REPRESENTATIVE ACTION

COMPLAINT UNDER THE LABOR
CODE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS'
GENERAL ACT OF 2004 FOR CIVIL
PENALTIES UNDER LABOR CODE
SECTIONS 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1
and 2699

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

[Amount in Controversy Greater Than $25,000.00]

COMES NOW Plaintiff STEPHANIE M. TRUJILLO ("Plaintiff"), as aggrieved employees, and on behalf of all other aggrieved employees under the Labor Code Private Attorneys' General
Act of 2004, and alleges as follows:

1 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2 1. This is a representative action, pursuant to the Labor Code Private Attorneys General
3 Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”), against AVEANNA
4 HEALTHCARE AS, LLC (“AVEANNA”), a Delaware limited liability company, and any of its 5 respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies within the State of California, and PREMIER
6 HEALTHCARE SERVICES, LLC, a California limited liability company, and any of its respective 7 subsidiaries or affiliated companies within the State of California (“PREMIER” and together with 8 AVEANNA and DOES 1 through 100, as further defined below, “Defendants”), as a proxy of the 9 Labor and Workforce Development Agency of the State of California (“LWDA”), on behalf of 10 Plaintiff and all other current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants working within the 11 Civil Penalty Period, as further defined herein, and, as it pertains to the alleged claims for failure to 12 comply with Labor Code section 2810.5, Labor Code section 203, Labor Code section 226, Labor
13 Code section 227.3, Labor Code section 246, et seq., Labor Code section 2802, restraints on 14 competition, whistleblowing and freedom of speech on behalf of all employees of Defendants
15 working within the Civil Penalty Period (collectively, “Aggrieved Employees”).

16 2. Jurisdiction exists in the Superior Court of the State of California pursuant to Code
17 of Civil Procedure section 410.10.

18 3. Venue is proper in Orange County, California pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure
19 sections 392, et seq. because, among other things, Orange County is where the causes of action 20 complained of herein arose; the county in which the employment relationship began; the county in 21 which performance of the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiff, and Defendants, or 22 some of them, was due to be performed; the county in which the employment contract, or part of it,
23 between Plaintiff and Defendants was actually performed; and the county in which Defendants, or 24 some of them, reside. Moreover, the unlawful acts alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff
25 and Aggrieved Employees in Orange County, and because Defendants employ numerous Aggrieved
26 Employees in Orange County.

27 / / /

28 / / /

1 4. Plaintiff is an “aggrieved employee” under PAGA, as Plaintiff was employed by 2 Defendants during the applicable statutory period and suffered one or more of the Labor Code
3 violations set forth herein. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to recover civil penalties, as the term “civil 4 penalty” is defined under ZB N.A. v. Superior Court (2019) 8 Cal.5th 175, under the Labor Code
5 Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”) plus
6 reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs, for Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former 7 employees of Defendants during the Civil Penalty Period.

8 5. Specifically, Plaintiff seeks to recover PAGA civil penalties through a representative 9 action permitted by PAGA and the California Supreme Court in, among other authorities, Arias v.
10 Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969. According to the same authorities, class certification of the 11 PAGA allegations described herein is not required.

12 6. During the period beginning one (1) year preceding the provision of notice to the 13 LWDA regarding the herein-described Labor Code violations (the “Civil Penalty Period”),
14 Defendants violated, inter alia, Labor Code sections 96, 98.6, 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 15 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 232, 232.5, 246, et seq., 432, 510, 512, 558, 1102.5, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 16 1197.1, 1197.5, 1198.5, 2699, 2802, and 2810.5, among others.

17 7. Labor Code section 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g), authorizes aggrieved employees
18 such as Plaintiff, on behalf of Plaintiff and all other aggrieved current and former employees within 19 the statutory period, to bring a civil action to recover civil penalties pursuant to the procedures
20 specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

21 8. On or around July 16, 2021, Plaintiff provided written notice pursuant to Labor Code
22 section 2699.3 online and by certified mail, with return receipt requested, of Defendants’ violation
23 of various, including the herein-described, provisions of the Labor Code, to the LWDA, as well as 24 by certified mail, with return receipt requested to Defendants, and each of them.

25 9. Moreover, on or around December 20, 2021, Plaintiff provided an amended written 26 notice pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3 online and by certified mail, with return receipt 27 requested, of Defendants’ violation of various, including the herein-described, provisions of the 28 Labor Code, to the LWDA, as well as by certified mail, with return receipt requested to Defendants,

1 and each of them.

2 10. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a)(2)(A), the LWDA did not
3 provide notice of its intention to investigate Defendants' alleged violations within sixty-five (65)
4 calendar days of the December 20, 2021 postmarked date of the herein-described amended notice
5 sent by Plaintiff to the LWDA and Defendants.

6 PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ALLEGATIONS

7 11. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
8 of failing to pay overtime wages to Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees in the State of 9 California in violation of California state wage and hour laws as a result of, without limitation,
10 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees working over eight (8) hours per day, forty (40) hours per 11 week, and/or seven (7) straight workdays in a workweek without paying them proper overtime
12 wages, as a result of, without limitation, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually 13 worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock, including, without 14 limitation, by requiring employees: to remain on-call, to suffer under Defendants' control to 15 complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks after clocking out, to clock out for 16 meal periods and continue working, to don and doff uniforms and/or safety equipment off the clock, 17 to attend company meetings off the clock, to make phone calls or drive off the clock; failing to 18 include all forms of remuneration, including non-discretionary bonuses, incentive pay, meal 19 allowances, and other forms of remuneration into the regular rate of pay for the pay periods where 20 overtime was worked and the additional compensation was earned for the purpose of calculating the 21 overtime rate of pay; detrimental rounding of employee time entries, editing and/or manipulation of 22 time entries to show less hours than actually worked, and for paying straight pay instead of overtime
23 pay, to the detriment of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees.

24 12. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a practice or policy
25 of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with minimum wages for all hours
26 worked or otherwise under Defendants' control as a result of, without limitation, failing to 27 accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually worked; by requiring employees: to remain on-
28 call; to suffer under Defendants' control to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift

1 tasks after clocking out, to clock out for meal periods and continue working, to don and doff
2 uniforms and/or safety equipment off the clock, to attend company meetings off the clock, to make 3 phone calls or drive off the clock; detrimental rounding of employee time entries, editing and/or 4 manipulation of time entries to show less hours than actually worked; failing to pay reporting time
5 pay; paid time off and vacation time owed; and failing to pay split shift premiums, to the detriment
6 of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees.

7 13. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
8 of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees a thirty (30) minute uninterrupted, 9 timely, and complete meal period for days on which the employee worked in excess of five (5) and 10 ten (10) hours per day without being afforded uninterrupted, timely, and complete 30-minute meal
11 periods or compensation in lieu thereof including, without limitation, by interrupting meal periods;
12 not providing timely meal periods; failing to provide first and second meal periods; providing short 13 meal periods; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during meal
14 periods; not permitting employees to leave the premises; otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call meal 15 periods; and/or auto-deducting meal periods that could not be auto-deducted by law or during which 16 employees worked, as required by California wage and hour laws.

17 14. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
18 of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees paid, uninterrupted, timely, and 19 complete rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes per four (4) hours worked or major fractions
20 thereof, or compensation in lieu thereof, including, without limitation, by failing to provide rest
21 periods all together; requiring that they be bundled together and/or with meal periods; interrupting
22 them; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during rest periods not 23 providing them in a timely fashion; and not permitting employees to leave the premises; and/or 24 otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call rest periods, as required by California wage and hour laws.

25 15. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
26 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish 27 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross
28 wages earned; total hours worked by the employee; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable

1 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each
2 hourly rate by the employee; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal 3 entity securing the employer's services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such 4 information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

5 16. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
6 of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish
7 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with documents signed to obtain or hold employment
8 under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records
9 under Labor Code section 1174, making it difficult for Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to 10 calculate their unpaid wages and/or premium payments, to the detriment of Plaintiffs and other 11 Aggrieved Employees.

12 17. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
13 of failing to timely pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, among other wages, all wages
14 owed as a result of Defendants' practice or policy of failing to pay, among other wages, overtime
15 wages, minimum wages, premium wages, paid time off and vacation time owed as required by Labor
16 Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

17 18. At all relevant times herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing
18 to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees their paid time off and vacation time owed upon
19 separation of employment as wages at their final rate of pay in violation of Labor Code section 227.3
20 and applicable Wage Orders.

21 19. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 22 failing and refusing, and continue to fail and refuse, to reimburse employees, including, without 23 limitation, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, with their costs incurred for driving personal 24 vehicles (i.e., mileage and gas), purchasing uniforms, providing uniform and other deposits, 25 separately laundering mandatory uniforms, for the purchase of tools and safety equipment, for the 26 purchase and maintenance of cellular phones and cellular phone plans, in direct consequence of the 27 discharge of their duties, or of their obedience to the directions of Defendants, as required by Labor
28 Code 2802.

1 20. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of
2 failing to comply with the notice requirements of Labor Code section 2810.5 (i.e., the Wage Theft
3 Protection Act of 2011) by, among other things, failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved
4 Employees with the rates of pay and overtime rates of pay applicable to their employment;
5 allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage; the regular payday designated by Defendants; the 6 name, address, and telephone number of the workers' compensation insurance carrier; information
7 regarding paid sick leave; and other pertinent information required to be disclosed by Defendants
8 under Labor Code section 2810.5.

9 21. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and 10 other Aggrieved Employees with the amount of paid sick leave required to be provided pursuant to 11 California law (including, without limitation Labor Code section 246, et seq.), and also did not 12 permit its use upon request as contemplated under California laws, to the detriment of Plaintiff and 13 all other Aggrieved Employees.

14 22. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants have had a policy or practice of 15 failing to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees their wages in accordance with Labor Code 16 Section 204, which requires that: "[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of 17 any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the 18 labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive of any 19 calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month."

20 23. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants had and have a policy or practice
21 of preventing Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees from using or disclosing the skills, knowledge
22 and experience they obtained at Defendants for purposes of competing with Defendants, including,
23 without limitation, preventing Employees from disclosing their wages in negotiating a new job with 24 a prospective employer, and from disclosing who else works at Defendants and under what 25 circumstances that they might be receptive to an offer from a rival employer. Plaintiff is informed 26 and believes that this policy and/or practice violates Business and Professions Code sections 17200,
27 16600 and 16700, and, by virtue thereof, various provisions of the Labor Code, including Labor
28 Code sections 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, subdivision (k).

24. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other Aggrieved Employees from disclosing violations of state and federal law, either within Defendants to their managers or outside to private attorneys or government officials, among others, in violation of Business and Professions Code section 17200, and, thus, in violation of Labor Code section 1102.5. In addition, Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants' herein-described policies and/or practices prevent Plaintiff and/or other Aggrieved Employees from disclosing information about unsafe or discriminatory working conditions, or about wage and hour violations in violation of Labor Code section 232 and 232.5.

25. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and/or other Aggrieved Employees from engaging in lawful conduct during non-work hours, thus violating state statutes entitling employees to disclose wages, working conditions, and illegal conduct, including, without limitation, Labor Code sections 96, subdivision (k), 98.6, 232, 232.5, and 1197.5, subdivision (k). Plaintiff is informed and believes that this lawful conduct includes the exercise of Plaintiff's and/or other Aggrieved Employee's constitutional rights of freedom of speech and economic liberty.

26. Plaintiff, in Plaintiff's representative capacity, seeks civil penalties under Labor Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699 for the herein-described acts, which violate the California Labor Code as described above, including on behalf of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees pursuant to PAGA.

PARTIES

A. Plaintiff

27. Plaintiff is a resident of the State of California. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants employed Plaintiff as a non-exempt employee, with duties that included, but were not limited to, coordinating the scheduling of nurses' shifts and answering phones. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Plaintiff worked for Defendants from approximately May of 2019 through approximately March of 2021.

32. All of the acts and conduct described herein of each and every corporate defendant was duly authorized, ordered, and directed by the respective and collective defendant corporate employers, and the officers and management-level employees of said corporate employers. In addition thereto, said corporate employers participated in the aforementioned acts and conduct of their said employees, agents, and representatives, and each of them; and upon completion of the aforesaid acts and conduct of said corporate employees, agents, and representatives, the defendant corporation respectively and collectively ratified, accepted the benefits of, condoned, lauded, acquiesced, authorized, and otherwise approved of each and all of the said acts and conduct of the aforementioned corporate employees, agents and representatives.

33. As a result of the aforementioned facts, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants, and each of them, are joint employers.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Civil Penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act (2004) – Against All Defendants)

34. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs and incorporates each by reference as though fully set forth hereat.

Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 210

35. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 204, requires and required that: “[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month.”

36. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 210, subdivision (a) states and stated that “[i]n addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in this article, every person who fails to pay the wages of each employee as provided in Sections 201.3, 204, 204b, 204.1, 205, 205.5, and 1197.5, shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any initial violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each failure to pay each employee” and “(2) For each subsequent violation, or any willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee, plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld.”

37. At all relevant times herein, Defendants have had a consistent policy or practice of failing to pay Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees during their employment on a timely basis as per Labor Code section 204. Thus, pursuant to Labor Code section 210, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor Code section 204, in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee for each initial violation per employee, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each Aggrieved Employee for each subsequent violation in connection with each payment that was made in violation of Labor Code section 204.

Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 226.3

38. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total hours worked; net wages earned; the name and address of each employer with whom they have been placed to work; all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal entity securing the employer's services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

39. Labor Code section 226.3 states that “[a]ny employer who violates subdivision (a) of Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a wage deduction statement or fails to keep the records required in subdivision (a) of Section 226.”

40. Labor Code section 226.3 further provides that “[t]he civil penalties provided for in this section are in addition to any other penalty provided by law.”

41. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing to furnish non-exempt employees, including, without limitation, Plaintiff, with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total hours worked; net wages earned; all deductions; all applicable hourly rates in effect and the

1 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate in effect during the pay period; the legal
2 name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal entity securing the employer's services
3 if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such information as required by Labor Code
4 section 226, subdivision (a).

5 42. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226.3, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are 6 entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' violation of Labor Code section 226, subdivision
7 (a) in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period
8 for the initial violation, and one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay 9 period for each subsequent violation.

10 Violation of Labor Code § 558

11 43. Pursuant to Labor Code section 558, subdivision (a): "Any employer or other person 12 acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated . . . any provision regulating 13 hours and days of work in any of the Industrial Welfare Commission" shall be subject to a civil 14 penalty as follows:

- 15 (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee and for each 16 pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient 17 to recover underpaid wages;
- 18 (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid 19 employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to 20 an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages;
- 21 (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee.

22 44. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon allege, that Defendants, and 23 each of them, violated, or caused to be violated, the Labor Code sections described herein, including
24 causing Plaintiffs and other Aggrieved Employees not to: be paid with the rates of pay and overtime 25 rates of pay applicable to their employment, allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage, the 26 regular payday designated by Employer, the name of the employer, including any "doing business 27 as" names used, the name, address and telephone number of the workers' compensation insurance
28 carrier, information regarding paid sick leave, and other pertinent information.

45. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations, pursuant to Labor Code section 558, Plaintiffs and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount fifty dollars ($50) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

Violation of Labor Code § 1174.5

46. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (b) has required every person employing labor in California to “[a]llow any member of the commission or the employees of the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement free access to the place of business or employment of the person to secure any information or make any investigation that they are authorized by this chapter to ascertain or make. The commission may inspect or make excerpts, relating to the employment of employees, from the books, reports, contracts, payrolls, documents, or papers of the person.”

47. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (c) has required every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep a record showing the names and addresses of all employees employed and the ages of all minors.”

48. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (d) has required every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept in accordance with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case, shall be kept on file for not less than three years. An employer shall not prohibit an employee from maintaining a personal record of hours worked, or, if paid on a piece-rate basis, piece-rate units earned.”

49. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, “[a]ny person employing labor who willfully fails to maintain the records required by subdivision (c) of [Labor Code] Section 1174 or accurate and complete records required by subdivision (d) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, or to allow any member of the commission or employees of the division to inspect records pursuant to subdivision

1 (b) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, shall be subject to a civil penalty of five hundred dollars ($500).”

2 50. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants have 3 willfully failed keep adequate or accurate time records including wage statements and similar 4 payroll documents under Labor Code section 226, documents signed to obtain or hold employment
5 under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records
6 under Labor Code section 1174.

7 51. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations,
8 pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to 9 recover civil penalties for Defendants’ herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount of five 10 hundred dollars ($500) per violation per Aggrieved Employee.

11 Violation of Labor Code § 1197.1

12 52. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1197.1, subdivision (a): “Any employer or other 13 person acting either individually or as an officer, agent, or employee of another person, who pays 14 or causes to be paid to any employee a wage less than the minimum fixed by an applicable state or 15 local law, or by an order of the commission shall be subject to a civil penalty, restitution of wages, 16 liquidated damages payable to the employee, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to 17 Section 203 as follows:

18 (1) For any initial violation that is intentionally committed, one hundred dollars 19 ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the 20 employee is underpaid. This amount shall be in addition to an amount
21 sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section
22 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.

23 (2) For each subsequent violation for the same specific offense, two hundred fifty 24 dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the 25 employee is underpaid regardless of whether the initial violation is 26 intentionally committed. This amount shall be in addition to an amount
27 sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section
28 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.

(3) Wages, liquidated damages, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203, recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee.”

53. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants caused Plaintiffs and Aggrieved Employees not to be paid minimum wages as a result of Defendants, without limitation, routinely failing to pay Plaintiffs or other Aggrieved Employees' to pay minimum wages for all hours worked, entitling Employee and other aggrieved employees to actual and liquidated damages.

54. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations, pursuant to Labor Code section 1197.1, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount one hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 2699

55. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (a), notwithstanding any other provision of law, any provision of the Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the LWDA or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or employees for a violation of the Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

56. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (f), for all provisions of the Labor Code except those for which a civil penalty is specifically provided, the established civil penalty for a violation of those provisions is as follows: if, at the time of the alleged violation, the person employs one or more employees, the civil penalty is one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

57. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that Defendants, and each of them, violated the Labor Code sections described herein, including, without limitation, for the failure to: pay the rates of pay and overtime rates of pay applicable to their employment, allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage, the regular payday designated by Defendants, the name of the employer, including any “doing business as” names used, the name, address and telephone number of the workers’ compensation insurance carrier, information regarding paid sick leave, and other pertinent information required to be disclosed by Employer under Labor Code section 2810.5, failing to provide Employee and other aggrieved employees with the amount of paid sick leave required to be provided pursuant to California and local laws.

58. Moreover, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees within the State of California whom he seeks to represent are entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in connection with their herein-described claims for civil penalties.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

59. Plaintiff hereby requests a trial by jury.

PRAYER

WHEREFORE, on behalf of Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants as follows:
