Newberg & Conte, Newberg on Class Actions, (3d ed. 1992) §11.41, pp. 11-91.....5

1 I. INTRODUCTION

2 Plaintiff JANENE CARACAUS (hereinafter “Plaintiff”) seeks final approval of the Stipulation
3 of Settlement of Class and PAGA Action and Release of Claims (“Agreement”)¹, which if approved, 4 would provide valuable monetary relief for 231 Settlement Class Members employed by Defendant
5 DANNY’S HOME HEALTH CARE, INC. (hereinafter “Defendant”) during the Class Period. Plaintiff 6 and Class Counsel also seek approval of Attorneys’ Fees and Attorneys’ Expenses in an amount totaling 7 $113,333.33, comprised of $88,333.33 (one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount) and up to $25,000.00 8 for reimbursement of actually incurred litigation expenses.²

9 An objective evaluation of the proposed settlement of $265,000.00 (“Gross Settlement Amount”) confirms that the relief negotiated on behalf of the Class is fair, reasonable, and valuable. The 10 Settlement is a product of informed, adversarial, and non-collusive negotiations, between experienced 11 counsel, guided by the wisdom and experience of the Hon. Steven Denton (Ret.), an experienced jurist 12 and mediator. JCL Dec., ¶ 9. Plaintiff estimates that the Settlement, if approved, would result in a Net 13 Settlement Amount of approximately $126,176.67, an average Individual Settlement Payment of 14 $555.84, high payment of $5,501.69, and a low payment of $35.96. Aggrieved Employees will receive 15 an estimated average gross payment of $18.79, a high payment of $109.89, and a low payment of $1.32.
16 Declaration of Ryan McNamee (“Apex Dec.”), ¶¶ 14, 15, 17.

18 The relief offered by the Settlement is immediate and is particularly impressive when viewed 19 against the difficulties encountered by plaintiffs pursuing similar wage and hour cases (see infra), and 20 Defendant’s financial difficulties in this case. As discussed below, the proposed Settlement satisfies 21 all criteria for final settlement approval under California law and falls well within the range of 22 reasonableness. JCL Dec., ¶ 10.

23 II. OVERVIEW OF THE LITIGATION

24 13. Defendant offers home health care, hospice, and in-home services throughout the state 25 of California, including San Diego County, where Plaintiff worked. Plaintiff worked for Defendant 26

27 ¹ The Agreement is attached as Ex “1” to the Declaration of Jean-Claude Lapuyade (“JCL Dec.”) at ¶ 3. All citations to the Agreement incorporate by this reference a citation to the JCL Dec., ¶ 3. Further, unless indicated otherwise, capitalized terms used herein have the same meaning as those defined by the Agreement.

28 ² Currently Class Counsel’s actually incurred litigation expenses are $13,006.88 and anticipates an additional $250 in costs to file this motion.

1 from August of 2017 to December of 2021 and specifically worked for Defendant as a non-exempt
2 employee, paid on a piece-rate basis, from August of 2017 to March of 2020. Declaration of Janene J.
3 Caracaus (“Caracaus Dec.”) at ¶ 3. Plaintiff alleges that she was denied legally compliant meal and rest 4 periods, and minimum wages and overtime compensation during her employment. Throughout her 5 employment, Plaintiff was subject to Defendant’s written policies and procedures. JCL Dec., ¶ 11.

6 Generally, Plaintiff claims that Defendant failed to provide compliant meal and rest periods, 7 failed to pay for all time worked, failed to pay overtime and meal period premiums, failed to furnish 8 accurate itemized wage statements, failed to reimburse for mandatory business expenses, and failed to 9 pay wages when due. Defendant denies liability for each of Plaintiff’s claims. Further, Defendant 10 asserts that they fully complied with all applicable employment laws and raised several other significant 11 defenses to Plaintiff’s claims, including but not limited to, facially compliant meal and rest period 12 policies, compliant wage statements, compliant reimbursement practices, and timely payment of all 13 wages due. JCL Dec., ¶ 12.

14 On March 25, 2022, Plaintiff served Defendant and the Labor and Workforce Development 15 Agency (“LWDA”) with a Notice of Violations (“PAGA Notice”). Plaintiff’s PAGA Notice set forth 16 the facts and theories supporting Defendant’s alleged violations of various provisions of the California 17 Labor Code and applicable Industrial Welfare Commissions (“IWC”) Wage Order and of her intent to 18 pursue claims under California Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act, Cal. Lab. Code Sections 19 2698 et seq. (“PAGA”). JCL Dec., ¶ 13.

20 On May 31, 2022, Plaintiff filed a class action complaint in the San Diego County Superior 21 Court, Case No. 37-2022-00020531-CU-OE-CTL (“Class Action”). The Class Action alleged nine 22 causes of action against Defendant for: (1) Unfair Competition in violation of Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code 23 §§ 17200, et. seq.; (2) Failure to Pay Minimum Wages in violation of Cal. Lab. Code §§ 1194, 24 11971197, & 1197.1; (3) Failure to Pay Overtime Wages in violation of Cal. Lab. Code §§ 510, et seq.; 25 (4) Failure to Provide Required Meal Periods in violation of Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7 & 512 and the 26 Applicable IWC Wage Order; (5) Failure to Provide Required Rest Periods in violation of Cal. Lab.
27 Code §§ 226.7 & 512 and the Applicable IWC Wage Order; (6) Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized
28 Wage Statements in violation of Cal. Lab Code §226; (7) Failure to Pay Wages When Due in violation

1 of Cal. Lab. Code §§ 201, 202, & 203; (8) Failure to Reimburse Employees for Required Expenses in 2 violation of Cal. Lab. Code § 2802; and (9) Violation of the Private Attorneys General Act [Labor Code 3 §§ 2698 et seq]. JCL Dec., ¶ 14.

4 Plaintiff propounded written discovery in September of 2022. After the initial round of 5 discovery, the Parties agreed to mediate the Action. The Parties also agreed to engage in informal 6 discovery to prepare for mediation. Such discovery included production of documents and data points 7 subject to the mediation privilege, including but not limited to, the Class Members' time and payroll 8 data and certain payroll data points. As discussed infra, Plaintiff's counsel retained the forensic 9 consultants at Berger Consulting Group ("BCG") to analyze Defendant's time and payroll data. JCL 10 Dec., ¶ 15.

11 On June 26, 2023, the Parties participated in a full day mediation with respected jurist and 12 mediator, the Hon. Judge Steven Denton (Ret.). The mediation concluded without a settlement, due in 13 large part to Defendant's representation that their financial condition constrained their ability to fund a 14 class-wide settlement. Plaintiff then retained Kenneth L. Creal, CPA, an experienced financial 15 accounting and forensics expert, to independently assess Defendant's financial condition. Mr. Creal 16 conducted a thorough review of Defendant's financial records and based on that analysis, rendered an 17 opinion to Plaintiff as to Defendant's ability to fund a settlement. Using the opinion of Mr. Creal, the 18 Parties continued settlement negotiations until an agreement was reached, which was subsequently 19 memorialized in the form of a Memorandum of Understanding. Thereafter, the Parties drafted and 20 negotiated a long-form settlement agreement, which is the subject of the instant motion. JCL Dec., ¶ 21 16.

22 On November 1, 2024, this Court granted preliminary approval of the Settlement, and issued an 23 Amended Order granting preliminary approval on February 18, 2025. JCL Dec., ¶ 4. Shortly thereafter, 24 on April 21, 2025, the Settlement Administrator mailed Notice Packets to all 231 Settlement Class 25 members. Apex Dec., ¶ 7. The mailing of the Notice Packets triggered a forty-five (45) day Response 26 Deadline for the Settlement Class to submit requests for exclusion or objections to the Settlement.
27 Agreement at § I(KK). In response, approximately 98% of the Class Members are participating in the 28 Settlement. Apex Dec., ¶ 11.

1 III. THE SETTLEMENT BEFORE THE COURT

2 The Court preliminarily approved a Gross Settlement Amount of $265,000.00. Defendant will 3 pay the Gross Settlement Amount in 18 equal monthly installments (each payment of $14,722.22) with 4 the initial payment due on the Effective Date and every payment thereafter due on the 1st of each month.
5 Agreement at § III(A)(4). The Gross Settlement Amount is all-in with no reversion to Defendant.
6 Agreement at § III(A)(1). The Net Settlement Amount shall be used for the payment of all Individual 7 Settlement Payments to satisfy all Released Class Claims. The Settlement Administrator will calculate 8 Individual Settlement Payments by adding up the total number of Workweeks for all Class Members.
9 The respective Workweek for each Class Member will be divided by the total Workweeks for all Class 10 Members, resulting in the Payment Ratio for each Class Member. Each Settlement Class Member's 11 Payment Ratio is then multiplied by the Net Settlement Amount to calculate each Class Member's 12 estimated Individual Settlement Payment. Agreement at § III(L)(1).

13 In exchange for this valuable consideration, as of the Effective Date, the Settlement Class 14 Members will release the Released Parties from the Released Class Claims for the Class Period.
15 Agreement at § III(B). Apex Class Action LLC was appointed as the Settlement Administrator for the 16 class. The Claims Administration Expenses are $5,490.00. Apex Dec., ¶ 18. These expenses will be 17 paid from the Gross Settlement Amount. Agreement at § III(L)(12). Subject to Court approval, Class 18 Counsel shall seek Attorneys' Fees and Expenses in the amount of up to $113,333.33, comprised of 19 attorneys' fees equal to one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount estimated to be $88,333.33 and up to 20 $25,000.00 for actually incurred litigation expenses. Agreement at § III(L)(10).

21 Subject to Court approval, the Agreement provides for a Service Award in the amount of 22 $10,000.00 for Plaintiff in consideration of her time, risk, and efforts as the Class Representative on 23 behalf of the Settlement Class. Agreement at §§ I(LL), III(L)(9).

24 As set forth in the Agreement, $10,000.00 of the Gross Settlement Amount has been allocated for 25 civil penalties under the PAGA ("PAGA Payment"). Seventy-Five percent (75%) of the PAGA 26 Payment will be paid to the California Labor Workforce and Development Agency ("LWDA Payment").
27 The Settlement Administrator shall distribute the remaining twenty-five percent (25%) of the PAGA 28 Payment to the Aggrieved Employees ("Aggrieved Employee Payment"). Agreement at §§ I(AA);

1 III(L)(11).

2 As explained in further detail below, the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable to the Class 3 and should be granted final approval. Given the complexities of this case, the defenses asserted, the 4 uncertainty of class certification, and Defendant’s financial condition, along with the uncertainties of 5 proof at trial and appeal, the proposed settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and should be granted 6 final approval. JCL Dec., ¶ 17.

7 IV. GENERAL STANDARDS APPLICABLE TO JUDICIAL REVIEW AND APPROVAL
8 OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENTS

9 Settlements of disputed claims are favored by the courts. Huens v. Tatum, 52 Cal. App. 4th 259, 10 265 (1997). In evaluating settlements, the courts have long recognized that compromise is particularly 11 appropriate since such litigation is difficult and notoriously uncertain. 7-Eleven Owners for Fair Fran.
12 v. Southland Corp., 85 Cal.App.4th 1135, 1151 (2000).

13 “[T]o prevent fraud, collusion or unfairness to the class, the settlement or dismissal of a class 14 action requires court approval.” Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal. App. 4th 1794, 1801 (1996) citing 15 Malibu Outrigger Bd. Of Governors v. Superior Court, 103 Cal. App. 3d 573, 578-579 (1980). The 16 court must decide whether the proposed settlement falls within the range of reasonable settlements, 17 considering that settlements are compromises between the parties reflecting subjective, unquantifiable 18 judgments concerning the risks and possible outcomes of litigation. See also Wershba v. Apple 19 Computer, 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 246 (2001). In Wershba, appellants argued that the settlement was too 20 low given the “clear” liability, however, the Court rejected this argument and held that “the merits of 21 the underlying class claims are not a basis for upsetting the settlement of a class action.” Wershba, 22 supra, at 246; see also 7-Eleven, supra, at 1150. In these cases, courts have repeatedly emphasized that 23 there is a strong initial presumption that the compromise is fair and reasonable. Wershba, 91 24 Cal.App.4th at 245. The presumption of fairness exists where: (1) investigation and discovery are 25 sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (2) the settlement is reached through arm’s-26 length bargaining; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is 27 small. Dunk, 48 Cal. App. 4th at 1801, citing Newberg & Conte, Newberg on Class Actions, (3d ed.
28 1992) §11.41, pp. 11-91. Here, all of these factors support a presumption of fairness.

1 V. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR, REASONABLE AND ADEQUATE

2 The court must determine whether the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable. Dunk v. Ford
3 Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 (1996); see also Officers for Justice v. Civil Service Com'n, 688 4 F.2d 615, 625 (9th Cir. 1982). The purpose of the requirement is "the protection of those class members, 5 including the named plaintiffs, whose rights may not have been given due regard by the negotiating 6 parties." Dunk, supra, at 1801.

7 The trial court has broad discretion to determine whether the settlement is fair. Rebney v. Wells 8 Fargo Bank, 220 Cal.App.3d 1117, 1138 (1990). "The well-recognized factors that the trial court should 9 consider in evaluating the reasonableness of a class action settlement agreement include 'the strength of 10 plaintiffs' case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the risk of 11 maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery 12 completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, the presence of a 13 governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement.' 14 [Citations.]" Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 128 (2008); see also Munoz v.
15 BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles, 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408 (2010).

16 The list of factors is not exhaustive and should be tailored to each case. Dunk, supra, at 1801.
17 Due regard should be given to what is otherwise a private consensual agreement between the parties.
18 Id. The inquiry "must be limited to the extent necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the agreement 19 is not the product of fraud or overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating parties, and that the 20 settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable and adequate to all concerned." Id. "Ultimately, the 21 [trial] court's determination is nothing more than 'an amalgam of delicate balancing, gross 22 approximations and rough justice.' [Citation omitted.]" Id.

23 These factors are analyzed seriatim below and all support final approval of the class action 24 settlement before this Court.

25 A. Class Counsel Conducted a Thorough Investigation.

26 As detailed in the motion for preliminary approval, Class Counsel thoroughly investigated the 27 proposed Class Members' claims, applicable law, and potential defenses. Specifically, Class Counsel 28 assessed the value of the class claims using data and documents provided by Defendant through informal discovery. Class Counsel obtained time, payroll, and policy records for the Class Members, aggregate workweek and pay period data, and copies of applicable handbooks containing, inter alia, compensation, timekeeping, and meal and rest period policies. Class Counsel retained BCG to analyze Defendant's time and payroll data to formulate damage models estimating Defendant's liability exposure. Class Counsel also retained a CPA to analyze Defendant's financial capacity to fund a class-wide settlement. Class Counsel's investigation, research, experience, and damage model informed and guided the mediated negotiations that resulted in this settlement. JCL Dec., ¶ 18.

B. The Parties Settled After Mediation.

The Settlement is the product of a mediation session with a respected mediator and subsequent negotiations over the terms of the Settlement. The negotiations were adversarial, conducted at arms-length and tempered by the efforts of both sides to serve the interests of their clients. JCL Dec., ¶ 19.

C. Class Counsel is Experienced in Similar Litigation.

Class Counsel in this matter has extensive class action experience in multiple fields and has represented tens-of-thousands of persons in class actions. Class Counsel's experience is summarized in their concurrently filed declarations. Class Counsel has concluded the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable and in the best interests of the Class. JCL Dec., ¶¶ 9, 20-26; Declaration of Shani O. Zakay ("Zakay Dec.") ¶ 4.

D. The Settlement Class Responded Positively to the Settlement.

The reaction of the Settlement Class unequivocally supports approval of the Settlement. Only four of the 231 members of the Settlement Class opted-out of the Settlement. Moreover, there are zero objections. Stated differently, approximately 98% of the Settlement Class chose to participate in the Settlement. JCL Dec., ¶ 9; Apex Dec., ¶¶ 11-13.

The high approval by the Settlement Class strongly supports a finding that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. See In re Austrian & German Bank Holocaust Litigation, 80 F. Supp. 2d 164, 175 (S.D.N.Y. 2000). Consequently, Class Counsel respectfully requests the Court to follow the high approval of the Settlement Class and grant final approval of the Settlement.

E. The Risk, Expense, Complexity and Duration of Further Litigation Favor Settlement.

Although Plaintiff and Class Counsel believe that this case has merit, they recognized the 1 potential risks both sides would face if litigation of this action continued. JCL Dec., ¶ 27. As the 2 federal court in Glass v. UBS Fin. Servs., 2007 WL221862 held, where the parties faced uncertainties 3 similar to those in this litigation:

4 “In light of the above-referenced uncertainty in the law, the risk, expense, 5 complexity, and likely duration of further litigation likewise favors the 6 settlement. Regardless of how this Court might have ruled on the merits of 7 the legal issues, the losing party likely would have appealed, and the parties would have faced the expense and uncertainty of litigating an appeal. The expense and possible duration of the litigation should be considered in evaluating the reasonableness of [a] settlement.”

8 With respect to the most immediate challenge, i.e., class certification, the risks attendant to the 9 certification of similar wage and hour claims are demonstrated by Magadia v. Wal-Mart Associates, 10 Inc. (9th Cir. 2021) 999 F.3d 668. There, the Ninth Circuit, vacated reversed and remanded a $110 11 million judgement against an employer for, inter alia, inaccurately paying overtime, and directed the 12 trial court to enter judgement in favor of the employer. Consequently, the uncertainty of obtaining 13 certification through a contested motion is a significant risk factor favoring settlement. JCL Dec., ¶ 28.

14 Although Plaintiff is confident about the strength of her claims, Plaintiff nevertheless recognizes 15 that Defendant has factual and legal defenses that, if successful, would potentially defeat or impair the 16 value of the lawsuit. Legally, the fast-changing landscape of wage and hour litigation can drastically 17 affect the value of Plaintiff’s claims and, in fact, already has. JCL Dec., ¶ 29.

18 In a similar wage and hour case, the federal district court in Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc., 2009 19 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 33900 at * 19-20 (N.D. Cal. 2009), granted approval of an overtime class action 20 settlement and explained:

21 Plaintiffs may have a strong case, but the risks inherent in continued 22 litigation are great. Defendants strongly deny liability for Plaintiffs’ 23 principal claim that full-time Service Associates were misclassified as 24 exempt. In addition to the uncertainties raised by Defendants at the 25 preliminary stage regarding Plaintiffs’ chance of success in this case, 26 Defendants notes that the question of an employer’s duty to provide rest and 27 meal periods is an open one, signaling even less certainty for 28 Plaintiffs.....[T]he Total Settlement amount and the Class Members’ expected net recovery, after fees and other costs are deducted, appear to be a reasonable compromise, in light of the risks of litigation.

As recognized in a federal decision approving settlement of an overtime wage class action:

1 The potential complexity and possible duration of trial also weigh in 2 favor of granting final approval. Plaintiffs acknowledge the difficulties 3 of proving damages, recognize the uncertainty of outcome, and believe 4 defendant would appeal in the event of adverse judgment. A post-judgment 5 appeal would require many years to resolve and delay payment to class 6 members. Plaintiffs believe the benefits of a guaranteed recovery today 7 outweigh an uncertain future result. Accordingly, plaintiffs argue, and the 8 Court agrees, the actual recovery confers substantial benefits on the class 9 that outweigh the potential recovery through full adjudication.

10 Barcia v. Contain-A-Way, Inc., 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 17118, *9 (S.D. Cal. 2009);

11 In sum, while other cases have approved class certification in wage and hour claims, class 12 certification in this action would have been hotly disputed and was by no means a foregone conclusion.
13 Where both sides face significant uncertainty, as here, the attendant risks favor settlement. Hanlon v.
14 Chrysler Corp., 150 F. 3d 1011, 1026 (9th Cir. 1998).

15 Plaintiff and Class Counsel recognize the expense and length of a trial against Defendant through 16 possible appeals which could take another three years. In arriving at their informed belief that the 17 present settlement is fair and adequate, Class Counsel accounted for the uncertain outcome and risk 18 inherent in complex actions such as this one. Class Counsel are also mindful of and recognize the 19 inherent problems of proof under, and alleged defenses to, the claims asserted in the litigation.
20 Moreover, post-trial motions and appeals would have been inevitable. Costs would have mounted, and 21 recovery would have been delayed if not denied, thereby reducing the benefits of an ultimate victory.
22 Plaintiff and Class Counsel believe that the Settlement confers substantial monetary and non-monetary 23 benefits upon the Class. Based upon their evaluation, Class Representative and Class Counsel have 24 determined that the Settlement set forth in the Agreement is in the best interest of the Class, is fair, 25 reasonable, and adequate, and should be granted final approval. JCL Dec., ¶ 30.

26 F. The Gross Settlement Amount is Fair and Reasonable.

27 The Gross Settlement Amount of $265,000.00 in this case is fair and well within the range of 28 recognized reasonableness. As detailed at the time of preliminary approval, the Gross Settlement 29 Amount is fair and reasonable considering the nature and magnitude of the claims being settled, 30 Defendant's financial condition, and the various potential impediments to recovery. Class Counsel 31 developed varied economic damages models measuring Defendant's liability exposure while 32 accounting for the uncertainties of continued litigation. The various models were informed by Class

Counsel's investigation, including the analysis of a significant sample of time and payroll data. As detailed in greater depth during the preliminary approval process, Class Counsel projected a range of Defendant's liability exposure for the claims asserted on behalf of the Settlement Class. The Gross Settlement Amount represents between approximately 12.65% of Defendant's maximum class-wide liability and approximately 50.31% of Defendant's class-wide liability exposure as estimated by Class Counsel at the time of mediation. JCL Dec., ¶ 31.

In Stovall-Gusman v. W.W. Granger, Inc., 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78671, at * 12, the District Court for the Northern District of California granted final approval in a wage and hour misclassification action and found that the total settlement representing 10% of the estimated trial award was within the "range of reasonableness." In Dunleavy v. Nadler (In re Mego Fin. Corp. Sec. Litig.), 213 F.3d 454, 459 (9th Cir. 2000), the Ninth Circuit approved a settlement representing "roughly one-sixth of the potential recovery." Given the amount of the settlement here as compared to potential value of the claims, particularly the strength of Plaintiff's action, the settlement is clearly fair and reasonable.

The settlement provides significant relief to the Settlement Class Members. The average settlement payment is approximately $555.84, the highest is approximately $5,501.69, and the lowest is approximately $35.96. Apex Dec., ¶ 16. This average net recovery is greater than many wage and hour class action settlements approved by California state and federal courts. See, e.g., pa v. 99 Cents Only Stores, No. 34-2010-00079619 (Sacramento County Super. Ct) (average net recovery of approximately $80); Fukuchi v. Pizza Hut, Case No. BC302589 (LA. County Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of approximately $120); Contreras v. United Food Group, LLC, Case No. BC389253 (L.A. County Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of approximately $120); Ressler v. Federated Department Stores, Inc., Case No. BC335018 (L.A. County Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of approximately $90). Clearly the goal of this litigation to obtain redress for the class has been met by this Settlement. Given the amount of the Settlement, the risks of litigation and the arm's length negotiations between experienced counsel, the settlement is entitled to final approval. JCL Dec., ¶ 32.

VI. THE PENALTIES UNDER THE PRIVATE ATTORNEY GENERAL ACT OF 2004
ARE REASONABLE

Courts routinely approve of amounts for PAGA penalties in the range of zero to two percent of

1 the settlement. See id. at *1, 9 (approving a PAGA payment of 0.3%); Jack v. Hartford Fire Ins. Co., 2 No. 09cv1683 MMA (JMA), 2011 WL 4899942, at *6 (S.D. Cal. Oct. 13, 2011) (approving a PAGA
3 payment of 0.25%); McKenzie v. Fed. Express Corp., No. CV 10-02420 GAF (PLAx), 2012 WL 4 12882124, at *5 (C.D. Cal. Jan. 23, 2012) (acknowledging that courts approve PAGA claim settlements 5 in the range of zero to two percent of the total settlement).

6 Here, Plaintiff and Defendant negotiated a good faith PAGA Payment in the amount of 7 $10,000.00 which is 3.8% of the Gross Settlement Amount. This amount falls well within the range of 8 approved PAGA Payment. Seventy-Five percent (75%) of the PAGA Payment ($7,500.00) will be 9 paid to the LWDA (“LWDA Payment”) with the remaining twenty-five percent (25%) of the PAGA
10 Payment ($2,500.00) to be distributed to the Aggrieved Employees, which is within the range of PAGA 11 Payment approved by courts and should be approved. JCL Dec., ¶ 33.

12 Further, on October 9, 2024, Class Counsel gave the LWDA notice of this Settlement and 13 proposed allocation by filing a copy of the Settlement and the Motion for Preliminary Approval with 14 the LWDA. On July 22, 2025, Plaintiff gave the LWDA notice of this motion seeking final approval of 15 this settlement. JCL Dec., ¶¶ 5-6, 34. By not registering an objection with either Class Counsel or the 16 Court, the LWDA has accepted and approved of the proposed PAGA Payment.

17 VII. CLASS COUNSEL’S REQUEST FOR FEES AND COSTS

18 As part of the settlement, the parties agreed to award Class Counsel’s Attorneys’ Fees and 19 Expenses is an amount of up to $113,333.33, comprised of $88,333.33 for attorneys’ fees (one-third of 20 the Gross Settlement Amount) and up to $25,000.00 for reimbursement of actually incurred litigation 21 expenses. The negotiated Attorneys’ Fees, which equals one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount, is 22 fair compensation and, respectfully, should be approved. Class Counsel undertook complex, risky, and 23 time-consuming wage and hour litigation on a contingent basis. Further, the negotiated Attorneys’ Fees 24 are within the historically recognized range attorneys’ fees awarded in common fund class action 25 settlements – between 25% and 50% – and is supported by Class Counsel’s lodestar cross-check with 26 a negative multiplier of 0.80. That is below the 2.13 multiplier approved by the Supreme Court in 27 Laffitte v. Robert Half International, Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480, with additional work to be performed, 28

1 and well below the recognized multiplier range of between 2 and 4³. Thus, the reasonableness of the 2 requested Attorneys' Fees is confirmed by reference to the lodestar with a negative multiplier with 3 significant additional work still to be performed. JCL Dec., ¶ 40.

4 A. Common Fund

5 Courts have long recognized that when class counsel's efforts result in the creation of a common 6 fund that benefits plaintiffs and unnamed class members, class counsel have an equitable right to be 7 compensated from that fund. See, e.g., Boeing Co. v. Van Gemert, 444 U.S. 472, 478 (1980) 8 ("recogniz[ing] consistently that a litigant or a lawyer who recovers a common fund...is entitled to a 9 reasonable attorney's fee from the fund as a whole"); Laffitte, 1 Cal. 5th at 488-89 (common fund 10 doctrine "long recognized" under California law). The common fund doctrine rests on the 11 understanding that attorneys should normally be paid by their clients and that, unless attorneys' fees 12 are paid out of the common fund, those who benefit from the fund will be "unjustly enriched." Boeing, 13 444 U.S. at 478.

14 As noted above, in Laffitte, the California Supreme Court upheld the trial court's award of 15 33.33% of the settlement amount of $19 million dollars with a 2.13 multiplier and affirmed that 16 "empirical studies show the percentage method with a lodestar cross-check is the most prevalent form 17 of fee method in practice." Laffitte, 1 Cal. 5th at 496-97. In fact, courts have historically awarded 18 between 25% and 50% of the common fund as attorneys' fees class action settlements. In re Warner 19 Communications, 618 F.Supp. 735, 749-50 (S.D.N.Y. 1985).

20 Here, the fairest way to calculate a reasonable fee when contingency-fee litigation has produced 21 a fixed settlement amount for the Settlement Class Members is by awarding Settlement Class Counsel 22 a percentage of the total settlement sum. See, e.g., In re Bluetooth Headset Products Liab. Litig., 654
23 F.3d 935, 942 (9th Cir. 2011). More importantly, a fee award under the common fund method here 24 would achieve the two underlying goals of the common fund doctrine by: (1) equitably requiring the 25 beneficiaries of the common fund to pay their pro rata share of fees incurred in creating the fund; and 26

27 ³ See Laffitte, supra, 1 Cal. 5th at 487 (approving 1/3 fee award with 2 multiplier); Wershba v. Apple Computer, 91 Cal.
28 App. 4th 224, 255 (2001) ("multipliers can range from 2 to 4 or even higher."); In re Sutter Health Uninsured Pricing
Cases, 171 Cal.App.4th 495, 512 (2009) (affirming multiplier of 2.52 as "fair and reasonable"); Chavez v. Netflix, Inc., 162
Cal.App.4th 43, 66 (2008) (affirming multiplier of 2.53 as well within the approved range of 2 to 4).

(2) providing an incentive to attract competent counsel to handle wage and hour class actions, which California courts recognize as a fundamental tool to ensure the effective enforcement of the Labor Code and minimum labor standards. See, e.g., Gentry v. Super. Ct., 42 Cal. 4th 443, 455-56 (2007) (overruled on other grounds by Iskanian v. CLS Transportation Los Angeles, LLC, 59 Cal.4th 348 (2014) (emphasizing the indispensable value of private enforcement of California’s wage-and-hour laws through class actions)).

The Agreement provides for payment of Class Counsel’s Attorneys’ Fees from the common fund. Accordingly, it is well within the Court’s discretion to award fees to Class Counsel under the common fund doctrine. Class Counsel requests attorneys’ fees in the amount of $88,333.33 representing one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount. Class Counsel’s request is consistent with many fee awards in similar wage and hour class actions. Moreover, the requested attorneys’ fee award is in the middle of historically recognized range of attorneys’ fees awarded in common fund settlements. JCL Dec., ¶ 41.

The negotiated Attorneys’ Fees should be awarded based upon the Gross Settlement Amount in accordance with Laffitte, i.e., the percentage of the fund with a lodestar cross check. As further explained below, the reasonableness of the requested $88,333.33 attorneys’ fee award is further supported by the lodestar cross-check.

B. Class Counsels’ Lodestar Supports the Requested Attorneys’ Fees

Class Counsel’s lodestar to date is $110,385.00 exclusive of costs, with significant work remaining. JCL Dec., ¶ 37. Thus, Class Counsel’s fee request is equal to Class Counsel’s lodestar with a negative 0.80 multiplier – well below the 2.13 multiplier approved in Laffitte – is well within the recognized multiplier range between 2 and 4. See Taylor v. FedEx Freight, Inc., 2016 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 142202 (E.D. Cal. 2016) (following Laffitte, approved 30% fee award with cross-check lodestar multiplier of 2.26); Emmons v. Quest Diagnostics Clinical Labs., Inc., 2017 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 27249 (E.D. Cal. 2017) (following Laffitte, approved 33% fee award with cross-check lodestar multiplier of 1.7).

Because the Settlement in this case is a pure common fund case, and the percentage of the fund is the comparable marketplace for fee awards in common fund cases, Laffitte supports an award based

1 upon the percentage of the common fund. Moreover, Class Counsel's lodestar supports the requested 2 attorneys' fees with a multiplier well within the recognized range reasonableness, and in fact, below 3 what the California Supreme Court approved in Laffitte. JCL Dec., ¶ 42.

4 Although no rigid formula applies, an analysis of each of the following "basic factors" that 5 California courts typically consider further supports the reasonableness of a fee request: (1) the result 6 class counsel obtained; (2) the time and labor required of the attorneys; (3) the contingent nature of the 7 case and the delay in payment to class counsel; (4) the extent to which the nature of the litigation 8 precluded other employment by class counsel; (5) the experience, reputation, and ability of the attorneys 9 who performed the services, the skill they displayed in the litigation, and the novelty, complexity and 10 difficulty of the case; and (6) the informed consent of the clients to the fee agreement. Serrano v. Priest, 11 20 Cal. 3d 25, 49 (1977); Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th at 1810 n.2. Those factors support 12 Class Counsel's request and are addressed in more detail in Counsel's declarations submitted 13 concurrently herewith. In short: (1) Considering the issues presented in the case, the Gross Settlement 14 Amount of $265,000.00 is an excellent result for the Settlement Class; (2) Collectively, Class Counsel 15 worked hard on this case and, expended approximately 151.5 hours in the prosecution of this litigation 16 in the three years since it was filed for a total lodestar of $110,385.00; (3) Class Counsel undertook this 17 litigation on a contingent-fee basis, assuming a significant risk that the litigation would yield no 18 recovery after many years of work; (4) Class Counsel negotiated a one-third contingency fee 19 arrangement, which is a reasonable arrangement to obtain competent counsel in the marketplace for 20 representation in wage and hour class actions of this nature, and it is only equitable that Settlement 21 Class who share in the excellent results achieved by this Settlement bear their pro rata share of the 22 attorneys' fees award to Class Counsel; (5) Class Counsel possesses significant experience litigating 23 complex wage and hour class actions and the way this Settlement was achieved is demonstrative of the 24 highly efficient way this litigation was managed and resolved (See Class Counsel's declarations for a 25 detailed outline of their skills and experience); and (6) Class Counsel's hourly rates, which are set forth 26 in the concurrently filed declarations of Jean-Claude Lapuyade, Esq., and Shani Zakay, Esq., are well 27 within the range of rates billed by comparable attorneys in this market and reasonably compare with 28 rates approved by other trial courts in wage and hour class action litigation.

1 C. Class Counsel's Costs

2 Common fund fee and expense awards include counsel's incurred expenses because those who 3 benefit from their effort should share in the cost. See Rider v. City of San Diego, 11 Cal. App. 4th 1410, 4 1423 n.6 (1992). The appropriate analysis in deciding if costs are compensable is whether the costs are 5 of the type typically billed by attorneys to paying clients in the marketplace. See Harris v. Marhoefer, 6 24 F.3d 16, 19 (9th Cir. 1994).

7 As of the date of this filing, Class Counsel has incurred a total of $13,006.88 litigating this action 8 plus an anticipated $250 in additional costs to file this motion. All of Class Counsel's out-of-pocket 9 expenses are the types of expenses normally charged to paying clients including the following: filing 10 fees; copying; postage; factual; mediation fees; and expert costs, which were all incurred during, and 11 were necessary for the successful prosecution of, the litigation and, therefore, should be reimbursed.
12 JCL Dec. ¶¶ 7, 43; Zakay Dec., ¶¶ 8-9.

13 D. Plaintiff's Service Award Is Reasonable and Should be Approved

14 Courts routinely approve service awards to compensate named plaintiffs for the services they 15 provide and the risks they incur during the class litigation. Bell v. Farmers Ins. Exch., 115 Cal.App.4th 16 715, 726 (2004). The factors courts use in determining the amount of service awards include: (1) a 17 comparison between the service awards and the range of monetary recovery available to the class; (2) 18 time and effort put into the litigation; (3) whether the litigation will further the public policy underlying 19 the statutory scheme; and (4) risks of retaliation. Clark v. American Residential Services, LLC, 175 20 Cal.App.4th 785, 804-805 (2009).

21 Regarding the amount of the requested award, courts frequently approve awards of $10,000.00 22 or more. See In re Cellphone, 186 Cal.App.4th 1380. The amount of the requested Service Award to 23 Plaintiff for $10,000.00 is reasonable by reference to the amounts that California courts (both federal 24 and state) have repeatedly awarded in similar class action settlements. Further, the unanimous consent 25 by the Class Members favors the Court's approval of the requested Service Award. Equally important, 26 the time, effort, and services provided to the Settlement Class justifies the requested Service Award.
27 The Class Representative performed her duties to the Settlement Class admirably. Plaintiff's work is 28 summarized in her declaration filed concurrently herewith. Plaintiff assumed the serious risk of liability

1 for Defendant's costs and potentially fees if the case was unsuccessful. Nevertheless, Plaintiff
2 knowingly and voluntarily undertook the risk to vindicate the rights of the Settlement Class. Caracaus 3 Dec. ¶¶ 1-12; JCL Dec., ¶¶ 44-46.

4 VIII. CONCLUSION

5 Plaintiff respectfully submits that the proposed settlement satisfies the standard of fairness 6 established in California law and should therefore be finally approved as fair, reasonable, and adequate 7 and requests entry of the Final Approval Order and Judgment submitted herewith. Further, based on the 8 foregoing, Class Counsel respectfully requests approval of the Class Counsel Award payment in the 9 amount of $113,333.33, comprised of (1) $88,333.33 as compensation for attorneys' fees (one-third of 10 the Gross Settlement Amount of $265,000.00) and (2) litigation expenses up to $25,000.00 as supported 11 by Class Counsel's billing records. Class Counsel and the Class Representative also respectfully request 12 approval of the requested Service Award in the amount of $10,000.00 to Plaintiff.
