DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

PLAINTIFF, Stephanie Allen (“Plaintiff”), on behalf of herself and other “aggrieved employees” complains of Defendants as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a Class and Representative Action, pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 382 on behalf of Plaintiff and certain individuals who are employed by, or were formerly employed by, California Vocations, Inc. and any subsidiaries or affiliated companies (hereinafter collectively referred to as “Defendants”) within California.

2. For at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action and continuing to the present (the “liability period”). Plaintiff and Defendant’s California employees were routinely unable, and not authorized to take their 10-minute rest periods and were also unable to take an uninterrupted 30-minute meal break for every shift they worked. Specifically, Plaintiff and Defendant’s California employees were forced to continue working through their meal and rest breaks in order to assist Defendant’s needs. Because of this, Plaintiff and Defendant’s California employees were unable to take their required meal and rest breaks. Moreover, Defendants failed to pay premium wages of one hour’s pay for each missed meal and rest break to Plaintiff and Defendant’s California employees who were denied timely meal and rest breaks, in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and 558, and IWC Order No. 5-2001, Section 12.

1 3. Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were required to work off the clock for 2 Defendant. Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were required to call Defendant to see if
3 they were on the schedule. Moreover, Defendants routinely made Plaintiff and its California
4 employees were required to be on-call or standby and answer their phones for 24 hours per day.
5 Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were also required to use their personal cell phone for 6 work-related activities while off the clock, such as communicating with management and co-workers
7 via text or calls, checking their schedule, GPS navigation, and completing reports for each days
8 consistently through a special app (Therups). Defendant did not compensate Plaintiff and Defendant's
9 California employees if these tasks were completed outside of his regular work hours. These excess
10 hours were not recorded on our client's and Defendant's California employees wage statements.
11 Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees should have been compensated for that time, but he 12 was not in violation of Labor Code Sections 510, 1194, and 1194.2. As a result, Plaintiff and 13 Defendant's California employees were not paid for all hours worked including all straight time wages,
14 and overtime wages. These failures to pay wages constitute violations of Labor Code § 510 and 1194.

15 4. Plaintiff also claims that Defendant has failed to pay all overtime wages due to non-
16 exempt employees. As a result, employees are not properly compensated for work performance in
17 excess of eight (8) hours in a workday and work performed in excess of forty (40) hours in a workweek
18 at a rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay. Employees of Defendant
19 regularly work in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours per week and do not
20 receive overtime compensation at a rate of one and one half of their regular rate. Plaintiff and
21 Defendant's California employees were forced to work overtime and were not paid for all hours
22 worked including all straight time wages, and overtime wages. These failures to pay all overtime
23 wages constitute violations of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, 1194.2.

24 5. Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and all other California employees of Defendant claims
25 that Defendant has failed to pay all overtime wages due to non-exempt employees. Defendant pays 26 their employees bonuses and commissions which are not included in the employees regular rate of pay
27 for the purposes of computing the proper overtime rate. As a result, employees are not properly 28 compensated for work performed in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday and work performed in excess of forty (40) hours in a workweek at a rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay. These failures to pay all overtime wages constitute violations of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and 1194.2.

1 6. Defendants failed to issue Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees accurately
2 itemized wage statements. As Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and Defendants' California
3 employees with all wages due, as detailed above, their wage statements failed to accurately state all
4 gross wages earned, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(1), total hours worked, in violation of Labor
5 Code § 226(a)(2), and net wages earned, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(5), and all applicable
6 hourly rates during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked, in violation of 7 Labor Code § 226(a)(9), as a result of Defendants' failure to pay all overtime wages due. These 8 violations also violate Labor Code §§ 226(e) and 226.3 with respect to Plaintiff and Defendants'
9 California employees.

10 7. Defendants knowingly and intentionally failed to provide Plaintiff and Defendant's
11 California employees timely, accurate, itemized wage statements in accordance with Labor Code §
12 226 and keep accurate records as required by §1174(d). The statements provided to Plaintiff and 13 Defendant's California employees, and the records maintained by Defendants, have not accurately
14 reflected actual gross wages earned, including pay for all hours worked, overtime, and meal/rest
15 premiums, and total hour worked.

16 8. Our client further alleges that Defendants paid her and Defendant's California
17 employees their final wages beyond the time frames set forth in Labor Code §§ 201 and 202. As they
18 were not paid all wages due and owing throughout the course of their employment as a result of
19 Defendants' failure to pay all premium wages as detailed above, at the time of their separation, they
20 were not paid all final wages due and owing for the entirety of their employment. This violates Labor
21 Code §§ 201-203.

22 9. Defendant pays Plaintiff and it's California employees on a bi-monthly basis and has 23 failed to comply with Labor Code § 204(a) which holds that wages earned on a bi-monthly basis must
24 be paid no later than ten calendar days following the close of the payroll period. Due to the violations
25 described above, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees did not receive all of their wages
26 earned in a timely manner as required by Labor Code § 204(a)(b) and 201.3.

27 10. Defendant failed to reimburse Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees for the 28 mileage they incurred performing certain tasks or running errands on behalf of Defendant. Defendant failed to reimburse its California employees for using their personal cell phones for the benefit of Defendant. Labor Code section 2802 provides that "[a]n employer shall indemnify his or her employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the

1 discharge of his or her duties.” As such, Plaintiff and Defendant’s California employees have incurred
2 reasonable and necessary expenses in the course of their job duties, which were not reimbursed by 3 Defendant, in violation of Labor Code § 2802.

4 11. Defendants failed to pay all wages earned to Plaintiff and Defendant’s California
5 employees as a result of the unlawful employment policies and practices herein. As a result of these
6 practices, Plaintiff and Defendant’s California employees were underpaid for hours worked, including
7 overtime and penalty wages, and this underpayment resulted in a failure to pay all wages owed twice
8 per month. Due to this failure, Defendants are liable under Labor Code § 210 for failure to pay wages
9 as required by law.

10 12. Plaintiff and all other aggrieved employees bring this claim pursuant to Business
11 & Professions Code § 17200, et seq. The conduct of all Defendants as alleged above has been
12 and continues to be unfair, unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff and Defendants’ California
13 employees.

14 13. Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and all proposed Plaintiff Class members (specifically, 15 the “California Class” as defined herein), brings this action pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512,
16 and 558, Labor §§ 510, 1194, 1194.2, Labor § 226(a)(e), 1174(d), Labor Code § 201-203, Labor Code
17 § 204(a)(b), Labor Code § 2802, Labor Code § 210, 218, Business & Professions Code § 17200, et 18 seq.

19 14. Venue as to each Defendant is proper in this judicial district, pursuant to Code
20 of Civil Procedure § 395. Defendants operate within the State of California. The unlawful acts
21 alleged herein took place in Chico, California.

22 II. PARTIES

23 A. PLAINTIFF

24 15. Plaintiff Stephanie Allen is a resident of Magalia, California. At all times relevant 25 herein, she was employed by Defendants in Butte County, California. Plaintiff was employed by 26 Defendants as a non-exempt, hourly employee in California, including in and around the city of Chico,
27 County of Butte. During Plaintiff’s employment:

28 A. Plaintiff did not receive final wages upon termination.

B. Plaintiff and the Class were not paid in a timely manner pertaining to the waiting time penalties in accordance with Labor Code §§ 201-203.

C. Plaintiff was forced to receive inaccurately itemized and deficient wage statements, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a).

D. Plaintiff did not receive her compensation in accordance with Labor Code Section 204 in that Defendant failed to issues wages to its employees within ten (10) calendar days after the pay period ended.

E. Plaintiff was required to work without meal and rest periods, nor compensation in lieu thereof, as required by the Labor Code and relevant Wage Orders.

F. Plaintiff was required to work either in excess of eight hours per workday or in excess of forty hours per workweek without receiving compensation at a rate of one and one half the regular rate of pay.

G. Defendant also failed to reimburse Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees for reasonable and necessary expenses in the course of their job duties, in violation of Labor Code § 2802.

B. DEFENDANTS

16. Defendant California Vocations, Inc., a California Corporation doing business in Chico, California. It operates within the State of California. Defendants employed Plaintiff and similarly situated employees within California. The violations alleged herein arose in Chico, California.

17. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or otherwise, of Defendants sued herein as DOES 1 to 10, inclusive, are currently unknown to Plaintiff, who therefore sues Defendants by such fictitious names under Code of Civil Procedure § 474. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each of the Defendants designated herein as a DOE is legally responsible in some manner for the unlawful acts referred to herein. Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of the Defendants designated hereinafter as DOES when such identities become known.

18. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each Defendant acted in all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other Defendants, carried out a joint scheme, business plan or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each Defendant are legally attributable to the other Defendants. Furthermore, Defendants in all respects acted as the employer and/or joint employer of Plaintiff and the proposed Class.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

19. Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were routinely unable, and not authorized to take their 10-minute rest periods and were also unable to take an uninterrupted 30-minute meal break for every shift they worked. Specifically, Plaintiff and other California employees were further forced to keep their personal cell phone on during their meal and rest breaks in case of emergencies or to address the needs of Defendants' personnel. Because of this, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were unable to take their required meal and rest breaks. Moreover, Defendants failed to pay premium wages of one hour's pay for each missed meal and rest break to Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees who were denied timely meal and rest breaks, in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and 558, and IWC Order No. 5-2001, Section 12.

20. Plaintiff also claims that Defendants have failed to pay all overtime wages due to non-exempt employees. As a result, employees are not properly compensated for work performance in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday and work performed in excess of forty (40) hours in a workweek at a rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay. Employees of Defendants regularly work in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours per week and do not receive overtime compensation at a rate of one and one half of their regular rate. Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were forced to work overtime and were not paid for all hours worked including all straight time wages, and overtime wages. These failures to pay all overtime wages constitute violations of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, 1194.2.

21. Defendant failed to issue Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees accurately itemized wage statements. As Defendant failed to compensate Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees with all wages due, as detailed above, their wage statements failed to accurately state all gross wages earned, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(1), total hours worked, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(2), net wages earned, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(5). Moreover, Plaintiff and the California employees wage statements' failed to accurately state the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(8), and all applicable hourly rates during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(9), as a result of Defendants' failure to pay all overtime wages due. These violations also violate Labor Code §§ 226(e) and 226.3 with respect to Plaintiff and Defendants' California employees.

1 22. Defendants knowingly and intentionally failed to provide Plaintiff and Defendant's
2 California employees timely, accurate, itemized wage statements in accordance with Labor Code §
3 226 and keep accurate records as required by §1174(d). The statements provided to Plaintiff and
4 Defendant's California employees, and the records maintained by Defendant, have not accurately
5 reflected actual gross wages earned, including pay for all hours worked, overtime, and meal/rest premiums, and total hour worked.

6 23. Our client further alleges that Defendants paid her and Defendant's California
7 employees their final wages beyond the time frames set forth in Labor Code §§ 201 and 202. As they
8 were not paid all wages due and owing throughout the course of their employment as a result of
9 Defendant's failure to pay all premium wages as detailed above, at the time of their separation, they
10 were not paid all final wages due and owing for the entirety of their employment. This violates Labor
Code §§ 201-203.

11 24. Defendants pays Plaintiff and it's California employees on a bi-monthly basis and has 12 failed to comply with Labor Code § 204(a) which holds that wages earned on a bi-monthly basis must
13 be paid no later than ten calendar days following the close of the payroll period. Due to the violations
14 described above, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees did not receive all of their wages
15 earned in a timely manner as required by Labor Code § 204(a)(b).

16 25. Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees for the 17 equipment they purchased to perform work for Defendants. Defendants failed to reimburse its 18 California employees for using their personal cell phones for the benefit of Defendants. Labor Code
19 section 2802 provides that "[a]n employer shall indemnify his or her employee for all necessary
20 expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her 21 duties." As such, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees have incurred reasonable and 22 necessary expenses in the course of their job duties, which were not reimbursed by Defendants, in violation of Labor Code § 2802.

23 26. Defendants failed to pay all wages earned to Plaintiff and Defendant's California
24 employees as a result of the unlawful employment policies and practices herein. As a result of these
25 practices, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were underpaid for hours worked, including
26 overtime and penalty wages, and this underpayment resulted in a failure to pay all wages owed twice
27 per month. Due to this failure, Defendants are liable under Labor Code § 210 for failure to pay wages
as required by law.

1 27. Plaintiff and all other aggrieved employees bring this claim pursuant to Business
2 & Professions Code § 17200, et seq. The conduct of all Defendants as alleged above has been
3 and continues to be unfair, unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff and Defendants' California
4 employees.

5 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

6 28. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of herself and all others similarly situated as a 7 Class Action pursuant to § 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

8 29. Plaintiff seeks to represent a class composed of and defined as follows:

9 THE CALIFORNIA CLASS

10 30. All current and former California employees of Defendants since the date
11 four (4) year prior to the filing of this complaint.

12 31. Plaintiff reserves the right under Rule 3.765, California Rules of Court, to 13 amend or modify the class description with greater specificity or further division into 14 subclasses or limitation to particular issues.

15 32. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class
16 action under the provisions of § 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure because there is a
17 well-defined community of interest in the litigation and the proposed Class is easily 18 ascertainable.

19 A. NUMEROSITY

20 33. The potential members of the proposed Class as defined are so numerous that joinder
21 of all the members of the proposed Class is impracticable. While the precise number of proposed 22 Plaintiff Class members has not been determined at this time, Plaintiff is informed and believes that 23 Defendants currently employ, and during the relevant time periods employed, over seventy-five (75)
24 Class members in the State of California.

25 34. Accounting for employee turnover during the relevant periods necessarily increases
26 this number substantially. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants' employment records would provide 27 information as to the number and location of all proposed Plaintiff Class members. Joinder of all 28 members of the proposed Class is not practicable.

29 B. COMMONALITY

30 35. There are questions of law and fact common to the proposed Class that predominate 31 over any questions affecting only individual Class members. These common questions of law and fact include, without limitation, whether Defendants failed to provide members of the Class with wage statements that fully and accurately itemize the requirements set forth in Labor Code §226(a), accurate final wages, and final wages on the day of termination and or within seventy-two (72) hours of separation and whether the rest periods were timely made available.

C. TYPICALITY

36. The claims of the named Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the proposed Class. Plaintiff and all members of the proposed Class sustained injuries and damages arising out of and caused by Defendants' common course of conduct in violation of laws, regulations that have the force and effect of law, and statutes as alleged herein.

D. ADEQUACY OF REPRESENTATION

37. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of the members of the proposed Class. Counsel who represents Plaintiff is competent and experienced in litigating large employment class actions.

E. SUPERIORITY OF CLASS ACTION

38. A class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy. Individual joinder of all proposed Plaintiff Class members is not practicable, and questions of law and fact common to the proposed Class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members of the proposed Class. Each member of the proposed Class has been damaged and is entitled to recovery by reason of Defendant's failure to comply with Labor Code 226(a).

39. Class action treatment will allow those similarly situated persons to litigate their claims in the manner that is most efficient and economical for the parties and the judicial system. Plaintiffs are unaware of any difficulties that are likely to be encountered in the management of this action that would preclude its maintenance as a class action.

CAUSES OF ACTION

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS OR COMPENSATION IN LIEU THEREOF (LABOR CODE §§ 226.7, 512 and 558)

40. Plaintiff incorporates paragraphs 1 through 39 of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

41. Plaintiff is entitled to one hour of pay for each day that Defendants failed to properly

1 provide one or more meal periods as set forth in the IWC Wage Orders and Labor Code §§ 226.7, 2 512 and 558.

3 42. Plaintiff and Defendants' California employees were routinely unable, and not
4 authorized to take an uninterrupted 30-minute meal break for every shift they worked. Specifically,
5 Plaintiff and other California employees were further forced to keep their personal cell phone on 6 during their meal breaks in case of emergencies or to address the needs of Defendants' personnel.
7 Because of this, Plaintiff and Defendants' California employees were unable to take their required
8 meal breaks. Moreover, Defendants failed to pay premium wages of one hour's pay for each missed
9 meal break to Plaintiff and Defendants' California employees who were denied timely meal breaks,
10 in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and 558, and IWC Order No. 5-2001, Section 12.

11 43. Pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512 and 558 Plaintiff seeks the payment of all meal
12 period compensations, which she was owed since she commenced to work for Defendant, according 13 to proof.

14 44. Additionally, Plaintiff is entitled to, and seeks, attorney's fees and costs, and
15 prejudgment interest.

16 45. Wherefore, Plaintiff seeks to represent request relief as described below.

17 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

18 FAILURE TO PROVIDE REST PERIODS OR COMPENSATION IN LIEU THEREOF 19 (LABOR CODE §§ 226.7, 512 and 558)

20 46. Plaintiff incorporates paragraphs 1 through 45 of this Complaint as though fully set
21 forth herein.

22 47. Plaintiff is entitled to one hour of pay for each day that Defendants failed to properly
23 provide one or more rest periods as set forth in the IWC Wage Orders and Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512
24 and 558.

25 48. Plaintiff and Defendants' California employees were routinely unable, and not 26 authorized to take their 10-minute rest periods for every shift they worked. Specifically, Plaintiff and 27 other California employees were further forced to keep their personal cell phone on during their rest
28 breaks in case of emergencies or to address the needs of Defendants' personnel. Because of this,
Plaintiff and Defendants' California employees were unable to take their required rest breaks.
Moreover, Defendants failed to pay premium wages of one hour's pay for each missed rest break to 1 Plaintiff and Defendants' California employees who were denied timely rest breaks, in violation of 2 Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and 558, and IWC Order No. 5-2001, Section 12.

3 49. Pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512 and 558 Plaintiff seeks the payment of all rest
4 period compensations, which she was owed since she commenced to work for Defendant, according
5 to proof.

6 50. Additionally, Plaintiff is entitled to, and seeks, attorney's fees and costs, and
7 prejudgment interest.

8 51. Wherefore, Plaintiff seeks to represent request relief as described below.

9 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

10 FAILURE TO PAY ALL WAGES IN VIOLATION OF

11 (LABOR CODE §§ 510, 1194, 1194.2)

12 52. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set
13 forth herein.

14 53. During the liability period, Defendant failed to pay all wages to Plaintiff and 15 Defendant's California employees.

16 54. Plaintiff also claims that Defendant has failed to pay all overtime wages due to non-
17 exempt employees. As a result, employees are not properly compensated for work performance in
18 excess of eight (8) hours in a workday and work performed in excess of forty (40) hours in a workweek
19 at a rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay. Employees of Defendant
20 regularly work in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours per week and do not
21 receive overtime compensation at a rate of one and one half of their regular rate. Plaintiff and
22 Defendant's California employees were forced to work overtime and were not paid for all hours
23 worked including all straight time wages, and overtime wages. These failures to pay all overtime
24 wages constitute violations of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, 1194.2.

25 55. As a result, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were not paid for all hours
26 worked including all straight time wages, and overtime wages. These failures to pay wages constitute 27 violations of Labor Code § 510 and 1194.

28 56. As a result of the unlawful acts of Defendants in willfully filing to pay all alleges, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees have been deprived of wages in amounts to be determined at trial, and are entitled to restitution and recovery of such amounts, plus interest thereon, attorneys' fees, and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 1194 and liquidated damages pursuant to Labor

Code § 1194.2.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

KNOWING AND INTENTIONAL FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH ITEMIZED
EMPLOYEE WAGE STATEMENT PROVISIONS (LABOR CODE § 226(a),(e))

57. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

58. Section 226(a) of the California Labor Code requires Defendants to provide wage statements to employees. In those wage statements, Defendants must accurately set forth, among other things, the total gross and net wages earned, and all hourly rates in effect, for Plaintiff. Defendants have knowingly and intentionally failed to comply with Labor Code § 226(a).

59. Defendant failed to issue Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees accurately itemized wage statements. As Defendant failed to compensate Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees with all wages due, as detailed above, their wage statements failed to accurately state all gross wages earned, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(1), total hours worked, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(2), net wages earned, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(5). Moreover, Plaintiff and the California employees wage statements' failed to accurately state the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(8), and all applicable hourly rates during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(9), as a result of Defendant's failure to pay all overtime wages due. Since the wage statements provided to Plaintiff failed to accurately reflect the total number of Plaintiff's worked hours, these violations also violate Labor Code §§ 226(e) and 226.3 with respect to Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees.

60. Defendants knowingly and intentionally failed to provide Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees timely, accurate, itemized wage statements in accordance with Labor Code § 226 and keep accurate records as required by §1174(d). The statements provided to Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees, and the records maintained by Defendants, have not accurately reflected actual gross wages earned, including pay for all hours worked, overtime, and meal/rest premiums, and total hour worked.

61. The wage statements provided to Plaintiff and members of the Class fail to accurately itemize in wage statements total gross and net wages earned, and all hourly rates in effect for Plaintiff. Defendants' violations of Labor Code § 226(a) are knowing and intentional, and Plaintiff

1 has suffered injury as a result of the receipt of defective wage statements, thereby entitling them to 2 penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 226(e).

3 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

4 FAILURE TO PAY WAGES DUE AT THE TIME OF DISCHARGE IN VIOLATION
5 OF LABOR CODE §§ 201-202, RESULTING IN SECTION 203 WAGES AND
6 PENALTIES (WAITING TIME PENALTIES)

7 62. Plaintiff hereby incorporates preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though
8 fully set forth herein.

9 63. At all times material herein, the California Labor Code Sections 201, 202, and 10 203 were in effect and binding on Defendant.

11 64. California Labor Code § 202 requires employers to pay employees all wages due
12 within seventy-two (72) hours of resignation. California Labor Code § 201 states in pertinent 13 part that “if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of 14 discharge are due and payable immediately.” California Labor Code § 203 provides that if an 15 employer willfully fails to timely pay such wages the employer must, as penalty, continue to 16 pay the subject employee’s wages until the back wages are paid in full or an action is 17 commenced. The penalty cannot exceed 30 days of wages.

18 65. Plaintiff was entitled to compensation for unpaid wages, but to date has not 19 received such compensation. Specifically, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff all wages due to 20 Plaintiff at the time of her separation of employment from Defendant’s. Thus, since Defendant 21 failed to promptly pay Plaintiff all wages due to Plaintiff at the time of her separation of 22 employment, Defendant violated Section 201 of the Labor Code and Plaintiff is therefore 23 entitled to wages and penalties pursuant to Labor Code Section 203.

24 66. More than 30 days have passed since Plaintiff’s employment ended with 25 Defendant.

26 67. As a consequence of Defendant’s willful conduct in not paying wages owed to 27 Plaintiff, Plaintiff is entitled to 30 days of wages as a penalty pursuant to Labor Code § 203 for 28 Defendant’s failure to timely pay legal wages, together with attorney’s fees and cost of suit, and interest pursuant to California Labor Code Section 218.5.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY EMPLOYEES IN VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 204(a)(b)

68. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

69. At all times relevant herein, Labor Code § 204 was in full force and effect and binding on Defendants.

70. Wages must be paid according to a regularly set schedule. (Labor Code § 204). All earned wages must be paid at least twice a month, on days designated in advance by the employer. Work performed between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 16th and 26th day of the same month. Work performed between the 16th and the last day of the month must be paid between the 1st and 10th day of the following month. (Labor Code § 204). Weekly or bi-weekly (every two weeks) payroll must be paid within seven (7) days of the end of the pay period in which the wages were earned (Labor Code §§ 204(a), 204(b)).

71. Defendants pay Plaintiff and its California employees on a bi-monthly basis and have failed to comply with Labor Code § 204(a) which holds that wages earned on a bi-monthly basis must be paid no later than ten calendar days following the close of the payroll period. Due to the violations described above, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees did not receive all of their wages earned in a timely manner as required by Labor Code § 204(a)(b).

72. Defendants have failed to comply with the above-section because they waited longer than ten days from the close of the pay period to pay its bi-monthly paid employees.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO REIMBURSE FOR BUSINESS EXPENSES IN VIOLATION OF CALIFORNIA LABOR CODE § 2802

73. Plaintiff hereby incorporates preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

74. Labor Code § 2802 provides that "[a]n employer shall indemnify his or her employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties."

75. Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees for the equipment they purchased to perform work for Defendants. Defendants failed to reimburse its California employees for using their personal cell phones for the benefit of

1 Defendants. Labor Code section 2802 provides that “[a]n employer shall indemnify his or her
2 employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence
3 of the discharge of his or her duties.” As such, Plaintiff and Defendant’s California employees 4 have incurred reasonable and necessary expenses in the course of their job duties, which were not reimbursed by Defendants, in violation of Labor Code § 2802.

5 76. Plaintiff is entitled to reimbursement for these necessary expenditures, plus
6 interest and attorneys’ fees and cost, under Labor Code § 2802.

7 77. Plaintiff also requests relief as described below.

8 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

9 FAILURE TO PAY FOR ALL HOURS WORKED, INCLUDING OVERTIME HOURS 10 WORKED IN VIOLATION OF (LABOR CODES §§ 210, 218)

11 78. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

12 79. Section 2(K) or Wage Order 5 defines “hours worked” as “the rime during which an 13 employee is subject to the control of an employer, and including all the time the employee is 14 suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.” Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1197
15 required employers to compensate Plaintiff for all hours worked at least at a minimum wage ad
16 established by the Wage Order. Defendants did not pay for all hours worked and frequently required
17 Plaintiff to work off the clock. Defendants have been engaged in many unlawful employment practices which resulted in underpayment for hours worked each pay period as more set forth below:

18 80. Failure to Pay All Wages Owed Twice Per Month. Defendants were required to pay
19 Plaintiff all wages earned twice during each calendar month pursuant to Labor Code § 204(a).
20 Defendants failed to pay all wages earned to Plaintiff as a result of the unlawful employment policies
21 and practices herein. As a result of these practices, Plaintiff was underpaid for hours worked,
22 including overtime and penalty wages, and this underpayment resulted in a failure to pay all wages
23 owed twice per month. Due to this failure, Defendants are liable under Labor Code § 210 for failure to pay wages as required by law.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

UNFAIR COMPETITION PURSUANT TO BUSINESS & PROFESSIONS CODE § 17200

81. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

82. This is an Action for Unfair Business Practices. Plaintiff Stephanie Allen brings this claim pursuant to Business & Professions Code § 17200, et seq. The conduct of all Defendants as alleged in this Complaint has been and continues to be unfair, unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees as a result of Defendant's failure to comply with the labor code sections as set out above. Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees seek to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

83. Plaintiff is a "person" within the meaning of Business & Professions Code § 17204, and therefore has standing to bring this cause of action for injunctive relief, restitution, and other appropriate equitable relief.

84. Business & Profession Code § 17200 et. seq. prohibits unlawful and unfair business practices.

85. Defendants have violated statutes and public policies. Through the conduct alleged in this Complaint, Defendants, and each of them, have acted contrary to these public policies, have violated specific provisions of the Labor Code, and have engaged in other unlawful and unfair business practices in violation of Business & Professions Code § 17200, et seq., depriving Plaintiff, of rights, benefits, and privileges guaranteed to Plaintiff under law.

86. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, constitutes unfair competition in violation of § 17200 et. seq. of the Business & Professions Code.

87. As a proximate result of the above mentioned acts of Defendants, Plaintiff has been damaged in a sum as may be proven.

88. Unless restrained by this Court, Defendants will continue to engage in the unlawful conduct as alleged above. Pursuant to Business & Professions Code, this Court should make such orders or judgments, including the appointment of a receiver, as may be necessary to prevent the use or employment, by Defendants, their agents, or Plaintiff, of any unlawful or deceptive practice prohibited by the Business & Professions Code, and/or, including but not limited to, disgorgement of profits which may be necessary to restore Plaintiff to the money Defendants have unlawfully failed

1 to pay.

2 TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

3 PENALTIES PURSUANT TO LABOR CODE § 2699(f) FOR VIOLATIONS OF LABOR

4 CODE §§ 226.7, 512, 558, 510, 1194, 1194.2, 226(a), (e),

5 201-203, 204(a)(b), 2802, 210, 218

6 89. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

7 90. As a result of the acts alleged herein, Plaintiff seeks penalties under Labor Code § 2698 et seq. because of Defendants' violations of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, 558, 510, 1194, 1194.2, 226(a), (e), 201-203, 204(a)(b), 2802, 210, 218.

8 91. For each such violation, Plaintiff and all aggrieved employees are entitled to penalties in an amount to be shown at the time of trial subject to the following formula:

9 a. With respect to the violation of Labor Code § 2699(f) for violations of 10 Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, 558, 510, 1194, 1194.2, 226(a), (e), 201-203, 11 204(a)(b), 2802, 210, 218, $100 for the initial violation per employee per 12 pay period and $200 for each subsequent violation per employee per pay 13 period.

14 92. These penalties will be allocated 75% to the Labor Workforce Development Agency, 15 and 25% to the affected employees.

16 93. On February 18, 2025, Plaintiff sent a letter, by certified mail, return receipt 17 requested, to the LWDA and Defendants setting forth the facts and theories of the violations alleged 18 against Defendants, as prescribed by Labor Code § 2698 et seq. (Exhibit "A"). Pursuant to Labor
19 Code § 2699.3(a)(2)(A), no notice was received by Plaintiff from the LWDA within sixty-five (65)
20 calendar days of February 18, 2025. Plaintiff may therefore commence this action to seek penalties
21 pursuant to Labor Code § 2698 et seq.

22 94. Wherefore, Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees he seeks to represent request relief
23 as described herein.

Re: Stephanie Allen v. California Vocations, Inc. – Compliance Letter of California Labor Code § 2698 – Private Attorneys General Act

Dear Sir or Madam:

This office represents Stephanie Allen (“Plaintiff”), a former California employee of California Vocations, Inc. (“Defendants”). The purpose of this letter is to comply with the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, pursuant to California Labor Code § 2698 et seq.

Our client worked for Defendant in Northern California. Herein we set forth the facts and theories of California Labor Code violations which we allege Defendant engaged in with respect to our client and other of its California non-exempt employees.

Plaintiff began working for Defendants on or about November 27, 2023. While working for Defendant as an Assistant Residential Coordinator, Plaintiff was earning ($27.00) dollars per hour.

Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were routinely unable, and not authorized to take their 10-minute rest periods and were also unable to take an uninterrupted 30-minute meal break for every shift they worked. Specifically, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were forced to continue working through their meal and rest breaks in order to assist Defendant's needs. Because of this, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were unable to take their required meal and rest breaks. Moreover, Defendants failed to pay premium wages of one hour's pay for each missed meal and rest break to Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees who were denied timely meal and rest breaks, in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and 558, and IWC Order No. 5-2001, Section 12.

Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were required to work off the clock for Defendant. Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were required to call Defendant to see if they were on the schedule. Moreover, Defendants routinely made Plaintiff and its California employees were required to be on-call or standby and answer their phones for 24 hours per day. Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were also required to use their personal cell phone for work-related activities while off the clock, such as communicating with management and co workers via text or calls, checking their schedule, GPS navigation, and completing reports for each days consistently through a special app (Therups). Defendant did not compensate Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees if these tasks were completed outside of his regular work hours. These excess hours were not recorded on our client's and Defendant's California employees wage statements. Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees should have been compensated for that time, but he was not in violation of Labor Code Sections 510, 1194, and 1194.2. As a result, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were not paid for all hours worked including all straight time wages, and overtime wages. These failures to pay wages constitute violations of Labor Code § 510 and 1194.

Plaintiff also claims that Defendant has failed to pay all overtime wages due to non-exempt employees. As a result, employees are not properly compensated for work performance in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday and work performed in excess of forty (40) hours in a workweek at a rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay. Employees of Defendant regularly work in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours per week and do not receive overtime compensation at a rate of one and one half of their regular rate. Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were forced to work overtime and were not paid for all hours worked including all straight time wages, and overtime wages. These failures to pay all overtime wages constitute violations of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, 1194.2.

Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and all other California employees of Defendant claims that Defendant has failed to pay all overtime wages due to non-exempt employees. Defendant pays their employees bonuses and commissions which are not included in the employees regular rate of pay for the purposes of computing the proper overtime rate. As a result, employees are not properly compensated for work performed in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday and work performed in excess of forty (40) hours in a workweek at a rate of no less than one and one-half times the regular rate of pay. These failures to pay all overtime wages constitute violations of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and 1194.2.

Defendants failed to issue Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees accurately itemized wage statements. As Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and Defendants' California employees with all wages due, as detailed above, their wage statements failed to accurately state all gross wages earned, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(1), total hours worked, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(2), and net wages earned, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(5), and all applicable hourly rates during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked, in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(9), as a result of Defendants' failure to pay all overtime wages due. These violations also violate Labor Code §§ 226(e) and 226.3 with respect to Plaintiff and Defendants' California employees.

Defendants knowingly and intentionally failed to provide Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees timely, accurate, itemized wage statements in accordance with Labor Code § 226 and keep accurate records as required by §1174(d). The statements provided to Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees, and the records maintained by Defendants, have not accurately reflected actual gross wages earned, including pay for all hours worked, overtime, and meal/rest premiums, and total hour worked.

Our client further alleges that Defendants paid her and Defendant's California employees their final wages beyond the time frames set forth in Labor Code §§ 201 and 202. As they were not paid all wages due and owing throughout the course of their employment as a result of Defendants' failure to pay all premium wages as detailed above, at the time of their separation, they were not paid all final wages due and owing for the entirety of their employment. This violates Labor Code §§ 201-203.

Defendant pays Plaintiff and it's California employees on a bi-monthly basis and has failed to comply with Labor Code § 204(a) which holds that wages earned on a bi-monthly basis must be paid no later than ten calendar days following the close of the payroll period. Due to the violations described above, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees did not receive all of their wages earned in a timely manner as required by Labor Code § 204(a)(b) and 201.3.

Defendant failed to reimburse Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees for the mileage they incurred performing certain tasks or running errands on behalf of Defendant. Defendant failed to reimburse its California employees for using their personal cell phones for the benefit of Defendant. Labor Code section 2802 provides that "[a]n employer shall indemnify his or her employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties." As such, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees have incurred reasonable and necessary expenses in the course of their job duties, which were not reimbursed by Defendant, in violation of Labor Code § 2802.

Defendants failed to pay all wages earned to Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees as a result of the unlawful employment policies and practices herein. As a result of these practices, Plaintiff and Defendant's California employees were underpaid for hours worked, including overtime and penalty wages, and this underpayment resulted in a failure to pay all wages owed twice per month. Due to this failure, Defendants are liable under Labor Code § 210 for failure to pay wages as required by law.

We invite Defendants or its attorney(s) to contact our office to discuss this matter, including whether an early resolution of the claims can be reached.

Our office awaits your response.

Very truly yours,
