investigation, including the analysis of a significant sample 7 of time and payroll data. Detailed in greater depth during the preliminary approval process, Class 8 Counsel projected a range of Defendant's liability exposure for the claims asserted on behalf of the 9 Class. The Gross Settlement Amount represents between approximately 13.38% and 30.29% of 10 Defendant's class-wide liability exposure as estimated by Class Counsel at the time of mediation. SCJ 11 Dec., ¶ 35.

12 In Stovall-Gusman v. W.W. Granger, Inc., 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78671, at * 12, the District
13 Court for the Northern District of California granted final approval in a wage and hour misclassification 14 action and found that the total settlement amount representing 10% of the estimated trial award was 15 within the "range of reasonableness." In Dunleavy v. Nadler (In re Mego Fin. Corp. Sec. Litig.) (9th Cir.
16 2000) 213 F.3d 454, 459, the Ninth Circuit approved a settlement representing "roughly one-sixth of the 17 potential recovery." Given the amount of the settlement here as compared to potential value of the 18 claims, particularly the strength of Plaintiff's action, the settlement is clearly fair and reasonable.³

19 The calculation methodology used to compensate the Settlement Class Members for the alleged 20 damages was negotiated at the time of the Settlement. More importantly, the methodology is fair, 21 objective, and impartial. The calculation methodology is based on the number of Workweeks each 22 Settlement Class Member worked for Defendant during the Class Period. The number of Workweeks 23 for the Settlement Class Member is established through Defendant's data and documented compensation

25 a California wage and hour settlement where the class received 11.6% of the estimated total liability, or approximately $29 26 per work week); Leverage v. Traeger Pellet Grills, LLC (N.D. Cal. June 28, 2017, No. 16-CV-00784) 2017 WL 2797811, at 27 *7 (Approving a California wage and hour settlement where the class received 18% of the estimated total liability); see also 28 In re Newbridge Networks Sec. Litig. (D.D.C. Oct. 23, 1998) 1998 WL 765724, at *2 ("Courts have not identified a precise numerical range within which a settlement must fall in order to be deemed reasonable; but an agreement that secures roughly six to twelve percent of a potential trial recovery, while preventing further expenditures and delays and eliminating the risk that no recovery at all will be won, seems to be within the targeted range of reasonableness.").

1 records. The Settlement Administrator is responsible for calculating the Individual Settlement Payments 2 by adding up the total number of Workweeks for all Class Members. The respective Workweeks for 3 each Class Member will then be divided by the total Workweeks for all Class Members, resulting in the 4 Payment Ratio for each Class Member. Each Class Member's Payment Ratio will then be multiplied by 5 the Net Settlement Amount to calculate each Class Member's estimated Individual Settlement 6 Payments. Agreement, ¶ III(M)(1). This process establishes an objectively fair and reasonable procedure 7 to compensate the Class. SCJ Dec., ¶ 36.

8 The settlement also provides significant relief to the Settlement Class Members. After deductions 9 for the Class Counsel Award, Settlement Administration Costs, the PAGA Payment, and the Service 10 Award, the Net Settlement Amount is currently estimated to be $439,760.00. Apex Dec., ¶ 15. The 11 average settlement payment is approximately $680.74, and the highest is approximately $2,976.12.
12 Apex Dec., ¶ 17. This average net recovery is on par with many wage and hour class action settlements 13 approved by California state and federal courts. See, e.g., Palencia v. 99 Cents Only Stores, No. 34-14 2010-00079619 (Sacramento County Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of approximately $80); Fukuchi 15 v. Pizza Hut, Case No. BC302589 (LA. County Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of approximately 16 $120); Contreras v. United Food Group, LLC, Case No. BC389253 (L.A. County Super. Ct.) (average 17 net recovery of approximately $120); Ressler v. Federated Department Stores, Inc., Case No. BC335018
18 (L.A. County Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of approximately $90); Doty v. Costco Wholesale Corp., 19 Case No. CV05-3241 FMC-JWJx (C.D. Cal. May 14, 2007) (average net recovery of approximately 20 $65); Sorenson v. PetSmart, Inc., Case No. 2:06-CV-02674-JAM-DAD (ED. Cal.) (average net recovery
21 of approximately $60); Lim v. Victoria's Secret Stores, Inc., Case No. 04CC00213 (Orange County 22 Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of approximately $35); and Gomez v. Amadeus Salon, Inc., Case No.
23 BC392297 (L.A. Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of approximately $20). Additionally, Defendant must 24 separately fund its share of any employer side payroll taxes. Agreement, ¶ III(A)(4).

25 Clearly the goal of this litigation to obtain redress for the class has been met by this Settlement.
26 Given the amount of the Settlement, the risks of litigation and the arm's length negotiations between 27 experienced counsel, the settlement is fair and reasonable, and is therefore entitled to final approval.
28 SCJ Dec., ¶ 37.

1 E. The Strength of Plaintiff’s Case and Risks of Continued Litigation

2 Although Class Counsel believes strongly in Plaintiff’s claims, it would be misguided to ignore 3 the asserted defenses. If successful on any one of its defenses, Defendant could defend the action or, 4 at least, drastically undercut Plaintiff’s claims. SCJ Dec., ¶ 38. As the federal court in Glass v. UBS
5 Fin. Servs., 2007 WL221862 held, where the parties faced uncertainties similar to those in this 6 litigation:

7 In light of the above-referenced uncertainty in the law, the risk, expense, 8 complexity, and likely duration of further litigation likewise favors the 9 settlement. Regardless of how this Court might have ruled on the merits of 10 the legal issues, the losing party likely would have appealed, and the parties 11 would have faced the expense and uncertainty of litigating an appeal. The expense and possible duration of the litigation should be considered in evaluating the reasonableness of [a] settlement.

12 With respect to the most immediate challenge, i.e., class certification, the risks attendant to the 13 certification of similar wage and hour claims are demonstrated by Ali v. U.S.A. Cab Ltd. (2009) 176
14 Cal.App.4th 1333, 1341. There, the Court of Appeal affirmed the Trial Court’s denial of class 15 certification because employees’ declarations attesting to having taken meal and rest breaks 16 demonstrated that individualized inquiries were required to show harm. See also Campbell v. Best Buy 17 Stores, L.P., (C.D. Cal. 2013) 2013 WL 5302217 at *11-13 (following Brinker and denying 18 certification of proposed off-the-clock and rest and meal break classes due to lack of uniform 19 policy); Brown v. Fed Express Corp. (C.D. Cal. 2008) 249 F.R.D. 580, 587-88 (denying certification 20 of driver meal and rest period claims based on the predominance of individual issues). SCJ Dec., ¶ 39.

21 Further, even if a class is certified, liability remains uncertain. The risks attendant to the issue of 22 Defendant’s liability in similar wage and hour actions are demonstrated by Duran v. U.S. Bank National 23 Association (2014) 59 Cal.4th 1, 31. There, the Court reversed a trial verdict in favor plaintiffs in a 24 wage and hour class action. See also Tien v. Tenet Healthcare Corp. (2012) 209 Cal.App.4th 1077, 25 1088 (“[T]he reason, if any, that employees might not take their breaks were predominantly 26 individualized questions of fact not susceptible to class treatment.”). SCJ Dec., ¶ 40.

27 Finally, even if a class is certified and Defendant is found liable for the class claims alleged, 28 post-certification risks remain, including a reversal of a favorable judgment for Plaintiff and

1 decertification of the class. These post-certification risks are demonstrated by Magadia v. Wal-Mart
2 Associates, Inc. (9th Cir. 2021) 999 F.3d 668. There, the Ninth Circuit vacated reversed and remanded 3 a $110 million judgment against an employer for, inter alia, inaccurately paying overtime, and directed 4 the trial court to enter judgment in favor of the employer. See also O’Conner v. Uber Technologies,
5 Inc. (9th Cir. 2018) 904 F.3d 1087 (decertification of wage and hour misclassification action). SCJ
6 Dec., ¶ 41.

7 Collectively, the examples cited above illustrate the uncertain nature of class litigation.
8 Consequently, the uncertainty of obtaining certification through a contested motion is a significant risk 9 factor favoring settlement. SCJ Dec., ¶ 42.

10 Although Plaintiff is confident about the strength of his claims, Plaintiff nevertheless recognizes 11 that Defendant has factual and legal defenses that, if successful, would potentially defeat or impair the 12 value of the lawsuit. Legally, the fast-changing landscape of wage and hour litigation can drastically 13 affect the value of Plaintiff’s claims and, in fact, already has. SCJ Dec., ¶ 43.

14 In a similar wage and hour case, the federal district court in Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc., 2009 15 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 33900 at * 19-20 (N.D. Cal. 2009), granted approval of an overtime class action 16 settlement and explained:

17 Plaintiffs may have a strong case, but the risks inherent in continued 18 litigation are great. Defendants strongly deny liability for Plaintiffs' 19 principal claim that full-time Service Associates were misclassified as 20 exempt. In addition to the uncertainties raised by Defendants at the 21 preliminary stage regarding Plaintiffs' chance of success in this case, 22 Defendants notes that the question of an employer's duty to provide rest and 23 meal periods is an open one, signaling even less certainty for 24 Plaintiffs.....[T]he Total Settlement amount and the Class Members' 25 expected net recovery, after fees and other costs are deducted, appear 26 to be a reasonable compromise, in light of the risks of litigation.

27 See also Browning v. Yahoo!, Inc., 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 86266, at *30 (N.D. Cal. 2007) (“In 28 considering the strength of Plaintiffs’ case, legal uncertainties at the time of settlement - particularly those which go to fundamental legal issues - favor approval.”).

As recognized in a federal decision approving settlement of an overtime wage class action:

The potential complexity and possible duration of trial also weigh in favor of granting final approval. Plaintiffs acknowledge the difficulties

1 of proving damages, recognize the uncertainty of outcome, and believe 2 Defendants would appeal in the event of adverse judgment. A post-3 judgment appeal would require many years to resolve and delay payment 4 to class members. Plaintiffs believe the benefits of a guaranteed recovery 5 today outweigh an uncertain future result. Accordingly, plaintiffs argue, 6 and the Court agrees, the actual recovery confers substantial benefits on 7 the class that outweigh the potential recovery through full adjudication.

8 Barcia v. Contain-A-Way, Inc., 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 17118, *9 (S.D. Cal. 2009); see also Louie v.
9 Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Inc., 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78314, *14 (S.D. Cal. 2008).

10 In sum, while other cases have approved class certification in wage and hour claims, class 11 certification in this action would have been hotly disputed and was by no means a foregone conclusion.
12 Where both sides face significant uncertainty, as here, the attendant risks favor settlement. Hanlon v.
13 Chrysler Corp. (9th Cir. 1998) 150 F.3d 1011, 1026.

14 As demonstrated by the decisions in Magadia, supra, 999 F.3d 668, O'Conner v. Uber
15 Technologies (N.D. Cal. 2018) 82 F.Supp.3d 1133 and Duran v. U.S. Bank National Assn. (2014) 59
16 Cal.4th 1, the complexities and duration of further litigation cannot be overstated. There is little doubt 17 that if Defendant faced a large adverse judgment, Defendant undoubtedly have the resources to post a 18 bond and appeal. A post-judgment appeal by Defendant would have required many more years to 19 resolve, assuming the judgment was affirmed. If the judgment was not affirmed in total, then the case 20 could have dragged on for years after the appeal. The benefits of a guaranteed recovery today outweigh 21 an uncertain result three or more years in the future. SCJ Dec., ¶ 44.

22 Class Representative and Class Counsel recognize the expense and length of a trial against 23 Defendant through possible appeals which could take another three years. In arriving at their informed 24 belief that the present settlement is fair and adequate, Class Counsel accounted for the uncertain outcome 25 and risk inherent in complex actions such as this one. Class Counsel is also mindful of and recognizes 26 the inherent problems of proof under, and alleged defenses to, the claims asserted in the litigation.
27 Moreover, post-trial motions and appeals would have been inevitable. Costs would have increased, and 28 recovery would have been delayed if not denied, thereby reducing the benefits of an ultimate victory.
Class Representative and Class Counsel believe that the Settlement confers substantial monetary and non-monetary benefits upon the Class. Based upon their evaluation, Class Representative and Class

Counsel have determined that the Settlement set forth in the Agreement is in the best interest of the Class, is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and should be granted final approval. SCJ Dec., ¶ 45.

VI. THE PENALTIES UNDER THE PRIVATE ATTORNEY GENERAL ACT OF 2004 ARE REASONABLE

Where settlements “negotiate a good faith amount” for PAGA penalties and “there is no indication that this amount was the result of self-interest at the expense of class members,” such amounts are generally considered reasonable. Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc., No. CV-08-0844 EDL, 2009 WL 928133, at *9 (N.D. Cal. Apr. 3, 2009). Courts routinely approve of amounts for PAGA penalties in the range of zero to two percent of the settlement. See id. at *1, 9 (approving a PAGA payment of 0.3%); Jack v. Hartford Fire Ins. Co., No. 09cv1683 MMA (JMA), 2011 WL 4899942, at *6 (S.D. Cal. Oct. 13, 2011) (approving a PAGA payment of 0.25%); McKenzie v. Fed. Express Corp., No. CV 10-02420 GAF (PLAx), 2012 WL 12882124, at *5 (C.D. Cal. Jan. 23, 2012) (acknowledging that courts approve PAGA claim settlements in the range of zero to two percent of the total settlement).

Here, Plaintiff and Defendant negotiated a good faith PAGA Payment in the amount of $40,000.00 which is 4.65% of the Gross Settlement Amount. As illustrated above, this amount falls well within the range of approved PAGA settlements. Seventy-Five percent (75%) of the PAGA Payment ($30,000.00) will be paid to the LWDA (“LWDA Payment”) with the remaining twenty-five percent (25%) of the PAGA Payment ($10,000.00) to be distributed to the Aggrieved Employees (“Aggrieved Employee Payment”), which is within the range of PAGA Payment approved by courts and should be approved. SCJ Dec., ¶ 46.

Class Counsel gave the LWDA notice of this Settlement and proposed allocation by filing a copy of the Settlement, the Motion for Preliminary Approval, and this motion seeking final approval with the LWDA. SCJ Dec., ¶ 47. By not registering an objection with either Class Counsel or the Court, the LWDA has accepted and approved of the proposed PAGA Payment.

1 VII. CONCLUSION

2 Plaintiff respectfully submits that the proposed settlement satisfies the standard of fairness 3 established in California law and should therefore be finally approved as fair, reasonable, and adequate.
4 Plaintiff also requests entry of the Final Approval Order and Judgment submitted herewith.
